The Savings Bank of Minneapolis

Has discovered two things during the past year.

First: That there is abundant room for it to do a large business. Second: That its methods have attracted the most intelligent class of Savings Bank Depositors.

The Bank accepts deposits of $1.00 and up on Pass Book Accounts. Interest, 5 per cent on sums left a full quarter.

It also issues 5 per cent Certificates of Deposit in sums of $100 or multiples thereof left till first January next. Interest begins on the first of each month.

Banking hours: Daily 10 a. m. till 3 p. m. Saturday, 9 a. m. till noon. Extra: Monday evenings, 6 till 8 p. m.

RELIEF FOR FINNS MUST BUILD THE "Y"

Committee of Finnish-Americans Will Work for Relief of Their Sufferers at Home.

The Journal Will Receive Contributions for Relief of Any Who Are Famine Stricken.

A committee of the Finnish-American citizens has been organized to solicit funds for the relief of their suffering fellow countrymen at home.

"We ask permission to call your attention to the fact that owing to the failure of crops in Finland this year, there are over 200,000 Finns on the verge of starvation.

To this fund the committee to-day reported the following subscriptions: N. O. Jensen, $100; J. A. Smith, $100; J. E. Bergstrom, $100; J. H. Soderberg, $100; J. W. N. L. Newell & Co., $100; J. H. Soderberg, $100; J. W. N. L. Newell & Co., $100; J. H. Soderberg, $100; J. W. N. L. Newell & Co., $100.

The Journal has been asked to receive contributions for this relief work in the Scandinavian peninsula, and will be glad to aid in any way the promotion of this commendable undertaking.

It may be more convenient for some to make their contributions at the Journal office or through the Journal than in any other way, and any such contributions made will be receipted for by publication and forwarded to proper committees.

The Journal suggests that contributors, if they have any preference as to whether their money shall be used for relief in Finland or Sweden, or in the Scandinavian peninsula, and will be glad to aid in any way the promotion of this commendable undertaking.

BAKERS' COLLEGE

Bakers National Association Is Considering Plan of Establishing a Training School.

Meeting of Executive Committee to Be Held Here.

W. M. Regan last week attended a meeting of the executive committee of the Bakers National Association in New York, and arranged to have the April meeting of the committee held in Minneapolis.

The association is seriously considering establishing a technical school for the training of bakers and Mr. Regan is advocating the claims of Minneapolis and thinks the prospects are fair for having this city selected as the place for the school. The matter will be considered further at the April meeting.
