THINGS WORTH KNOWING

Bits of Scrapbook Wisdom on Various Household Topics.

Coal oil if kept in a very cold place, such as the outer kitchen, in winter, will smell disagreeably when burned, says Good Housekeeping. It should never go into the lamps very cold. If the large tank cannot conveniently be kept indoors, fill a small can for each day's use and let it stand over night in the corner of the closet. One woman who had been having endless trouble with her lamps and throwing away money on new burners was told by the oilman that the trouble lay in keeping her oil tank in a freezing shed outside. Since she had transferred it into the cellar the troublesome odors are no longer noticed. Perhaps much of the trouble we hear about with coal oil stoves may arise in this simple mistake.

Helpful Items—Paint spots may be removed with equal parts of ammonia and spirits of turpentine. Saturate the spot with or three times, then wash out with some pure soap. To remove stains of mildew, rub plenty of soap and chalk upon the stain, then place the garment where the bright sunshine will fall directly upon it. It may be necessary to apply the soap and chalk more than once.

A towel folded, dipped in hot water, wrung out rapidly and applied to the stomach, acts like magic in cases of colic.

A simple dessert whose garnishings give it quite the company touch starts with some small light cakes baked in round tins and served fresh from the oven, with a hot chocolate sauce poured over them and a spoonful of whipped cream placed lightly on top of each.

Bananas can be served as a vegetable if they are not green. Cut the fruit in halves, stew twenty-five minutes in a very little water, drain, cover with a cream sauce such as is used with cauliflower, and serve hot. The ripe fruit is delicious as a garnish to meat. Cut round slices from ripe firm bananas, fry in butter, and lay a few on top and around a broiled steak as it goes to the table.

"Collar" is the unusual name applied in England to a preparation of meat that is only slightly different from one often served here. Equal parts of cold cooked ham and tongue are put through the meat chopper, and afterward pounded to paste. A little dry mustard added, and the whole heated. When warm press down in a bowl, put on a weight, and let stand to get cold, and pack into form. Slice thin and serve at luncheon and supper.

"THE SIEGE OF PEKING." will be given in the Swedish Free Mission church, Twelfth avenue S and Seventh street, Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, by Rev. Magnus Book. Mr. Book arrived in Peking on his return to Europe at the beginning of the Boxer war and spent six weeks of the English legation during the six weeks of constant attack by the Chinese soldiers. The lecture will be in the Swedish language and admittance will be free.

SENSITIVE CLUB MEMBERS

New Century Club Objects to Publicity of the Federation.

The conservative element in the New Century club of St. Paul has at last rebelled against the publicity of the assumption of any duties to the public and has decided to withdraw from the Minnesota Federation of Clubs, of which it has always been a rather unwilling and uncomfortable member. In joining, it was overpersuaded by some of the members who do not agree with the shrinking, exclusive attitude of the majority, and many of the members have never taken any interest in the federation or its aims and have deplored the attention that was attracted to the club through its connection with the state organization that stood for advanced work of an aggressive sort.

The New Century club is one of the largest and oldest in the state and even its passive support was worth something and its loss will be regretted. No working strength is to be lost to the federation for the group of women in the club who have personally identified themselves with the federation still retain their membership and active interest through other organizations. This element is also planning to organize a new club that will be in full accord with federation ideas, although modeled in the main upon the New Century club. It is not proposed to withdraw from the old club, but will merely have another in which they can carry out their more advanced ideas without friction.

FEDERATION LUNCHEON MUSIC

Some Fine Solos and Miss Hope's Orchestra.

It seems quite probable that there will be a falling off this year in the attendance of the Minneapolis club women at the midwinter breakfast, for very little enthusiasm seems to have been aroused, although there is every prospect that the affair will be admirably managed and will offer a delightful as well as a pleasant social occasion also of tickets closes Monday at noon.

An especial effort is being made to encourage a large attendance of out of town women and special rates have been arranged which will permit them to spend the week in the cities, the rates becoming effective Monday and lasting for the return until Feb. 16.

In addition to a bright program of solos, Miss Hope's orchestra will furnish music during the luncheon hour and Mrs. R. B. Dorr has provided a musical program which includes a soprano solo by Mrs. M. W. Graves, an aria from the Queen of Sheba; Gounod; a contralto solo, Mrs. C. O. Kiefer, with violin obligato by Harry Dorr; a violin solo, "Romance," by Svendsen; Harry Dorr.

The gathering of club women will be held at the Standard hotel, Ryan annex, at 11 o'clock; and the luncheon at 12 o'clock. The program will be served as hostess at each of the small tables on which the luncheon is to be served.

Membership Contest Banquet.

The Nelle G. Burger Y. W. C. T. U. recently engaged in a membership contest. The "Y" was equally divided, and each side worked well, the contest closing two weeks ago. The contest was won by the new members of which the Nelle Burger's are justly proud. Last evening the winning side was banqueted by the defeated, and the various "Y" of the city were also guests of honor.

The banquet was held in the parlors of the Vine Congregational church. A delightful program was rendered by the principal participants being little Miss Berenice Morrison, who showed exceptional talent in her charming piano selections. The eastern roads, which were placed in the form of a "Y" and were decorated with white and green. Mrs. Alice Warrington and Mrs. J. D. Morrison presided.

A Missionary Tea.

The Woman's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church gave a tea last evening in the church parlors for members and their husbands. A bountiful meal was served and later an interesting program was given. Miss Lois Morse played a piano solo, and Mrs. E. Barton gave a talk on the role of the missionary women. Mrs. D. L. Kiehl spoke for foreign missions and Mrs. D. C. Clark on the subject of "Our Church." Mrs. E. R. Ely and Mrs. Cleone Bergson sang and Mrs. Bergson also gave a recitation. A fire will be offered to the society with a neat little sum for its work.

Life in Manila.

Miss Annie A. Robbins, formerly chief nurse in United States hospitals, will lecture in the city on "Life in Manila," illustrating her talk with curios brought from the Philippine islands. Miss Robbins' lectures will be of special interest to missionary workers, and those who have been privileged to hear her give her the most practical and accurate and picturesque portrayal of conditions in the islands. Tuesday evening the lecture will be given in Stewart Memorial Presbyterian church, Thirty-second street and Stevens avenue under the auspices of the Mary Bradford Missionary society of the church, and the English Ladies' Aid society. The lecture will be given in the dining room of the First Presbyterian church, Nineteenth street and Portland avenue.

A Program on Charities.

The regular meeting of the Minnesota branch of the Collegiate Alumnae association was held this afternoon at the home of the president, Miss Clara Kelliger, in St. Paul. The program was in charge of the committee on charities and talks were given by J. F. Jackson, secretary of the Minneapolis Associated Charities, and A. W. Gulderson, secretary of the St. Paul Associated Charities.

Y. W. C. A. Vesper Service.

Rev. W. W. Dawley will address the meeting in the new building of the Young Women's Christian Association, 87 Seventh street, to-morrow at 4 o'clock. The Misses Simmons and Erickson will be assisted on the reception committee by some of the North Branch members.

CLUBS NOTES.

St. Paul's guild will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, instead of Tuesday with Mrs. H. L. Trout, 2221 Girard avenue S.

The Ladies' Social Circle of the Church of the Redeemer will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Monday club will meet next week with Mrs. Frank Carleton, 1825 Portland avenue. Mr. Case will speak on "The Influence of Mechanical Inventions."

Railroads A BOARD TO FIX RATES Eastern and Western Lines Will Have Board to Settle Freight Rate Questions. Representatives of the Michigan Central, the Pennsylvania, the Erie, the Milwaukee, the Omaha and the Wisconsin Central will form a board to which will be referred questions of freight rates. The board results from the differences, last December, between the eastern and western lines, because of the advance of 2 1/2 cents in the rates on the Erie, the Milwaukee and the Wisconsin Central. The board will be organized to take effect on Jan. 15. When the eastern roads demanded their share of the through rate, the western roads protested so loudly that it is said the eastern connections relinquished their claims.

WHO IS BUYING? Options on St. Paul Railroad Property Being Secured by Someone. St. Paul is stirred up over some transfers in lower town and by the discovery that options on the property exist. It is disclosed that the land actually sold was bought for Northern Pacific terminal improvements. A fire will be offered to the society with a neat little sum for its work.

Reading Dividend. The directors of the Reading at a special meeting yesterday declared a semiannual dividend of 2 per cent on the first stock of the company payable March 1. The board also elected a Vanderbilt representative to the directorate in the person of H. McK. Twombly of New York to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. A. Vanderbilt. The property optioned is at the foot of the streets from Fourth to Ninth inclusive. The property south of Seventh street was bought by the Northern Improvement association, a Northern Pacific company. The transfer will be made to the railroad company before May 1. The options have been taken on the Prince, Lee, Tubbsing, Simpson, Campbell and other estates north of Seventh street.

Barrington Hall This chaff remains in coffees ground in the ordinary way. As shown by chemical analysis, chaff contains none of the valuable properties of coffee, but the stringy principle, tannin (whose common use is to convert hides into leather). Its removal from coffee produces a drink so pure and healthful as to be used by the most delicate without inconvenience. Write for free booklet on steel cut coffee to the Minneapolis office of Baker & Co. Sold in 1 lb. and 2 lb. canisters by all leading grocers.

GOLD FISH PRESENTS A HARDWARE DEALER A Suggestion for a Cozy Corner and a Present to a Lady. The time was when a young man could send a young lady nothing quite so appropriate as a box of cut flowers. As an expression of his highest sentiment nature has nothing handsomer to offer. Of course, jewels and gems have a way to a woman's heart, and of late a popular present is a pretty little gold fish in a hanging or standing fish globe. The miniature aquarium costs no more than the flowers and it is a constant source of interest. Quite appropriately the "Home of Fragrant Flowers," Northrup King & Co.'s up-town store, 714 Nicollet av., has led in the introduction. This is called "the handsomest seed and flower store in America."
