

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

MINNESOTA SANK COUNTY IRON

La Rue and Whiteside of Duluth Have Developed a Very Promising Field.

Shaft Sinking and Other Preparations for Mining Are Well Under Way.

Special to The Journal.

Duluth, Minn., March 19.—In Sank county, Wis., near Baraboo, several diamond drills have been working two years or more, under the supervision of W. G. La Rue of Duluth, Minn., and J. Whiteside, also of this city, and they have developed a very promising field. They have optioned some of their properties to the Harvester company, and the Illinois Steel company, and others, and all these are actively at work in addition to the preliminary work.

Operations on the Elizabeth. Pickands, Mather & Co. have commenced work on a shafthouse and surface improvements at the new Elizabeth mine, which they bought from the Buffalo Steel company for $350,000.

Penobscot pumps are out of the mine, and the ground for acres, it seems, is strewn with pumps, boilers, pipe, fittings, and all the appurtenances of a great iron shop.

At the new Albany, belonging to Pickands, Mather & Co., they are busy sinking a shaft and will mine heavily this year. The mine is noted as having the deepest ore body known in the state.

No Deal for Cleveland Cliffs. A recent press telegram stated that the United States Steel corporation and the Cleveland Cliffs Iron company had agreed to terminate the purchase of the former of the latter's holdings.

Little Falls, Minn.—Dr. J. R. Chance of Foyall, and N. W. Chance and H. Richards, of this city, commenced an operation which will require the grafting of 230 square inches of skin on the back of the 20-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ethen of Bismarck, who was burned about six weeks ago.

Faribault, Minn.—Peter LaFrance, who had resided here thirty-six years, died yesterday. He was a native of Canada and was 83 years old.

Cloquet, Minn.—The Northern hotel was gutted by a fire which broke out about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The loss to the building and contents is about $15,000, partly insured.

Professor Lord Resigns. King of Park Rapids Will Be Superintendent at Aitkin.

Montague and Bucklen. Crookston's Candidates for the New Place on the District Bench.

Crookston, Minn.—Now that the bill creating a new judiciary in the Crookston district has become a law, the aspirants for the position are coming to the front.

Spring Valley, Minn.—During a heavy electrical storm last night the Congregational parsonage was struck by lightning, but the damage was slight.

Jackson, Minn.—Alex. Fiddles, who was appointed by the governor to receive contributions for the famine sufferers, has sent $500 to Jackson county to the head committee.

Waseca, Minn.—The district court opened this morning, Judge Buckham of Faribault presiding. There is but one case for the grand jury.

Hubbard, Iowa.—I. B. Broer of this place arrived at Lincoln, Neb., just in time to prevent the dissection of the body of his brother, Henry Broer, on the table of a medical student at that university.

IOWA THREE STATE CASES

Iowa Attorney General to Push Suits Against Alleged Recrants State Officers.

Judgment Against Ex-Secretary McFarland May Be Collected of His Bondsmen.

Special to The Journal.

Des Moines, Iowa, March 19.—Three long-pending state cases are soon to be pressed by Attorney General Mullan. One of these is the action begun months ago against ex-Clerk C. T. Jones.

The case against Lafayette Young, in which the state is suing for about $5,000, representing alleged overcharges for binding while Young was state binder, will be brought to a trial at this term.

At the January term of the supreme court, the state secured an affirmation of the judgment of the lower court in the case of the state vs. ex-Secretary of State W. M. McFarland.

Good Roads Convention. Governor Cummins has decided to call a state good roads convention to meet in Des Moines, Iowa, on the 25th of this month.

Acquitted on Second Trial. Frank W. Bell Tried for Manslaughter at Austin.

Austin, Minn.—Frank W. Bell, charged with manslaughter, was found not guilty, after the jury had been out three hours and ten minutes.

Morris, Minn.—The new council elected all the officers at the annual meeting of the Commercial Exchange.

Pipestone, Minn.—John A. Holmes has been engaged to deliver the commencement address to the graduating class of the Pipestone Normal school.

Faribault, Minn.—Peter LaFrance, who had resided here thirty-six years, died yesterday.

Cloquet, Minn.—The Northern hotel was gutted by a fire which broke out about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Montague and Bucklen. Crookston's Candidates for the New Place on the District Bench.

Crookston, Minn.—Now that the bill creating a new judiciary in the Crookston district has become a law, the aspirants for the position are coming to the front.

Spring Valley, Minn.—During a heavy electrical storm last night the Congregational parsonage was struck by lightning, but the damage was slight.

Jackson, Minn.—Alex. Fiddles, who was appointed by the governor to receive contributions for the famine sufferers, has sent $500 to Jackson county to the head committee.

Waseca, Minn.—The district court opened this morning, Judge Buckham of Faribault presiding.

Hubbard, Iowa.—I. B. Broer of this place arrived at Lincoln, Neb., just in time to prevent the dissection of the body of his brother, Henry Broer, on the table of a medical student at that university.

WISCONSIN DEBATE IS CANCELLED

Peck Cannot Take Part Because of Injury

Applington, Wis.—A football injury has cancelled the debate arranged to take place in this city April 10 between teams representing Lawrence university of Applington and Upper Iowa university of Falls, Iowa.

Herbert M. Peck, of Beaver Dam, leader of the Lawrence team, was yesterday examined by physicians and forbidden to take part in the debate and ordered to discontinue all study or mental work of any kind for a year.

The company is achieving remarkable success, considering that its plant has only been in commission about three months and that there were numerous problems to overcome in the metallurgy of the ore.

Notorious Minnie Ross. Passes Off the Stage at Hurley Amid Scenes of Degradation.

Hurley, Wis.—The remains of Minnie Ross, better known as Minnie LeClair, or "Minnie Ross," were taken to Chicago for burial in the city of Chicago.

Milwaukee, Wis.—F. C. Reynolds, who has been secretary and local manager of the Goodrich Transportation company for eight years, resigned to become general manager of the new Manitowish Ludington & Milwaukee Transportation company.

Racine, Wis.—Manufacturers are to form an association to guard against all strikes or labor agitators.

Ashtland, Wis.—Mrs. Nathaniel Stevens was found dead at her home, the telephone and the lock on the door were broken and the furniture was strewn around.

Oshkosh, Wis.—This city was visited by a severe electrical rain storm last night. Havoc was wrought with wires.

Michigan In Favor of Blind Miner. All Other Candidates for Township Treasurer Hired Withdrawn.

Hancock, Mich.—Cleanliness, fairness and regard for the other fellow have been exemplified in the campaign for the township of Franklin township.

Escanaba, Mich.—The new ore dock of the North-Western railroad will go into commission about the time navigation on the lake opens.

Muskegon, Mich.—The steamer Stafford was freed from the ice at 2 a. m. by the Goodrich line steamer Atlanta.

Ironwood, Mich.—A party of twenty-five Swedish and Finnish miners left this section this week, following the departure of a score of others some days ago.

Houghton, Mich.—Joseph Markus and William Nichols, charged with stealing copper from the Tamarack and Osceola companies, have been held for examination.

Marquette, Mich.—Joseph Crosslitter, or Crucher, as it appears on the county records, is in all probability the oldest man in the state.

Bessemer, Mich.—Captain Knight of the Tilden mine, present mayor, has reconsidered his declination to run again and will stand for re-election.

Manistiquic, Mich.—A car load of mangle rollers, numbering 1,500, has just been forwarded to Liverpool, England.

SOUTH DAKOTA ENTIRELY NEW BODY

Penobscot's New Find of Ore Will Be Treated at Smelters in Denver.

Actor James Hackett and Associate Quit When but Four Feet From Rich Ore.

Special to The Journal.

Matland, S. D., March 19.—An entire new body of ore is said to have been encountered in the westerly drift from the bottom of the Realization shaft of the Penobscot Gold Mining company.

The company is achieving remarkable success, considering that its plant has only been in commission about three months and that there were numerous problems to overcome in the metallurgy of the ore.

Finest in the West. Supreme Council to Dedicate Yankton's New Masonic Temple.

Yankton, S. D.—The magnificent new Masonic Temple will be dedicated tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Supreme Council to Dedicate Yankton's New Masonic Temple. Yankton, S. D.—The magnificent new Masonic Temple will be dedicated tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Cattle Picking Up. Ten Per Cent the Heaviest Loss from the Winter's Hardships.

Pierre, S. D.—Stockmen from practically every portion of the range have been in this city the past week, and report it practically clear of snow and cattle ranging and feeding in every direction.

Madison, S. D.—A picture canvasser, who gave his name as Michael Ginsburg, is the first victim of the new peddlers' license law.

MONTANA AN EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Sawmill Workers of Western Montana Will Demand It Commencing on April 1.

Operators Oppose the Change and Are Menaced by a Tie-up of Their Plants.

Special to The Journal.

Missoula, Mont., March 19.—There is a prospect that western Montana will see some stirring labor troubles arising from orders sent out by the state bodies of sawmill workers, who have given operators notice that commencing April 1 eight hours will constitute a day's work instead of nine.

From sources thoroughly reliable it is learned that the operators will not grant the concession demanded.

Labor unions, the departments of which are closely organized from the farm laborers to the most skilled trades, have recently commenced assertive tactics quite unusual here.

Montana Club's Steward. Chairman of Gambling Investigating Committee is Himself on the Rack.

Helena, Mont.—The preliminary examination of Henry A. Meyer, charged with running a gambling house, was held yesterday and at a late hour both sides rested.

Northwest Weddings. Pipestone, Minn.—At the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morgan their daughter, Jessie F., was united in marriage to Herman Genauet.

Iowa Falls, Iowa.—E. J. Jennish and Miss Ella Benesh were married at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a small company of friends and relatives.

Waseca, Minn.—The district court opened this morning, Judge Buckham of Faribault presiding.

Hubbard, Iowa.—I. B. Broer of this place arrived at Lincoln, Neb., just in time to prevent the dissection of the body of his brother, Henry Broer, on the table of a medical student at that university.

Cloquet, Minn.—The Northern hotel was gutted by a fire which broke out about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Montague and Bucklen. Crookston's Candidates for the New Place on the District Bench.

Crookston, Minn.—Now that the bill creating a new judiciary in the Crookston district has become a law, the aspirants for the position are coming to the front.

Spring Valley, Minn.—During a heavy electrical storm last night the Congregational parsonage was struck by lightning, but the damage was slight.

Jackson, Minn.—Alex. Fiddles, who was appointed by the governor to receive contributions for the famine sufferers, has sent $500 to Jackson county to the head committee.

Waseca, Minn.—The district court opened this morning, Judge Buckham of Faribault presiding.

Hubbard, Iowa.—I. B. Broer of this place arrived at Lincoln, Neb., just in time to prevent the dissection of the body of his brother, Henry Broer, on the table of a medical student at that university.

WEST VIRGINIA ENTIRELY NEW BODY

Penobscot's New Find of Ore Will Be Treated at Smelters in Denver.

Actor James Hackett and Associate Quit When but Four Feet From Rich Ore.

Special to The Journal.

Matland, S. D., March 19.—An entire new body of ore is said to have been encountered in the westerly drift from the bottom of the Realization shaft of the Penobscot Gold Mining company.

The company is achieving remarkable success, considering that its plant has only been in commission about three months and that there were numerous problems to overcome in the metallurgy of the ore.

Finest in the West. Supreme Council to Dedicate Yankton's New Masonic Temple.

Yankton, S. D.—The magnificent new Masonic Temple will be dedicated tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Cattle Picking Up. Ten Per Cent the Heaviest Loss from the Winter's Hardships.

Pierre, S. D.—Stockmen from practically every portion of the range have been in this city the past week, and report it practically clear of snow and cattle ranging and feeding in every direction.

Madison, S. D.—A picture canvasser, who gave his name as Michael Ginsburg, is the first victim of the new peddlers' license law.

Michigan In Favor of Blind Miner. All Other Candidates for Township Treasurer Hired Withdrawn.

Hancock, Mich.—Cleanliness, fairness and regard for the other fellow have been exemplified in the campaign for the township of Franklin township.

Escanaba, Mich.—The new ore dock of the North-Western railroad will go into commission about the time navigation on the lake opens.

Muskegon, Mich.—The steamer Stafford was freed from the ice at 2 a. m. by the Goodrich line steamer Atlanta.

Ironwood, Mich.—A party of twenty-five Swedish and Finnish miners left this section this week, following the departure of a score of others some days ago.

Houghton, Mich.—Joseph Markus and William Nichols, charged with stealing copper from the Tamarack and Osceola companies, have been held for examination.

Marquette, Mich.—Joseph Crosslitter, or Crucher, as it appears on the county records, is in all probability the oldest man in the state.

Bessemer, Mich.—Captain Knight of the Tilden mine, present mayor, has reconsidered his declination to run again and will stand for re-election.

Manistiquic, Mich.—A car load of mangle rollers, numbering 1,500, has just been forwarded to Liverpool, England.

WEST VIRGINIA ENTIRELY NEW BODY

Penobscot's New Find of Ore Will Be Treated at Smelters in Denver.

Actor James Hackett and Associate Quit When but Four Feet From Rich Ore.

Special to The Journal.

Matland, S. D., March 19.—An entire new body of ore is said to have been encountered in the westerly drift from the bottom of the Realization shaft of the Penobscot Gold Mining company.

The company is achieving remarkable success, considering that its plant has only been in commission about three months and that there were numerous problems to overcome in the metallurgy of the ore.

Finest in the West. Supreme Council to Dedicate Yankton's New Masonic Temple.

Yankton, S. D.—The magnificent new Masonic Temple will be dedicated tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Cattle Picking Up. Ten Per Cent the Heaviest Loss from the Winter's Hardships.

Pierre, S. D.—Stockmen from practically every portion of the range have been in this city the past week, and report it practically clear of snow and cattle ranging and feeding in every direction.

Madison, S. D.—A picture canvasser, who gave his name as Michael Ginsburg, is the first victim of the new peddlers' license law.

Michigan In Favor of Blind Miner. All Other Candidates for Township Treasurer Hired Withdrawn.

Hancock, Mich.—Cleanliness, fairness and regard for the other fellow have been exemplified in the campaign for the township of Franklin township.

Escanaba, Mich.—The new ore dock of the North-Western railroad will go into commission about the time navigation on the lake opens.

Muskegon, Mich.—The steamer Stafford was freed from the ice at 2 a. m. by the Goodrich line steamer Atlanta.

Ironwood, Mich.—A party of twenty-five Swedish and Finnish miners left this section this week, following the departure of a score of others some days ago.

Houghton, Mich.—Joseph Markus and William Nichols, charged with stealing copper from the Tamarack and Osceola companies, have been held for examination.

Marquette, Mich.—Joseph Crosslitter, or Crucher, as it appears on the county records, is in all probability the oldest man in the state.

Bessemer, Mich.—Captain Knight of the Tilden mine, present mayor, has reconsidered his declination to run again and will stand for re-election.

Manistiquic, Mich.—A car load of mangle rollers, numbering 1,500, has just been forwarded to Liverpool, England.

Advertisement for 'BABY'S VOICE' and 'MOTHER'S FRIEND' medicine, describing its benefits for infants and mothers.

Large advertisement for 'Golden Medical Discovery' featuring a testimonial and a drawing of a man holding a bottle. Text includes '$3000 FORFEIT' and 'The above will cheerfully be paid in lawful money of the United States...'.