TICKETS RUN OUT CAUGHT THE 'PIGEON' REFERRED TO UNIONS

Four Thousand Will Hear Address of President at Army Saturday Night.

Occupants of Building Along the Line of March Requested to Decorate.

Tickets of admission to President Roosevelt's address at the university armory, Saturday night, have been exhausted. Four thousand have been distributed as widely as possible. The 500 Grand Army tickets were distributed to Adjutant General Orton S. Clark for allotment to the post commanders. The 600 labor tickets were given to Harry Dix of the Trade Union Labor Council. Members of the Commercial club received one ticket each, others were distributed among the members of the Loyal Legion and Sons of Veterans, the city and county officials, and the regents of the university. The remaining tickets were dealt out one by one to each comer until the supply gave out yesterday afternoon.

The ticket arrangement is very simple. Only 300 seats have been reserved, 50 for the press, 100 for the Roosevelt Marching club, 150 for the members of the dinner party who could not secure seats otherwise. The press tickets are blue, the other reserved tickets red. The ticket takers are instructed to pass red and blue tickets at the door and they will be used to claim reserved seats. As no opportunity will be given to the president enter the armory, and positively no outdoor address will be given it is not expected that there will be any crush at the door.

Decorate Route of March. The entertainment committee has sent requests to the occupants of buildings along the route to decorate as far as possible. The committee is enthusiastic over the plan suggested by University avenue—the illumination of all windows along the route. The fraternity chapter houses will be illuminated. The Southeast Improvement association has taken the matter up and President F. B. Day is looking after this plan. The East Side high school will be brightly lighted, also.

Mayor's Secretary Frank McDonald today made arrangements with a big Nicollet avenue contractor to furnish a supply of bunting with which to decorate the old city hall for the president's visit Saturday. As the president will not pass the historic structure until after dark Saturday evening, and consequently will not get a glimpse of its classic outlines, the necessity of bunting in that quarter is not a matter of course, it is explained. In this connection, however, it will cover up some of the vacant windows and present a pleasing sight to the thousands of visitors who will come to Minneapolis Saturday just to see the president.

The entertainment committee has completed the carriage list for fourteen vehicles and mailed it to Secretary W. H. Losh at Milwaukee.

At the Hotel Nicollet the dining-room decoration will be elaborate and chiefly floral in its nature. William Donaldson & Co. have charge of this work.

Noted Guests at the Dinner. Acceptances for the dinner are coming fast. Among the prominent personages who will sit down with the president are Governor Samuel Van Sant, Lieutenant Governor Ray W. Jones, Senators Nelson and Clapp; Congressmen John Lind and Loren Fletcher of Minneapolis; J. T. Peters of Manhattan, Halvor Stoenerson of Crookston, J. A. Jones of Winona, C. B. Buckman of Little Falls, A. J. Volstad of Granite Falls and C. R. Davis of St. Cloud. Archbishop Ireland, C. W. Bunn and C. E. Mullen of St. Paul, George H. Briggman of Hamline, L. W. Babcock of Wadena, speaker of the house, Mayor J. C. Haynes, President of the Council, and the city judges and Judge Ell Torrance of Minneapolis.

The president's party will include twenty-four guests. There will be present also the seven members of the St. Paul reception committee and seven from Minneapolis.

The first railroad excursion rate ticket for the Roosevelt visit to the twin cities was put in effect this morning by R. W. Thompson of the Twin City Passenger association. The ticket was sold in Eau Claire.

Varsity Cadets as Body Guard. The university corps cadets has been asked to act as a body guard for President Roosevelt at the armory. Owing to the limited number of tickets, however, no provision has been made for the students to hear the address. But President Northrop has announced his intention of asking the president to speak to the students in the chapel. If any such arrangement can possibly be made, the students will meet in the chapel shortly before the close of the regular program, and President Roosevelt will drive there at a special hour.

AN ELABORATE PARADE. St. Paul Plans Function in Honor of the President. St. Paul will have an elaborate parade in honor of President Roosevelt. It will have eight divisions in charge of Chief Marshal J. J. McCarty. The Twenty-first infantry, U. S. A., will be in the first division. Other organizations will be in line at the Grand Army post, the Roosevelt club, the Army of the Philippines, Spanish War Veterans, National Guard, Tenth battery, field artillery, U. S. A., and the Twenty-first infantry.

NO HELP FROM THE MAYOR. He Thinks Park Board Right in Trying to Remove Pavilion at Hohen. Henry S. Mead, attorney for several of the Minnehaha pavilion proprietors, whom the park board is trying to drive out of business at Minnehaha park, conferred with Mayor J. C. Haynes in that connection this morning. Mr. Mead asked the mayor to use his good offices in behalf of the former's clients and declared that the board was about to do a rank injustice.

Mr. Mead questioned the board's wisdom in attempting to monopolize the refreshment business by erecting a pavilion of its own. He has positively declared as would tend to exclude private stands about the park from participation therein. "It seems to me," he said, "that the public interest ought to be consulted in this matter. The public does not want those stands there they probably wouldn't patronize them, and if the residents of that vicinity who think Minnehaha park was designed especially for them, object to private refreshment pavilions, why don't they buy the land on which the stands are located instead of asking the park board to make the purchase?" Mr. Mead insisted that the pavilions were an unsightly row of shacks entirely out of keeping with their beautiful surroundings and expressed the belief that the board was fully justified in demanding their removal or in arranging to put up a high fence with which to screen them from the public view. If attractive pavilions could be substituted for present structures, he had no doubt that the chief objection would be removed.

Patrolman Fox's Prisoner Alleged to Have Been Two Detectives' Decoy.

They Caught the Other Man Easily—Some Nice Questions Raised.

To what extent are detectives in the employ of the city entitled to use stool pigeons in catching criminals and what is the status of the stool pigeons who are used? These are questions that may be settled when William Catlin and David Gullickson are arraigned in court to-morrow. Catlin was arrested last night emerging from the rear of the 24 Central avenue, while Gullickson, who was Catlin's partner, was picked up a few minutes later by Patrolman Peter Fox of the East Side station. It now transpires that Gullickson was the detectives' "stool pigeon" but Patrolman Fox says he will appear against him.

The officers heard that Catlin was contemplating "turning some tricks" on the East Side and they induced Gullickson to engage in the affair with Catlin. The two planned to raid the saloon of A. F. Rioux last night. The detectives planted themselves in the rear and when Catlin emerged he was arrested. He had taken nothing.

Catlin, on the other hand, says he was with Gullickson last night and Gullickson picked out the rear window of Fox saloon and came through it. He opened the front door and let him in. When he entered, he heard a noise at the rear door and going there, found both officers with their revolvers pointed at him. He tried the matter as a joke and went along with them only to find that he was to be locked up on a charge of burglary.

Gullickson stated away after Catlin had entered the saloon. Patrolman Fox followed and arrested him. He is held at the central police station while his case is investigated. He was released after several times before.

Orders were issued to-day to prevent reporters from interviewing Gullickson. Catlin had been arrested by Patrolman Fox. "I want to see Gorman and Vaughn. They will have to fix this matter in some way."

Catlin has been a steady worker, having been employed by the Bond Transfer company for several months. He has never been in trouble before.

ELLEN KIRKWOOD DIES

Little Girl Accidentally Shot in the Body by Boy With a Target Rifle.

Ellen Kirkwood, the 9-year-old daughter of Richard Kirkwood, assistant auditor of the Soo road, residing at 2367 Carlton avenue, St. Anthony park, was accidentally shot yesterday afternoon by a neighbor boy. The bullet, 22-calibre, lodged in the left side of the abdomen and caused a wound from which the child died about noon at St. Mary's hospital in this city.

Dan McLellan and Guy Valleau were shooting in the woods near their home. The little Kirkwood girl and a daughter of Dr. Cannon were playing near. The McLellan boy was shooting and just as he pulled the trigger the girl ran between him and the target. The bullet struck her in the abdomen.

Dr. Cannon was summoned and had the child taken to St. Mary's hospital where Dr. J. H. Dunn dressed the wound.

E., Miss Alice Johnson; secretary of the Miss Eva McCord; treasurer, Mrs. J. M. Gray.

In the afternoon Mrs. Lee presented the president's address, taking as her subject "The Threefold Cord." Miss Alice Hyslop, a member of the home board, told of her work and Rev. W. H. Trades and Labor Council's Action on Proposed Purchase of Old City Hall.

Desirability of Site for Park Purposes Is Urged Before the Council.

Roy Durand Herriek and Wallace G. Nye, secretary of the public affairs committee of the Commercial club, attended a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last evening to urge the desirability of creating a public park on the site of the old city hall, such a park to make the site of Larkin Meade's statue of the Father of Waters.

Mr. Nye addressed the council briefly, stating the position of the Commercial club, and its attitude toward the plans of organized labor to have a temple. Mr. Nye told of a trip made to several large cities on behalf of the club to see what such cities were doing toward civic beautification. He mentioned Cleveland in particular which is spending large sums of money to obtain and improve just such a place giving access to the city from the union station.

Mr. Nye said that the club would forward any money for securing for labor organizations another site for the construction of a temple. For the future good of the city which in time would be the attention of Mrs. Vrooman, it is held by Minneapolis, he said, the site of the old city hall should be devoted to a park.

Mr. Nye and Mr. Herriek then withdrew and the Council then discussed the subject thoroughly. Sentiment was divided, some favoring the plan of purchasing the old city hall for a labor temple and others suggesting that the site should be used with profit and otherwise satisfactory results acquire, remodel and maintain the old city hall for a labor temple.

FRANK EDDY'S BEE

It Is Buzzing "Governor, Governor" and He's Disposed to Listen.

His Visit to St. Paul May Contribute Materially to His Decision.

Frank Eddy's boom for governor is the gossip about the legislative halls at St. Paul to-day. The Glenwood statesman was expected to arrive in St. Paul but had not appeared up to noon. He is understood to be considering the matter seriously, and to encourage the use of his name by his friends while here.

It is already a tentative candidate for governor. Much depends on the reception he gets at the hands of the members, particularly the seventh district delegation in the legislature. Mr. Eddy's visit is understood to be with a view of finding out how he stands, and especially if he can command the solid support of his own district. He will confer with his friends while here and is expected to decide in a few days whether he will enter the field with a formal announcement.

ONLY ONE EXAMINATION

Plan Proposed to Relieve the Medical Students of Some Unnecessary Work.

Arrangements may be made in the near future whereby the final examinations in the university medical school will be taken at the same time. Now, the seniors are compelled to take two examinations in anatomy and physiology here worked. The medical faculty has as yet taken no definite action but if the proposed changes are made in the medical curriculum, requiring the degree of A. B. for medical graduates, it is understood to be made so that the license examination will be the only one required of the seniors and their diplomas will admit them to practice.

This rule is in operation in several states where the medical schools have a recognized standing and some of the instructors in anatomy and physiology here have favored such a plan for some time.

SAMPLES OF INDIAN ART LODGE IS OPTIMISTIC A Fine Collection of Chippewa Bead Work to Be Shown in Minneapolis. He Believes That Congress Will Ratify the Cuban Treaty at Once.

From The Journal Bureau, 2-5, Post Building, Washington, April 2.—Senator Lodge of Massachusetts believes that concurrent action of the house and senate to make the Cuban reciprocity treaty effective will be taken very quickly after congress convenes in extra session next November. "There is no doubt, in my judgment, that the necessary legislation approving the Cuban treaty will be passed promptly on the assembling of the special session of congress next November," said he to-day. "The democratic hopes of precipitating an extensive tariff debate based on the Cuban treaty question will be frustrated because the proposed legislation will take the form of a simple joint resolution of approval which will not be subject to amendment in either house. Senator Lodge said that the adoption of the Bacon amendment was merely an expedient designed to disarm an opposing factor which maintained that on constitutional grounds the senate could not ratify the treaty without the approval of the house. The expedient had accomplished its end, and now, in the judgment of the senator, there was little possibility of further delay. —H. C. Stevens.
