THETA DELTA DINE

A Pretty Dinner for the Fraternity Given by Miss Minnie Troendle.

The Price-Weimer Wedding Takes Place at the Latter's Hamline Home.

Miss Minnie Troendle entertained the Theta Delta Fraternity at dinner last evening at her home on Garfield avenue S. The rooms were decorated in the fraternity colors, yellow and green, and the fraternity flower, the daisy, was prominently used. The place cards were adorned with sketches of flowers. A musical program was given after dinner, for which covers were laid for ten. The fraternity has had its clubhouse at 1100, Third floor, at Troendle residence, and as a token of their appreciation, the members presented Mrs. Troendle with a handsome souvenir silver set, consisting of a beer and wine glass over blue silk and carried red roses. The bride entered with her father. Her gown was of white mull over white silk and her flowers were bride roses. Joseph Austin of Minneapolis was the guest of honor at the informal reception which followed, the Misses Maud Wolever, Victoria Stead, Anne Horeish, Mattie McDaniel, Letting Rice, Rose Miller and Mrs. E. B. Waller assisted through the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Price will be at home after June 1 at 7 Orin avenue SE.

The Monday Card club will meet Monday with Mrs. J. J. Gerge, 3140 Lyndale avenue, instead of May 4. The marriage of Miss Edythe Irene Weimer and David Rowland Price of Minneapolis was solemnized Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weimer, in Hamline. The service was read by Rev. F. M. Rule in the presence of seventy guests. Howard Alton Treat played the wedding march and the Misses Mild and Gertrude Brown stretched the ribbons. Master Leon Pride of Manly, Iowa, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the ring. Miss Laura Stead was maid of honor and wore white organza over blue silk and carried red roses. The bride entered with her father. Her gown was of white mull over white silk and her flowers were bride roses. Joseph Austin of Minneapolis was the guest of honor at the informal reception which followed, the Misses Maud Wolever, Victoria Stead, Anne Horeish, Mattie McDaniel, Letting Rice, Rose Miller and Mrs. E. B. Waller assisted through the rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Price will be at home after June 1 at 7 Orin avenue SE.

Miss Alice Desmarais and F. Howard Vaughan were married Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Nellie Kidd on Plymouth avenue. The rooms were art-traced with pink carnations and roses, white ferns and palms banked the bay window where the service was read by Rev. F. A. Sumner. Niles and Corinne Desmarais acted as ring-bearer and flower girl. The bride wore a white brilliantine fashioned with chiffon and lace and carried bride roses. An informal reception followed for forty guests and the bride and Mrs. Nicholson of Elk River, the bride's sister, assisted in receiving. The dining-room was in pink and green. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan left last evening for Maple Plain.

A wedding that brought a bride to Minneapolis took place in Missouri, Wednesday evening, April 9, when Miss Elizabeth Fink of New Franklin, Mo., and Robert Stockton Mansur were married at the home of the bride's parents, in-law, T. V. Also, the house was elaborately decorated with Easter lilies and other spring flowers against a background of palms. Miss Mary Denham sang two numbers before the wedding march was played on violin and piano by the Misses Denham. There were no attendants and the bridal couple entered together. The bride wore her traditional gown of caudor cloth and carried a bride rose. The service was read by Rev. J. E. Dillard and was followed by a reception. Mr. Mansur and his bride went east for a wedding trip and they are now making their home in Minneapolis. Mr. Mansur is a native of Missouri and is associated in business with his uncle, Virgil Dillon, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Johnson, 2416 Humboldt avenue S, entertained, Tuesday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Drake of St. Anthony Park. A party was given Monday evening by Miss Nell Du Lac, 658 Taylor street NE, for Miss Mae Satterthwaite. Luncheon was served and a buffet course followed for the table. Covers were laid for ten. This evening Mrs. W. B. Miller will give a china shower in honor of Miss Satterthwaite.

Mrs. Max Kohn of 1012 E Eighteenth street arranged a surprise for the other evening for her niece, Miss Lena Goldberg of Philadelphia. The guests included Frances Robitsek, Bertha Lowry, Ann Dollager, Lena Dollager, Messrs. Emil Robitsek, J. Robitsek, Will Lowry and Max Robitsek. Miss Goldberg is to leave to-morrow for Chicago to visit her uncle, Wilhelm Goldberg.

The marriage of Mrs. Sadie Ryan of this city and Charles T. Kelly of Los Angeles, Cal., which occurred Tuesday, March 24, in San Francisco, has just been announced. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly will make their home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Kelly is in Minneapolis for a few weeks' visit.

IN HONOR OF SIGSBEE

Dinner Given at Minneapolis Club Last Evening—The Captain Goes to St. Paul.

Captain Charles D. Sigsbee was the guest of honor at a dinner given at the Minneapolis Club last evening. Judge Lancaster presided and called upon several of the guests for impromptu responses. E. R. Johnston, who is accompanying Captain Sigsbee on his visit, spoke interestingly of his personal relations with Captain Sigsbee, saying that it was only necessary to know the captain a little to love him much.

Other speakers were J. F. Ross, J. C. Elgel, Judge Daniel Fish and Judge E. L. Torrance. Captain Sigsbee then opened fire at close range, giving a most interesting description of the inner workings of the navy and giving his idea of what a splendid navy means to the interests of commerce and civilization. By special request, he told again the story of the Maine disaster.

Captain Sigsbee left to-day for St. Paul, where he will visit friends before returning to the east. He will be promoted soon to the rank of rear admiral, in which position he will have charge of the League island navy yard. Captain Sigsbee addressed the students of the North Side high school yesterday, his subject being "Discipline." He referred also to the Maine disaster.

BUBBLES ARE BARRED

Council Committee Rules Them Off Cycle Paths—Labor Resolution Prepared.

The council committee on cycle paths yesterday recommended that motor cycles be barred from the cycle paths. It was shown that the self-propellers would destroy the paths. The city and cycle date avenue residents protested against the removal of the path on that thoroughfare to Sixth street N.

A special committee has prepared a resolution for presentation to the council, providing that union labor be employed in the laying of stone sidewalks, whether the work is done by the city or by contractors.

The committee on public grounds and buildings vacated "Fish" alley for the benefit of prospective builders of a warehouse.
