A RESPIRE FOR AMES, THE TAX IS ILLEGAL

A Large Crowd Assembles to Hear Him Sentenced, but Is Disappointed.

'Tis Believed That He Will Not Get Less Than Five Years.

Former Mayor A. A. Ames will not know what sentence Judge Elliott is to pronounce upon him until next week. A continuance until probably Wednesday was granted by the court upon the request of the defendant's counsel, who are preparing appeal bonds.

A number of spectators anxious to be in the courtroom were disappointed at 10 o'clock this morning. They waited patiently for nearly an hour, but they waited in vain. No Dr. Ames appeared, and the information finally spread thru the courtroom that the man who has been found guilty of accepting a bribe from fallen women was not to receive sentence for the present.

Speculation is rife among interested parties and among the general public who have watched the conduct of the doctor's trial, as to the penalty which will be imposed by the court. There are many guesses, but the court naturally maintains a discreet silence, and the prize-winner in the contest will not be announced until next week.

From various indications, however, and from the fact that several of the former mayor's intimates and friends have been found guilty and sentenced, the general opinion seems to be that Judge Elliott will give the doctor a penitentiary term of not less than five and in all probability about six years. The guess which is backed by the best arguments fixes the sentence at that period.

The plea for the feeble condition of the convicted man has had many persons to suggest that a lighter sentence may be imposed but this seems improbable. The doctor's trial and the chief beneficiary of the system of "graft" which flourished in Minneapolis and that should receive a less punishment than the other men who were convicted.

The matter of preparing new bonds is argued and decided the time for an appeal will have arrived if the court overrules the motion, as it is presumed by the hearing in the supreme court cannot be had before the October term, and the verdict is sustained the sentence cannot become effective before November and probably December at the earliest.

JUDGE SIMPSON DECLARES THE 1902 INHERITANCE TAX LAW TO BE UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Matter Comes Up in Connection With the Estate of Sol Smith Russell.

Judge Simpson this morning declared the inheritance tax law of 1902 unconstitutional. The matter will be appealed to the supreme court. The decision, if upheld, will mean the loss of many thousands of dollars to this and other states.

The question of the law's validity was raised by H. B. Chamberlain, attorney for the estate of the late Sol Smith Russell, now being probated. Judge Harvey refused to distribute the estate until the inheritance tax on the estate, valued at $112,000, was paid. Mr. Chamberlain applied for a writ of mandamus to compel the distribution. Judge Harvey opposed the application in order to have the district court pass upon the law. This morning, after listening to the arguments of Mr. Chamberlain and Assistant County Attorney Smith, Judge Simpson announced that he was firmly of the opinion that the law was invalid.

The Ramsey county probate court has already decided the law unconstitutional. The contention of Mr. Chamberlain is that by a provision of the state constitution in an amendment of 1887 the inheritance tax may be graded or uniform but shall not exceed five per cent of the estate. The recent law of 1902 provides a tax of one per cent on the first $10,000, and for collateral heirs above an exemption of $10,000. Thus the rate is plainly fixed above the percent allowed in the constitutional amendment and the law, therefore, would seem to be invalid.
