

MINNESOTA WRIT IS DISMISSED

Court Commissioner of Wabasha Finds That Miss Margaret O'Laughlin Is Insane.

Her Brother, Who Had Her Sent to an Asylum, Sustained on All Points.

Special to the Journal. Wabasha, Minn., May 12.—Court Commissioner John H. Mullen has decided the O'Laughlin habeas corpus case to determine the right of Frank O'Laughlin and Martin J. O'Laughlin to exercise power and restraint over the person and estate of Margaret O'Laughlin, who has been confined in a private asylum at Dubuque.

BISHOP READ'S APPOINTMENTS

Evangelical Conference Met at Waseca—Much Routine Business Transacted.

WASECA, MINN.—Routine business has been transacted by the evangelical conference of the Wabasha district, which met at Waseca, Minn., last evening.

PROBATE JUDGE SUSTAINED

Why Longyear, the Multi-Millionaire, Tore Down His Costly Mansion.

MARQUETTE, MICH.—The state supreme court has sustained the Marquette probate judge in all of his rulings in the condemnation case of the Marquette & Southwestern railroad.

WISCONSIN THE SENATE YIELDS

It Passes the Ad Valorem Railroad Bill, but Bonds Will Not Be Taxed.

Special to the Journal. Madison, Wis., May 12.—The ad valorem bill, as passed by the assembly, will go to the governor for his signature tomorrow and it will be signed without delay.

IOWA A. O. U. W. OF IOWA

Courtesies Shown Grand Lodge Delegates from S. D. on Their Way to Lead.

SIoux CITY, IOWA.—About 150 of the 250 delegates to the grand lodge of Iowa, A. O. U. W., meeting here, arrived yesterday.

WISCONSIN WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS DEFEATED

Second Time—Grain Inspection Fight on Wednesday.

Special to the Journal. Madison, Wis., May 12.—The ad valorem bill, as passed by the assembly, will go to the governor for his signature tomorrow and it will be signed without delay.

MINNESOTA TERRITORIAL DAYS

Pioneers of That Period Hold Their Annual Meeting at Albert Lea.

ALBERT LEA, MINN.—The territorial pioneers dined at Hotel Albert yesterday afternoon and a session of the annual meeting was held.

GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Callan, Old Residents of Dakota County, Celebrate.

HASTINGS, MINN.—Mr. and Mrs. James Callan of Eagan, old and highly respected residents of Dakota county, celebrated their golden wedding on Sunday.

WINONA'S PARK

Landscape Gardener of Chicago Delighted With the Environments.

WINONA, MINN.—John Thorpe, a landscape gardener of Chicago, is here and will at the request of the park commissioners suggest a plan for the improvement of Central park so that appropriate surroundings may be provided for the statue of Winona.

MICHIGAN STREAMS BANK FULL

All the Timber Drives in the Northern Country Are Coming Down Satisfactorily.

Hardwood and Stave Mill to Be Started at Newberry—Many Late Contracts.

BOUNDARY ON WOLF CUBS

Offer Tall Commissioners Add $2 to That Paid by the State.

FERGUS FALLS, MINN.—The county commissioners have decided to add $2 to the $1 bounty to be paid by the state for the destruction of wolf cubs, making a total bounty of $3.

Persons in from Battle Lake report that Northern Pacific surveyors who are working on the route of the proposed line found a ravine where a line can be run thru the Leaf hills and the Battle Lake citizens now have high hopes that the proposed cutoff will be made from that village.

Eldon Ward, formerly of this city, has been appointed sheriff of Sherburne county.

Karl Wehn has begun action in district court to secure a divorce from his wife, Augusta Wehn, on the ground of desertion.

A fatal accident is reported from Wymore. A man tripped over a wagon tongue and fell face downward in the soft mud. He was so drunk he could not get up and smothered.

MORRIS, MINN.—Mr. and Mrs. Ward Stone entertained at their country home on the river, as has been their custom for years, the graduating class of the high school, the teachers of the public schools, the village school board, the superintendent and teachers of the United States Indian industrial school, Peter W. Ross and wife, Frank A. Hancock and wife and Dr. H. L. Hulburd.

JORDAN, MINN.—The business men have organized under the name of the Jordan Commercial club, electing F. J. Leonard president, C. H. Casey secretary, and Ben Schaefer, treasurer. It is intended to join the Minnesota Municipal League and also perfect arrangements for the building and maintenance of a free ferry across the river at a point about four miles from the city.

DETROIT, MINN.—At the special election of the purpose of voting on the bond issue, the proceeding was held in purchasing the right of way for the Soo line extension thru Detroit, the vote was 282 in favor and 118 opposed.

DULUTH, MINN.—William P. Remer, one of the United States jurors, walked sixty miles Sunday and Sunday night in order to reach Grand Rapids to get his car in the morning.

OLIVIA, MINN.—The May term of district court convened here yesterday. Judge Powers on the bench. There are two criminal cases and forty-six civil cases. The most important action is that against E. W. Knies, hold for forgery.

STEPHEN, MINN.—Sergeant James Gillespie of the United States signal service corps arrived here from his assignment in the Philippines. His collection of oriental implements of war and other curios is interesting.

SHERBURN, MINN.—Fire last night destroyed the postoffice, Haggerman's restaurant and Sutherland's real estate office. The loss on buildings is about $1,000; loss to stocks unknown.

EVELETH, MINN.—The city is voting on a proposition to bond for $40,000 for the purpose of extending and connecting the water mains with a pumping plant and intake at St. Mary's lake.

HENNING, MINN.—The special election for the purpose of voting $4,000 bonds to build a new school building at Henning resulted in favor of the proposition by 74 to 5.

CASS LAKE, MINN.—The Commercial club held a banquet for Land Commissioner Richards, Chief Pinchot of the forestry bureau and Congressman Buckman.

FERTILE, MINN.—The village council has advertised for bids for the installation of the electric light plant. They must be submitted before June 1.

PLATO, MINN.—A new four-roomed school building with modern improvements will be erected here. An appropriation of $10,000 has been made.

NORTHWEST WEDDINGS

OLIVIA, MINN.—Arthur P. Heaney and Miss Pearl Smith were married at the St. Anthony Catholic church, Rev. Father Plent, pastor of the church, officiating. They will make their home here.

HASTINGS, MINN.—George H. Miller of Scott county and Miss Elizabeth Ista of New Trier have been licensed to wed.

DUBUQUE, IOWA.—It is feared that all of the fishermen of the various roads entering Dubuque will go on a sympathy strike if compelled to handle coal consigned to the Union Electric company. They have adopted resolutions sympathizing with the street car strikers and declare they will not unload coal cars for the electric company.

HAMPTON, IOWA.—At Dumont the safe in the office of Dr. St. Peters was robbed of $300. The station at Rowan was robbed and the offices of the Interstate Lumber company and Jacob Pohl's lumber yard were raided at Coulter. There is no clue.

GRUNDY CENTER.—Superintendent J. E. Stout has resigned to accept a position as instructor and to pursue advanced work in Cornell college at Mount Vernon.

REINBECK, IOWA.—Detrich Berghaus took a fatal dose of carbolic acid, thinking it was diluted alcohol. He died before help could reach him.

NORA SPRINGS, IOWA.—The school board has bought the building known as the Nora Springs seminary and will use it for a high school.

OTTUMWA, IOWA.—Mother Engelnie, assistant superior at the Sisters of Humility convent, is dead at the age of 43.

A PRESIDING ELDER

Rev. E. C. Clemons of Anoka Appointed to Succeed Dr. Forbes.

ANOKA, MINN.—Rev. E. C. Clemons, pastor of the Methodist church in this city, has been appointed presiding elder of the Duluth district, with headquarters

WISCONSIN THE SENATE YIELDS

It Passes the Ad Valorem Railroad Bill, but Bonds Will Not Be Taxed.

Special to the Journal. Madison, Wis., May 12.—The ad valorem bill, as passed by the assembly, will go to the governor for his signature tomorrow and it will be signed without delay.

IOWA A. O. U. W. OF IOWA

Courtesies Shown Grand Lodge Delegates from S. D. on Their Way to Lead.

SIoux CITY, IOWA.—About 150 of the 250 delegates to the grand lodge of Iowa, A. O. U. W., meeting here, arrived yesterday.

WISCONSIN WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS DEFEATED

Second Time—Grain Inspection Fight on Wednesday.

Special to the Journal. Madison, Wis., May 12.—The ad valorem bill, as passed by the assembly, will go to the governor for his signature tomorrow and it will be signed without delay.

MINNESOTA TERRITORIAL DAYS

Pioneers of That Period Hold Their Annual Meeting at Albert Lea.

ALBERT LEA, MINN.—The territorial pioneers dined at Hotel Albert yesterday afternoon and a session of the annual meeting was held.

GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Callan, Old Residents of Dakota County, Celebrate.

HASTINGS, MINN.—Mr. and Mrs. James Callan of Eagan, old and highly respected residents of Dakota county, celebrated their golden wedding on Sunday.

WINONA'S PARK

Landscape Gardener of Chicago Delighted With the Environments.

WINONA, MINN.—John Thorpe, a landscape gardener of Chicago, is here and will at the request of the park commissioners suggest a plan for the improvement of Central park so that appropriate surroundings may be provided for the statue of Winona.

MICHIGAN STREAMS BANK FULL

All the Timber Drives in the Northern Country Are Coming Down Satisfactorily.

Hardwood and Stave Mill to Be Started at Newberry—Many Late Contracts.

BOUNDARY ON WOLF CUBS

Offer Tall Commissioners Add $2 to That Paid by the State.

FERGUS FALLS, MINN.—The county commissioners have decided to add $2 to the $1 bounty to be paid by the state for the destruction of wolf cubs, making a total bounty of $3.

Persons in from Battle Lake report that Northern Pacific surveyors who are working on the route of the proposed line found a ravine where a line can be run thru the Leaf hills and the Battle Lake citizens now have high hopes that the proposed cutoff will be made from that village.

Eldon Ward, formerly of this city, has been appointed sheriff of Sherburne county.

Karl Wehn has begun action in district court to secure a divorce from his wife, Augusta Wehn, on the ground of desertion.

A fatal accident is reported from Wymore. A man tripped over a wagon tongue and fell face downward in the soft mud. He was so drunk he could not get up and smothered.

MORRIS, MINN.—Mr. and Mrs. Ward Stone entertained at their country home on the river, as has been their custom for years, the graduating class of the high school, the teachers of the public schools, the village school board, the superintendent and teachers of the United States Indian industrial school, Peter W. Ross and wife, Frank A. Hancock and wife and Dr. H. L. Hulburd.

JORDAN, MINN.—The business men have organized under the name of the Jordan Commercial club, electing F. J. Leonard president, C. H. Casey secretary, and Ben Schaefer, treasurer. It is intended to join the Minnesota Municipal League and also perfect arrangements for the building and maintenance of a free ferry across the river at a point about four miles from the city.

DETROIT, MINN.—At the special election of the purpose of voting on the bond issue, the proceeding was held in purchasing the right of way for the Soo line extension thru Detroit, the vote was 282 in favor and 118 opposed.

DULUTH, MINN.—William P. Remer, one of the United States jurors, walked sixty miles Sunday and Sunday night in order to reach Grand Rapids to get his car in the morning.

OLIVIA, MINN.—The May term of district court convened here yesterday. Judge Powers on the bench. There are two criminal cases and forty-six civil cases. The most important action is that against E. W. Knies, hold for forgery.

STEPHEN, MINN.—Sergeant James Gillespie of the United States signal service corps arrived here from his assignment in the Philippines. His collection of oriental implements of war and other curios is interesting.

SHERBURN, MINN.—Fire last night destroyed the postoffice, Haggerman's restaurant and Sutherland's real estate office. The loss on buildings is about $1,000; loss to stocks unknown.

EVELETH, MINN.—The city is voting on a proposition to bond for $40,000 for the purpose of extending and connecting the water mains with a pumping plant and intake at St. Mary's lake.

HENNING, MINN.—The special election for the purpose of voting $4,000 bonds to build a new school building at Henning resulted in favor of the proposition by 74 to 5.

CASS LAKE, MINN.—The Commercial club held a banquet for Land Commissioner Richards, Chief Pinchot of the forestry bureau and Congressman Buckman.

FERTILE, MINN.—The village council has advertised for bids for the installation of the electric light plant. They must be submitted before June 1.

PLATO, MINN.—A new four-roomed school building with modern improvements will be erected here. An appropriation of $10,000 has been made.

NORTHWEST WEDDINGS

OLIVIA, MINN.—Arthur P. Heaney and Miss Pearl Smith were married at the St. Anthony Catholic church, Rev. Father Plent, pastor of the church, officiating. They will make their home here.

HASTINGS, MINN.—George H. Miller of Scott county and Miss Elizabeth Ista of New Trier have been licensed to wed.

DUBUQUE, IOWA.—It is feared that all of the fishermen of the various roads entering Dubuque will go on a sympathy strike if compelled to handle coal consigned to the Union Electric company. They have adopted resolutions sympathizing with the street car strikers and declare they will not unload coal cars for the electric company.

HAMPTON, IOWA.—At Dumont the safe in the office of Dr. St. Peters was robbed of $300. The station at Rowan was robbed and the offices of the Interstate Lumber company and Jacob Pohl's lumber yard were raided at Coulter. There is no clue.

GRUNDY CENTER.—Superintendent J. E. Stout has resigned to accept a position as instructor and to pursue advanced work in Cornell college at Mount Vernon.

REINBECK, IOWA.—Detrich Berghaus took a fatal dose of carbolic acid, thinking it was diluted alcohol. He died before help could reach him.

NORA SPRINGS, IOWA.—The school board has bought the building known as the Nora Springs seminary and will use it for a high school.

OTTUMWA, IOWA.—Mother Engelnie, assistant superior at the Sisters of Humility convent, is dead at the age of 43.

WISCONSIN THE SENATE YIELDS

It Passes the Ad Valorem Railroad Bill, but Bonds Will Not Be Taxed.

Special to the Journal. Madison, Wis., May 12.—The ad valorem bill, as passed by the assembly, will go to the governor for his signature tomorrow and it will be signed without delay.

IOWA A. O. U. W. OF IOWA

Courtesies Shown Grand Lodge Delegates from S. D. on Their Way to Lead.

SIoux CITY, IOWA.—About 150 of the 250 delegates to the grand lodge of Iowa, A. O. U. W., meeting here, arrived yesterday.

WISCONSIN WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS DEFEATED

Second Time—Grain Inspection Fight on Wednesday.

Special to the Journal. Madison, Wis., May 12.—The ad valorem bill, as passed by the assembly, will go to the governor for his signature tomorrow and it will be signed without delay.

MINNESOTA TERRITORIAL DAYS

Pioneers of That Period Hold Their Annual Meeting at Albert Lea.

ALBERT LEA, MINN.—The territorial pioneers dined at Hotel Albert yesterday afternoon and a session of the annual meeting was held.

GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

Mr. and Mrs. Callan, Old Residents of Dakota County, Celebrate.

HASTINGS, MINN.—Mr. and Mrs. James Callan of Eagan, old and highly respected residents of Dakota county, celebrated their golden wedding on Sunday.

WINONA'S PARK

Landscape Gardener of Chicago Delighted With the Environments.

WINONA, MINN.—John Thorpe, a landscape gardener of Chicago, is here and will at the request of the park commissioners suggest a plan for the improvement of Central park so that appropriate surroundings may be provided for the statue of Winona.

SOUTH DAKOTA MCGABE TO BE THERE

State Meeting and Rally of South Dakota Followers of Wesley at Mitchell.

Corner Stone of Century Memorial Hall of Dakota University to Be Laid.

NORTH DAKOTA VILLAGE IMPROVEMENTS

Trustees of Edmore Begin a Campaign for Sewerage and Water Systems.

EDMORE, N. D.—The annual election of the board of village trustees resulted in all the old officers being re-elected as follows: C. A. Currier, chairman; A. E. Toomey and R. H. Bennett; clerk, M. O. Simenstad; treasurer, John A. Honey; justice, M. A. Hoghug; assessor, E. M. Cray; marshal, Charles Dakler. The board will commence extensive village improvements at once, such as grading streets, constructing walks, sewerage system, drainage and water works.

Sven A. Johnson, a laboring man, had his right leg fractured in a feed mill by being caught in a belt and drawn around by a pulley. He was badly bruised and injured internally, but will recover.

E. H. Pushor and Bert Crossman, formerly of Morris, Minn., have purchased the Cash Bargain store of Gilbert Johnson and will put in a complete line of general merchandise.

A Knights of Pythias lodge was instituted with over forty charter members in the city by the two competing lodges, a class of twenty-six was initiated by members of the Lakota lodge. Visiting members were present from Lakota, Laridon, St. Anthony, Park River and other places. At midnight an elaborate banquet was served. It was 5:30 the next morning before the new lodge was organized. The name of the lodge is North Star, No. 53, and the following officers were elected: P. C. C. M. O. Simenstad, E. M. Cray, C. C. H. Routard, V. C. C. Martin Olson, T. G. William Payne, O. G. H. Stoltz; P. I. E. Officer, W. M. M. Van Oadell; K. of R. and S. Thorman Rosholt; M. of F. G. N. Berg; M. of E. Martin Olson; T. G. William Payne; O. G. George Dougherty; trustees, O. Currier, A. E. Toomey, George Hanson.

SOCIETY SPIRIT STRONG

Colors Torn Down and an Appeal to Fisticuffs at Lisbon.

LISBON, N. D.—Much interest has been aroused in the high school and elsewhere in the city by the two competing literary societies of the school, the Belles Lettres and Philomathians. Each has been putting up its colors around town only to have them torn down by the other.

The cause of the rivalry was the offering of a gold medal by a citizen to the society doing the best rhetorical work, to be determined by the year's standings and a contest at the end of the year. This contest was held in the opera house, before a large audience. A program of debate, recitation and music was presented by members chosen from each organization. The two societies being almost even in points at this time, the contest which was decided in favor of the Belles Lettres by impartial judges, gave it the medal.

The Harrison is an independent company established in the Black Hills several years ago, and has to-day the most extensive system in western South Dakota, connecting all the principal towns of the hills and extending over into Wyoming. As soon as the foreclosure suit has been determined it is the intention to reorganize the company.

Notice of application for a new trial has been served by the attorneys for Mrs. Otto P. Th. Grantz, who recently sued the city for $37,200 personal damages and medical expenses. The case was in the circuit court several weeks ago and verdict was returned in favor of the city on all the issues. In the motion for new trial, which is to be argued before Judge McGee of Pennington county in a few days, the attorneys for Mrs. Grantz will endeavor to show that during a recess of the court, notwithstanding the jurymen had been given the usual admonition by the court, several of them visited the alleged scene of Mrs. Grantz' injuries to investigate the sawmill where she is alleged to have fallen. Failing to secure a retrial an appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

CHECK FOR BISHOP MANN

$2,944 from the Hyer Estate for Extension of Episcopal Church Work.

FARGO, N. D.—Bishop Mann is elated over the receipt of a check for $2,944.13 from the estate of Mrs. Mary E. Hyer of New York. The amount was left for the extension of Episcopal work in this state. A similar sum was left to the bishop at Laramie, Wyo. Bishop Mann can use the funds to an advantage in the western part of the state.

A blaze, which seems to have been ignited in the attic by rats did $500 damage to the residence of A. Tansler. He was alone and had no fire in the building and is at a loss to account for the blaze.

The trial of Jess Howard, charged with striking a woman with an ax, is in progress in district court. Both are colored and the row started in the tough quarter of the city. Howard was afterwards shot by a friend of the woman.

A man, who gives his name as Tom Martin, is under arrest here on the charge of robbing two roomers in the Fargo house. The night clerk detected the man in the building, but was unable to apprehend him. Later, when two men reported they had been robbed, a search located the fellow in Moorhead, and he was brought to the Dakota side of the river. The clerk is positive in his identification, but the prisoner denies being around the hotel.

LEEDS, N. D.—Jack Grady, the stranger who lost his leg by being pushed off a Great Northern freight car, is in court on damages against the company. The people here are contributing to his support.

Early wrinkles indicate deficient nourishment, starving skin. Satin-Skin Cream is skin food—restores rotundity. 25c.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, WIS.—Mrs. Alfred Cole is dead.

LA CROSSE, WIS.—An absolute divorce was granted Mrs. Anna Lulotte Yonkers from Charles Yonkers. Mrs. Yonkers, six months ago, was given $40,000 by some unknown benefactor, a resident of Chicago, for a kindness shown him on a train near here.

OSCEOLA, WIS.—Mrs. Conrad Delp, who disappeared from South St. Paul April 23, has been heard from by her brother, William Bannan, of this place. The letter states that life in her home was unendurable and she decided it would be better to leave.

KENOSHA, WIS.—At Beach, just south of Kenosha, a battle ensued between two unknown robbers and a crowd of Italian laborers. One Italian was shot in the arm.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, WIS.—Mrs. Alfred Cole is dead. She leaves three sons in business here, one being Dr. H. B. Cole.

LA CROSSE, WIS.—An absolute divorce was granted Mrs. Anna Lulotte Yonkers from Charles Yonkers.

OSCEOLA, WIS.—Mrs. Conrad Delp, who disappeared from South St. Paul April 23, has been heard from by her brother, William Bannan, of this place.

KENOSHA, WIS.—At Beach, just south of Kenosha, a battle ensued between two unknown robbers and a crowd of Italian laborers. One Italian was shot in the arm.

BLACK RIVER FALLS, WIS.—Mrs. Alfred Cole is dead. She leaves three sons in business here, one being Dr. H. B. Cole.

SOUTH DAKOTA MCGABE TO BE THERE

State Meeting and Rally of South Dakota Followers of Wesley at Mitchell.

Corner Stone of Century Memorial Hall of Dakota University to Be Laid.

NORTH DAKOTA VILLAGE IMPROVEMENTS

Trustees of Edmore Begin a Campaign for Sewerage and Water Systems.

EDMORE, N. D.—The annual election of the board of village trustees resulted in all the old officers being re-elected as follows: C. A. Currier, chairman; A. E. Toomey and R. H. Bennett; clerk, M. O. Simenstad; treasurer, John A. Honey; justice, M. A. Hoghug; assessor, E. M. Cray; marshal, Charles Dakler. The board will commence extensive village improvements at once, such as grading streets, constructing walks, sewerage system, drainage and water works.

Sven A. Johnson, a laboring man, had his right leg fractured in a feed mill by being caught in a belt and drawn around by a pulley. He was badly bruised and injured internally, but will recover.

E. H. Pushor and Bert Crossman, formerly of Morris, Minn., have purchased the Cash Bargain store of Gilbert Johnson and will put in a complete line of general merchandise.

A Knights of Pythias lodge was instituted with over forty charter members in the city by the two competing lodges, a class of twenty-six was initiated by members of the Lakota lodge. Visiting members were present from Lakota, Laridon, St. Anthony, Park River and other places. At midnight an elaborate banquet was served. It was 5:30 the next morning before the new lodge was organized. The name of the lodge is North Star, No. 53, and the following officers were elected: P. C. C. M. O. Simenstad, E. M. Cray, C. C. H. Routard, V. C. C. Martin Olson, T. G. William Payne, O. G. H. Stoltz; P. I. E. Officer, W. M. M. Van Oadell; K. of R. and S. Thorman Rosholt; M. of F. G. N. Berg; M. of E. Martin Olson; T. G. William Payne; O. G. George Dougherty; trustees, O. Currier, A. E. Toomey, George Hanson.

SOCIETY SPIRIT STRONG

Colors Torn Down and an Appeal to Fisticuffs at Lisbon.

LISBON, N. D.—Much interest has been aroused in the high school and elsewhere in the city by the two competing literary societies of the school, the Belles Lettres and Philomathians. Each has been putting up its colors around town only to have them torn down by the other.

The cause of the rivalry was the offering of a gold medal by a citizen to the society doing the best rhetorical work, to be determined by the year's standings and a contest at the end of the year. This contest was held in the opera house, before a large audience. A program of debate, recitation and music was presented by members chosen from each organization. The two societies being almost even in points at this time, the contest which was decided in favor of the Belles Lettres by impartial judges, gave it the medal.

The Harrison is an independent company established in the Black Hills several years ago, and has to-day the most extensive system in western South Dakota, connecting all the principal towns of the hills and extending over into Wyoming. As soon as the foreclosure suit has been determined it is the intention to reorganize the company.

Notice of application for a new trial has been served by the attorneys for Mrs. Otto P. Th. Grantz, who recently sued the city for $37,200 personal damages and medical expenses. The case was in the circuit court several weeks ago and verdict was returned in favor of the city on all the issues. In the motion for new trial, which is to be argued before Judge McGee of Pennington county in a few days, the attorneys for Mrs. Grantz will endeavor to show that during a recess of the court, notwithstanding the jurymen had been given the usual admonition by the court, several of them visited the alleged scene of Mrs. Grantz' injuries to investigate the sawmill where she is