NATAL DAY OF REDS

Thirty-fifth Annual Council Fire of White Earth Chippewas Set for June 15 and 16.

Once Hated Foes, the Sioux, Invited to the Anniversary.

Special to the Journal. White Earth, Minn., May 21.—Why do the people of the White Earth reservation celebrate June 14, 1867, the Mississippi bands of Chippewa Indians, occupying the greater portion of northern Minnesota with a few scattered bands on Lake and Crow Wing, realizing that a certain tract of land, ceded to them by treaty of March 20, 1865, was not adapted for agriculture purposes, to which pursuit the majority of the bands directed their efforts, entered into an agreement with the United States for the cession and relinquishment of their portion of their treaty holdings in order to provide a suitable farming region. This treaty, which was proclaimed April 18, 1867, had a provision as follows: "Article 2.—In order to provide a suitable farming region for the said bands, there is hereby set apart for their use a tract of land to be located in a square form as nearly as possible, with lines corresponding to the government surveys, which reservation shall include White Earth Lake and Rice Lake, and contain thirty-six sections of land."

MARRIED HER BEAUTY

Miscreant Slashes Face of Prospective Bride. New York Sun Special Service. Ogdensburg, N. Y., May 21.—Mary Gardner, 18 years old, at Pierceland, was the victim of a mysterious attack yesterday. Mrs. Gardner is a handsome girl and lives with her parents. She was to have been married to-morrow. The bridegroom, Theo. H. Beaulieu, president, Julius Brown, secretary, and B. S. Fairbanks, treasurer, comprise the board of directors for the present year, and they are sparing no pains to make the occasion one of interest, pleasure and amusement.

SOOTHING HIM

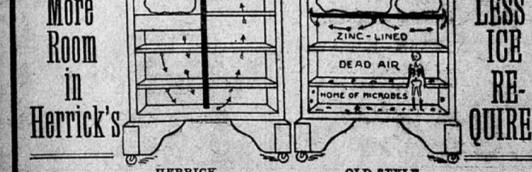

The man with the subscription book and the plaintive voice asked Rivers for a donation, but got nothing and went away. "I suppose," said Brooks, with something like resentment, "he thought I looked as if I were too poor to be able to give him anything."

THE SUCCESS OF THE PLAY.

The new play, "Histy-Wisty," was an immense success. In response to the deafening applause that followed the last act the Master Carpenter, the Electrician, the Modiste and the Performer appeared on the stage, bowing and smiling. They joined hands and bowed again, some wishing to take unto himself all the honor.

HIS IMPRESSION.

Horticulturist (on his travels)—Are you having any trouble in this part of the country with the San Jose scale? Stage Driver—I can't say for certain, but I think I heard some of the boys say the bosses had refused to sign it.

about fifty unmasked men, many of whom are prominent in the county. PLAUISIBLE. Philadelphia Ledger. "What's the derivation of the word 'colleague'?" "I guess it is up." "But surely the word must mean something?" "Oh! I guess it was just faked up for some poet who needed a rhyme for 'knowledge'."

WANTED TO MAKE SURE. THE WASHERWOMAN'S HUSBAND. Nagsby—See that woman and her husband! That woman is the sole support of the family. She's worked for thirty years. Nagsby—And the husband? Washer—He hasn't.

THREE ARE LYNCHED. Florida Mob Strings Up Two Negroes and a White. Tampa, Fla., May 21.—Amos Randall, white, and Dan Kennedy and Henry Gold, negroes, have been lynched at Mulberry, Polk county, thirty miles from here, for the murder of Barney Brown, a white man. Randall was charged with being an operator of a "blind tiger" and Brown was a prominent attorney in the United States in the campaign which ended yesterday. Monday night while Brown was en route home he was shot from ambush and his throat cut. The people of Mulberry became enraged and secured evidence which led them to believe that Randall had hired them to commit the crime. The three were then taken out and lynched. Their bodies were hauled to here. It is said the work was done by a mob of

REALLY TOUGH. "Adam and Eve must have had a hard time." "How so?" "They had no childhood." "What of that?" "Why they never had the satisfaction of telling their children how it was when they were young."

MURDER DONE BY AN OLD GERMAN SETTLER IN MISSOULA COUNTY, MONTANA. Helena, Mont., May 21.—One of the most shocking murders ever committed in Missoula county occurred in Center City last night, when Victor Janjean, a German 78 years old, blew off the head of William Phernetton, firing a shotgun at close range. The shooting appears to have been over a very trivial affair, and while the old German says he shot in self-defense, the surrounding circumstances are rather peculiar.

AT THE MASQUERADE. Chicago Tribune. The young man in the garb of Mephistopheles approached the slender figure in the blue domino. "If I am not mistaken—" "You are not, sir," interrupted the fair masker. "Not by me, at least. Your English betrays you. I cannot mistake you for any one other than the young gentleman from Arkansas—" "The girl from Boston, by George!" he ejaculated, turning on his heel.
