

BASEBALL

RAYMER HIS WOBBLY

Columbus Second Baseman Lets In Enough Runs for Millers to Win.

Stimmel and Williams Pitch Good Ball—Yeager's Men Fast in Fielding.

Columbus, June 11.—Williams, the speedy twirler who shut out the millers in the series at Minneapolis last month, tried to duplicate the trick yesterday on the senators' men.

The millers hit the ball hard, but sent most of their drives straight at the fielders. Their first two tallies came thru an error by Raymer.

Yeager's men played a strong, consistent game, also they were unable to solve Williams' curves. Stimmel himself did some work in the field.
