DISEASE MAY BE LOCAL

In Such Cases Beef from Tuberculous Cows is Not Unsafe.

Dr. S. H. Ward, executive agent of the state live stock sanitary board, combats the prevalent idea that if cows condemned for tuberculosis are good enough for beef they are good enough for milk. He says that tuberculosis is often found to be only local. When the animal is killed and the diseased portion cut away, the rest can be used for beef without danger. If the animal was allowed to live, the disease would spread rapidly and the milk would be tainted. Dr. Ward says farmers would be wise to kill their cows on the first sign of tuberculosis and get full value of the carcass, receiving three-fourths of the net loss from the state, rather than let their cows go until they are worse infected.

CRAWLED INTO A HOLE

Joliet Officials Find Stablein Hiding in the Prison.

Louis W. Stablein, doing time for forgery in the Joliet penitentiary under the name of James Wilson, did not escape after all. Mindful of his daring exit from the Hennepin county jail two years ago, the Joliet officials were thoroughly convinced that he had escaped when he disappeared yesterday, however, Stablein was discovered hiding in the cooper shop. The convict had crawled in an aperture little more than a foot square and remained hidden for seven days. In the period of his absence guards had passed directly over Stablein's hiding place at least a dozen times.

When he was discovered he said he had had nothing to eat during the entire time and had but little to drink. He says he got the latter only on two occasions from a reservoir near his hiding place. Stablein has now been put in solitary confinement.

DRUIDS ELECT OFFICERS

Christ Johnson of Minneapolis Is Elected Noble Grand Aroh.

Christ Johnson of Minneapolis was elected noble grand arch of the grand grove of Minnesota, Ancient Order of United Druids, at the annual convention of the grove held yesterday in St. Paul. D. C. Miller of St. Paul was made deputy grand arch; G. A. Johnson of St. Paul, grand secretary; Joseph Kitchin of Minneapolis, grand treasurer; J. F. Kramer, Winona, grand guardian; Emil Fogelberg, St. Paul, grand sentinel.

Representatives were present from seventeen groves containing 1,800 members. Treasurer G. A. Johnson reported that 186 members had been gained during the year, and that $29,456 had been paid out to beneficiaries. A resolution was adopted that a special assessment be imposed to clear the order in this state of all indebtedness.

GREEKS WILL AGREE

War Among the Fruit Merchants Likely to End in Truce.

P. Boosalis, proprietor of the Olympia candy store, appeared in the municipal court yesterday charged with disturbing the public peace outside his regular place of business. He pleaded guilty and paid the usual fine of $5. This is the fifth case tried in connection with the Greek crusade, but the matters are still running.

It is equally inconceivable that H. H. depends on the location. Accordingly there is a break, and the war may be taken up again. It is now nearly completed and within a few days will give place to work on the assignments of error and arguments for a new truce.

The hearing on the motion to set aside the default of the $10,000 Ames' ball bonds was set for next Saturday. Another continuance will, however, be granted and it is not probable that anything will be done in that matter until after the motion for a new trial is heard and disposed of.

PAINTERS DISSATISFIED

They Withdraw from Trades and Labor Council—The Phone Girls' Strike.

Dissatisfaction with the treatment received from the Minneapolis delegation to the recent convention of the State Federation of Labor, at Little Falls, is said to be responsible for the withdrawal last evening of the Painters' Union from the Trades and Labor Council. The council has appointed an investigating committee. The special committee looking after the interests of the striking telephone operators was given authority to call an expedition meeting. The International Union of Flour and Cereal Mill Employees will be asked to bring the matter up at a mass meeting to-morrow evening, at Plymouth church.

No progress was reported in the stone quarrymen's case. The committee was delegated to take steps to open another quarry in order to supply the demand for union labor. The boycott against a certain brand of cigars was ordered removed.

ALL ROADS QUOTE $8

The Reduced Rate to Chicago Will Be General on June 20.

New Tariff May Make Trouble if Demanded to All Minnesota Points.

All the Minneapolis roads are in on the rate of $8 to Chicago and Milwaukee, starting Saturday. The Milwaukee, has not yet hung up a window notice of the new rate, as the other lines have done, but nevertheless it will give customers the benefit of the new rate.

Reports that the Milwaukee would make a $6 rate or a round trip rate of $8, seems not to have been founded on anything definite. The Great Western to Chicago, $5 signifying morning and is in the ring with the rest of them.

It is figured that the Milwaukee can least afford to have a rate of $8. Under the former tariff, $8 would take the passenger about Columbus, Wis., or returning, to a point between La Crosse and Winona. The line passes thru a closely settled country and with the local business on the same ratio as the Chicago roads, travelers will profit and the road will lose correspondingly. Under the St. Louis road's original east-bound rate, $8 would take traffic to Freeport, on the Illinois Central. On the Wisconsin Central, the rate on the Chicago east-bound and Marshfield returning. The Rock Island would make it West Liberty, Iowa, going and coming.

The suggestion has been made that the Milwaukee may suffer from the fact that it has so much Minnesota mileage. In case some legislator should figure it out that the road ought to carry all passengers in Minnesota the flat 2-cent rate.

Pond Disclaims Initiative.

General Passenger Agent J. C. Pond of the Wisconsin Central said yesterday in Milwaukee that his road did not take the initiative in the cut as the low rate was practically a concession to the return portion of tickets in the hands of brokers. He says the Wisconsin Central had no intention of precipitating a rate war. He said that the rate situation now existing between the twin cities and Chicago, the Wisconsin Central deems it necessary, in order to be in a position to secure a share of the county auditor. The application in effect June 20 a rate of $8 in each direction between Chicago and the twin cities. The large number of cheap round trip tickets heretofore authorized will disappear from the market the return portions of such tickets, which are handled by brokers at the rate of about $8 and the Wisconsin Central will simply meet these rates openly.

THINGS CAME HIS WAY

Carl Gbroenski Thought Americans Hospitable—Looking for "No. 30 Street, Minneapolis."

Carl Gbroenski thought Minneapolis extended a very glad hand on his arrival yesterday. He thought it in Polish, for it was only yesterday that his long journey from the old country was over. All he had in the world was a valise of a sort that is never seen at the West hotel and a slip of paper bearing the magic inscription: "No. 30 street, Minneapolis, North America."

As he emerged from the station an energetic hack driver gave Carl such a courteous invitation to enter his conveyance that the traveler, understanding the invitation from the pantomime only and wondering much at American hospitality, climbed into the carriage, handed Jehu his paper and settled back to enjoy the luxury of the drive. The hack driver, by the address but for two hours drove his fare about in a futile search for "No. 30 street." His passenger was rudely dismounted when the driver saw that the address was in error. He demanded his money, Carl couldn't speak English and he couldn't pay and the driver took him to the central police station where the officers, appreciating his predicament reinstated the Americans in Gbroenski's good opinion.

An interpreter was secured, the uselessness of his paper was explained to the immigrant and then one of the station employes who lives in a Polish community on the flats took him home as a guest. There was a little reception for him on the flats last night and many neighbors whose names end in "sk-i" and are curiosities of nomenclature in the city directory, heard the latest news of the fatherland from the newcomer.

MUST ACT SQUARELY

Hall Insurance Companies Notified to Pay Strict Attention to Business Ethics.

Hall insurance concerns have been called down by the insurance commissioner, who has served notice that all application blanks must state plainly the 5 per cent liability of policy holders. The new law requires a premium of 2 1/2 per cent to be collected in advance, and some agents are represented that this will be the cost of insurance. The law, however, provides that another 2 1/2 per cent may be collected if necessary to meet losses. This feature is often kept from the attention of the insured.

The battalion will remain in camp at Lake City for three weeks, and will engage in every form of target manual and marching drill.

Upon his return from an evangelistic tour of the world this week, he was hailed by his Chicago associates as Moody's successor. Dr. Torrey was called by Mr. Moody to join him in religious work in 1889. He is a graduate of Yale and a Congregational minister. He is a student of the German language and a man of broad and liberal learning. On his recent tour he visited England, Australia, China, Japan and India.

WON'T PATCH IT UP

New Deputy Sheriffs Reject Compromise on Payment of Their Salaries.

A second application for a writ of mandamus compelling the payment of his May salary has been made by Deputy Sheriff Otto Langum. An alternative writ returnable next Monday has been issued and this time the respondent named is the board of county commissioners instead of the board of supervisors. The application sets up practically the same facts as contained in the previous one, namely, that three deputies, Langum, Johnson and Cousins, were appointed in conformity with the new law and that there is unappropriated money in the county treasury and the relator prays that a sufficient amount be appropriated therefrom to pay the salaries of said deputies. The efforts of the new deputies to get their money have developed a serious legal fight, but action on this last application should settle the question.

"We would like to see the boys get their money," said F. E. Barney, chairman of the board of county commissioners, "but we could not make the appropriation asked for in view of our attorney's opinion. We have offered the sheriff's office the sum of $1,000, but the sheriff has refused to accept it. We have offered the extra help fund and let the matter rest there for the present and until next week's session. I do not know what they intend to do, however."

Chief Deputy Arthur L. Jones, who has acted as attorney for the unpaid deputies, said that the sheriff's office will not be accepted, as no one knows at what time some taxpayer might object to paying a regular officer with a salary fixed by law the extra help fund.

The whole question would be just where it is now. For this reason he purposes to have a final settlement now.

OTHER CASES OF FRAUD

Many Undeserving Families Drew Aid from the City.

The account of The Journal last week of a family which was drawing fuel and food supplies from the poor department, and for the same time was paying for a piano on the installment plan, has brought to light other families who are imposing on the city in a similar manner.

To-day the poor department received a letter from a taxpayer calling attention to a family on Franklin avenue which has recently bought a piano, although it has for several months been drawing fuel and food from the poor department. Inspector Lothamer was directed to investigate.

The attention of the department has also been called to other families deemed by their neighbors undeserving of public aid.

U. OF M. BOOKKEEPING

Will Be Made to Conform to the Board of Control System.

The state university accountants will hereafter conform to the uniform system of bookkeeping in use by the state board of control. S. W. Stevens, chief of the board of control, visited the university yesterday afternoon and explained the use of the account blanks, on which all reports are made to the board of control. By the frequent use of the printed forms the accountants in the board of control office will have full data of the university receipts and expense.

ARRESTED IN DETROIT

James Murer and May Hynes, Who Are Wanted by Minneapolis Police.

James Murer and May Hynes, the two alleged forgers arrested a few days ago at Detroit, are also wanted in Minneapolis. They are said to have drawn money from the Northwestern National bank in the name of the Minnesota Lumber company.

While here the pair were always dressed in working clothes and succeeded in cashing several small checks. Ed Conroy, chief of police, wants them here in case the Detroit authorities do not wish to prosecute, and an officer will be sent to bring them.

BRAND NEW QUARTERS

Green & DeLaitre Co., Wholesale Grocers, Move to New Building.

The Green & DeLaitre Co., the big wholesale grocers, have just moved into splendid new quarters in the Harrison Building, 18, 20 and 22, Third street N. Building has been thoroughly remodeled and is one of the best equipped wholesale grocery stores in the northwest. It is roomy and convenient, and gives the Green & DeLaitre Co. the much needed room to conduct their big business. The first floor is devoted to the office and shipping rooms. On either side of the entrance at the front are the various private offices, and back of these on the alley side, where the light is most abundant, is the bookkeeping department. Each of the bookkeepers are the private telephone exchange and telephone boxes. There is also an office fitted up specially for the traveling men.

Towards the front of the store there will be a large up-to-date display case, which will set off to advantage the merits of the high grade goods that the firm carries.

Back of the office is a large shipping room fitted with hard wood floors and provided with five great loading doors, three on the side and two in the rear. Two fast running electric elevators, of extra large size, facilitate the getting of goods to the shipping floor.

The stock occupies the basement and remaining five floors. In order to assist in a systematic arrangement of the goods, the floors have been marked off into aisles and rows. This not only assists materially in getting at any desired article, but presents a much better appearance than the haphazard plan some establishments have of piling up the stock.

The new departure in wholesale houses is a lunch room for employees. This is located on the second floor and there will be facilities to enable the employees to have warm lunches. A private printing office will also be connected with the store to do the large amount of work required by a firm of this kind.

The Green & DeLaitre Co. have built up splendidly for its special lines in the comparatively short time that it has been doing business. In the Princess brand the firm has recognized high grade of groceries. The Golden West is also a label that is known in every first-class grocery store throughout the northwest. The Early Morn and Holiday brands in canned goods have won a deserved recognition for their merits.

The new location, with its up-to-date equipment and the high standing of the Green & DeLaitre Co. will do much to increase the popularity of the firm in the front rank of the wholesalers of the west.
