

PRICE TWO CENTS.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 7, 1903.

16 PAGES FIVE O'CLOCK.

SEVEN KILLED IN EVANSVILLE RIOT

Mob, Bent Upon the Lynching of a Negro Murderer, Is Met With Storm of Bullets and Retires.

Four Are Fatally Injured and a Score or More Hurt Less Seriously—When the Mob Withdrew, Wounded, Dead and Dying Lay in the Streets, Their Agonizing Cries for Help Unheeded—The Murderer Is Taken to the State Penitentiary for Safety.

Evansville, Ind., July 7.—Six shot dead and twenty-five injured, four fatally, is the outcome of the race riots that have caused a reign of terror here for four days.

All during the evening the spirit of evil seemed to hang over the mob about the jail. When the people should have gathered there is a mystery. They knew that the prisoner to whom the murder of Patrolman Louis Massey may be ascribed was in custody at Vincennes and that no vengeance could have been wreaked upon him.

When the smoke of the volley cleared, thirty-one wounded and dozens of the pavement. There is no contention as to who fired first, the soldiers or the rioters. That the troops were fired on is proven by the fact that the fallen rioters were members of the company. Their wounds were slight.

At 9 o'clock a thousand persons were congregated about the jail. By 10 these had dwindled to about 700. Company A, of the First regiment, L. N. G., recruited in Evansville, was on guard. The crowd seemed to have assembled solely from curiosity. Many in its ranks were boys. Trouble began soon after nightfall, when the soldiers were made the butt of jibes and jeers.

ELI WARD SCHIFFMAN, painter, top of head blown off.

Gradually, as if the tide of sentiment were setting into fierce anger, stirred by more brutal taunts and acts, the crowd began to press in, inch by inch, upon the militia men, who formed the guard line upon the street. Soon sticks and stones were being hurled, while every moment held the object of harassing the soldiers and meditated no further trouble.

HAZEL ALLMAN, 15 years old, daughter of Joseph Allman, shot in breast.

But a moment before the firing began, to the spectators it seemed that the mob held the object of harassing the soldiers and meditated no further trouble. Then came the crisis. A shower of stones and sticks was hurled by a jeering, howling crowd of about 100 men. Then the mob surged forward. Suddenly the soldiers, hard pressed and overpowered by numbers, gave way and plunged within yards of the mob, led there seemingly by curiosity.

AUGUST JORDAN, 19, musician, bullet wound in breast.

Colonel McClung, who was sent here last night by Governor Durbin, was given full authority to summon all military aid he regarded as necessary, but he did not ask for reinforcements for his company until after the rioting. Attorney Frank E. Power, a well-known local lawyer, addressed the mob and pleaded that it disperse, but his efforts were vain.

EDWARD RUHL, 23, laborer, shot thru body and head.

It is believed that one of the unknown victims was H. W. Wallace, an employe of Wallace's circus, and who lived at Indianapolis.

FRED KAPPLER, aged 15, shot in side.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

UNIDENTIFIED MAN, shot in back.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

FATALY WOUNDED.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

JOHN BARNETT, shot thru right lung.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

CALVIN HAWKINS, shot in abdomen, finger shot off.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

JOHN GEILL, shot in back.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

EARNEST WALTERS, shot in back.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

Wounded.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

Fred Schmidt, shot in leg and arm, taken home; Leo Whitney, shot in leg; Robert Miller, shot in chest.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

Charles H. Presley, 17 years old, shot in wrist and legs; Theodore Beem, shot in side; other wounds; John Pares, shot in head and hip, may not see; Kaesa, soldier, shot in arm while picking up wounded rioter, not serious; Benny McPhillips, shot in arm and breast; Union C. Smith, shot in neck, seriously hurt; Harry Smith, shot in hip and back; E. Myers, lightly wounded in leg; W.B. Keller, shot in thigh; Mrs. Joseph Allman, shot in shoulder; Joseph Allman, shot in face; Benny Hoffman, shot in forehead; eyesight; Alvin Jones, buckshot in back; William Reese, slight wounds in face; G. H. Cook, slightly wounded; Nelson Jacques, shot in face; Charles Smith, slightly hurt about head.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

After the shooting the mob scattered and disappeared. The dead and wounded were taken to homes and hospitals and the line of soldiers was re-formed. All night troops stood around the jail while wounded lay inside the negro prisoners prayed for mercy and protection.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

Troops Reinforced.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

At 2 o'clock this morning, under orders from Governor Durbin the Vincennes company of militia arrived and relieved the Evansville troops. There was no demonstration when the relief troops arrived. There were still several hundred persons on the streets but no attack was made and the incoming troops were not disturbed.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

Negroes are leaving the city in large numbers, many vowing they will never return. Doctors and nurses are camped in the country. Officials believe there will be no further outbreak although there is great tension and the utmost vigilance will be maintained.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

The governor this morning ordered the Indianapolis militia, comprising four companies of infantry and one battery of artillery to mobilize at their armory and be ready to proceed to Evansville at 2 o'clock if at that time he is deemed necessary that their presence at Evansville is necessary.

Another detachment of life guards and outsiders then rode up, and amidst a good volley of cheers, President Loubet drove in. He sat in an open carriage, beside Ambassador Cambon, and wore a high hat which he constantly removed, bowing right and left. The president jumped from the carriage, shook hands all around and after an address from the corporation had been presented to him, M. Loubet proceeded to luncheon.

LONDON CROWD CHEERS LOUBET

French President Receives an Enthusiastic Greeting in the British Capital.

Lunches With the Prince and Princess of Wales and Other Royalties.

In Response to Lord Mayor's Toast He Makes a Plea for International Amity.

London, July 7.—President Loubet was early astir to-day and began an extensive round of functions, calling at the French hospital and visiting the home for French governesses. Passing thru the Ancient ward of the hospital, he stopped to console with a corporal of a detachment of life guards forming his escort, who was injured by falling from his horse outside the hospital. The president returned to

MINN. INSPECTOR IN WISCONSIN

La Crosse Millers Sign Contract to Buy Wheat on Minnesota Grades.

It Brought Capitalists to Their Senses and Prevented Dangerous Overcapitalization.

Minnesota wheat will be weighed and inspected by Minnesota officials at La Crosse, Wis. A contract to that effect has been signed with the La Crosse millers by Railroad Commissioner Staples, and a Minnesota inspector will be detailed for weighing in a few days. The fees for weighing and inspection will more than pay his way and may be enough to justify putting in another man so that one will do the weighing and another the inspecting.

MERGER RULING A TIMELY CHECK

A Prominent New York Financier So Informs Attorney General Knox.

Prof. Langdell, a Legal Authority, Changes Attitude Toward the Merger.

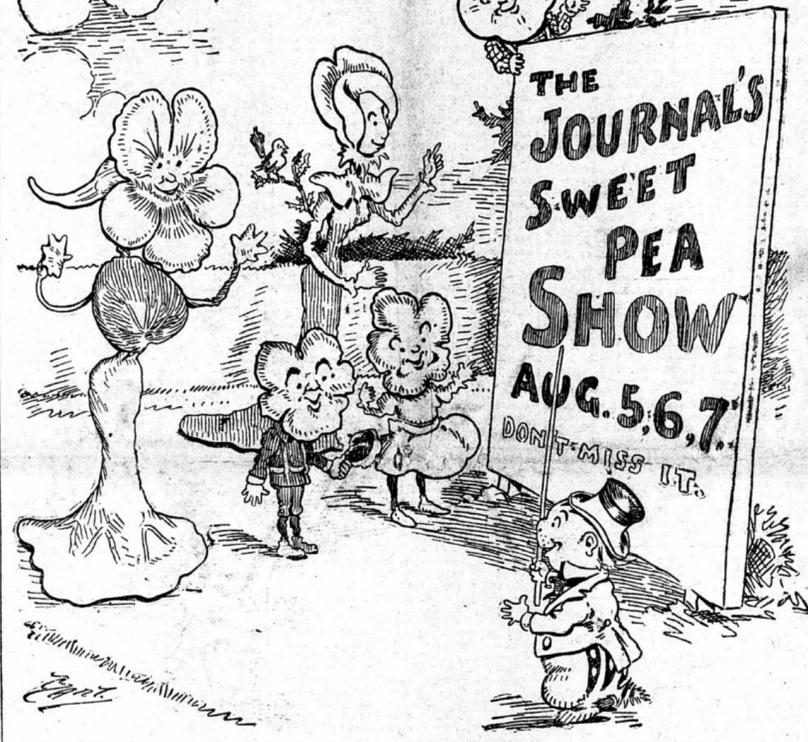

The bringing of the various suits against the Northern Securities company and its merger of railways was one of the best things that could have happened for the financial world.

LIFE OF PONTIFF SLOWLY EBBS AWAY

His Physicians Announce They Now Have Given Up All Hope of Saving the Aged Prelate's Life.

This Afternoon His Holiness Submitted Courageously to an Operation and Was Improved at Its Conclusion—The End, However, Cannot Be Postponed for Long—Leo Takes an Affectionate Farewell of His Nephews and Tells Them Not to Mourn.

TO-DAY'S BULLETINS
8:20 a. m.—The official bulletin just issued, is as follows:
The pope passed a restless night, without sleep. Nourishment, however, has been more freely taken and the general condition of the patient is a little more reassuring. An objective examination shows a change in the right of the thorax, and the middle lobe of the lung, which up to yesterday did not permit the passage of air, now allows the air to penetrate. On the other hand, the interior zone has become more obtuse and the transmission of vocal and tactile vibration is wanting. This leads to the belief that there is liquid in the pleura. An experimental incision will be made. The action of the heart is depressed so much as to render the renal function insufficient, and to cause cyanosis in the last phalanges of the hands.

THEY'LL ALL BE THERE
St. James palace about 10 o'clock. He was greeted with great cordiality and cries of "Vive Loubet," to which he continually raised his hat.

BIG FIND OF COAL
Large Field of Anthracite Is Located in Routt County, Colorado.

WINDFALL FOR BANKRUPT
Unknown Friend Gives $11,110 to Saratoga Man Who Had Failed in Business.

SEARCHING FOR THE DEAD
Waters Known to Have Killed 25 Persons at Jeanette—Others Missing.

TO VISIT CANADA.
Toronto, July 7.—Dr. Henry S. Lunn is being arranged for a visit to Canada on Aug. 29 of the current year.

DRIGGS DEMURS.
New York, July 7.—Council for the Education of the Deaf has filed a demurrer to the indictment.

More Fatal Lockjaw.
Josephine E. Levac, the six-year-old girl who was accidentally shot at South Park about three weeks ago, died at St. Luke's hospital, St. Paul, Sunday, from lockjaw, and was buried to-day.

THE DAY'S BULLETINS.
7 a. m.—The condition of the pope is unchanged. His holiness awoke early and took some soup. When he is not asleep he is perfectly lucid and calm. He has asked that he be told the moment that danger becomes imminent.

7:55 a. m.—There is considerable excitement around the vatican and numerous persons are going to and coming from the pope's bed-room. The relatives of the pontiff, Cardinal Rampolla and Pope Leo's private secretaries, however, remain in the chamber. Cardinal Rampolla has been receiving members of the diplomatic body at all hours of the day and night.

Several large books kept for the purpose had been signed by members of the Roman aristocracy, high ecclesiastical authorities, notable personages of the papal court and distinguished strangers who have called to inquire regarding the pope's condition.

All the papal military bodies in permanent service are earning the two months extra pay which they receive in case of the death of the pope, an extra pay for two additional months from a new pope.

Thousands of Telegrams.
8:25 a. m.—Up to the present time the telegrams received at the vatican from all parts of the world number 3,782. They include many which are considered of an especially affectionate one from Cardinal Gibbons.

Oreglia the Center of Things.
Altho the pope is still alive, Cardinal Oreglia begins to be the center of all vatican activity. It is considered that the moment is close at hand when he will assume the supreme power in his capacity as cardinal camerlengo.

Engineers Scheffer and Manuce, who are called architects of the conclave, as their office consists in walling up the cardinals when they have gathered for the election of a new pope, have placed themselves at the disposal of Cardinal Oreglia, as has also Prince Chigi, who holds the office of marshal of the conclave.

In all the churches masses are celebrated, and these are attended by an extraordinary number of the faithful, who pray for the recovery of the pontiff.

8:35 a. m.—When Dr. Mazzoni went this morning to the vatican Dr. Lapponi made a full report to him as to how the pope had passed the night. When both entered the sick room Pope Leo smiled benevolently at Dr. Mazzoni, but seemed not to have sufficient strength to speak. The doctor said:

"How is your holiness?"
To this inquiry the pontiff, in a faint voice, replied:
"I have no illusion and am resigned."

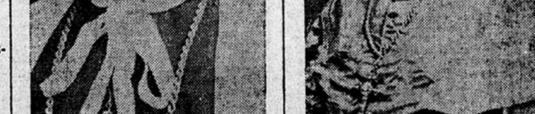

Then he raised his eyes, while his lips moved, evidently in prayer.
The doctors proceeded to make a most minute examination of the patient, listening to his breathing and testing his lungs.

Pope Sees the Papers.
The pope this morning having expressed desire to read the Observatore Romano and the Vocce della Verita to see what they were saying about his illness, special editions of the journals were prepared and sent to his holiness.

10:45 a. m.—Dr. Mazzoni, in an interview this afternoon, admitted that he had given up all hope of saving the pope's life.

The puncturing of the pleura has been postponed until 2 o'clock this afternoon.
4 p. m.—After the operation Dr. Mazzoni said that danger remained imminent but that the illness from which the pope was suffering was full of surprises. His holiness, he added, might even live three days longer.

8:30 p. m.—The pope has been operated upon and his general condition is now better.
8:20 a. m.—The pneumonia from which his holiness has been suffering is now

CARDINAL GOTTI.
The barefoot cardinal of the Carmelite order. A famous diplomat and ideal scholar. Prominently mentioned for

CARDINAL SERAFINO VANNUTELLI.
A leading cardinal for pope. He favors reconciliation with the quirinal. He is grand penitentiary of the church.