

AS IT'S DONE IN SERBIA

Dramatic Story of an Attempt to Poison King Milan, Told by Himself.

He Handed the Poisoned Cup to the Would-Be Regicide, Who Drank It.

New York Sun Special Service. Chicago, July 28.—Walter Wellman in a Washington special to the Record-Herald says:

One of the most dramatic stories of royal life I ever heard was told me by Moreton Frewen, the English traveler and economist, shortly before he sailed for home a few weeks ago. Mr. Frewen is a good deal of a sportsman and has visited many countries in search of big game. Some years ago he was one of a party that occupied a hunting lodge in the depths of a Hun-garian forest. Among the other sportsmen there was King Milan of Serbia. One evening while they were at the table, the king handed to the would-be regicide a poisoned cup to drink.

"I had not been long upon the throne of Serbia," said the king, "when a conspiracy against me was formed. It was a plot that had been formed against my life. The conspirators were many men in military and civil life that my advisers were very much alarmed and wanted me to cause them all to be summarily removed. I replied that I would not do the deed of a king to depopulate his kingdom, and if I executed every man who joined a plot against me it would not be long before I had no people left in my kingdom. "According to the plans of the conspirators, I was to be put out of the way by means of poison. An annual ceremonial banquet was soon the scene of the plot. My aides-de-camp, Colonel Blank, whose duty it was to hand me a golden goblet of wine, was to see that the cup contained the poison. Devising to accept the advice of my ministers to make immediate arrests and telling them to leave the whole matter in my hands, I went to the banquet. At the proper moment in the ceremony the aide-de-camp came up to me, extended the golden goblet and made a very pretty speech commending my reign as a blessing to the Serbian people and wishing me many years of health and happiness.

"I took the goblet," continued Milan, "and held it aloft a moment while I gazed about the banquet hall. You may imagine, gentlemen, the tension of that moment. Probably a thought of the people in the remotest parts of the kingdom was in my mind. I knew that the wine was poisoned, many of the conspirators being present as well as those of my trusted people who were informed of the plot. As I looked into the eyes of the hundred men who sat watching me, it seemed to me I could distinguish the friends from the foes, so it was not difficult to tell which were in the majority. Probably I was the calmest man of them all, for I knew all that they knew and something more besides.

"Nobles and gentlemen of Serbia," I exclaimed, "it gives me great pleasure to receive this mark of affection and support of my people. It is with the happiest feelings of good will to all and love for our dear country that I drink to your toast."

"At this juncture I touched my lips to the golden goblet and watched with keen interest the involuntary shudder that ran round the room. Pausing then, without having tasted the wine, you may be sure, I resumed:

"Upon second thought, I will not drink this toast myself. I see around me scores of my loyal officers, and I have imagined there is one among them who has given me such marked proof of his devotion that I now propose to pay him the unusual honor of asking him to prepare the body for burial. A brother-in-law is coming from Iowa to claim the remains and take them home. Clauson's father is an old friend of mine and I am sure he will be a major of the city."

A petition for the partition of the real estate of the late Isaac Staples is being considered today by Judge Williston. The estate consists of several large farms and property in Stillwater.

The Bell and Everett left today with two of his logs for Lindsey & Phelps of Davenport.

Mrs. Morgan Hughes died late last night, aged 35 years.

ABSORBED BY THE BELL Lines and Exchanges of Montana & Wyoming Phone Company.

STOLEN Saturday Night, July 25. One gray horse with light mane and all; branded Q bar on right shoulder. One dark sorrel, branded Q bar on right shoulder, with white stripe in face. One gray horse, fresh cut on right shoulder. One brown mare, 5 years old. Average weight, 1,400; all in good shape. Also one new buggy, with red running gear; two sets working harness at $100 each. Arrest of parties and return of property stolen. E. H. and W. Harold, Wheatland. Communicate with E. W. Trenchell, sheriff. Cass county.

FELL DOWN A BANK Vold Was Intoxicated, but That Did Not Save Him.

Red Wing, Minn., July 28.—Ole Vold, 30 years old, was intoxicated, fell from a fifteen-foot bank by the Zumbro river, near Zumbro and was killed. He rolled into the river where he would have been drowned had he not already been dead.

"SUMMER FOOD" Has Other Advantages.

Many people have tried the food Grape-Nuts simply with the idea of avoiding the trouble of cooking food in the hot months.

All of these have found something beside the ready cooked food idea, for Grape-Nuts is a scientific food that tones up and restores a sick stomach as well as repairs the waste tissue in brain and nerve centers.

IRISHMEN WHO LOOK FOR TROUBLE. London, July 28.—According to telegrams received here from Cork a special watch night and day to prevent the destruction of decorations by those who are opposed to the visit of King Edward and Queen Alexandra to Cork. The decorations along the route to be followed by the royal procession which were already far advanced, were in several instances to have been pulled down and otherwise damaged.

HAWAII'S BONDED DEBT. Honolulu, July 28.—The territorial officials are busy preparing for the treasury department at Washington the financial statement of Hawaii's affairs. The documents were submitted to President Roosevelt, to determine whether he will approve the territorial loan of $2,400,000. The financial statement will show that the bonded indebtedness of Hawaii is $1,300,000.

ECZEMA, NO CURE, NO PAY. Your druggist will refund your money if Eczema Ointment fails to cure ringworm, dandruff, old ulcers and sores, pimples and black heads on the face and all skin diseases. 50c.

DOWIE THE WHOLE THING

Elijah Two Eyes Lays Down the Law to His Subjects in Zion City.

New York Sun Special Service. Chicago, July 28.—Trouble with multicolored members of his flock at Zion City, Ill., said the Rev. James Dowie, "Elijah II.," yesterday to state in plain language what those who did not obey his rules could do. Summing it all up, he told them to get out of Zion City.

"Some may complain that I am judge in Zion City," he said. "You would better believe that I am. I was put here by God to be judge. I know the law of God, and so I arranged it that when you took your lease for 1,100 years you took it in the name of the Lord and with the covenant that you would obey God and do right. When you break that covenant you break your lease and you have no more right to hold land in Zion City."

"I intend to stop that from now on by telling our people not to buy bad persons' property beyond their own country. In future when a person disobeys the law of God and gets drunk, commits adultery, lies or steals, I shall say, 'We will pay you what you paid and not one cent more. Then go.'"

SKEPTICAL IN PARIS Pasteur Doctor Doesn't Believe Life Has Been Created by Hoosier Scientist.

New York Sun Special Service. Paris, July 28.—A dispatch from London, Ind., which reported that Dr. Littlefield had succeeded in creating life in the form of animated substances resembling well developed germs of life and that he had aroused attention in scientific circles. At the Pasteur Institute one of the doctors gave his views as follows:

"The success of Dr. Littlefield's experiment seems problematical and official confirmation must be awaited. It is thought here that a confirmation will not be forthcoming. Life certainly was found during Dr. Littlefield's experiment, but it could only have come from an outside source. The organisms either were attached to the walls of the tube or were present in the substances used in the experiment. It formerly was believed that meat in a state of putrefaction gave spontaneous birth to maggots, but Dr. Revil, in 1858, made some interesting experiments in this connection and showed that those maggots came from eggs deposited by flies. Pasteur also demonstrated the origin of the infinitesimal germs in some conclusive experiments."

NOT A SUICIDE Coroner's Jury Finds That Clauson's Death Was Accidental.

Special to The Journal. Stillwater, Minn., July 28.—Coroner Freiligh conducted an inquest to-day over the remains of Alfred Clauson, drowned in Lily lake, and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death. There was no evidence to substantiate the charge of suicide. Clauson is believed to have been of unsound mind because of excessive drinking and to have wandered into the swamp and fallen in. His last act was one following him to do him harm. Witnesses heard him cry for help.

A telegram from Davenport to-day instructed the coroner to prepare the body for burial. A brother-in-law is coming from Iowa to claim the remains and take them home. Clauson's father is an old friend of mine and I am sure he will be a major of the city.

A petition for the partition of the real estate of the late Isaac Staples is being considered today by Judge Williston. The estate consists of several large farms and property in Stillwater.

The Bell and Everett left today with two of his logs for Lindsey & Phelps of Davenport.

Mrs. Morgan Hughes died late last night, aged 35 years.

ABSORBED BY THE BELL Lines and Exchanges of Montana & Wyoming Phone Company.

STOLEN Saturday Night, July 25. One gray horse with light mane and all; branded Q bar on right shoulder. One dark sorrel, branded Q bar on right shoulder, with white stripe in face. One gray horse, fresh cut on right shoulder. One brown mare, 5 years old. Average weight, 1,400; all in good shape. Also one new buggy, with red running gear; two sets working harness at $100 each. Arrest of parties and return of property stolen. E. H. and W. Harold, Wheatland. Communicate with E. W. Trenchell, sheriff. Cass county.

FELL DOWN A BANK Vold Was Intoxicated, but That Did Not Save Him.

Red Wing, Minn., July 28.—Ole Vold, 30 years old, was intoxicated, fell from a fifteen-foot bank by the Zumbro river, near Zumbro and was killed. He rolled into the river where he would have been drowned had he not already been dead.

"SUMMER FOOD" Has Other Advantages.

Many people have tried the food Grape-Nuts simply with the idea of avoiding the trouble of cooking food in the hot months.

All of these have found something beside the ready cooked food idea, for Grape-Nuts is a scientific food that tones up and restores a sick stomach as well as repairs the waste tissue in brain and nerve centers.

IRISHMEN WHO LOOK FOR TROUBLE. London, July 28.—According to telegrams received here from Cork a special watch night and day to prevent the destruction of decorations by those who are opposed to the visit of King Edward and Queen Alexandra to Cork. The decorations along the route to be followed by the royal procession which were already far advanced, were in several instances to have been pulled down and otherwise damaged.

HAWAII'S BONDED DEBT. Honolulu, July 28.—The territorial officials are busy preparing for the treasury department at Washington the financial statement of Hawaii's affairs. The documents were submitted to President Roosevelt, to determine whether he will approve the territorial loan of $2,400,000. The financial statement will show that the bonded indebtedness of Hawaii is $1,300,000.

ECZEMA, NO CURE, NO PAY. Your druggist will refund your money if Eczema Ointment fails to cure ringworm, dandruff, old ulcers and sores, pimples and black heads on the face and all skin diseases. 50c.

BRAKES WOULD NOT HOLD

Serious Accident on the Southern Railroad at Springfield, Va., To-day.

Washington, July 28.—Two persons were killed and a dozen injured in a rear-end collision between the Southwestern vestibuled limited of the Southern railroad and a work train at Springfield, Va., seven miles below Alexandria. The killed: Wm. W. WOODWARD, Jonesville, Va.; a postal clerk; MEKES, fireman.

The injured: Benjamin Rawlins, Orange, Va., postal clerk; J. Frank Keeler, Leesville, Va., postal clerk; E. A. Fortaine, Bethel Hill, N. C.

The brakes of the work train, which was on a siding, refused to hold and it ran upon the main track. Following came the limited at a high rate of speed and crashed into it.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE WILL Alleged Attempt to Bribe the Jury on the Part of a Savings Bank.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 28.—A sensation in the city is being created to-day when Judge M. M. Allison called the jury in the Whiteside will contest case, involving an estate of nearly a million dollars, into court to hear testimony in an attempt had been made to influence them unduly in their verdict. The jury has been deadlocked for more than a week.

Judge Allison immediately issued attachments for the bank officials. They will appear this afternoon at which time the court will begin a rigid examination.

The Chattanooga Savings bank is one of the three executors of the Whiteside estate and the testimony of its officers was strongly in favor of sustaining the will. Judge Allison immediately issued attachments for the bank officials. They will appear this afternoon at which time the court will begin a rigid examination.

IMMORAL JAILS Some of the Indiana Pens Need Attention.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 28.—Governor Durbin has ordered Warden Reid, chairman of the prison board, to make an immediate investigation of the conditions prevailing in the jails in Floyd, Lawrence, Clinton and Delaware counties. The state board of corrections also has ordered an investigation of the conditions on Saturday strongly condemned the immoral conditions existing in these counties and has advised the governor. "Unfavorable reports" were also made on the jails of Henry, Jefferson, Wabash and Kosciusko counties.

The reports to the state board of charities and corrections are not of a nature believing that no good purpose would be served by the publication of the particulars of the reprehensible conditions that have come under the notice of the board.

FELL NINETEEN FLOORS Conley, a Miner, Had Been at Work Only a Few Minutes.

Special to The Journal. Wallace, Idaho, July 28.—George Conley, a miner, was killed in Hercules mine, night by falling down an ore chute for nineteen floors. He was his first shirt and had been at work only a few minutes. He had opened the chute and was about to step back into the chute. He was the first man killed in the mine since it was opened. His relatives live at Hope, Idaho, and Iron Mountain, Mont.

DEADLIEST OF ALL New Springfield Magazine Rifle for the Army.

New York Sun Special Service. Springfield, Mass., July 28.—The deadliest small arm yet devised will be placed in the hands of the United States regular army within a year, according to the officers at the United States armory. The government's small arms plant in this city has for months past been concentrating its energies on the development of a rifle which will be known as the Springfield magazine rifle.

It will be lighter and have greater velocity and penetration than the present rifle. The new model, which has a range of five miles, has been subjected to exhaustive tests and in each instance has met with unequalled success and approval from the examining board.

LONGUEVILLE WILL STICK Candidate for Shiras' Place Will Not Yield to Bar Association.

DUBUQUE, IOWA.—Despite the fact that the Dubuque Bar association, of which he is a member, will be arrayed against him in his fight for the federal judgeship, J. C. Longueville announces to-day that under no circumstances will he drop out of the race. A meeting of the bar association will be held this week no doubt, to rescind its previous action in endorsing the candidacy of Longueville and urge him to withdraw in favor of H. D. Reed.

As Congressman Birdsell, who is supporting Longueville, has announced that he has a second choice for the judgeship, Reed would not be surprised with Longueville out of the race, and would have the support of two congressmen and the influence of the local republican leaders would be exerted with Senator Allison in his behalf. Reed's friends realize that his chances to secure the appointment are becoming better each day and they are making a hard fight for him. An effort is being made to secure a pardon for Thomas Healey, sentenced to life imprisonment for the murder of two Dubuque policemen. Mrs. Frith and Mrs. Talcott, the widows of the murdered policemen, have entered vigorous objection to pardon.

The attention of Monsignor Ryan, vicar general of the archdiocese of Dubuque, and Rev. Father Toomey, rector of St. Raphael's cathedral, was called to a story sent from Fond du Lac, Wis., stating that Archbishop Keane would probably be named to succeed the late Archbishop Kraemer. They stated that no matter what efforts the suffragan bishops or priests made to have Archbishop Keane appointed metropolitan of Milwaukee, the latter would not doubt choose to remain in Dubuque, as his influence is so great here as it would be in the latter city. Soon after the death of Archbishop Corrigan of New York, Archbishop Keane was mentioned as a desirable man to succeed him, but he announced that he would prefer to remain in Dubuque.

PLEA FOR CON. LAKE SUPERIOR. Philadelphia, July 28.—President Shields of the Consolidated Lake Superior company has made another appeal to the stockholders of the company for financial assistance. In a circular letter he announces that unless the proposed $12,500,000 bond issue is taken, the whole property must pass into the hands of the creditors. The creditors are New York and Philadelphia banks, headed by Speyer & Co.

STERN FATHER RELENTS

Death of Heroic Son Melts the Paternal Heart Too Late.

New York Sun Special Service. Chicago, July 28.—Now that the son be drowned twelve years ago is dead, Charles Dittman, 212 Chicago street, has decided to do something for him.

The young man was drowned at Santa Fe park Sunday. He was a fine, well-to-do young man. He had his comrade, but lost his own life.

When the police went to the Dittman home to tell the family of the son's death, the father, who had been away, had not yet had time to get home.

"Don't tell me anything about that fellow," said the father, "I don't want to hear about what he's done this time."

When that he slammed the door. Today he was summoned to testify at the coroner's inquest.

After he had heard the story of his son's battle to save his comrade he decided there might have been some good in his boy after all.

"Well, may be I made a mistake," said Dittman. "Perhaps he was a good boy after all, as I thought he was. We'll pay what tribute we can."

"It isn't necessary," said Deputy Coroner Buer. "You know the county will care for the boy."

"In what way?" "Well, it will either be sent to the potter's field or to the morgue. In either case it won't cost you a cent."

"No, no," cried the father, tears coursing down his cheeks. "I don't want to bury my son in a pauper's grave."

His shoulders shaken by sobs, Dittman buried his face in his hands and wept. In a measure recovered his composure, he held in the parlors of the little home in which, in life, the young hero had been banished.

"Well, may be I made a mistake," said Dittman. "Perhaps he was a good boy after all, as I thought he was. We'll pay what tribute we can."

"It isn't necessary," said Deputy Coroner Buer. "You know the county will care for the boy."

"In what way?" "Well, it will either be sent to the potter's field or to the morgue. In either case it won't cost you a cent."

"No, no," cried the father, tears coursing down his cheeks. "I don't want to bury my son in a pauper's grave."

His shoulders shaken by sobs, Dittman buried his face in his hands and wept. In a measure recovered his composure, he held in the parlors of the little home in which, in life, the young hero had been banished.

"Well, may be I made a mistake," said Dittman. "Perhaps he was a good boy after all, as I thought he was. We'll pay what tribute we can."

"It isn't necessary," said Deputy Coroner Buer. "You know the county will care for the boy."

"In what way?" "Well, it will either be sent to the potter's field or to the morgue. In either case it won't cost you a cent."

"No, no," cried the father, tears coursing down his cheeks. "I don't want to bury my son in a pauper's grave."

His shoulders shaken by sobs, Dittman buried his face in his hands and wept. In a measure recovered his composure, he held in the parlors of the little home in which, in life, the young hero had been banished.

"Well, may be I made a mistake," said Dittman. "Perhaps he was a good boy after all, as I thought he was. We'll pay what tribute we can."

"It isn't necessary," said Deputy Coroner Buer. "You know the county will care for the boy."

"In what way?" "Well, it will either be sent to the potter's field or to the morgue. In either case it won't cost you a cent."

"No, no," cried the father, tears coursing down his cheeks. "I don't want to bury my son in a pauper's grave."

THOSE POOR SALOONISTS!

Swindled Out of Much Whisky by Government Gaugers Who Overweighed Barrels.

New York Sun Special Service. Philadelphia, July 28.—Frauds which it is estimated result in a loss of millions of dollars to retail liquor dealers in Chicago, Buffalo, Cleveland, Cincinnati, St. Louis, and other cities, have been unearthed as a result of the work of government gaugers by secret service men from Washington.

In every large city in the country it is estimated that there are being sold for thousands of gallons of whisky they did not get. As a result of the investigation here during the last two years, government gaugers were recently suspended in Chicago, St. Louis, and other cities.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

The gaugers were found to be overweighing the barrels of whisky. They were found to be putting in more whisky than they were allowed to. The result was that the dealers were swindled out of much whisky.

TALK LATIN FOR CAR SEAT

New Fangled Secret Society of Women of Whom Don't Have to Stand.

New York Sun Special Service. Chicago, July 28.—Divided we stand; united we shall have seats, may be, perhaps. With this as its motto the Austin Jure Humano club has been at work for some time.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

The club is at work for some time. It is a secret society of women. They are working to get seats on the cars. They are talking Latin for their seats.

CURIOUS MENTAL IMPULSE

Man With Concussion of the Brain Shoots Himself Voluntarily.

New York Sun Special Service. London, July 28.—Some curious and interesting evidence bearing on the effects of concussion of the brain was heard at an inquest to-day. It was the case in which a clergyman, the Rev. Walker Wilkinson-Noble, was found last week in his room, shot thru the head.

He had gone out one afternoon cycling and had a bad fall. He returned home covered with mud, but it was not thought the accident was serious. Later he shot himself with a revolver.

The doctor who was called in the course of his evidence before the coroner, said that Noble had evidently been suffering from a concussion of the brain, due to the bicycle accident. Afterward, while engaged in cleaning his revolver, he had fired it into his own head.

Another doctor expressed the belief that Noble had not casually found the revolver, but that he had deliberately shot himself. He was a man of a very strong mind, and it was his opinion, an involuntary one.

The doctor said there are conditions of the brain following a partial concussion when any object urges the sufferer to put it to immediate use. He said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

The doctor said that he had experienced this condition himself. He had been shot in the head, and he had felt an impulse to shoot himself.

$5,000. Reward for the Arrest and Conviction of——the parties who originated and circulated, the rumor that "Force" Food contained drugs or other injurious ingredients. $5,000. additional will be paid to anyone proving that "Force" does, or ever did, contain any drug or other injurious or unhealthful ingredient, being composed solely of Wheat and Barley, with a seasoning of table salt, steam cooked, flaked, and roasted.

Do us the justice, if you question the absolute purity or healthfulness of "Force," to send a package to the Health Department of your city for analysis.

</