BURTON A FACTOR

Minneapolis Man Has a Chance to Win Western Tennis Tournament at Chicago.

Cream of the Western Talent Will Attend Northwestern Tourney at Deephaven.

Ward Burton of the Minnetonka club is picked by the Chicago tennis experts as a possible winner of the western tournament at the Kenwood Country club in the windy city.

Yesterday Burton got thru his match in the third round, defeating J. W. Bingham after a hard three-set match.

Mr. Burton, writing to a friend in Minneapolis, says that a large number of the men playing in the Chicago tournament have promised to attend the Northwestern tournament at Deephaven next week.

It is not yet certain whether Collins will come to Minneapolis, but Waldner and Snow in all probability will be here.

YESTERDAY'S SCORES: Third Round, Men's Singles—H. G. Hunt beat E. W. Stephens, 7-5, 6-4, 6-3; J. J. Forestall beat A. C. McManis, 6-4, 6-3; A. C. Snow beat C. H. Garrett, 6-3, 6-4; E. Diehl beat R. Lamb, 6-4, 6-3; W. C. Burton beat J. W. Bingham, 18-11, 0-6, 7-5; N. Emerson beat W. U. Knight, 6-3, 6-1.

First Round, Men's Doubles—Blake and Winston beat Mayhew and Prince by default; Collins and Waldner beat Peters and Garnett, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3; Palmer brothers beat Wilbremer and Kellogg, 6-4, 6-3, 6-3.

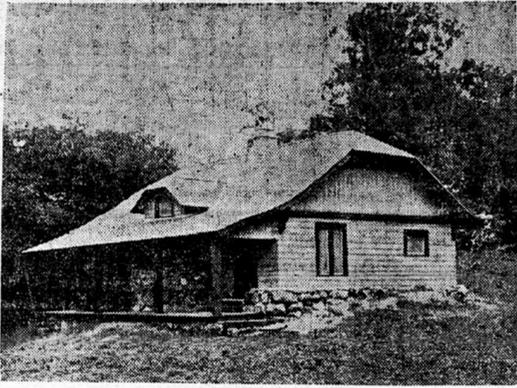

Final Round, Women's Singles—Miss Miriam Steever beat Miss Isabel Lee, 6-2, 6-3; Miss Louise Pond beat Miss Abbott Thornley, 6-0, 6-2; Miss Carrie E. Neely beat Miss Alice Hillman, 6-0, 6-1; Miss Violet Summershew beat Miss Lela Soule, 6-0, 6-0; Miss Wilma Clesterman beat Miss Miriam Steever, 6-1, 6-0; Miss Marie Wilner beat Miss Maud Pennington, 6-0, 6-1; Miss Edythe Parker beat Miss Alice Buterman by default; Miss Hazel Hedley beat Miss Bursen by default.

The tennis followers who went to Longwood, Mass., yesterday, to see the finals in the five sets between Larned and Ward. For the first three sets it was a hard and closely fought battle, and tho there were no long rallies, the playing was remarkable for accuracy and clever head work by both men.

Up to the intermission Ward led two sets to one, but in the third set he was willing considerably, and after a short rest Larned came out and took the necessary two sets with comparative ease. Ward took the first set, and if he could have kept up the pace he would undoubtedly have won it. As he weakened, however, Larned came up, and tho Ward took the third Larned followed with two easy wins.

The win gave Larned the right to challenge W. J. Clothier, the winner last year, for possession of the cup. The result: Larned beat Ward 4-6, 8-6, 7-9, 6-2, 6-1.

THE TENNIS MEN'S RETREAT

A picturesque chalet just completed on the grounds occupied by the Minnetonka club, at Deephaven, Lake Minnetonka, preparatory to the arrival of the tennis players who will assemble in the northwestern tournament which begins Aug. 3 and closes Aug. 8, in the lounge room is a handsome fireplace built on unique lines and the furniture is suggestive of comfort. Among the other appointments of the building are sets of commodious lockers and a bath room. It stands in the center of the circle, making the natural amphitheater, overlooking the double courts on which many of the deciding games will be played. There are eight turf courts which will be in constant use.

ANNUAL YACHT CRUISE

Minnetonka Club Will Enjoy an Outing Saturday—Classification of the Boats.

The annual yacht cruise of the Minnetonka club will be held Saturday. The start will be made at 10:30 p. m. The yachts will be classified as follows: First-class sloops, second class sloops, one design boats and cuts. All the launches will start in one class and a prize will be awarded the most handsomely decorated launch.

YACHTING

With the selection of Reliance as the defender of the America cup against the Shamrock III, the racing season for large boats of Newport is practically finished. Reliance left yesterday for Bristol, where she will be shortly overhauled.

Commodore Gourne of the New York Yacht Club said that Constitution would remain in commission until the cup race and would give Reliance all possible assistance in tuning up, either off Newport or in the sound. It is likely that Columbia will go out of commission within a short time.

In reference to the official measurements of the yachts, Commodore Bourne said that all figures would be given when Reliance and Shamrock III, were measured just previous to the cup race. The actual results of the twenty contests in which Reliance, Constitution and Columbia have participated will therefore not be definitely known until that time.

CYCLE RACING

In the "Golden Wheel" motor-paced race at Boston last night, in which Harry Caldwell, De Guehard, Benmie Munroe and Gus Lawson competed, Caldwell made a new world's record for one hour's riding in competition, covering 47 miles 364 yards. Munroe was second with 47 miles and 83 yards.

E. J. Baldwin, generally known as "Lucky," has carried out his plan of incorporating Arcadia, a municipality of the sixth class, on his big ranch in San Gabriel valley, California. Temperance and church people declare he intends to establish a Monte Carlo within half an hour's ride of Los Angeles and Baldwin himself tells a story which apparently gives them reason for this belief.

H. Chandler Egan of Exmore, the western and intercollegiate champion, was the star in yesterday's play on the Owatonna links at Chicago in the first and second rounds for the Ravinook cup. Egan is present holder of the trophy. Besides reducing the record for the first nine holes of the course by going around in thirty-four strokes, seven strokes better than bogey, Egan defeated his two opponents in masterly fashion. In the first round from J. H. Conklin, the Princeton crack, 2 up and 1 to play. In the second round Egan forced B. A. Crosby of Edgewater to give up after being 5 up with 9 to play, not allowing Crosby to win a hole.

INTEREST What we wish to do INTEREST

"We Do As Others Do" Is to interest you in these 20 books. THESE FACTS MAY HELP US.

IF you pretend to be at all educated, you must be familiar with the world's great myths and legends. Here, again, is where the "Consolidated Encyclopedic Library" proves a valuable addition to your library, for its Department of Literature furnishes the needed material. First are presented the Fairy Tales of all Nations, edited and selected by the author and poet, Chas. G. D. Roberts. Following these are the Fables, with an introduction by Epiphanius Wilson. Next in order come the Old Testament legends taken from the Arabic. Next is the Department of Mythology, containing the best Chinese, Greek, Roman, Hindo and American Indian myths. Last, but not least, come the famous legends of antiquity.

YOU have probably seen, and perhaps you own, one of those old "alphabetical sets." There are generally ten volumes of very dry material printed in very fine type; and the odds are that you have never read one volume through in all the time you've had the books. The truth of the matter is, it's just like trying to read a dictionary—nothing but a lot of facts set down in a "cut-and-dried" manner.
