

about. Neither yacht was heeling over to any extent. The air was very light and the excursion fleet continually had to stop so as not to be in the advance of the racers.

Reliance Walks Away. At 11:55 the wind in the shore was blowing six or seven miles an hour from the south-east and there were prospects of the race being finished on time. At noon the boats had been sailing about an hour and had covered about one-third the distance to the outer mark. Reliance's gain as the yachts worked slowly out toward the mark was continuous and she pulled away until at 12:25 there was a span of about a mile between the two boats.

The breeze had freshened to about seven knots and the yachts were moving fast. At any previous time in the race, Shamrock appeared entirely unable to hold Reliance. At 12:15 they were half way to the outer mark. A few minutes later the other mark, Shamrock seemed to hold the Reliance better, appearing to point almost as high and foot as fast. At 1:02 both boats made a long tack to starboard and came about and headed towards the south. They were somewhat to the westward of the course and it looked as if they might reach the mark at the next tack. The wind was off shore and seemed to be holding fairly well, blowing about six miles an hour.

It was 12:30 when Barr tacked to starboard. Captain Wringe evidently had an idea of his own and did not intend to be influenced by any of the defender's actions. Barr was his opponent did not follow his lead and only held the starboard tack for four minutes when he filled away again and Shamrock came about. Barr did not hold his direction long and quickly followed the challenger's example and tacked to starboard. The yachts at this time had apparently sailed about ten miles of the course. The wind had not fallen and the prospects were for a finish race.

Reach Outer Mark. The port tack was held by Reliance for 15 minutes, when she went over to starboard and headed straight for the mark. The Shamrock went on the same tack at 1:21, about a mile in the rear. The wind was very light off shore and it was twenty minutes later at 1:42 when Reliance turned the floating beacon which marked the outer limit of the course. Shamrock turned 1:48.

On Homeward Course. The yachts sailed the first four or five miles of the homeward course very slowly. Reliance with her great sail spread continued to gain and at 2:20 was over a mile in the van. Unless the wind decreased, experts said, Reliance was a certain winner and Sir Thomas' third effort to win the America's cup was doomed to failure.

The wind began to haul a little to the south as the afternoon progressed. Most of the excursion fleet is headed to the eastward of the line, but others hurried forward for a good position near the finish line. At 3 o'clock Reliance was about eight miles from the lights and looked to be about a mile and a half ahead of the Shamrock.

NEVER SAY DIE, LIPTON The Yachtsman Yesterday Tacked Hopefully of To-Day's Outlook.

New York, Aug. 27.—Sir Thomas Lipton said yesterday he still had a chance, but he admitted that it was a small one, and to lift the cup this year he must win three straight races.

"It is very disappointing," said Sir Thomas, "that after all these years of planning and working my boat cannot win a race. The yacht is a beautiful one, but in last Saturday's race, which hurt her very much.

"We are hoping for the best and the Shamrock will go to the line in the best possible shape and with everyone determined to do all he can to help the yacht to win. Everyone realizes that the Reliance is a great boat and she is handled beautifully, but she may be beaten. Yacht racing is uncertain, and we won't give up until the last race has been sailed."

IT SCARES PEOPLE Who come of a consumptive family when they begin to cough and the lungs are painful. But it is a fact beyond dispute that consumption is not and cannot be inherited. The microbe which breeds disease must also be introduced into the system by the individual before consumption can be developed.

Men and women who have been afflicted with obstructive coughs, bronchitis, bleeding of the lungs, emaciation and weakness, have been perfectly and permanently cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cures the cough, heals the lungs, and builds up the body with solid flesh.

"When I commenced taking your medicines, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. C. L. Sunderland, of Chaucery, Calvert Co., Md. "At times, I could not even walk across the room without pain in my chest. The doctor who attended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and soon commenced to feel better. Then you directed me to take both the Golden Medical Discovery and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Altogether, I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription,' and five vials of 'Pell's.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 10 one-cent stamps to cover expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

TOLSTOY WRITES OF THE EMPEROR

Declares William to Be a Man of Limited Understanding and Little Education.

His Pamphlet, Entitled "Thou Shalt Not Kill," Has Been Suppressed in Germany.

The Czar Nicholas Also Is Severely Criticized by the Great Sociologist.

New York Sun Special Service. New York, Aug. 27.—Copies of Count Leo Tolstoy's pamphlet, suppressed in Germany, have reached this country. The work is entitled "Thou Shalt Not Kill," and is an argument against the present state of society, which permits war and nourishes anarchy. The writer says in part: "Kings and emperors should not be in a position when such murders as that of Alexander II., Humbert occur, but should, on the contrary, be surprised that such murders are so rare, considering the continual and universal examples of committing murders they themselves set the people.

"Kings and emperors are surprised and horrified when one of themselves is murdered and yet the whole their activities consists in managing murder and preparing for murder. The keeping up, the teaching and exercising of armies with which kings and emperors are always so much occupied, and of which they are the organizers—what is it but preparation for murder?"

He "Roasts" the Kaiser. "What must indeed be going on in the head of some William German man of limited understanding, little education and with a great deal of ambition, whose ideals are like those of a German 'yunker' when any silly or horrid thing he may say is always met with an enthusiastic 'hooray' and commented on as if it were something very important by the press of the whole world? He says soldiers should be prepared to kill their own fathers in obedience to his command. The answer is 'hurrah!' He says the gospels must be introduced with a fist of iron and again we hear, 'hurrah!' He says that the army must not take any prisoners in China, but kill all and he is not placed in a lunatic asylum, but they cry 'Hurrah!' and set sail for China to execute his orders.

The Czar Little Better. "Or Nicholas, who, the naturally modest, begins his reign by declaring to venerate me, in answer to the desire they express of being allowed to discuss their own affairs, that their hope for self-government is a senseless dream. And the press of the whole world, who praise him for it. He proposes a childish, silly and untruthful project of universal peace at the same time that he is ordering the massacre of the army, and even then there are no limits to the laudations of his wisdom and his power. Without reason he senselessly kills people and offends the whole of the Finnish nation and again hears nothing but praise.

At last he starts the Chinese slaughter, by his injustice, cruelty and its contrast with his professed idealism, he gets simultaneously applauded from all sides, both for his own conquests and for his adherence to his father's policy of peace. "What must indeed be going on in the heads and hearts of such men?"

HAY VISITS ROOSEVELT The Minneapolis Attorney Takes Luncheon With the President at Oyster Bay.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 27.—The proposed investigation of the pending post-mortem on the late President Roosevelt's subjects discussed to-day by President Roosevelt with his visitors. President Roosevelt entertained at luncheon the representative Charles N. Fowler of New Jersey, Acting Attorney General J. P. McReynolds and C. H. Robb, attorney general for the postoffice department; Eugene C. Hay, the well-known apostle of reciprocity from Minneapolis; Ansley Wilcox of Buffalo, a long-time friend at whose home Mr. Roosevelt took the oath as president; John C. Davis, former attorney general of New York, and Hamilton Garland, the writer.

CLERK PLAYED BALL So Casius Schaefer and Miss Bertha Hemp Had to Wait for Their Marriage License.

New York Sun Special Service. Belleville, Ill., Aug. 27.—A game of baseball at the park yesterday between the "leaves" and "fans" of this city, in aid of charity, caused a delay of the marriage license of Casius Schaefer of St. Louis to Miss Bertha Hemp of Indianapolis.

The couple had planned a quiet wedding here as a surprise to friends. Upon their arrival they found the license office closed, due to Charles Schaefer being engaged with the "leaves" at the game. The couple sought him out, but he told them he was a member of the leaf team and would not leave. They decided to wait until the close of the game, when Rhein issued the license and they were married.

BOY IS RESCUED French Ship Gives Up American Youth Said to Be "Shanghaied."

New York, Aug. 27.—The American boy who tried to escape from the French bark Marchal de Gontaut yesterday, alleging that he had been "shanghaied," was taken from the vessel early this morning by Collector of the Port, Stranahan, who had gone out to sea on the revenue cutter Greenhatch to rescue the boy.

The boy is named Hugh Thompson, is 16 years old and is the son of a sailor. After he had been taken in charge by the revenue officer, young Thompson said he had not been forcibly taken to the boat, but had gone with the consent of his father. He said, however, that he thought he was to ship on a coaster and when he found that the Marchal de Gontaut was bound for Yokohama and that he would be absent for many months he wanted to return to his home.

NEGROS MUST GO White Girls to Take Their Places in Chicago Restaurants.

New York Sun Special Service. Chicago, Aug. 27.—A letter, representing the Chicago Restaurant Keepers' association, visited Milwaukee yesterday and engaged scores of girls for Chicago restaurants. Potter said that on account of the unfairness of the negro waiters at restaurant keepers had decided to replace them with women.

He added: "The negro waiter in Chicago will have to go. It is not simply because of the strike now in progress, but it has been felt for some time that a change ought to be made. I estimate that 500 negro waiters will have lost their positions when my work is completed for the association. The colored men have known for several days that they are to be replaced and for a time we expected trouble, but I have no doubt now that the change will be made without friction."

was by acclamation, altho after it was announced that the name of Tom L. Johnson was the only one before the convention for governor there were some dissenting Zimmerman votes on the resolution to make the nomination unanimous. But Zimmerman's supporters quit after the nominations for governor and senator had been made. Bad feeling frequently existed at the time the convention was in an uproar.

PULITZER IS NABBED

Son of the New York Publisher Literally Walked Into the Trap Set for Him.

He Must Journey 700 Miles to Be Tried for Killing Game Out of Season.

Special to The Journal. Butte, Mont., Aug. 27.—Ralph Pulitzer, son of the proprietor of the New York World, arrived in Butte early this morning as the prisoner of the state game warden, W. F. Scott.

Pulitzer, who is touring the United States, is on his way to Teton, in the extreme northern part of the state, where he will stand trial for the alleged killing of mountain sheep out of season, the extreme penalty of which in Montana is a year in the penitentiary or a fine of $500, or both.

The Gotham editor's son was captured after a clever piece of detective work on the part of Montana officials. It was planned at first to arrest young Pulitzer where found and begin requisition proceedings, but fear was expressed that the authorities might lose the man. Pulitzer's movements were then kept track of by the Montana officers, and it was learned that he intended making a tour of the Yellowstone National park and a trap was laid by Warden Scott to arrest him as soon as he stepped into Montana territory.

Game Warden Scott lay in hiding at Montana, just across the Idaho line, and almost before the New Yorker had proceeded half a dozen feet into Montana, the officer pounced upon him and made him a prisoner.

Pulitzer refused to talk concerning the charge against him, but expressed very emphatically his displeasure at making a trip of about 700 miles back to Teton to stand trial. A deputy game warden discovered heads of mountain sheep near the scene of Pulitzer's camp near St. Mary's lake, and the warden issued a warrant for Pulitzer's arrest followed.

SCHOONER SINKS Steamship Rams and Sinks the "John Booth"—Six Men Are Drowned.

Stonington, Conn., Aug. 27.—The Metropolitan steamship "John Booth" from New York to Boston, ran down and sank the schooner John Booth just west of New Haven last night.

The Whitney rescued the captain of the Booth and sailor, but the five other men, who belonged in Salem, Mass., were drowned.

YESUVIUS IN ERUPTION The Great Volcano Belches Forth Lava to a Height of Fully 700 Feet.

Naples, Aug. 27.—The people of Naples and the environs witnessed a memorable spectacle yesterday. One thousand feet below the central cone of Vesuvius the volcano opened like a huge mouth, out of which belched a fiery stream of lava, which ran down the side of the mountain, and at first seemed to menace the observatory. This building, however, is protected in the direction of the stream by a mound of lava 200 feet high, which was thrown out during the eruptions of 1895 and 1890.

The eruption occurred without any warning whatever. There was no great quake, detonation or rain of ashes, nothing but a clear stream of lava and red-hot stones, which were thrown to a height of 700 feet, producing an extremely beautiful effect seen from Naples. The stream of lava, which was fifteen feet broad at 11 o'clock last night, had covered a distance of 2,700 feet. It deviated later from the direction of the observatory, which is no longer menaced. The only danger is for the new electric tramway up the volcano, which, however, has thus far not been touched.

CLARKE IS INDORSED Ohio Democratic Convention Favors Him for the Senate.

Columbus, O., Aug. 27.—Tom Johnson's program was carried out yesterday in the democratic state convention with little opposition, except as to indorsement of a man for United States senator. A minority platform that did not indorse the Chicago or Kansas City platform was lost more than 2 to 1. Bryan's national policy predominated as much as did Johnson's state ideas. The minority fought for several hours against Johnson and what they called socialism, but the name of John L. Zimmerman of Springfield was not presented for the gubernatorial nomination, while every nomination on the state ticket

HE DRANK AND SMOKED Yet Lived to Go to the Poohhouse in His 106th Year.

New York Sun Special Service. Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 27.—Edward Norris, may not be compelled to spend his remaining years in the almshouse. He celebrated his 106th birthday "over the top" of the hill to the poorhouse. His case has stirred the National Protective Alliance of Chicago, which wrote Mayor Rueben to-day saying that while he does not know the man, he is a relative of his, and is willing to give him the benefit of the doubt. He offers Norris a room home in the west of the city. The offer was read to Edward Norris at the almshouse, and he shook his head as if undecided what to do.

There is not much consolation for the totaller in the case of Mr. Norris. He has drunk steadily since his wife died, and his pipe. He thinks that if he had been deprived of these consolations his life would have been short of several of his most blissful years.

The Tucson Chamber of Commerce has given the site and will install a water supply and an electric plant for the Desert Laboratory of the Carnegie Institution on a mountain two miles west of the city. The object of the undertaking is to study the plant characteristic of arid regions.

here that Edith White may have been murdered by some man who accompanied her north and who left the account to hide the crime. B. S. Shields here says that late in the eighties Mrs. White ran away from her husband with another man, later she left this man for still another. Her husband some years later found her and took her back, but it was only a short time until she left him again and that was the last ever heard of her. She was a beautiful woman and if she was not murdered and the account left to cover up the crime, then her penitence was for the wrongs she had done her husband.

H. H. Cheatham says: "After leaving White in Mankato, Mrs. White went to Chicago, where she opened a dental office, and opened an office in Minneapolis. She went to Chicago where she opened a dental office and did well. She remained in Chicago until about three years ago, when we heard she had passed thru Seattle on her way to Alaska."

WHO IS G. E. WENTWORTH? Principals in Sensational New York Eloping Said to Be Living in This City.

Special to The Journal. New York, Aug. 27.—George E. Wentworth, the college graduate, lawyer and clubman, created a sensation in December, 1900, by deserting his wife and eloping from this city with pretty, blue-eyed Marie Louise Ackerman, has been found by his friends in Minneapolis. He has written to his former friend M. M. Peoll of 244 W. One Hundred and Fifty-seventh street. He is happy, he says, practicing his profession and making more money than ever before.

The letter contains numerous messages from acquaintances, one of which is to R. M. Putnam, his former law partner, telling him to charge the indebtedness that he left unpaid to profit and loss, as he will soon be able to make good.

Wentworth was connected with the law firm of Casper, Rutherford & Putnam, 31 Nassau street.

Miss Ackerman is a daughter of the late George Ackerman, who was president of the Tenth National bank. She had one brother, the late George Ackerman, who valued at $30,000, was divided. While preparing to take a civil service examination she fell in with Wentworth, who helped her with her studies. It is said the couple had been married for some time. Wentworth has obtained a divorce.

Miss Ackerman's relatives say they would forget all of "Lou" would return, they do not wish to see Wentworth again.

NAB A MODERN FAGIN Negro Is Arrested in Chicago While Teaching Boys How to Pick Pockets.

New York Sun Special Service. Chicago, Aug. 27.—William Saunders, colored, who has been likened by the police to the criminal of fiction, was arrested yesterday, the police say, while instructing a class of young men, all of whom were white, in the art of picking pockets. Saunders, fourteen of his alleged students were arrested and locked up at the Des Plaines street station. The police are reported to be satisfied that an even dozen have learned the art of the pickpocket from the penitentiary or the Fannie reformatory.

For several months various thefts and petty crimes of a serious nature, have been traced to the criminal. He was arrested yesterday morning at the house at Aberdeen and Van Buren streets. The raid was not the leading criminal of the city, but a number of his students could be arrested.

The five detectives who have been working on the case went to the house of 111 West 11th street, where Saunders was surrounded by them. McDonnell and Barry entered it from the front door the house was deserted, going to be hidden in the rear of the house Saunders and fourteen boys were found.

ONE AFTER THE OTHER Property Worth Half a Million at Council Bluffs Destroyed by Two Cloudbursts.

Council Bluffs, Iowa, Aug. 27.—Two cloudbursts, one at dusk and the other at 3:30 o'clock last night, destroyed $500,000 worth of property in Council Bluffs.

The earlier storm turned the streets into creeks, and hundreds of families escaped from their homes with difficulty. The rainfall for the twenty-four hours ended at midnight amounted to six inches.

The North-Western railway is not running a train in or out of Council Bluffs. The railway was washed out between Ida Grove and Battle Creek, Iowa, and between Mapleton and Castana, Iowa. The Rock Island and the Milwaukee railroads are tied up. Both roads have washouts east of Council Bluffs.

The Nonpareil has reports from twenty-five southwestern Iowa points showing the fall rain has been so heavy over so large an area that the amount of damage to the corn crop cannot be estimated.

Worst of the Year. Burlington, Iowa, Aug. 27.—The worst rain of the season fell last night and early this morning. The whole country is flooded and streams are out of their banks. Numerous small bridges are reported out and it is feared much damage has been done to crops.
