COUNCIL ABOVE LAW

An Indulgence Is Granted Which Breaks the New Building Ordinance.

Clark License Ordinance Is Passed—Westphal Holds Up Canterbury's Bill.

After adopting a resolution instructing the city controller to include in his estimate for the board of tax levy $2,500 for the installing of a new system of municipal bookkeeping.

It has long been the custom for the city council to give special privileges to investors who by building contrary to regulations can put up a large building for a small sum of money.

The Clark ordinance prohibiting the transfer of a saloon license from one address to another was passed without opposition.

The health officer submitted an ordinance requiring persons engaged in building to get a permit from the health officer.

Westphal Blocks the Way. Alderman Westphal sustained his reputation for doing something original by holding up the council's appropriation of $100 expense money for Fire Chief Santerbury.

The petition of the Milwaukee road for permission to lay a spur track at Fourteenth street and Hennepin avenue was not granted.

Temple Court. A 10-cent cigar for 5 cents.

BOARD IS A "SPOIL-SPORT". Regulations for St. Paul High School Athletics Declared Rigid and Unfair.

General dissatisfaction among high school boys of St. Paul has followed the announcement of new rules by the school board committee on athletics.

Another objection is that the members of the best universities in games played before co-eds.

THETAS ELECT OFFICERS. Closing Work of the Convention—Entertained at Beta Theta Pi House.

The Kappa Alpha Theta convention yesterday re-elected most of its officers.

Resolutions of thanks to the local chapters of the fraternity and to the other fraternities of the university for courtesies extended were passed.

Alpha Beta chapter at Swarthmore was chosen to edit the fraternity journal for two years.
