

CITY NEWS.

WEATHER NOW AND THEN
Maximum Temperature To-day 72
Degrees; a Year Ago 80 Degrees.

Newspaper Men Here—Lot Lee, telegraph editor of the Indianapolis News, and E. E. Martin, proprietor of the Indianapolis Morning Star, are in Minneapolis on their way to Minnetonka for a vacation and fishing.

Franklin School Ready Tuesday—Superintendent of Schools C. M. Jordan this morning visited the Franklin school and announces that repairs will be completed there in a few days and that the school will be ready for occupancy by next Tuesday morning.

Plans for J. I. Case Building—Kees & Colburn have drawn the plans for the J. I. Case Threshing Machine company warehouse, which is to be built at Seventh avenue S. and Washington. The building will be of pressed brick, six stories high to cost $125,000.

The County Home—A plan to change the name of the county poor farm, so as to call it the county home, has been broached by the commissioners and may be carried out. It is said that many old people object to going to the farm on account of its name.

Loss Covered by Insurance—The South Side State bank, which is correspondent of the State Bank of Silver Lake, has more definite information concerning the robbery of the latter institution which occurred yesterday by telegraph from Glenwood. The robbers did secure $2,100 in cash, but the notes and securities were untouched. The bank's loss is covered by $5,000 burglar insurance.

One of the Sights—Among the sights of the city always interesting to visitors is the museum of the Academy of Natural Sciences on the second floor of the public library building. This includes in addition to many fine collections of native specimens in zoology, geology, botany, etc. One of the finest collections in existence of specimens illustrating the flora and fauna of the Philippines.

Freer on Guard at the Bijou—Resident Manager Theodore L. Hays of the Bijou has engaged as special officer for that playhouse Daniel Freer, a member of the regular police force up to a short time ago. Mr. Freer's long experience as a patrolman eminently fits him for the work he has now undertaken and it is safe to predict that the Bijou gallery, under his direction, will keep the perfect order expected of it by the management.

Fun For Furniture Men—Beginning at 6:30 o'clock to-night the northwestern retail furniture dealers who are in the city in connection with the state fair, will be the guests of the Minneapolis manufacturers and jobbers of furniture and kindred lines at the Commercial Club. A committee, headed by F. R. Salisbury, has provided merry entertainment in addition to the banquet which will be served in the club dining-room. The registration at headquarters in the Brunswick hotel, which are in charge of A. R. McCallivray, has been large.

NECROLOGICAL

MRS. S. T. M'KNIGHT—The funeral at 10 a. m. from the family home at 220 Park avenue, was attended by the family and intimate friends. The house and Lakewood Cemetery Chapel were decorated with flowers from many friends. Simple services at the house and Lakewood chapel were conducted by Rev. M. D. Hardin, of Andrew Wesleyan church, and assisted by pallbearers were H. C. Akeley, James S. Bell, C. W. Case, George H. Christian, William H. Dunwoody, F. W. Foreman, E. J. Phelps and the Rev. J. W. Johnson. H. Borey, C. M. Case, John Crosby, W. H. Heffelfinger, John McDonald and John S. Pillsbury, were active pallbearers. Mrs. McKnight will be buried in the cemetery of Westminster church, where she always took an active part in the work of the home for children and aged women, whose board she has for many years been a useful director, also in many private works of charity and kindness not known to all.

RICKER TRIES FOR PLACE

Big Guard Joins University Football Squad Again.

The football squad at Waconia will have a notable accession tonight in the person of Max Ricker, the big substitute left guard who played with the 1901 team. Ricker has been in the lumber business at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and has trained down so that he is well inside of 200 pounds and looks as fit as a fiddle. He has decided to return to the university and has yielded to the solicitations of Coach Williams to get into the game. He is a heavy, strong player who knows the game well, having played with the famous champion Central high school teams of 1899 and 1900. He is a son of City Physician George E. Ricker.

OBJECT TO SHIFT LOOKS LIKE MURDER

Patrolmen Say New Beats Were Assigned Without Regard to Record.

Steady Men Get the Worst of It, and Claim Favoritism Was Shown.

Dissatisfaction exists among the patrolmen whose beats were changed yesterday by a sweeping order of Chief of Police Conroy. Many of the officers say that the order was issued for no other reason than to give the commanding officers of precincts a chance to show favoritism in dealing out the beats, which could not have been done if a general shuffling up of beats had not been ordered.

Loss Covered by Insurance—The South Side State bank, which is correspondent of the State Bank of Silver Lake, has more definite information concerning the robbery of the latter institution which occurred yesterday by telegraph from Glenwood. The robbers did secure $2,100 in cash, but the notes and securities were untouched. The bank's loss is covered by $5,000 burglar insurance.

NEW LADIES' QUARTET

Distinct Success Scored by Local Singers About to Engage in Concert Work.

There has been much curiosity among local musicians to hear the Minnesota Ladies' quartet, recently organized, consisting of Misses Pratt, Welsch, Kendall and Paulson. The opportunity was presented Friday evening at the residence of L. H. Ellis, and although much had been expected of the quartet, its work was a distinct and gratifying surprise to those present.

NEARING A CRISIS

Strike Situation Reaches a Point Which Means Action or a Tie-Up.

Labor Leaders Make Their Proposition Which Is Rejected by Contractors.

The strike situation has reached a critical stage, a proposition has been made to the contractors and refused. The proposition was made by George C. Gubbins, president of the International Bricklayers' union yesterday, and included a recognition of the Building Laborers' union, the employment of none but union men tenders and a minimum scale of 25 cents an hour. Failure to accept this proposition, Mr. Gubbins is said to have intimated strongly, would mean a general sympathetic strike, which would affect every business enterprise in the city.

STUDENTS PROTEST

Deplore the Loss of Free-Hand Drawing Department at the "U."

Many Say That Pruning Knife Could Be Used to Better Advantage.

More than thirty undergraduate students who attended the university last year will not return this year on account of the discontinuance of the free-hand drawing department. The action of the regents in cutting off this department has called forth many protests and is generally considered as a mark of distinction. He thinks that many officers who have had beats for many years are entitled to better beats and that the regents are willing to take a few months of "roughing it."

CONFER OVER NEW R. R.

Prominent Men From Hutchinson Meet Promoters at the Nicollet.

Promoters of the new north and south railroad projected from Mankato to Duluth, Minn., met this morning at the Hotel Nicollet. Even many of the smaller colleges maintain a school of free-hand drawing. The Universities of Wisconsin, Michigan, Nebraska and Chicago all support free-hand drawing and it is generally conceded that Minnesota is taking a step backward in abolishing it.

Miss Mae Snow in Charge—Ten Pupils Enroll.

The truant school which was established four years ago in connection with the public school system was opened yesterday morning in the basement of the Adams school, Miss Mae Snow being in charge. The work of the school is under the supervision of D. H. Fisher, principal of the school, but this is the first year that a woman has been placed directly in charge of the truant pupils.

HE WAVED A KNIFE

Crazy Man Threatens to Carve Policeman, but Submits Without Fight.

William O'Brien, a crazy man, at 725 Washington avenue S. gave Officers Nelson and Frank Zaluskis some trouble this morning before they could take him to the county jail. O'Brien had locked himself in a room and refused to open the door. When the officers looked over the transom, they saw O'Brien flourishing a large carving knife and threatening all kinds of vengeance, if they tried to force their way in. However, they forced the lock and dashed in expecting a hard fight. But O'Brien quietly submitted and was soon in the jail. He has been insane once before.

Deane; vice president, Mrs. O. J. Evans; secretary, Mrs. C. E. Faulkner; treasurer, Mrs. H. A. Norton.

SHE BOUGHT CHLOROFORM
Girl Who Said She Had Been Drugged and Assaulted.
Interest in the reported criminal assault upon Josephine Osborne, 801 Eleventh avenue SE, has been considerably lessened by the discovery that the girl had purchased chloroform at Hughes' drug store, Third street and Central avenue. William Rudebeck, 429 Second street NE was with her at the time, and says that the purchase occurred only a few minutes before she went home and reported the assault. The Osborne girl was at the Rudebeck home for supper Sunday night and left there shortly before 8. She went to the drug store and purchased some chloroform. Mr. Rudebeck, who accompanied her, thinks it was 8 o'clock when they were at the drug store and it was only ten minutes later that the girl reached home. A physician says that the girl was not criminally assaulted. She has been a playmate of Ruby Steele, the girl carried from her room by James Hayes, the negro.
