

SNOW IS TEN INCHES DEEP

One Life Lost in a Regulation Winter Blizzard in the Canadian Northwest.

Live Stock Perished and the Loss on Grain and Other Crops Is Heavy.

Rains Cause More Injury to Wheat But Help the Corn Outlook.

Special to the Journal. Winnipeg, Minn., Sept. 14.—One of the earliest autumnal storms experienced in the northwest for many years swept over the country on Saturday and early Sunday morning.

The only fatality reported comes from Gretna, where an old man fell from a buggy and perished in the storm.

When the sun came out the snow melted and the stacks in the north-west which were still standing in almost total ruin, and the loss will be very heavy.

Between Neepawa and Minnesota 150 telegraph poles were blown down.

Rain Sends Wheat Up. Corn in Southwest Saved From Killing Frosts.

Another downpour of rain yesterday and last night caused still more damage to grain in the shock through the northwest.

At Minot, S. D., this morning there were two inches of snow on the ground.

New Uim Soaked Again. New Uim, already soaked by the 4.10 inches of rain of Friday night, had 5.2 inches more on Saturday night.

Grand Meadow, Minn., had its heaviest precipitation in the storm of 1.15 inches, with 2.80 inches of rain on Saturday night.

There has been no such disastrous harvest weather in the northwest since 1881, said James Marshall, president of the Minneapolis chamber of commerce.

Reports indicate, however, that the very conditions that are hurting wheat are saving corn through the southwest.

ACUTE CRISIS IN BRITISH CABINET

Meeting at London This Afternoon Regarded as the Most Important in Many Years.

The Resignation of Foreign Secretary Lansdowne Is Expected and Others May Follow.

London, Sept. 14.—It is understood that rumors of the approaching resignation of the chancellor of the exchequer, Mr. Ritchie, are well founded.

From all parts of the country and the continent British cabinet ministers came to London to-day to attend the cabinet meeting which was regarded as marking the beginning of a new era.

Not since the fatal day when the cabinet framed an answer to President Kruger's ultimatum had such crowds gathered around Downing street.

From Ireland morning letterers assembled in the hope of catching a glimpse of the political leaders.

The Times voiced public sentiment in saying it was a great occasion, more important even than the historic meeting when home rule was approved for the main issue to-day, it declared, was the "unity of the empire."
