Mrs. J. R. Marfield and Mrs. Frank Carnahan Guests of Honor at Reception.

Miss Nellie Turnquist and Dr. Henry William Noth Married Last Evening.

Mrs. H. L. Staples gave a charmingly appointed reception this afternoon at her home on Oak Grove street. The guests of honor were Mrs. John R. Marfield and Mrs. Frank Carnahan, who have recently come to Minneapolis from Winona to make their home. The hours were from 4 until 8 o'clock and several hundred women called. Clusters of American Beauty roses with ferns and palms furnished a simple decoration in the drawing room and library, and the dining room was in yellow with a Japanese basket table with flowers and yellow shaded candles on the table. The assisting women were Misses J. B. Gillilan, George Partridge, Eugene Wilcox, Lester E. Brown, J. O. Wheelwright, Charles C. Webber, Elbert Carpenter, Theodore Wetmore, Eugene Hay and the Misses Wilson.

The wedding of Miss Nellie Turnquist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Turnquist, and Dr. Henry William Noth took place last evening at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Judge and Mrs. Andrew Holt, on Chicago avenue. About sixty-five guests were present at the service, which was read by Rev. Alfred Ramsey. Palms and ferns filled the beautiful drawing room and on either side were pink and white asters and pink hydrangea blossoms added in making the rooms beautiful. Pink sweet peas formed the centerpiece in the dining room, and the table was lighted with pink shaded candles and crossed with satin ribbons, while the chandelier was lighted with green. Miss Ella Peterson played the Mendelssohn wedding march and "Hearts and Flowers" during the speaking of the vows. Miss Ann S. Turist was maid of honor. Her gown was of corn colored silk mull over pink silk with a berth of lace on the bodice. Her hair was done in pink roses. Little Florence Nottimer was flower girl. She wore a white frock and carried a basket of pink roses and a parasol. The wedding was carried on in a satin pillow by little Elmer Holt, who was in a white suit. White French mull over silk was the material for the bride's dress. It was tucked and flounced and trimmed with a lace berth. She carried bride roses. Dr. Emery Crane was best man and Frank G. Turnquist was his sister in marriage. The guests included Mrs. M. McKenzie, Chicago; Mrs. Charles Nottimer, Valley City, N. D.; Mrs. A. Campbell on Lyndale avenue N. last evening to witness the marriage of her daughter, Mae and A. H. Charles Gratz. The rooms were bright with roses and softly shaded lights, and palms were placed in the box window. Miss Ethel Harris was at the piano and played the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus. Misses Edna Durke and Marie Lease stretched the white satin ribbons and wore white frocks. The bridesmaids, Misses Mattie Notner and Sylvia Plummer, wore white and pink and the maid of honor, Miss Lavinia Campbell, was in pink mousseline de sole and carried pink roses. The bride wore white over tulle. Bodice and skirt were trimmed with ruffles and liberty satin ribbons, and the bridal bouquet was of white roses, John Wahlberg, Alvin Campbell and John Roberts were the bridegroom's attendants and the service was read by Rev. W. E. J. Gratz of Cedar Lake road. Autumn leaves and green. Miss Daisy Odgeome was maid of honor and wore white. The bride was in cream French mull over tulle, and carried pink roses. The bridegroom was read by Rev. Willard S. Ward and Oscar Schultz was best man. A supper was served and covers were laid for fifty. Mr. Porter and his bride left for Spokane, Wash., on the evening train and they will make their home in the west. Mrs. Porter's traveling gown was of dark green zibeline with hat to match.

Invitations have been issued for the wedding of Miss Nannie Earl Draper of Vista, Minn., and Myron W. Hingoley, son of Dr. J. B. Hingoley of this city, which will take place Wednesday morning, Oct. 14, in the Presbyterian church in Vista. The service will be read by Dr. Hingoley and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride.

Among the September weddings will be that of Miss Antoinette Louise Sahley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sahley, and Jay Harry Hume, which will take place in Pilgrim Congregational church Wednesday evening Sept. 30. To-morrow morning, Oct. 1, in the Presbyterian church in Vista. The service will be read by Dr. Hingoley and will be followed by a reception at the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Woolnough entertained the Phelps Islanders at Minnetonka at a party Sunday last dinner last night at the Phelps Inn. The tables were lighted with candles and decorated with the gorgeous reds and greens of the autumn maple leaf. The guests were the cottagers on the island all of whom are still enjoying the delights of lake life.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Williams gave a dinner Friday evening at their home 2310 Central avenue SE in honor of the second anniversary of their marriage. Covers were laid for sixteen and Edward Williams of Chillicothe Mo., was one of the guests.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL. Mr. and Mrs. P. Clansen arrived this morning from a visit east. Mrs. Grace Dexter is in Washington for a two weeks' vacation. Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Benjamin have gone east for a three weeks' trip. Paleontologist chapter will give a card party Saturday afternoon in Masonic Temple. Mrs. F. W. Colman, of Washington, D. C., is visiting Mrs. W. J. Murray of Fourth street. The Fortuna Enchir Club will meet with Mrs. W. S. Shart, 3018 Holmes avenue, to-morrow afternoon. A card party will be given this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Flynn, 3015 Twenty-second street. Mr. and Mrs. Hartley McGuire, of 2323 Dupont avenue N. are home from a visit to Boston, New York and Washington. A card party and dance will be given by Miss L. A. Baker, Mrs. Miss R. Thompson and Miss Vina Hartley, all from Minneapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Sine will be at home at 313 Church street, SE, after Oct. 1. Mrs. Sine formerly resided in Minneapolis and she has many friends who will welcome her return.

A quiet wedding was solemnized Tuesday evening at the home of the bridegroom's brother, A. G. Pierce, in St. Anthony Park, when Miss Gertrude Campbell and Charles S. Pierce were married. Rev. E. S. Sreany read the service and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stanley, the bride's brother and sister, were the attendants. Little Gilbert Pierce preceded the bride, throwing roses in her path. The bridal gown was of cream velveteen trimmed with panels of renaissance lace and the bouquet was of bride roses. The decorations were in autumn leaves and golden red. Mr. Pierce and his bride will be at home

A NEW SOPRANO

Hazel Kirke McLaskey to Sing With the Banda Rossa.

A new soprano in the person of Hazel Kirke McLaskey has recently come to Minneapolis and will make her debut on the concert stage with the Banda Rossa to-morrow evening. At that time she will sing "Elizabeth's Prayer" from Faust, "Carmen" and "The Bohemians" from the opera, to which she has been engaged in concert and club work, while fitting her voice to grand opera, to which she aspires. Her voice is a brilliant lyric soprano with a mezzo quality, but of extended range, enabling her to sing from G below middle C, to F above high C, a register of almost three octaves. When singing for Sig. Sorrentino a few days ago, she received much encouragement from the director, who found Miss McLaskey to possess all the qualities that make for success; style, voice, method and intelligence. Altho Marguerite is Miss McLaskey's favorite role, she is also fond of Michaela in "Carmen" and delight in Puccini's "The Bohemians" and other lighter operas. She will also sing Saturday evening and at both Sunday concerts.

PLYMOUTH OPENING Magnificent Collection of New Fall Hats Attracts Great Crowds of Stylishly Dressed Women to Millinery Department.

Napoleonic Renaissance Is Seen in the Latest Styles From the Most Famous Artists of Paris. Plumes of goldenrod and swaying palms showed effectively against the rich settings of the newly decorated millinery parlors at the Plymouth opening yesterday and to-day. The colorings are dainty greens and finishings deep mahogany. But the outside decorations were mere shadows of art compared to the showings of the season's colorings in the great show cases. Prunes for one, jacque red for another, green for a third, and colors which will figure prominently in the season's fashions.

Famous European designers are represented in the new millinery department from Mme. Georgette, a Camille Roger Restoration hat, hats from Faulkner, Virot, Carlier and other well-known makers. The Camille Roger Restoration hat was a symphony in browns. It was of velvet, shirred. The trimmings are ostrich tips in shades of brown from a salmon tinted brown at the tip to the exact brown of the hat where they were set on. The wide rim was of mink. "Yes, you're right, it is a Napoleonic renaissance in millinery," said Miss S. F. Doran in reply to an observation made by one of the group of women who were trying on a Virot hat at the home of Mrs. Ruth at a dinner party at the home of Mrs. Mary Fitzgerald for the University of Nebraska chapter of Delta Gamma sorority, of which the young lady is a member.

The wedding is to be solemnized in October. Mr. Leavitt is a portrait painter, and came to Fairview, the Bryan home, to paint a portrait of a life size likeness of Mr. Bryan. Miss Ruth and Mr. Leavitt have been almost constantly together, frequently riding and walking together and appearing very much devoted.

Mr. Leavitt is 32 years old and has been married once before, his wife dying some years ago. She was wealthy. A child survived her, but died about a year ago.

WHAT DOES IT? The perfection of quality, style and low prices is what strikes the taste, appreciation and approbation of our patrons.
