A DOUBLE WEDDING

Amory F. Gale's Two Daughters Are to Become Brides on Oct. 6.

Ceremonies Will Take Place at Gale Home, 1623 Third Avenue South.

Amory Francis Gale has issued invitations for the weddings of his daughters, Caroline Huntington, to George Henry Johnston, and Frances May to Cecil Bayless Chapman, which will take place on Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, at his home, 1623 Third avenue S.

The marriage of Miss Louise Bugbee, daughter of Mrs. Francis M. Bugbee, and Mark R. Moulton, is announced to take place Wednesday evening, Oct. 6, at the home of the bride's mother, on Fifteenth avenue SE.

The wedding of Miss Lillian Dorothy Koerper and Allan C. Simmons will take place in San Antonio, Tex., Wednesday, Oct. 14. Mr. Simmons will leave for the south Oct. 6 and will be accompanied by a group of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Myers announce the engagement of their daughter, Grace Harriet, to Horace H. Tracy of Chicago. The marriage will take place the early part of January, at the home of Mrs. E. F. Myer, on Kenwood boulevard, Chicago. Miss Myers is a graduate of the state university and Mr. Tracy is a graduate of Yale college. He is engaged in business in Chicago.

Miss Evers of Stanley Hall has issued invitations for a musicale which will be given Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucius Frink will give a dancing party Tuesday evening, Sept. 29, in Mrs. Noble's hall, in honor of the sixth anniversary of their marriage.

A dance for the benefit of the football team will be given Friday evening at Phoenix hall by the young people of the East High school.

Saturday evening Mrs. G. W. Stricker of Emerson avenue S, gave a dinner for Miss Hannah Dunwoody and Fayette Bousfield, whose wedding will take place in October. It was a family affair and the guests were Messrs. and Mrs. E. F. Bousfield, John Dunwoody, W. H. Dunwoody, Miss Dunwoody and Mr. Bousfield. Friday evening Miss Bertha Hudson gave a dinner of ten courses for Miss Dunwoody and Mr. Bousfield.

Mrs. Carlos Wilcox gave a tea Saturday afternoon at 919 Ninth street S, for her sister, Mrs. H. L. Birge of Excelsior. Misses Florence Kalkhoff and Miss Beach poured tea. The rooms were bright with American Beauty roses and asters.

Mrs. A. H. Linton of Park avenue gave a luncheon of two courses Saturday. Pink roses decked the table.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Stephen A. Hall of Clifton avenue entertained a group of children in honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of her son Stephen. Pink and white were the colors of the decorations and carnations and pink ribbons were used on the table with the birthday cake and its lighted tapers. There was a soap bubble contest, a fish pond and other games. The names of the guests were Vera Meagher, Ralph and Jack Butman, George Fullerton, Jr., John Osborn, Adelaide Watson, Mrs. M. A. Allen, Mrs. Josephine Woodward, Claude Woodward, Catherine McMullen, Howard McMullen, Alfred Chadbourne, baby Chadbourne, Francis Thayer, Mary Thayer and Dorothy Cogan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Moffett of Aldrich avenue S entertained twenty-five guests Friday evening in honor of Miss Lena Kenney of Dallas, Texas.

Miss Mina Williams and Harold Dunphy of Spokane, Wash., were guests of honor at a dinner of twelve covers which was given Thursday evening at the home of Miss Louise Shore on Fremont avenue S. Cards were played after dinner. Miss Williams left yesterday for Evanston, Ill., and Mr. Dunphy will go to Ann Arbor, Mich.

Miss Myrtle M. Gallington and Fred W. Hasenbank were married Friday afternoon at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. G. L. Morrill, 3233 Stevens avenue.

A group of friends gathered in St. Stephen's church Wednesday to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Byrne and Michael E. Pichke. Pinks and carnations and smilax made the church beautiful. Miss Louella Houle played the wedding march and Miss Fitzgerald sang "Love and Be Still." The maid of honor was Miss Margaret Byrne. She wore white French lawn with trimmings of pink lace and chiffon and carried pink carnations. The bride was in white organdie over white silk, tucked and fashioned with lace, and carried flowers and roses. The bridegroom and his best man, M. C. O'Donnell of Glenwood, met the bride at the altar where the service was read by Rev. Father Danahy. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents on Clinton avenue. The rooms were bright with flowers and ferns. About seventy-five guests were present at the wedding. The bride and groom were on their way to their home at Lakota, N. D., after Oct. 20.

Miss Catherine G. Coyne and Mark M. Purcell were married Wednesday in the Church of the Immaculate Conception. Miss Irene Cady was maid of honor and wore pale blue mousseline de soie. The bride's gown was of cream voile over tulle. Miss Vitis Ahern of Cresco, Iowa, was best man, and Rev. Father Cullen read the service. A reception was given in the evening at the Coyne home for the bridal couple.

A wedding of Tuesday was that of Miss Margaret Bodvin, daughter of Mrs. Mary J. Bodvin, and David Shore, which took place in St. Clement's church. Mrs. Joseph Legault played the wedding march. Miss Anna Mottor was maid of honor and wore pink silk organdie and carried pink roses. The bride was in white silk trimmed with lace. She wore a veil and carried bride roses. The service was read by Rev. R. J. Fitzgerald and Frank Shore was best man. A wedding breakfast was served at the new home of the young couple, 1725 Aldrich avenue N, where they will receive after Oct. 1.

Friday.

The Eighth Ward W. C. T. U. met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Drew of Stevens avenue. Miss Francis spoke of the need of Bible study and Mrs. Taylor touched on the rescue homes in her study of Christian citizenship. Mrs. Russell, read a description of the Shilman home, Chicago, and the necessity of such institutions was emphasized, and it was suggested that one should be under the management of the W. C. T. U. Miss Parker and Dr. presented substitutes for alcohol in medicine and a paper on equal suffrage was read by Mrs. Elwell. Mrs. Elwell spoke on the value of right principles in the home. The workers' meeting will be omitted Friday. The union will assemble Friday, Oct. 2, at the home of Mrs. Elwell and delegates to the state convention will be chosen.

RAG CARPETS POPULAR

Rag carpets are now being used in many homes. They are home made. That is, the rags are all torn and sewed at home, then taken to a carpet weaver who finishes them up.

Some are saving all the old silk they can get hold of, every scrap and color is saved. These are cut into strips, the same as cotton rags, and then woven together and make pretty rugs, portieres or couch covers, as they can be woven into different sizes and widths. For the silk rugs or carpets, it takes two pounds of silk rags for each square yard and only costs 30 cents to 35 cents the square yard for its weaving. The chain used is the red cotton chain.

In the colonial days the manufacture of rag carpets was a widespread industry. Rag carpets were made then as they are now, with a warp of cotton thread or twine and a weft of rags. There were also the "hooked rugs," made by drawing bits of rags or waste woolen yarn thru a foundation of burlap and worked in with the rags or yarn. The burlap could be bought with the pattern stamped on it. Also there were rugs of braided strips of rags, dyed and sewed into circular floor coverings. The first factory to manufacture carpets of yarn was established in 1791 in Philadelphia, and this may be called the very beginning of the American carpet industry. In many farm houses throughout Ohio these rugs and carpets continue to be made in a modest way, and there are still a great many shops pro-

THOMSON-FAIRBANKS WEDDING

Only the Immediate Friends Witness the Marriage of Senator Fairbank's Daughter.

Washington, Sept. 21.—Miss Adelaide Fairbanks, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Fairbanks, was married at noon Saturday to John W. Thomson, Esq., U. S. N. The ceremony was performed in a palm bower arranged in the lower window of the large drawing room of the residence of the bride's parents and was witnessed by a family party of a few personal friends.

The bride's gown was of a clinging white chiffon grenadine, trimmed with lace. She wore no veil or hair ornament and carried a shower bouquet of roses.

Her bridesmaids wore white silk, trimmed with lace. She wore a veil and carried bride roses. The service was read by Rev. R. J. Fitzgerald and Frank Shore was best man. A wedding breakfast was served at the new home of the young couple, 1725 Aldrich avenue N, where they will receive after Oct. 1.
