

HONEYMOONERS GOT WRONG ROOM

And So Escaped the Merry Little Reception Planned by Thoughtful Friends.

Mothers With Children for Adoption Couldn't Find Mr. and Mrs. Jackson.

New York Sun Special Service. Chicago, Oct. 5.—Some new inventions in the line of annoyances to a bridal couple were named up by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Andrew Jackson of Omaha, Neb., who arrived at the Palmer house last evening. The result was a long comedy of errors.

The groom is the son of former Governor Jackson of Nebraska and the bride the daughter of United States Judge W. H. Munger. They were married on Thursday. Friends in Chicago reserved parlor Y for them at the Palmer house and then the plot developed.

At 7 o'clock in the evening a house detective discovered several persons wearing masks working at United States parlor Y. He hurried to his superior officer to report, and a few minutes later both men returned to the hall, turned an electric switch and flooded the corridor with light.

"Room workers! Caught at last!" cried both men. "Let us explain. It's all a mistake. Let us explain." said one of the men. The explanation was that they were waiting to shower a bride and groom with rice, and the detectives retired. Rice and the bride and groom were left alone in the hall for a few minutes. Then it was once more broken by a party man issued from Parlor Y amid showers of rice.

Got the Wrong Man. "What is the matter? Are you crazy or am I?" he said, as he brushed the rice from his hair. "Once more the men who had been accused by the hotel detectives left their place of concealment and explained the situation." While these events were taking place on the upper floor, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson arrived. The room clerk at the desk had just come on watch and had not been informed of the reservation of Parlor Y. So he sent bride and groom to another room and a stout traveling man received the shower.

The change in rooms disarranged another plan, also. After reserving the room the friends had inserted the following advertisement in the papers: A gentleman and his wife would be glad to adopt a healthy boy, under 2 years of age. All communications with references in confidence. Address for two days care Palmer House, Jackson, 701 Park Y.

Several persons arrived at the hotel with children for adoption, but they were told that "Jackson" was not in Parlor Y.

PRESS FEEDERS STRIKE

Chicago Printing Establishments Crippled by a Walk-Out.

Chicago, Oct. 5.—Big printing establishments here were partially crippled to-day by the refusal of press feeders to work under the terms of the new union No. 4, press feeders, to go to work in houses controlled by the Chicago typographical union.

Given the choice of forswearing allegiance to the union or losing their positions, a majority of the feeders failed to report for work. This was the situation as reported from seventy-five firms early to-day. Former members of the union who announced that they had returned to work were allowed to go to work.

There are said to be approximately 2,000 pressfeeders in Chicago, 1,300 of whom were members of the Franklin union which is not affiliated with any other labor organization. In many shops where the union men failed to report for duty girls were hired to take their places.

MADE HER BATHE

And Now Mrs. Rapp Sues the City for Damages.

New York Sun Special Service. Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—Suit has been begun against the city of Philadelphia by Mrs. Rapp and her wife, Maggie K. Rapp, who ask for heavy damages because Mrs. Rapp, under orders from the board of health, was taken from her home to the almshouse hospital and there given a cold bath, from which she became seriously ill.

Get the Most Out of Your Food

You don't and can't if your stomach is weak. A weak stomach does not digest all that ordinarily goes into it. It gets tired easily, and what it fails to digest is wasted.

Among the signs of a weak stomach are: uneasiness after eating, fits of nervous headache, and disagreeable belching.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla at different times for stomach troubles, and a run-down condition of the system, and have been greatly benefited by its use. I would not be without it in my family. I am troubled especially in summer with weak stomach and nausea and find Hood's Sarsaparilla invaluable." E. B. Hickman, W. Chicago, Pa.

DOWN LIKE A ROCK

The Steamer Hackley Founders During a Fierce Squall on Lake Michigan.

Ten Passengers and the Captain and One Other of the Crew Drowned.

The Drowned. JOSEPH VOROUS, captain of the Hackley. TRUCHLY, cook of the Hackley. Passengers: FRANKEN THORP, Fish Creek. EDNA BARRINGER, Fish Creek. LAWRENCE BARRINGER, brother of Edna Barringer, Fish Creek. FRANCIS VINCENT, Egg Harbor. VINCENT, sister of Frances Vincent, Egg Harbor. GEORGE LECLAIR, Jr., Jacksonport, Wis. FITZSIMMONS, Jacksonport. HENRY RABBITOR, Fish Creek. CARL KELLY, Fish Creek. NELS NELSON, Surgeon Bay.

The Rescued. Frank Blackfield, purser of the boat; seven of the crew; Martin Hanson and a man named Roggen-dorf, firemen; Martin Olsen and son, passengers, of State Bay; Blaine McSweney, Fire Creek. Two others were saved whose names could not be secured.

Marquette, Wis., Oct. 5.—During a squall Saturday night on Lake Michigan, the steamer J. H. Hackley capsized and twelve persons were drowned. After the boat floated around on wreckage all night, the Goodrich line steamer Sheboygan rescued nine. The report of the disaster reached Marquette yesterday.

The Hackley was struck by the squall when seven miles off Green Island. The upper work was blown away before the men could reach a haven. The boat then turned over and went down in deep water.

Others May Have Escaped. The waves were rolling high at first and some of the crew saved themselves from immediate death, ultimately sank. It was several hours after the Hackley sank before the Sheboygan hove within hailing distance. The shouts of the four men attracted the attention of the sailors on the Sheboygan and every assistance was lent.

The rescue was effected at 7 p. m. The officers of the Sheboygan are sure that they took aboard every person afloat. Some of the persons who were rescued say that it is possible that some of the twelve persons may have escaped death.

The Sheboygan made into Fish Creek when hope of rescuing other persons was hopeless. The rescued persons were so exhausted from their struggle against drowning that they were unable for some time to tell of anything about the wreck.

HIS OWN EXECUTIONER

Scaffold on Which Tom Horn Will Be Hanged Will Work Automatically.

Special to the Journal. Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 5.—Sheriff Small has let the contract for the scaffold upon which Tom Horn, the notorious cattle rustler, will be his own executioner on Nov. 20, to James P. Jester.

When Charles Miller, 15 years old, was sentenced to hang, Sheriff Kelley had compunctions about executing the boy. He called an inventor, told Kelley he could contrive a gallows which would work automatically. Miller's scaffold was the result. The simplicity of its construction makes the operation sure.

When the condemned man steps on the trap his weight opens a valve in a vessel of water under the scaffold, and when the vessel becomes empty the counterbalance operates and jerks the plug under the trap, letting the drop fall, shooting the condemned man into eternity.

CARE FOR CHILDREN

Mrs. Dennison Laughs at Idea of Race Suicide.

Salt Lake, Utah, Oct. 5.—President Roosevelt's theory of race suicide was boldly and severely handled by Mrs. Dennison T. S. Dennison, president of the National Federation of Women's clubs, in a speech before the Utah Federation of Women's clubs. Her expressions aroused a storm of applause from the 200 club women present.

"The Need of the Hour" was Mrs. Dennison's subject. "Let us not talk of race suicide until we take care of the babies already with us," she said. "The nineteenth century report upon the wealth of our country has not solved the problems. Today New York city has 60,000 more children than the schools can accommodate. Last year 58,000 babies were born. Let us not talk of race suicide until we can take care of the babies already with us. The effort should be to establish manual training institutions, libraries, juvenile courts and all things which shall tend to safeguard the children."

BISHOP IS A PEDESTRIAN. Wilmington, Del., Oct. 5.—Bishop Leighton Coleman of the Episcopal diocese of Delaware has returned from his annual vacation pedestrian tour. He spent nearly two weeks tramping incognito thru the mountains of Virginia and Northern Carolina. Not once during his trip was he recognized. THE 'BLUE' ARMY ATTACKS 'BROWNS'

Roar of Battle Is Heard Near West Point, Ky.—Outposts Attacked Early.

Camp Young, West Point, Ky., Oct. 5.—After having bivouacked all night in the woods six miles down the Nashville pike, nearly 7,000 troops awoke this morning to a day of hard work at the game of war. The air was cool and bracing, after last night's showers.

The forces were astray early and as the morning advanced the intermittent cracking of Krags, skirmishers from the opposing forces felt out the position of "the enemy" was superseded by heavy firing which at times became a veritable "roar of battle."

To-day's manoeuvre was based on the establishment of an outpost by the Brown army and its attack by the Blues. The attacking force was given a little more weight to compensate for having to work on outside lines. The Brown forces moved out late yesterday afternoon and bivouacked.

Artillery was used for the second time since the maneuvers began and the affair proved the most important of any thus far, the number of men engaged being more than twice those engaged during any previous movement.

SLOW CAMPAIGN IN NEB.

Republicans Confident of Carrying the State—Senatorial Fight Will Be Strenuous.

Special to the Journal. Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 5.—Republicans in Nebraska are confident of carrying the campaign which will end next month. Indeed, there has been but one republican partisan speech made in the state—a joint debate at the Catholic picnic in Geneva last week.

"Judge Barnes will be elected with a safe majority," says a republican official. "Judges in the judicial districts will be nearly all republican. County politics will be mixed and men will count in the election, however it seems that the republicans can safely count on many gains."

The contest for United States senator is occupying the attention of politicians. Should the North Platte county attempt to break precedent and fill a South Platte position with a republican, the matter would be another bitter fight. In order to appear fair the various South Platte counties indorsed Barnes for supreme judge.

A CHURCH'S PRESS AGENT

Horace Barnes Holds That Unique Position—Idea a New One in Church Management.

Cleveland, Oct. 5.—The Hough Avenue Congregational church, Charles Carroll pastor, has engaged at a good salary a press agent. This probably is the first church in the country to introduce such an innovation. The young man is Horace Barnes, press agent of a theater, and his duties involve keeping the church before the public gaze by writing articles of interest concerning the pastor and of the various men's and women's bodies of the congregation.

'BILLY' SMITH USED A CAR AS AN EXHORTER

Driving It at Top Speed He Finally Overtook a Fleeing Murderer.

New York, Oct. 5.—Fearing that William Butler, an alleged murderer, would escape, a policeman from the West Thirty-seventh street station got into a car and followed him to Seventh avenue, and after a chase of five blocks, during which the car was run at top speed, overtook the fugitive and arrested him at the point of a revolver. After disarming the man the policeman was compelled to turn his revolver upon an immense crowd of men who wanted to lynch the prisoner.

COLLEGIANS SUSPENDED

Akron, Ohio, Oct. 5.—A color rush at Buchtel college to-day resulted in the faculty suspending every man in college except three and they remain because they did not reach the college until after the rush. On Friday night the upper classmen initiated the freshmen, putting them thru a severe course, and when the latter were initiated they were urged to wear their colors. President, Church made a speech prohibiting a color rush.

He stated that the freshmen had been initiated in a more severe manner than any class ever before in the institution and he upheld them in wearing their colors as soon as they were over the upper classmen went after the freshmen and tore their colors off and bloody and torn clothes were in evidence. The faculty then suspended all concerned.

THEY WONT WITHDRAW

Grout and Fornes Will Fight All Efforts to Get Them Off Fusion Ticket.

New York, Oct. 5.—It is denied again to-day that Controller Grout and President Fornes of the board of aldermen will voluntarily withdraw from the fusion ticket. From democratic sources came the suggestion that the position of Grout and Fornes could be strengthened by withdrawing entirely from the fusion movement and going over entirely to the democratic party, and Leader Murphy of Tammany who managed the coup under which they were indorsed, was urged to see Grout and arrange the matter, but to-day Luke Stapleton, legal adviser for Grout again announced the intention of the board to resist the removal of his name from the fusionist ticket.

It is down to a question of memory and veracity between Grout and Controller Grout as to the former's knowledge of the latter's plan to accept democratic indorsement. The mayor in rejoinder to the last letter of the controller says he has no recollection of a second conversation about the democrats indorsing Grout.

THEY PLANNED A JAIL DELIVERY

Startling Plot Is Discovered in the Pennsylvania State Prison at Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Oct. 5.—A general jail delivery, planned by James Gentry, the actor who murdered Madge York, an actress, was the direct cause for the discovery of a plot to deliver Daniel W. Bussinger, for twenty-seven years an executive officer of Eastern penitentiary.

The institution has been undergoing a searching investigation and the inspectors have found, among other things, a complete counterfeiting plant in operation, the plot secured heres whisky still in block 6, and a shortage of over 60,000 cigars in the cigar factory. Gross frauds and irregularities were found in every department but the plot to empty the institution of its 1,100 desperate criminals capped the climax.

Eighty degrees 348 convicts out of a total of 1,100 secured "outside" jobs, that is work in the yard or in places other than their cells. Five of these received scores of human skulls. Hier stood between them and liberty. As many more found employment close to the single guard at the center gate, in guarantee, the plot secured heres close to the real center of the prison, where only one man was always on guard.

With these preliminaries arranged there was never a time when, at a given signal, the 348 free men "outside" could not have overpowered the thirty-six guards on duty. They were well away before outside help could have been secured. Of the 348 "outside" men 200 were returned summarily to their cells for solitary confinement. Gentry was put on bread and water in a dark cell, and twenty other men in the conspiracy had their cells "chained" and were denied that all privileges denied them and that they are to have no work, which is the severest penalty that can be imposed.

Every convict was taken out of his cell and stripped immediately after the discovery of the plot. Everything was removed from the 700 cells in the prison, the prison office, where schedules were made of the property found.

The list includes files, saws, templates, wire cutters, files, hammers, hammers, table knives fashioned into dirks, sandbags, slungshots and knuckles fashioned out of lead pipe, whisky money, counterfeit coins and iron bars.

The locks upon the cell doors were found to be defective, and it was discovered that the prison telephone system was arranged so that the twenty-two-year man assigned to the job could dismantle the entire plant with a twist of the wrist.

DEATHS AT STILLWATER

B. J. Meiggs and Frank Oles, Influential Citizens, Are Dead.

Special to the Journal. Stillwater, Minn., Oct. 5.—B. J. Meiggs, who had been a resident of South Stillwater for twenty-seven years, died last night of a stomach trouble, aged 67. He had been a member of council. His remains will be taken to Arena, Wis., for burial.

Frank Olson, a well known citizen of Stillwater, aged 18, had been leaving a wife and several children. The funeral will be held to-morrow afternoon by the Odd Fellows and Modern Woodmen lodges.

Governor Van Sant was here yesterday to inspect his steamer Park Bluff. She will be taken to Winona under her own steam and repaired at that point early next spring. She was not so badly damaged as at first thought.

The council will meet to-morrow night to consider street improvements and other city business.

HICKEY WILL PULL OUT

American Association Magnate Will Probably Be Succeeded by E. C. Barnard.

Special to the Journal. Chicago, Ill., Oct. 5.—Thomas J. Hickey will resign the presidency of the American association at the annual meeting of that organization in November, to accept a position as manager of Lennon's store in St. Paul. It is understood that E. C. Barnard, secretary of the Cleveland baseball club, will be selected to fill the position.

The special meeting called at the Auditorium to-day was to consider matters that will come before the association at St. Louis on Oct. 20. Mr. Hickey will be named as a delegate to that convention, but the indications are that either George Tebeau or W. H. Watkins will go instead, in order that they may better handle affairs owing to Mr. Hickey's retirement.

There are few cases in which the American association is interested that will come before the national body at St. Louis. However, the association will insist upon having representation on the national board instead of being placed in the same position as some bush league.
