MORE RECORDS GO

Lou Dillon Trots Mile to Wagon at Memphis in Exactly Two Minutes.

The Monk and Equity Lower Team Record for Trotters to 2:08.

Memphis, Oct. 29.—The eight-day meeting of the Memphis Trotting association was brought to a fitting close yesterday afternoon with the breaking of two additional records for trotting.

Lou Dillon went a mile to wagon in two minutes flat, cutting a second and three-quarters from the previous record made by heretofore champion Monk and Equity, driven by Mr. Billings.

The performance of Lou Dillon in the mile trial to wagon was even more spectacular than the trial against time last Saturday, when she went a mile in 1:53 1/2.

The meeting which closed yesterday is the third annual event on the track of the Memphis Trotting association, and while each of the preceding years has given its quota of new world records, neither of them has been so significant as the present matter of record-smashing as the eight days just ended.

TOD SLOAN ON HIS UPBERS

One Time Champion Jockey Is Working as a Chauffeur for Paris Firm.

New York Sun Special Service. Kokomo, Ind., Oct. 29.—After traveling across the country in special trains, entertaining with a lavishness that filled his friends with awe, and making unsuccessful attempts to break Monte Cismes James Tod Sloan, one time champion jockey of the world, is in Paris working as a chauffeur.

From a wardrobe which was equal to that of any potentate, and which made him a pet of society, the little fellow, according to word which has reached here, is now in possession of both clothes and a place to sleep.

He is in Paris, employed temporarily by a French automobile concern at a paltry salary, a salary that in a month does not reach the figures of one day's expenses two years ago.

When not employed as a chauffeur he is engaged in selling machines of different concerns, who rely upon his reputation as a former jockey to bring trade to their shops.

Always of a determined spirit, he recently told some acquaintances who met him in France that he would never return to the United States and suffer the humiliation he knew would be his should they learn that he is now receiving less than $1,000 a year, where he was earning $80,000 annually when he last saw his relatives.

His foster parents live here, and they say that Tod was worth $500,000 not long ago, but he gave none to them, and is not now in a position to help him financially, willing as they are to do so.

The champion Turners had no trouble taking three straight from the Olympians in a Minneapolis bowling league match last night.

Two records were broken in the city league last night, when Chris' team took three games from the St. Anthony's. Phillips set a new mark for high score for the league, with 278, and also made a new high average with 222 1/3.

IT'S IN GOPHERS

TO WIN GAME

started in to show where Michigan had the advantage of the gophers. "In the back field," says Yost, "Heston is so much better than anything they've got that our deficiency at quarter (which had been alluded to by Walker) will more than be made up for by the difference. Gregory will outplay Strathern, both our ends are a shade the better and at tackle Madcock is certainly enough to make up for what Schacht will have on Curtis. I think the guard positions are a standoff.

He May Get a Jolt. Yost differs from most football men in that he is not afraid to predict victory for his team. His confidence may or may not be well founded. It will be remembered that Kilpatrick of Wisconsin said in the early part of the season of 1902 that the Minnesota game was an "immortal clash."

An amusing statement from Ann Arbor is to the effect that the Michigan scrubs have been using Michigan formations and plays against the regulars. As a matter of fact Minnesota has used only the simple plays and scarcely any new formations, in the games thus far. Michigan adherents may rest assured that any fancy plays which they may see on Saturday will be seen for the first time in public.

The Betting. Betting continues light around town, Michigan refusing to offer better odds than the 1:10. While Minnesota men want something better, the gopher adherents, however, are apparently growing more confident every day.

Speculators Reap a Harvest. Ticket speculators are reaping a harvest. The tickets at about 1,000 seats, including boxes, were reserved, the number has proved insufficient to supply the demand. Speculators who have managed to get a good number of tickets are holding them at from $3 to $5, according to the location.

The bleachers on the west end of the field promise to provide better accommodation for the spectators than was expected. Manager Barnard says that all persons who are stationed above the first row can sit down, and still get an excellent view of the game. The total seating capacity of Northrop field Saturday will be about 18,000, instead of 15,000.

The preparations for the safety of the spectators will be thorough. The stands will be inspected before the game by the Michigan inspector and by the inspectors of the casualty insurance company that has insured Greater Northrop field.

Chief Constable Deane and forty policemen, six of them mounted, and the fire department will send a detail of thirty men to assist the police, if necessary. Aside from this force, there will be 130 constables and twenty guards on duty.

MICHIGAN IS IN FINE FETTLE

Yost Expects His Men to Win but Is Not Overconfident.

Special to The Journal. Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 29.—The Michigan football squad left for Minneapolis over the Michigan Central road at 8:46 this morning. The men will arrive in Chicago at 3:05 p. m., and leave that city over the Northwestern at 4 p. m., arriving in Minneapolis at 7:55 to-morrow.

The men who were taken included Gregory, center; Shulte and Gooding, guards; Madock and Deane, tackles; Redden and Longman, ends; Norcross and James, quarters; Hester and Graver, halfbacks; Tom Hammond, fullback; and the latter's staff of assistants, Thomson, Weeks, Person and Bigelow for the back field; Edmunds, Elyke, Garrels and Barnett, linemen and Dunlap, end. Deane is suffering from the injury to his shoulder, and will remain here.

The team which Michigan will start in the game is the best that has ever been put on the field. The pink of condition and will be one of the most experienced that has represented the university in the last few years. There will be but one of the year's players in the line-up, but all of the men, with the possible exception of Schulte and Curtis, have had considerable experience on preparatory school teams or on the reserves.

Michigan clearly expects to win. Yost says that he is going to win. The players expect to win, and the rosters are confident. If, and the rosters feared there will be no excuse to offer. Yost said before leaving: "The Michigan eleven has started faster the last three nights than I ever had. I have done the hardest work I ever did with a football eleven."

"I may change the line-up after the game starts. Injuries may necessitate a change, Minnesota's playing may not be what I expect. I don't know my line-up yet."

In the last practice Graver played quarter for a while, Longman went into Tom Hammond's place at full, and other shifts were made. This was for emergency purposes only, and when we may have to use my regulars as subs in the positions.

"I don't send out any bear stories about Michigan. We admit our men are all in good condition. We don't know how the game will result, but we will give Minnesota all we got every minute, and if we are beaten it will be by a better team. The men are confident of victory; they are just going to play their best."

Yost was in his usual jolly mood, but quiet and determined, and a trifle tired from his hard week's work. The whole team has this air of determination, mixed with uncertainty about the result. The last practice was a hard scrimmage, in which several men were severely bruised.

The Minnesota "bear" stories are creating amusement at Michigan. Yost has reliable information that O'Brien's injury is slight and that he will be every inch in the game on Saturday. The Michigan team would like to know if the Minnesota player, whose shoulder cannot bear the weight of his suit, goes to classes in a bath robe.

Veterans None Too Confident. The statements of the players show that the veterans expect a harder game than the freshmen expect. A harder game, the freshmen fullback says: "We have got to have a hard game. Captain Redden—I wouldn't be surprised to find Minnesota had won when the game was over, and I wouldn't be surprised if Michigan had won. Madcock—I don't know. I'm going to play as hard as the Lord will let me. I'll give Minnesota every bit I've got."

Quarterback Norcross—O'Brien needs all the rest he can get before Michigan meets him. The work yesterday afternoon consisted of fast signal practice and a scrimmage of fifteen minutes' length. The varsity was drilled entirely on defense and the reports from Perry field say that the scrubs were not able to make their downs at any time. The varsity line-up was changed so that Graver was played at quarter instead of Norcross, who took the position vacated by Longman at end, the latter having been transferred to half. Heston was not allowed to take part in the scrimmage because he is considered too valuable a man to risk in a scrimmage at this late stage.

Wolverines in Chicago

Michigan's Team Reaches Windy City on Way to Minneapolis.

Chicago, Oct. 29.—Twenty-nine young men, composing the football squad of the University of Michigan, accompanied by Trainer Fitzpatrick, Coach Yost and the latter's staff of assistants, arrived in Chicago to-day on their way to Lake Minnetonka, where they will occupy temporary quarters until they meet Minnesota Saturday. All of the members of the delegation were reticent concerning the impending contest, but it was apparent that there was no lack of confidence in the Wolverine squad.

Coach Yost reiterated his declaration that Michigan would win. "That's what we're going up there for," said the Michigan coach, "and I have never before had eleven men who looked as capable of doing what they set their minds on as these. All this talk about Michigan's scoring machine being loose in the cogs is bosh. The team work at present is as fine as that of any team I have ever seen. The men get more speed into starting the plays than either the '01 or '02 teams. As for the line, I haven't decided that yet myself. One thing is certain, injuries during the game won't hinder us as seriously as some other teams, as the men can be shifted into any position and play it in respectable style."

Chicago Men Ask Odds. Maroons Adherents Seem to Be Losing Confidence in Team.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 29.—More Chicago money than Wisconsin has made its appearance in Madison, but the Chicago money demands odds of 5 to 4. This is the betting situation with reference to the Chicago-Wisconsin football game to be played at Camp Randall Saturday. Confidence in the Wisconsin team is fairly strong, but the fact that most of the regulars are being held out of all the scrimmage practices this week causes many to fear that the team is in bad shape for the big game.

The Wisconsin team that will line up against Chicago is a bit heavier than the badger team of last year, but the difference is not great. The average weight of the Wisconsin team, which has been stated for the first time, and last year it was 175 even. The apparent gain is only a pound and a half per man. The gain is in reality more than this, as the figures for weights given out at training quarters are understood to be exceedingly "conservative."

The Wisconsin line-up will not be announced by Coach Curtis definitely, and finally until a few moments before the whistle blows for the state of the contest Saturday, but the team is known to be determined, barring accidents. The line-up at the secret signal practice afterwards and at night is one thing and in the scrimmage it is another. This is because Coach Curtis refuses to risk the chances of severe injury to some of his veterans and delicate men by sending them into hard scrimmages this week. The Wisconsin eleven, as it will line up against Chicago, at least at the start of the game Saturday afternoon, together with the announced weight of each man, is as follows:

Substitutes: Hirschberg, tackle, 159; Burkhardt, fullback, 145; Hart, ages, half or fullback, 170; Hart end, 166; Cecil Schreiber, quarterback, 143; Thompson, tackle, 170; Perry, fullback, 178; Wrabetz, halfback, 160; Harvey, fullback, 178; Edge, guard, 182.

Alumni of Wisconsin have received notices from the faculty, signed by President Van Hise, asking all to attend the Chicago-Wisconsin football game Saturday and also to gather in the main hall in Saturday morning to discuss matters pertaining to university welfare.

Carlton's Team Crippled. Northfield, Minn., Oct. 29.—Carlton's football team returned from its trip to St. Peter yesterday morning in a rather crippled condition. It played the Gustavus Adolphus college of that place a tie game Monday, the score being 0 to 1 on Yale. Several of the Carlton men were unable to play on account of injuries received in the Carlton game last week. They had the ball on St. Peter's one-yard line when time was called in the first half, and in another moment could have scored. Carlton's goal line was never in danger, and Coach Baird feels confident that had all of his men been able to play they would have won the game handsily.

Three to One on Yale. New York, Oct. 29.—Conner's money was bet yesterday in the Broad street curb on the results of the game between Columbia and Yale, next Saturday. The odds only got as high as 3 to 1 on Yale. Most of the bets were made at 3 1/2 to 1. Sanford, the former Columbia coach, who is a Yale graduate, appeared on the curb in an active bettor on Yale, placing about $1,000 in various wagers.

West Des Moines vs. Grinnell. Grinnell, Iowa, Oct. 29.—On Saturday occurs here one of the most interesting high school football games that will be played in Iowa this year. The West high school football team of Des Moines will contest for honors with the Grinnell high school team, which has been stated for the first time, and last year it was 175 even. The apparent gain is only a pound and a half per man. The gain is in reality more than this, as the figures for weights given out at training quarters are understood to be exceedingly "conservative."
