FOR MRS. TUTHILL

Mrs. Richard Hill and Mrs. Frank A. Bovey Give an Afternoon Reception.

A Butterfly Luncheon Given by Mrs. Frederik Van Dusen To-day.

Mrs. Richard Hill and Mrs. Frank A. Bovey gave a reception this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bovey, 1300 Harmon place, in honor of their sister, Mrs. S. G. Chamberlain. The reception was from 3 until 6 o'clock and about 300 women called. The decorations were charmingly simple and graceful, chrysanthemums were almost the only flowers used. In the reception-room the pink and yellow blossoms were chosen and in quaint Japanese vases and copper jars were placed on the mantel and cabinets. The living-room was in red and the dining-room in green and white. A Japanese basket of chrysanthemums and ferns was in the center of the table, which was lighted with green shaded tapers. Frappe was served by Misses Wilson, Misses Bovey, Misses Hark, Margaret Welles, Alice Smith, Janet Gillilan and Katherine Harris. The women who assisted thru the rooms and alternated in the dining-room were Mrs. C. Johnson, C. A. Bovey, Charles Cranston Bovey, O. C. Wyman, Louis K. Hull, E. C. Gale, H. C. Truesdale, F. E. Dooner, P. G. Chamberlain, T. G. Winter, E. C. Fairbairn, W. H. Dunwoody, W. C. Johnson and Miss Nellie of Helena, Mont.

Mrs. Frederik Van Dusen gave a beautiful butterfly luncheon to-day at her home on Vine place for Miss Laura Harrington. The guests included beside the debutantes, Misses Harrington, Alice Smith, Janet Gillilan, Helen Partridge, Eda Shull, Jessie Cray and Katherine Harris, three debutantes of last year, Misses Chittam, Margaret Welles and Kate Burwell. In the center of the table was a great cluster of white Kaiserin roses and above hovered a large butterfly of white gauze. On each chair fluttered a white gauze butterfly fastened with long pink streamers and beside the name card was a butterfly orchid. The name cards were on white Japanese paper tied with a butterfly bow of gauze ribbon and bore the monogram in white on a butterfly. The other rooms were clusters of bridesmaid roses, white cosmos and chrysanthemums.

CLUBS AND CHARITIES

Club Calendar.
SATURDAY—Dorcas club, Miss Alice McAfee, 2916 Girard avenue S., 2 p. m.

Rally of the Maccabees.
The state rally of the Ladies of the Maccabees will be held in Sauk Center Wednesday. About 200 delegates will be present and represent eighty hives. A public meeting will be held Wednesday evening in the opera house. The work in the afternoon will be exemplified by wives from Little Falls and Alexandria. The delegates will return on a special train Thursday morning.
Miss Bina M. West, national record keeper, will arrive in this city Tuesday morning to attend the meeting. At noon a luncheon of fifteen covers will be given in her honor by the records keepers of the local hives and in the evening there will be a meeting at 16 Seventh street S with a drill by the guards from Philomathean, Minneapolis and Sweet Clover hives.
Miss West will be the guest of honor at a box party at the Semberch concert Thursday evening, and the St. Paul hives will give a reception Friday afternoon. Saturday Miss West will go to Mankato, and on Monday to Dunith, Sunday, Nov. 8. Rev. G. L. Morrill will preach before the Maccabee ladies. Mr. Morrill will go to Sauk Center with the delegates.

Travelers' Entertainment.
A pleasant social evening combined with a review of recent studies on Africa was given Wednesday evening by the Travelers' club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Beach, 1500 Harmon place. The severe intellectuality of the literary portion of the program was in a measure relieved by musical numbers. Refreshments were served.

Sunday School Workers.
The Primary and Junior Sunday School Teachers' union will hold an "in-gathering" social and rally at the Y. W. C. A. building Thursday at 2:30 o'clock. An interesting program will be given, followed by a social hour, during which plans for the work of the coming year will be discussed. Primary and intermediate Sunday school superintendents, teachers and assistants will be present.

W. C. T. U. Meetings.
Mrs. Susan Fessenden gave a temperance lecture Wednesday evening in the Grand Avenue Church of Christ. A large audience was present.
Willard W. C. T. U. met yesterday with Mrs. Lang. Delegates were chosen to the convention of corrections and charities. The next meeting will be model one in the interest of literature.

GIRLS DISCARD FUDGES

The Chafing Dish is Dubbed a Danger Equal to the Cigarette.
Ann Arbor, Oct. 30.—Three hundred girls about to enter gymnasium work at the University of Michigan have been advised to discard all things dear to a girl's heart, including fudges.
Dr. Alice G. Snyder, the physical director, in addressing the girls, said:
"You must stop wearing corsets and stop nibbling fudge. Your diet should be mainly fruit and cereals. Girls in the gymnasium should have two hot baths a week and a cold sponge bath daily."
Mrs. Jordan, dean of the woman's department, quoted President Angell as authority for the statement that the chafing dish among girls is on a par in the matter of injurious effects with the cigarette habit among the boys.

CLAN GORDON'S PARTY.

Several hundred people attended the Halloween entertainment in Center hall last evening, given by Clan Gordon. Mayor J. C. Hayes gave a short talk and Rev. G. L. Morrill spoke of "The Race, People and Peculiarities of Scotland." Rev. H. S. Morrill sang during the evening and other musical numbers and recitations were suggestive of Scotland. The program was followed by dancing.

ROXBURGH-GOULET NUPTIALS.

New York, Oct. 30.—Arrangements for the wedding of Miss Margaret Goulet to Rev.
