

Confide in a Woman

How Women Act While Consulting a Male Physician.

A woman is sick; some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story. She holds something back, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and thus completely mystifies the doctor. Is it any wonder, therefore, that the doctor fails to cure the disease? Still, we cannot blame the woman, for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician. It was for this reason that years ago Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham determined to step in and help her sex. Having had considerable experience in treating female ills with her Vegetable Compound, she encouraged the women of America to write to her for advice in regard to their complaints, and, being a woman, it was easy for her ailing sisters to pour into her ears every detail of their suffering. In this way was able to do for them what the physicians were unable to do, simply because she had the proper information to work upon, and from the little group of women who sought her advice years ago, a great army of her fellow beings are to-day constantly applying for advice and relief, and during the last year many, many thousands every month have written and received valuable advice and help.

Mrs. Pinkham, in Lynn, Mass.,

Nowhere except at Lydia E. Pinkham's laboratory in Lynn is there such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills, from the simplest local irritation, to the most complicated diseases of the womb. The records of all the many hundreds of thousands of cases as to which advice has been asked are there kept on file by Mrs. Pinkham, and from this vast experience she is able to do more than the family physician for ailing women. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own suffering who will not take the trouble to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice. The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND to conquer female diseases.

Trades and Labor Assembly Likely to Affiliate with National Organization.
Obstacles Which Were in the Way Before Have Now Been Removed.

Another effort is to be made to induce the Trades and Labor Assembly to affiliate with the American Federation of Labor. The last endeavor to have the assembly join the federation came at a time when the central body was all torn up over a controversy between two local unions, one of which, being a seceding organization, could not at that time have retained its membership in the assembly had that body decided to cast in its lot with the federation. This fact had much to do with the decision not to affiliate, but now this obstacle has been removed and it is thought no serious objection will be raised against becoming a member of the federation.

The matter was brought up at the meeting of the Trades Assembly on Wednesday evening, and had it not been for a threat on the part of one of the advocates of affiliation, to form an independent central body in the event of refusal, it is said the matter would in all likelihood have been settled then and there. However, action was postponed until the next meeting, when the question will be again brought up for discussion. All but a

THE STRENUOUS LIFE

A Great Strain.
No one disputes the fact that we are living in a "rapid" age; it is rush, rush, rush from morning until night, and competition is so fierce that the struggle does not cease until the machine is worn out.

Women, too, even when surrounded by every comfort, become infected by the common spirit and what with their clubs and many social duties, have no time to give thought to their physical well-being, until they are suddenly brought to a sharp realization of the fact that nothing in their lives is so important as attention to correct or rational living. It may surprise the reader to learn that women are more prone to piles than men, and in most cases because it is difficult to impress upon them the importance of regular movements of the bowels; irregularity means straining at stool, and straining means piles, with the certainty (under the usual methods of treatment) that the sufferer will "have them always with her;" by "usual methods" is meant the application of salves and lotions, or (as a last resort) a surgical operation.

If there is a complaint which entails more distress and suffering upon those afflicted than piles or hemorrhoids, it is not known to the writer; fortunately, however, these are learning that there is a remedy that effectually cures all forms of piles; it is known as the Pyramid Pile Cure, in suppository form, is applied directly to the parts, and does its work quickly and painlessly; it is sold by druggists at fifty cents a package, or may be mailed by the makers to any address upon receipt of price.

Mrs. L. M. Joliff, Parisburg, Ohio, says: "I feel it my duty to acknowledge the great benefit I have received from the use of Pyramid Pile Cure. For several months I suffered untold agony from the bleeding piles, and was finally advised by Columbus doctor to get Pyramid Pile Cure at once, which I did, and one box completely cured me. I advised all sufferers to use it." Write the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their little book on the causes and cure of piles.

very small number of local unions are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, either as individual unions or thru their internationals, and there is a prevailing sentiment among these that the Minneapolis central labor body should avail itself of the added prestige to be derived from a membership in the American Federation.

A NATIONAL FEDERATION

Convention Called to Meet in Denver, Col., in January.
Secretary Harry B. Waters of the State Federation of Labor of Colorado has taken the initiative in the formation of a new national labor body, and has sent out a call to all the state federations in the United States for a national convention to be held in Denver the first week in January, 1904. The Colorado state body has received enough replies from federations in other states to warrant the call, and it is said more than three hundred representatives have already been selected. The primary purpose of the convention will be to organize the workmen and unions affiliated with the state bodies into a system similar to the United States governmental system. The state federation will be supreme in its particular state, but will work under national laws formulated by a body of representatives chosen by the state organizations. The Minnesota state federation will be represented at the convention.

JOB PRINTERS SEEK RAISE

They Are Negotiating for Shorter Hours of Labor.
The job printers of the twin cities are conducting negotiations for new wage scales. Conferences have been held in both cities, but so far no agreement has been arrived at. The St. Paul Typothetae, at a meeting with a committee from the Typographical union, submitted a proposition which is considered very satisfactory, and if the Minneapolis employers agree to the terms of the St. Paul document, a speedy adjustment of existing differences will probably result. It is understood that the proposed scale is $19 a week and eight and a half hours a day, with a reduction to eight hours eventually. The job scale in the twin cities has always been considered too low by the printers.

SPENCER NOMINATED

Local Union Names Him for an International Office.
Nominations are being made throughout the country for general officers of the International Brotherhood of Painters, Decorators and Paper Hangers. At the meeting Tuesday night, the local union placed in nomination S. J. Spencer for the office of fourth vice president. Mr. Spencer has for a long time been prominent in local union circles and his election would be a popular one.

The painters and decorators have organized a "Jollification club," and will give entertainments and dances the coming winter and picnics and excursions next summer.

They're After John.
A resolution was passed by the Trades Assembly Wednesday night protesting against the reappointment of John Swift as an organizer of the American Federation of Labor.

A New Auxiliary.
Machinists' Union No. 91 has appointed a committee to assist in the formation of a ladies' auxiliary, and a meeting with the ladies will be held shortly to complete arrangements for an open meeting to which the wives and female relatives of union machinists will be invited.

led and the various crafts are working under trade agreements which will preclude future trouble. Another meeting will be held Tuesday evening at Richmond hall, when a permanent organization will be effected. It is urged that a full representation be present. It is proposed that the principle that labor unions are partnerships and that slander committed by one member makes the organization itself liable for damages. Neil Henderson is the plaintiff but in reality the suit is brought by the Citizens' Alliance of Denver against the Firemen and Engineers' Help-ers' union. Henderson charges that a committee from the union circulated the report that he was taking coal from a company, selling it to other parties and pocketing the proceeds, thereby intimating that he had been guilty of larceny. For this alleged slander Henderson asks $5,000 damages.

Still Doing Business.

This week the International Union of Flour and Cereal Mill Employees issued the label to two firms, in Nebraska City, Neb., and Corydon, Ky. Charters were issued to four new unions, at Benton, Ill.; Niagara Falls, N. Y.; Harrisburg, Ill., and Corydon, Ky. It is said that all the twin city delegates to the American Federation of Labor convention at Boston, are pledged to support the cause of the strikers, and favorable action by the federation is confidently looked forward to.

JEROME ISSUES A DEFINITIVE

Declares New York Won't Be Permitted to Run as a Wide Open Town.

New York Sun Special Service.
New York, Nov. 6.—"If Tammany men think they're going to have a 'wide open' town they are making the mistake of their lives," declared District Attorney Jerome to-day.

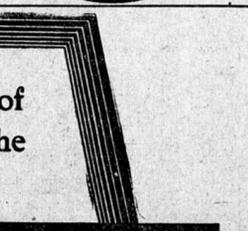

The confidence in his ability to prevent the establishment of a new "vice trust" in New York was the result of assurances which Mr. Jerome received a few days ago that the wealth of John D. Rockefeller would be behind him in fighting to keep the city free from illegal resorts during the coming two years.

Other millions also are pledged.
