MARRIED 15 YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Kenyon Saturday Evening Celebrated Anniversary of Their Wedding.

Wedding of Miss Frances Agnes Harmer and Dr. C. F. Brigham To-morrow.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Kenyon celebrated the fifteenth anniversary of their marriage Saturday evening at their home on 624 1/2 avenue S. About seventy-five guests had been bidden for cards and the rooms were made beautiful with a profusion of flowers. The reception room was decorated with palms and palms for decorations. Pink flowers were in the music room and red in the library where carnations were tucked in the ferns and vines on the mantel. Red tapers in silver candlesticks aided in lighting. Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon were assisted in receiving by Mrs. M. DeMille, Mrs. William Egbert of Hudson, Wis., and Mrs. P. E. DeMille, of Baldwin, Wis. The guests brought many handsome pieces of cut glass for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon. The day also celebrated the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Kenyon and Mr. Kenyon gave her a diamond bracelet. Pretty vases and dishes of cut glass were the appropriate prizes for the crystal party and after the games a buffet supper was served in the dining room. A basket of white chrysanthemums was in the center of the table and white tables gleamed among the green on the sideboard and mantel.

Present were Messrs. and Mrs. J. D. McArthur, Fred Young, Carpenter, Blunt, McArthur, J. B. Gilman, Jr., Foster, Wagner, Munzer, Pickering, P. B. Walker, Al Paris, Hainert, Gedney, Smith, Partridge, Q. L. Hazen, Goldborough, Irving Lawrence, J. B. "Let the GOLD DUST TWINS do your work"

Wash day is Work Day unless you use Gold Dust. It's the all but never-ending bending, rubbing and scrubbing that makes tired backs and weary bodies. GOLD DUST will do the heavy work and do it better than anything else. Whiter clothes, quicker results and greater economy is what the use of Gold Dust offers you. OTHER GENERAL USES FOR GOLD DUST: Scrubbing floors, washing clothes and dishes, cleaning wood-work, oilcloth, silverware and tinware, polishing brass work, cleaning bath room, pipes, etc., and making the finest soft soap. Made by THE N. E. FAIRBANK COMPANY, Chicago—Makers of FAIRY SOAP. GOLD DUST makes hard water soft.

NINTH DISTRICT ELECTION. Federation Convention at Fergus Closes Successful Meeting. Special to The Journal. Fergus Falls, Minn., Nov. 9.—The federation of women's clubs for the ninth congressional district closed its fifth annual convention in this city Saturday afternoon. Mrs. L. L. Baxter gave a comprehensive report of the meeting of the state federation, and a number of papers were read by representatives from different clubs, in line with the studies that have recently been taken up by the respective organizations. Mrs. C. L. Hill of the Schumann club of Fergus Falls told what a musical club could accomplish for a community in bringing high class musical entertainments and encouraging the study of music among the young, especially in the schools. A paper on "Personal Ownership of Books," by Mrs. Henderson of Barnesville, led to a general discussion regarding libraries in small towns and cities.

At the business meeting held Saturday afternoon the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Recording secretary, Miss Anna Tennant, Fergus Falls; corresponding secretary, Mrs. A. H. Miller, Crookston; treasurer, Mrs. F. H. Alexander, Barnesville.

The district vice president elected at the state federation meeting acts as president for the district, and Mrs. G. O. Welch was elected this year. The women of the Moorhead federation were so much pleased with the address by Governor La Follette Friday evening that they arranged to have him deliver it in that city under their auspices, and telegraphed home to have it advertised immediately.

Miss Eda Shull was the guest of honor at a party dinner which was given by Mrs. W. P. Wright at her home on Summit avenue, St. Paul, Saturday evening. Covers were laid for twenty and the guests included the St. Paul debutantes.

Mmes. J. Melvin Scott, James Broadbent and L. M. Holden of Tacoma, were the guests of honor at a dinner of twelve covers which was given yesterday evening by Mrs. Charles Titter at her home on Chicago avenue. The guests of honor will leave this evening for the west.

Mrs. W. F. Graves of Summit avenue, St. Paul, gave a tea Saturday afternoon, from 4 until 6 o'clock, for Mrs. Lydia Phillips Williams. Mrs. Hitchcock, Mrs. Graves' mother, assisted in receiving and about twenty-five women were present.

Mrs. Edward Langdon of Franklin Heights entertained Friday afternoon for Miss Catherine Call of New York, who has been the guest of Mrs. Harry Call of the Berkeley and Miss Call left last evening for the east to join The Sweet Girl company, with which she will play the leading role.
