SHIFTS IN CHOIRS

They Will Not Be So General the First of the Year as Here-tofore.

First Baptist Church Finds Chorus Choir Plan a Very Satisfactory One.

The changes in down town church choirs will not be so general this year. The First Baptist has taken the matter of singing out of the professional sphere entirely. The beginning of the musical year of this church was characterized by July 1. On this account it is certain that Professor Walter Painter will remain director until July 1, 1904, at least. The choir is made up of non-professional singers, young people of the church. The plan has been to build up a permanent chorus of young people who have an interest in who sing for pure love of the aid to the religious work of the church. Under this arrangement it is expected that the choir will go on just the same. At Wesley church some dissatisfaction has been found with the choir. The choir plan in vogue. The dissatisfaction is simply with the plan and not with the soloist. Solo and congregational singing alone affords so little flexibility in the programs that they become to a certain extent monotonous. It is probable that the committee will arrange for a return to the quartet choir.

HOLIDAY FOR FARMERS

Horticultural Society's Plan for Annual Meeting in December. A "farming holiday" has been arranged by the Minnesota State Horticultural society. It is simply the annual meeting of the society with special attractions for the winter months. The first four days in December. An effort is being made to secure the attendance of hundreds of farmers, whose interests are those of the horticultural society. The beekeepers will meet at the same time and place as the horticultural society, and many papers pertaining to their work will also be presented. Reduced railroad rates of one and one-half fare for the round trip have been secured from all the railroads in the state, and as this is the only low rate to the twin cities before the holidays there are expected to be many who will take advantage of it. Tickets are good, including Sunday, for four days prior to the opening of the meeting, and in returning are good, including Sunday, for four days thereafter. Tickets purchased Nov. 27 would be good to return Dec. 1. Persons visiting the twin cities should secure a certificate from the railroad agent at the time of purchasing the ticket, and these certificates should be presented to A. W. Latham, secretary of the horticultural society at the place of meeting, 817 Hattan church, Eighth street and Mary place. Further particulars and a program of the meeting can be had by addressing the secretary of the society, A. W. Latham, 207 Kasota block, Minneapolis.

ALPINES ARE CLEVER

They Are Easily the Strongest Headliners at the Dewey Theater. Easily the best feature of the performance given by the Cherry Blossoms Burlesque company at the Dewey theater this week is the turn of the Alpine family, to his clever trio of comedians, who do some work on the tight wires, and is unquestionably the best set of artists in their line ever seen here.

CANADIAN GAME LAWS

They Don't Fit in with United States Import Regulations. Hunters who are planning an invasion of Canada will do well to inform themselves with regard to the game laws, and incidentally the United States customs regulations. Game is plentiful, at least so the reports say, but the dominion game laws absolutely prohibit the exportation of any game birds except ducks and geese. Grouse and other birds are promptly confiscated by the dominion authorities when prepared for shipment to the states.

DANIA SOCIETY BANQUET

Annual Meeting of Organization Held at Dania Hall. Dania society held its twenty-eighth annual banquet at Dania hall last evening. The attendance was large and the event was thoroughly enjoyed. The hall was prettily decorated, the American and Danish colors with palms and potted plants being freely used.

THANKSGIVING LINES

The Alert Housewife Will Attend Dayton's Sale-Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Dayton's Thanksgiving linen sale opens Thursday-bright and early-to give plenty of time for table preparation for the 26th, for one reason. The other is because this sale presents greater stocks and greater genuine linen bargains than any sale for some time, and so more lines to sell. If you will read the ad on page 3 you will find the names of linen weavers throughout the world, whose products will be sold at prices lower than you expect to find such high grade linens.

PROHIBITS' CHAIRMAN HERE

He Says Minneapolis Must Hustle if She Wants Their Convention.

What prohibitionists need to arouse them to a successful pitch of enthusiasm are a few minor victories. We have as faithful a band of workers as any party could wish and I believe the results of the week's prohibitions in Pennsylvania and Illinois will greatly encourage them by showing which way the wind is blowing. Oliver W. Stewart, chairman of the national prohibitionist campaign committee, at the Nicollet this morning.

If Minneapolis wants the next national prohibition convention, which will probably be held next June, she must have the chairmanship. Stewart went on to say, "The convention will bring 1,200 delegates and a total of 6,000 visitors to the city, and Kansas City, Indianapolis, St. Louis and Chicago have already entered into strong competition for it. Mr. Stewart spoke at Brookings, S. D., last night; at Oelwein, Iowa, the night before, and is just from Pennsylvania, to which state he will return to speak at the annual banquet of Minnesota prohibitionists, to be held at the Y. M. C. A. hall. Among the other speakers will be G. W. Chalmers, of St. Paul, and L. Morrow of Indianapolis, who has just concluded an extensive campaign and says that he will be in St. Paul at the Laythe School. Rev. B. B. Haugan will act as toastmaster.

DAMAGE SUITS NUMEROUS

City Sued for Accidents to Pedestrians on Bad Wooden Sidewalks. Never in the history of the city has there been such a large number of damage suits against the city on the sidewalks because of accidents caused by them. Most of them are personal injury cases, and a majority of these, again, arise from defective sidewalks-always and invariably plank walks.

HARRINGTON A HERO

Took Chances to Let Others Escape and Was Drowned. Details of the drowning at Jacksonville, Fla., of Louis Sherman Harrington, a big jacket from St. Paul, placed him in the light of hero. With two fellow sailors he started for the United States ship Newport one night in a heavy swell. The boat was smashed against the side of the vessel and all were thrown into the water. Lines were thrown to two of the men. Harrington called to his companions to catch the lines, preferring to wait his chance at a third. When it came he had gone under. The cruise was Harrington's last, as his term of enlistment would have expired soon.

Dorothy Dodd New Fall and Winter Styles in Dorothy Dodd $3 Boots Are Ready.

Though on the market for a little more than a year, they have been the most phenomenal shoe success ever known. They stand to-day not only the approved shoe of fashion because of their beauty and style, but also the approved hygienic shoe because of their scientific construction. Now, there is something new, a damp-proof shoe for women, that will stand rough wear and keep the feet warm and dry; upper of bright, plump kid, with kid tip; laced; medium military heel, and cork filled heavy welt soles. We regard this shoe as an ideal Winter Boot. The price of this style, together with about 25 others, is only $3.00

The "Dorothy Dodd" patents are all made from "Booth's Ideal Kid" stock, which is the best and most expensive of all the patent or "shiny" leathers used in the manufacture of shoes at any price. While we do not guarantee this stock, we do claim it is much easier and more comfortable, and because of this softness is less liable to crack. See the new Fall Styles we show in this stock. They fit perfectly, and we have the heavy welt soles for street wear or lighter ones for dress. $3.50
