NO TURKEY RAFFLES

Acting Mayor Jones Is Expected to Forbid the Game Again This Year.

Delegation of Retail Meat Dealers' Association Files Formal Protest Against Raffles.

Turkey raffling in saloons Thanksgiving Day will not be permitted this year, just as it was prohibited on Thanksgiving Day last year, and the sportsmen will look elsewhere for their games of chance and their turkey dinners.

This, at least, is the program arranged by the Retail Meat Dealers' association, and is the one carried out last year.

At 3:30 this afternoon a delegation from the association, including President Louis E. Witt, Secretary George C. Schlenker, Treasurer Fred Biesl and several members of the board of directors, waited upon Acting Mayor Jones by appointment at his office for a formal protest against the raffling of Thanksgiving turkeys in saloons.

While such raffling is clearly gambling, and hence illegal, the delegation did not press this point so much as they did that the saloonkeepers were not in the meat business and had no right to interfere with it, any more than the meat dealers had a right to interfere with the liquor business, for which saloonkeepers pay a license.

As this same appeal was made when Alderman Jones was acting mayor last year, as the acting mayor then forbade turkey raffling in saloons, and as Alderman Jones will be acting mayor for several days, and at least until after Thanksgiving, it was regarded by the delegation as a certainty that their request would be granted this year.

Turkey raffles have already become popular in the downtown districts, a combination of "lucky" and "unlucky" and turkey raffling a gambling device at which $20 are won or lost on a turn of the wheel. The "paddle game" also is flourishing.

N. W. HOSPITAL CHANGES

A New Building Is Necessary to Meet the Present Demands.

The greatest need at the Northwestern hospital, as shown in the reports at the annual meeting of the directors yesterday, is for larger accommodations. The demands far exceed the present building and it is very probable that a new building will be built in the spring. There is $1,250 already in the fund for the new building and the basement for this new addition has been ready for some time. This year a laundry, linen room and diet kitchen were established there. Another crying need is for a home for the nurses. These improvements will be included in the annual report of the president, Mrs. T. B. Walker. Mrs. Walker was unable to be present, but her message was read by Mrs. W. S. Walker.

The report of the treasurer, Mrs. S. C. Swift, showed that the disbursements for the year were $22,218.77; receipts, $22,751.82, leaving a balance of $532.90. Miss Eleanor Weston, the hospital superintendent, stated that 692 patients had been cared for during the year, and the number present in the hospital in thirty-nine. There have been thirty-one deaths and thirty-six births. The preceding year there were only 491 patients. The number of charity patients for the twelve months was fifty.

Mrs. W. L. Wolford told of the work in the nurses' training school where there are twenty-four nurses, seven of whom are preparing to graduate next year. The total number graduated since the school was opened is 121.

One more private room was furnished this year making eleven and all which are maintained by Mesdames H. H. Kimball, J. M. Robinson, J. S. Bell, S. H. Bowman, H. C. Clarke, G. H. Daggett, Chester Simmons, E. E. Townsend, E. E. Koon, M. J. Peppard and Charles Velle. A new ice house is another improvement added during the year.

The former officers were re-elected with the exception of Mrs. S. W. Melendy, secretary, and Mrs. J. E. Bell, auditor. Mrs. Melendy has acted for six years. The nominating committee did not present any names to fill the two vacancies. The other officers will be as follows: President, Mrs. T. B. Walker; honorary vice-president, Mrs. B. Barton; vice-presidents, Mesdames H. H. Kimball, J. P. Toutoulette, A. H. Rose, J. M. Robinson; assistant secretary, Mrs. H. C. Clarke; treasurer, Mrs. S. C. Swift; assistant Mrs. I. C. Marston; superintendent, Miss Eleanor Weston. Mrs. W. H. Dunwoody and Mrs. S. W. Melendy were added to the board of directors.

THEATRICAL STREET SWEEP

Stella Mayhew Undertakes to Clean St. Paul's Dusty Thoroughfares.

An advertising trick new to the northwest was repeated yesterday in St. Paul by a musical comedy star named Stella Mayhew. Miss Mayhew "bossed" a street cleaning job and paid the cleaners with her manager's money.

MAYOR STANDS IN WAY

Opposes Crematory Removal tho Council Has Advertised for Bids for Work.

While the council has advertised for bids for removing the garbage crematory from the workhouse farm to Hall's Island, near the Plymouth avenue bridge, and will soon award the contract there is no assurance that the crematory will be removed very soon. A contract will require the signature of Mayor James C. Haynes and Mayor Haynes is opposed to the removal, standing with the first ward.

The first warders insist that Hall's Island is in their ward, altho it has no population and casts no vote. For obvious reasons the ward of the cradle of democracy in this city, has a very strong influence with the chief executive, and he will withhold his signature upon the contract from the removal. The health department is balked for the time being.

The mayor might be forced by legal process to sign, but this might prove expensive and unsatisfactory. So an easier way would be to order the work done by day labor under the direction of the commissioner of health. The mayor could, of course, veto the resolution, but with the votes of some of the democrats, the veto would be of no avail. Several of the council aldermen say that the first ward opposition is childish.

BEFORE THE PUBLIC EYE

A delightful concert and recital will be given in the Fifth Avenue Congregational church this evening. The numbers will be by a chorus consisting of Mesas, Whiteaw, Cooley, Fritchle, Miss Maud Wainman, George C. Roberts, T. T. Jones, Allen Jones, Ed. Jones and George Fitchell; quartet numbers, O. Morris, William Ries, M. L. McIntyre and Allen Jones, Mmes. Whiteaw, Cooley, Fritchle and Miss Wainman; solos, Mr. MacIsaac, Thomas McCracken and M. L. McIntyre, barytone, and Miss Frances Hargan, contralto; mandolin solo, Luther Rexford; reading, Miss Frances Woodard. Mrs. Edwina Wainman will be the accompanist and D. E. Jones, musical director.

The South Minneapolis Total Abstinence society will give a festival next Friday night at 8 o'clock in Hegna hall on Two-and-a-half street, near Cedar avenue. The program will be given by Rev. T. H. Dahl, president of the United Norwegian Lutheran church of America; an octet from the United Church seminary, St. Anthony Park; Mrs. N. N. Renning and Miss Gunhild Orstedal, pianists; Arthur Kihlaid from the United Church seminary, Swedish quartet. Coffee and cake will be served.

Several hundred guests, including a large number from St. Paul, attended the second annual ball of the Minneapolis postoffice clerks in Masonic Temple last evening. Latourelle's orchestra played and the tables were arranged for those who did not care for dancing. Palms and ferns, with the national colors, decorated the hall. The arrangements were in charge of W. H. D. Reese, M. J. Kelly, C. W. Kerr, F. L. Basford, J. A. Dahl, M. J. Harkin, E. B. Murnane, T. J. Manning, O. G. Sullivan, T. J. Davy, T. J. Wiegand, G. A. Emerson, G. Monach, E. Booth, G. N. Jones, C. W. Russell, E. E. Knauf, G. McMullen, J. E. Lee, M. G. Hoban, J. C. Carter, G. E. Egbert, C. J. Gustafson, W. F. Kittle, J. E. Manning, G. W. Richard, W. Jones, E. H. Rathbone, C. G.
