Social Circle

The marriage of Miss L. Louise Winchell, daughter of Professor and Mrs. N. H. Winchell, and D. Draper Dayton was quietly solemnized last evening at the home of the bride's parents on St. Paul street. Flowers and smilax made a pretty decoration thru the rooms, and the bride couple stood beneath an arch of smilax. Miss Belle Penney was at the piano and played the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus for a professional and "Traumerel" during the service, with the Mendelssohn march after the benediction had been pronounced. The little flower girls were Cosette Kavenaugh and Lois Grant. The service was read by Rev. J. F. Stout of St. Paul in the presence of only twenty of the immediate relatives and was followed by a light collation. Mr. Dayton and his bride went at once to their new home, 2020 Blaisdell avenue, where they will reside with Mr. and Mrs. George D. Dayton, the bridegroom's parents. They will receive after Feb. 1.

An interesting feature of the day was that it celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. Dayton's parents, and was also the birthday anniversary of the bride's father.

Mrs. George B. Moore and Miss Margaret Moore of Princeton, Ind., will be holiday guests of Mrs. Frank M. Joy of Grove street, Monday afternoon, Dec. 28. Mrs. Joyce will entertain for Mrs. Moore, and the following Wednesday she will give a dinner. Mrs. Joyce will also entertain the young people at a holiday party for Miss Moore.

This evening Mr. and Mrs. Karle W. Perkins will give a dinner at their apartments in McKinley court for H. P. Shane of St. Paul, who will leave for New Orleans Monday.

H. W. Commons gave a theater party at the Metropolitan last night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Sewall D. Andrews. The party was followed by a supper at the Minneapolis club, and covers were laid for sixteen.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hayford of Groveland avenue gave a dinner of twelve covers. The house decorations were in the Christmas colors, and evergreen and holly were used liberally. The table decorations were red roses, and poinsettia blossoms were used in the library.

The freshmen members of Delta Delta Delta fraternity gave a dancing party Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Freda Stamm, on Smith avenue, St. Paul. The rooms were beautified with greens and holly wreaths and decorated with red ribbon. Prizes were served in an oriental corner. About forty young people were present.

Mrs. E. T. Allen of 2016 Nicollet avenue entertained at luncheon Wednesday. In the center of the table was a small Christmas tree, with bows of red satin ribbon, and the table was strewn with holly. A red streamer was at each of the ten covers, and as the guests pulled them a gift was found at the other end. Euchre was played after luncheon, and the prize, a hand-painted mayonnaise bowl, was won by Mrs. Platt B. Walker. The other guests were Misses W. I. Carpenter, P. B. Walker, A. H. Barnum, T. H. Bentley, J. H. Haser, Charles Johnson, Charles Westler, C. W. Brace, E. A. Whitmore and Frank Annis.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Bowler of 303 E Fifteenth street, will entertain the To-day club this evening.
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Falconer will leave this evening to spend the holidays in their old home in Tompkins, Pa.

The Misses Sarah and Daphne Board will be holiday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Slade Lawrence of Franklin Heights.
Minneapolis people at New York hotels are as follows: Fifth Avenue, C. Washburn; Broadway, H. A. Rogers.
Miss Board and Miss Daphne Board of Grand Forks are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Lawrence at 307 W. Franklin avenue.
Samuel Bowman, Ralph and Harry Shull, Casey Hand, Gilbert Quirk and Irving Fish and Elliott Hildreth will come home from Hill school in Potlows, Pa., next week for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hobbs entertained the old friends club at their residence, 1813 Johnson street N.E. Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for twelve. The guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. John Hasty of Sandstone, Minn.

MRS. MANNING IN ST. LOUIS
New President of Women's World's Fair Board Will Remain During Exposition.

St. Louis, Dec. 18.—The final session of the board of lady managers of the Louisiana purchase exposition was held today. The session was a busy one, as many matters upon which action had been deferred came up for settlement.
Miss Helen M. Gould and her party departed for New York late last night. All have a role of usefulness in the exposition.
The newly elected president, Mrs. Daniel Manning of Alban, N. Y., said today that she would soon secure a residence in St. Louis and remain here during the exposition.

HOLIDAY SALES AND SUPPERS.
The women of the First Unitarian church will serve a chicken pie supper this evening in the church parlors and hold an apron sale.
