Dr. Greene's Nervura

the world's greatest nerve tonic and stomach regulator. Read the experience of Mr. Colin R. Dunn, 14 Minton St., Dorchester, Mass. Mr. Dunn says: "I was in very poor health and weighed but 92 pounds, and my stomach was in such poor condition that I could not enjoy my food. I secured a bottle of Dr. Greene's Nervura, and when I had taken one bottle I was able to eat a great deal better and felt a desire for food, so I continued taking it. To-day I weigh 137 pounds, and instead of going about on crutches, I can walk and enjoy myself like any other young man."

Informal Evening Program at 9

MALCOLM'S MASONIC TEMPLE

In Social Circles

The largest affair of the day was the reception which Mrs. Edward J. Scriver and Mrs. Morris E. Moore gave at the home of Mrs. Scriver on Sixth street SE. The hours were from 2 until 5 o'clock and about 400 invitations had been issued. The guests of honor included a group of Duluth women. Mmes. Edward C. Blanchard, Frank Dunsmore, George Howe and Alexander MacRae. The assisting women were Mmes. James Pye, Hiram Scriver, Elgin R. Scriver, John Larimore, Stuart B. Purves, D. H. Herrick, Anton Knudsen, Wm. T. Harmon, A. A. Wyman, Hiram Smith, Walter Nicol and Childs. The young women who served frappe were the Misses Carrie Blanchard, Maud Bertrick, Louise Pye, Marion and Gertrude Drew and Louise Eddy. A string orchestra played a program, as the guests came and went.

The decorations were charming and the house was a bower of southern smilax. In the living-room clusters of Sunrise roses nestled among the green, and from above hung a lantern with a beautiful opalescent shade in green. Tapers in old brass holders and candles were in the mantels and cabinets. Frappe was served in the den, where a unique effect was obtained by placing the lights behind the frappe table. Oriental bronze lamps were also used and southern smilax and holiday greens framed the pretty corner, while great clusters of carnations and shaded touches of more vivid color. The dining-room was bright with spring blossoms and golden tulips blossomed in the center was a willow basket of daffodils and hyacinths, fringed with delicate ferns. A curious lamp with an opalescent shade, which repeated the yellow and white of the decorations, hung above the table. The assisting women will remain this evening for a buffet supper and later the men will join them and pit will be played.

Mrs. Thomas S. Roberts gave a daintily appointed luncheon this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Scriver for Miss Edith Ives. The decorations were all in white and green and hyacinths and ferns were used as a centerpiece on the Fourth of July. The guests were the Misses Ives, Florence Harrison of Milwaukee; Dinmore, Kate Moulton, Cleveland, Fraulien Schoen-Rene, Mmes. J. B. Vanderlip, Preston King and B. H. Woodworth.

Mrs. Samuel R. Van Sant entertained a group of women at luncheon at the Aberdeen in St. Paul today. Mrs. Cornelius Gardner of Fort Snelling was the guest of honor. Mrs. Gardner is the wife of Colonel Gardner, who was governor of one of the provinces of the Philippine Islands for some time, and she gave an interesting talk on life in the islands.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Kruse announce the engagement of their daughter, Olivia Adah, to William Claude Stevenson.

The senior class of the Central high school will give one of its informal gatherings Friday evening, Jan. 29, in the Phoenix club. Miss Vaughan will play for dancing.

Miss Helen Marr has come from London, Eng., to visit her brother, Sidney C. White, in St. Paul. Miss Marr is the daughter of C. S. White of Winona, and she has many friends in Minneapolis and thru the state. After she went on the stage she took her maiden name as a stage cognomen, and has since retained it. Miss Marr is one of the successful drawing-room entertainers in London, and made a name for herself as a teller of American stories. At first she was obliged to give her programs at benefits for hospitals, soup kitchens and charity organizations, for which she received no compensation, but she soon became better known, and is now heard in the most important drawing-rooms in England. She has performed several times before King Edward and appeared on one program shortly, after the coronation. Miss White denies that English people cannot see the point of a joke, but confesses that their interest in a good story leads them to request its repetition over and over again.

The Minnetonka club will have its next party in the winter series Saturday evening and dancing and tobogganing will be the special feature. The trains will leave the Minneapolis & St. Louis station at 5:30 and 6:15 o'clock. Several parties have already been made to go out. The members will notify the steward if they expect to be present.

The Royal Arcanum Entertainment association will give its third dance and card party Tuesday evening in Masonic Temple. The association was formed for the purpose of maintaining free hospital beds for the members of the Royal Arcanum when needed.

The china shower planned by St. Paul's guild, which was given last evening in the parish-house, was a delightful affair and a large number of guests were present. The parlors were hung with pink and white bunting against which branches of cherry blossoms were most effective. Japanese lanterns were everywhere and the air was heavy with incense. Gay umbrellas were suspended above the tables on which the china brought by the people of the parish for the parish-house was displayed. An interesting program was given by a group of young people in Japanese costume. Miss Dorothy Hume gave a piano number. Miss Skinner sang and Miss Lyon played on the violin. Misses Dorothy Hill, Marion Jarvis and Margaret LeVay, gave a number. Eugene Moffett recited. Dorothy Rogers was a dainty doll for Miss Skinner in her song, "Jap Doll"; and Susie Gregg sang. Miss Genevieve Griffith was accompanied in her song by George Griffith, who played the violin. Misses Lawton, Bertha Lyons and William serve under a great umbrella and Mmes. O. E. Wood and Charles Allenson poured coffee. Red tapers and red carnations decked the tables. The program was given by Miss Waite, president of the guild, assisted by Mrs. Harry S. Gregg, Mr. Payne, Misses Williams, Wheelock, Evelyn Waite, Skinner and Georgia Lyons.

Mrs. J. B. Chadwick entertained at luncheon yesterday afternoon at her home on Bloomington avenue for Clay W. Chadwick. The guests were Mmes. O. J. Odegard, O. F. Nebling, E. Newman, E. Olson, James O'Donnell, Misses Inga Bergson, A. H. Seresten, Charles Chadwick, Misses Carrie and Gunda Overum, Miss Isabel Seresten, Miss A. H. Seresten, Arthur Lenquist, Lenquist, Arthur Seresten and Mrs. Lenquist.

Miss Ellen E. Pyke and Arthur H. Perkins, both of Oakes, N. D., were quietly married last week in this city. The service was read by Rev. S. D. Hutsinipier.

Installation of Officers. Mrs. George W. Smith conducted the installation ceremonies for Excelsior lodge, D. of H., Tuesday evening in the hall, Franklin and Bloomington avenue S. She was assisted by Mmes. N. F. Dunn, C. E. Hilderbrand, D. Lucas and Greer. The officers installed were as follows: Past chief of honor, Mrs. Gans; chief of honor, Mrs. Blucher; lady of honor, Mrs. Pfeiffer; chief of ceremonies, Mrs. Colter; usher, Mrs. Laird; treasurer, Mrs. Hurbutt; recorder, Mrs. Gustafson; recorder, Mrs. Wolf; inside watch, Mrs. Blackwood. Mrs. Smith was presented with a bunch of beautiful flowers by Mrs. Hilderbrand in behalf of the lodge. The ceremonies were followed by a light supper and the tables were prettily decorated with roses and ferns.

An Annual Meeting. The Willing Workers of Augustana Lutheran church held their annual meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Andrew Anderson, 2405 Elliot avenue. A balance in the treasury of $381 was reported. Officers were elected as follows: Secretary, Mrs. N. S. Hoogner; treasurer, Mrs. A. E. Glader; program committee, Mmes. L. S. Donaldson, J. Franzen and A. E. Anderson. Dr. C. J. Petri, pastor of the church, is president ex-officio. The next meeting will be with Mrs. August Eckman, 1617 Elliot avenue, Wednesday, Feb. 10.

Solicitors Unauthorized. Unauthorized solicitors for the Sunshine society have appeared in Minneapolis asking for money to aid in the work of the society. The Sunshine organization has an unwritten rule which forbids soliciting, and does not send agents out to ask for money, but all the work is carried on thru the branches. Any one receiving a "begging" letter will confer a favor on the society by sending it to the local president, Mrs. Theodore Haynes, Hotel Berkeley.

Riverside Mothers Club. The Riverside Mothers club will have its monthly meeting to-morrow evening at 8:45 o'clock. The members held on their husbands and other sons to be present. Mrs. Elbert Carpenter will give a talk and a group of songs will also be a pleasant feature.

Officers Will Be Elected. Powers Mercantile Co.'s Employees' Mutual Aid society will hold its annual election of officers at the meeting this evening, in Richmond hall. The transaction of business will be followed by a social hour.

For Convenience of Shoppers. In the up-town district The Journal has a branch office in the Donaldson's Glass Block in the office in front of the new elevator on the main floor. Want ads, social items and subscriptions will be received.

A Twentieth Century Barometer Free! All advertisers inserting a want ad in The Journal will be given a color barometer—the most novel novelty out. As there is only a limited supply, first come will be first served.

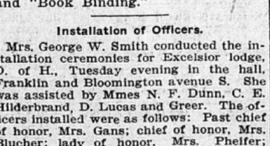

REPRESENT VARIED CRAFTS

Work of Arts and Crafts Society Members Covers Wide Field. The annual business meeting of the Arts and Crafts society was held Monday evening at the residence of Miss Griffith. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Mary Moulton Cheney; vice president, Miss Elizabeth Norris; secretary, Miss Edith Griffith; treasurer, Miss Bertha McMillan; executive committee, Mrs. Mary E. Helmick, Misses Nellie Tru-fant and Mary Simpson. An interesting roll of the members shows that the membership includes twelve artistic crafts, sculptor, designer, architectural designer, book binder, wood carver, glass decorator, raffia worker, metal worker, china designer, china painter, illustrator, artist.

The club is doing important work in cultivating the art interests of the city, encouraging its own members to their best efforts and affording valuable education opportunities in their exhibitions and programs. The course of study for the year is of especial interest, being on bookmaking. The remaining meetings will take up "Paper and Paper making," "The Art of the Printer," "Famous Presses," and "Book Binding."

Milks' Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind.: Gentlemen—I believe I will write you and let you know how good your Emulsion did me. I have had a great deal of trouble with my right lung for the last four years. The doctors called it pleurisy; the stitches and pain were something awful and I could not get anything to build me up. But since taking Milks' Emulsion, I feel all right again. Am gaining strength every day and think I will soon be like a young man again. You may tell your butchers and grocers to recommend Milks' Emulsion as it will make lots of business for them as it gives a person a great appetite. To finish my letter, will say Milks' Emulsion has done me a wonderful amount of good. Yours respectfully, Wm. EBRICH, 855 Elm St., Indianapolis, Ind. March 8, 1903.

The Milks' Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind.: Gentlemen—For years I have suffered from bronchial and lung troubles. About a month ago Milks' Emulsion was highly recommended to me and I commenced to use it. I found that it gave me immediate relief and felt confident in a short time it will effect a permanent cure. My cough has almost left me entirely and when I do cough now it is not so severe as it was before taking Milks' Emulsion. When I consider that I have had this cough for years and never before found relief, I feel that I cannot say too much for Milks' Emulsion. Yours respectfully, MAKE W. PRACHEE, 1318 Barth Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.

The Milks' Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind.: Gentlemen—My son had an abscess on his left lung. He doctored a long time without any good results. Finally some friend recommended Milks' Emulsion. I got a box and found it was the only thing that had ever given my son any relief. He has taken it for several months and it has benefited him more than any medicine he has ever taken. I believe it to be one of the best remedies on the market. Yours truly, JAS. J. DAUGHERTY, Chief Fire Department, Terre Haute, Ind. October 31, 1902.

The Milks' Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind.: Gentlemen—Here's a word from an old soldier. I have had throat and lung trouble for seventeen years and spent lots of money for medicine, but never found anything that did me half as much good as Milks' Emulsion. I feel a hundred per cent better since taking your Emulsion and shall continue its use. My wife is also taking it for constipation with excellent results, and we are glad to recommend it to everyone. Yours truly, DAN SUTHERLAND, Soldiers' Home, Lafayette, Ind. June 4, 1903.

Milks' Emulsion is pleasant to take and is wonderful in its results. Money refunded by your druggist if the first bottle used does not bring results.
