THE ANGELUS

There is hope, peace and music in the world. It suggests the artist, the ideal, the longing and desire for happiness. It is a musical benediction. Happy word for that marvel of all marvels—the New Improved Angelus Piano Player. The dream and hope of centuries fulfilled; the mechanical transformed into the artistic. At almost a moment's notice you are able to play the piano as well as the artist who has spent years of tireless application and drudgery. If you have music in your soul—and we are all musical—by the aid of the Angelus you can release the Goddess of Song and give full vent to your musical imagination.
Would be pleased to have you call at any time at our warerooms and hear yourself play the Angelus.

It appears, therefore, that the patient afflicted with lung disease must either rely on private charity or a pull to get care in Minneapolis, or must die where he drops. If he hasn't a home or friends his case is hopeless, indeed. It is largely on this account that the Antitubercular league, co-operating with the Associated Charities, has begun its active work in the care of the tubercular patient who would not otherwise receive the care which even charity is supposed to give.
Last year, out of about 2,400 deaths in Minneapolis from all causes, 279, or more than 10 per cent, were due to pulmonary tuberculosis. No other malady annually kills so many in Minneapolis as does this disease. Not so far as private work goes almost no attention is being paid to it.

ALDERMEN SPLIT UP THE GOOD ROADS FUND.

It Is Divided With a View to Accommodating Farmers Driving Into Minneapolis—A Good Road to Fort Snelling Among the Improvements Made Possible.
Almost complete harmony prevailed among the aldermen yesterday afternoon at the meeting to divide the $25,000 appropriated for the "good roads" fund. The suggestions of the Good Roads association and the Commercial club was followed to the letter by all except Alderman James Dwyer of the tenth ward, who insisted that the tenth ward was entitled to a share to "help out the ward fund." Reasoning and argument proved unavailing, for Dwyer declared that he knew as much about roads as the good roads promoters or any one else. It took $1,000 to appease the scrappy alderman from the tenth, and it will be spent on Tenth street, and avenue N from Crystal Lake to Penn avenue.
The remainder of the appropriation was distributed as follows: Hiawatha avenue, $6,500; Cedar avenue, $4,000; road NE, $3,000; Nineteenth avenue N, $1,500; Marshall street NE, $2,000; Crystal Lake avenue, $500.
Wallace G. Nyce, from the Commercial club, argued particularly in favor of the Hiawatha avenue appropriation in view of the enlargement of the military post and the improvement of the road important to Minneapolis to have better communications with the fort. In order to offer the farmers of Scott and Dakota counties as good roads, the money was voted for the Cedar avenue and Lyndale avenue improvements. The Stockyards road is for the benefit of the city and the improvement of the Marshall street is of benefit to the Anoka county farmers. And Crystal Lake avenue, which is a highway from Robbinsdale, Golden Valley and the towns beyond.
Dr. P. M. Hall headed a delegation which urged the improvement of the Silver Lake road, but this must wait for another appropriation.

Arrangements for the concert to be given at the Swedish Tabernacle under the auspices of the Aalesund relief committee are progressing satisfactorily. This concert will be held next Wednesday, Feb. 17.

OPERATIONS A FAD

Public Gradually Awakens to the Fact.
The latest fad in operations has been the operation for piles, which has been the fad for rectal operations (piles, etc.) held sway. Hundreds of patients were frightened and hurried into hospitals, operated upon and robbed of their last dollar, when the trouble was a simple case of hemorrhoids, or piles only, easily cured at home with a simple remedy costing but fifty cents.
I procured one fifty-cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure of my druggist, with the intention of buying a larger box later, but was happily surprised when I found that I was cured, and still have six "pyramids" left out of the first and only box. I have not had the least sign of piles since I used this one box which has been about two months; previous to using Pyramid Pile Cure I had the worst kind of bleeding and protruding piles for over thirty-one years, and no one knows, except those who have had the piles, the pain and misery I suffered.
I am a poor man, but have often said I would give a fortune, if I had it, to be cured of the piles, and now I have been cured for fifty cents. I should be very ungrateful if I did not thank you and give you every privilege to use my name and this letter, when I know there are so many who suffer as I did.—J. A. Welsmiller, 1100 Bladensburg road, Washington, D. C.
The Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., publish a little book on the subject which will be glad to mail free to any applicant, and we advise all sufferers from this painful disease to write to them for it.

MIGHT BETTER HAVE LEPROSY

CONSUMPTIVE REFUSED ADMISSION AT FIVE HOSPITALS.

"They Aren't Equipped for Handling This Insidious Contagion or Have No Room—With Hundreds of Deaths Every Year from Tuberculosis, Minneapolis Treats Sufferers as Outcasts."
What would become of a penniless stranger afflicted with pulmonary consumption, were he to find himself in Minneapolis? The answer is that he would be treated as an outcast. This is the query suggested by Dr. Jakob Hvoslef in relating his experiences yesterday while attempting to find some hospital shelter for a young dressmaker who had just suffered a collapse of the lungs and who urgently needed hospital care.
Dr. Hvoslef says that in the telephone directory he found in the city among them the city hospital, but was unable to secure a bed for his patient. In some cases the hospitals were "filled" and in other instances he was flatly refused to a patient who might be afflicted with tuberculosis of the lungs.
"If there ever was a patient which needed the best of care, I think this was one of them," said Dr. Hvoslef, in describing his failure, "and the large city of Minneapolis, with all its charity, did not have a warm bed for her, not even for money. Is it really possible that a person might drop down on the sidewalk in the snow and die, because his hemorrhages were due to tuberculosis?"
Dr. Hvoslef's experience is not necessarily unusual as demonstrated by calls at the various hospitals this morning, when inquiry was made as to whether room might be found for a young woman, a stranger in the city, who had suffered two or three hemorrhages of the lungs.
Dr. George E. Ricker, a physician, at first replied happily, "Oh, we don't take such cases." But upon being impressed with the necessities of the case, finally decided that it could be cared for in the city hospital, a contagious ward at the rate of $2 a day for a bed in a ward, or $4 a day for a private room. This was to be paid two weeks in advance.
Northwestern and Asbury hospitals flatly refused to accept such a case, in the first place because they had no vacant rooms, and in the second place because it would interfere with their surgical cases and would be against the policy of the hospital.
St. Mary's hospital and the Swedish hospital, as well as St. Barnabas, explained that such a case must have a private room, and that they had no private rooms left.
"Private hospitals won't take a tubercular case at all," said a prominent physician who has had some experience with all of them, "and the city hospital won't take them in any case, unless they are in the contagious ward, which is one of the rules of the city hospital that all patients, without distinction as to disease, must be taken in at the rate of $1 a day for a ward, or $4 a day for a private room, reduced to $5, after which the patient must be cared for until cured."

TO ATTACK WILDER WILLS

Relatives Said to Plan Legal Action of That Character.
Relatives of the late Amherst H. Wilder and of Mrs. Fanny S. Wilder, are said to have decided to attack, in the courts, the validity of the wills which were made by the testator, who left a large estate to create the Wilder charity. The grounds of attack are not at present divulged but the St. Paul lawyers who have been retained to defend the wills state that they mean to show the wills to be illegal.

STORY WAS PURE FAKE

So Says Henry, the "Third Man" in Calderone Case.
Francis Henry, who said he was the "third man" in the Calderone murder case, has admitted that his story of being a witness to the Franklin avenue bridge tragedy was clear fake. Deputy Sheriff George Loth doubted the truth of the man's story all the time and accused him of being in a scheme to invent the "third man" story for some reason, and now that the trial is all over Henry admits that this is true.

Reasoning and argument proved unavailing, for Dwyer declared that he knew as much about roads as the good roads promoters or any one else. It took $1,000 to appease the scrappy alderman from the tenth, and it will be spent on Tenth street, and avenue N from Crystal Lake to Penn avenue.
The remainder of the appropriation was distributed as follows: Hiawatha avenue, $6,500; Cedar avenue, $4,000; road NE, $3,000; Nineteenth avenue N, $1,500; Marshall street NE, $2,000; Crystal Lake avenue, $500.
Wallace G. Nyce, from the Commercial club, argued particularly in favor of the Hiawatha avenue appropriation in view of the enlargement of the military post and the improvement of the road important to Minneapolis to have better communications with the fort. In order to offer the farmers of Scott and Dakota counties as good roads, the money was voted for the Cedar avenue and Lyndale avenue improvements. The Stockyards road is for the benefit of the city and the improvement of the Marshall street is of benefit to the Anoka county farmers. And Crystal Lake avenue, which is a highway from Robbinsdale, Golden Valley and the towns beyond.
Dr. P. M. Hall headed a delegation which urged the improvement of the Silver Lake road, but this must wait for another appropriation.

ALDERMEN SPLIT UP THE GOOD ROADS FUND.

It Is Divided With a View to Accommodating Farmers Driving Into Minneapolis—A Good Road to Fort Snelling Among the Improvements Made Possible.
Almost complete harmony prevailed among the aldermen yesterday afternoon at the meeting to divide the $25,000 appropriated for the "good roads" fund. The suggestions of the Good Roads association and the Commercial club was followed to the letter by all except Alderman James Dwyer of the tenth ward, who insisted that the tenth ward was entitled to a share to "help out the ward fund." Reasoning and argument proved unavailing, for Dwyer declared that he knew as much about roads as the good roads promoters or any one else.
