

AN INTERESTING BOOKLET

One of the most interesting booklets that we have brought to our attention this year is gotten out by Dr. C. Pusbeck, a practicing physician of Chicago, as an advertisement for his remedy "Push-kuro." The several hundred testimonials contained in the booklet are so evidently genuine and heartfelt...

The former pupils of Dr. Richard Burton and the students of the literary department of the university gave him an enthusiastic welcome this afternoon at an informal gathering at the home of Mrs. Frances Potter on Harriet avenue. The hours were from 3 until 5 o'clock and the guests were received by Dr. Burton, Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Isabelle Marston. Miss Hope McDonald and Miss Helen Camp poured tea and were assisted by a group of the university girls. Ferns and primroses made a springlike decoration thru the rooms and on the tables.

About 100 guests gathered in the flower-decked home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Prescott on Third avenue SE last evening, to witness the marriage of their daughter, Clara Belle, to John Willard Geary. Southern smilax, palms and ferns made a charming background for the roses and carnations. The wedding march was played by Miss Ella Lilly, who gave as an accompaniment to the service the intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana." A group of young men and women—the Misses Jennie McGow, Maud Smith, Daisy O'Brien, George Giersten, Susie Seaman, Beulah McAllister, Messrs. John Green, George Maxin, Carl Lewis and Fred Olson—formed a large orchestra. The bride, whose attendants were the Misses Lela Prescott of Denver, Col., and Florence Burton and Mrs. S. F. Stewart. Mrs. Stewart wore black crepe de chine and the Misses Burton and Miss Prescott were in pale green silk mulle. They all carried white flowers, held with great bows of green tulle. The bride was in white French mulle, shirred and trimmed with rare old point lace. She wore a veil and about her neck was a string of gold beads. The bride's bouquet was of Easter lilies.

Mr. Geary and his best man, Fred Underwood, stood at the altar, the bride and groom were assisted by Rev. F. H. Cooper. Among the guests were Colonel and Mrs. E. C. Geary, Mr. George Giersten, Miss Lela Prescott, Denver, Col., and Mrs. E. C. Griffith, Brainerd. Mr. and Mrs. Geary went east and they will be at home at 608 Stevens street after March 1. They expect to move into their new home on Linden Hills when it is completed in May.

The marriage vows of Miss Florence A. Acker and Robert A. Crocker were spoken Wednesday evening in a bower of palms, ferns and white roses at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Acker, on Logan avenue N. Miss Jessamine Allen played the "Lohengrin" bridal chorus and Schumann's "Lullaby" as an accompaniment to the service which was read by Rev. George F. Holt. Miss Gertrude Jacobs, the maid of honor, wore white Satin and carried bride roses. The bride was in white silk mull trimmed with lace and chiffon, and her flowers were pink roses. The bridegroom wore a tuxedo and was the best man. Supper was served in the dining-room where pink carnation and ribbons and trailing vines decked the table. The bridegroom was the bride's sister, Mrs. H. C. Reed of Crookston, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Crocker went away for a short trip and they will be at home after March 1 at 1714 Nicollet avenue.

A wedding in Augustana church last evening was that of Mrs. Alma Pundberg and Neils Haugan. The service was read by Rev. C. J. Petri and only a few friends were present. The bridegroom was of white mull and the veil was caught with a myrtle wreath. Mr. Haugan and his bride will make their home in Montana.

Mrs. Frank Mackey, so well-known to Minneapolis people as a former resident of the city, has been having a very smart house party at Beauchamp Hall near Leamington, Eng. Among her guests were Baroness Frankenstein, the Earl of Rosslyn, Herbert Paget, Cray Wadsworth, Mrs. Wadsworth and Captain Guest. Mrs. Mackey has recently had a charming miniature of herself painted by Mrs. Couderd, better known as Amalia Kussner.

The university law school students will have an informal dancing party Monday evening in Mrs. Noble's hall, on Fourteenth avenue SE.

Mrs. F. H. Gilman was the guest of honor at a card party which was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Walter D. Wilson at her apartments in the Arlington. Red tulips and smilax made the table held a table were placed for six and eight. Mrs. Wilson was assisted by Mmes. H. M. Wells and E. M. Steele, and Mmes. Wells and H. F. Gilkey carried off the honors.

Mr. and Mrs. Shippam entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening at their home, 2422 Stevens avenue, in honor of the twenty-first birthday anniversary of their son George. The rooms were decorated with carnations and ferns and the table held a centerpiece of carnations and smilax. Progressive cinch was played and supper was served. Covers were placed for sixteen.

Herman Anderson gave a dancing party Tuesday evening for the basket ball team of Gamma Sigma fraternity of the South high school. The decorations were in red and white, the fraternity colors. A pleasant feature of the evening was the singing of Miss Scallion. There were twenty-five guests.

Mrs. C. M. Kinmore of 3611 Taylor street NE, gave a newspaper party Tuesday evening for Misses Dora Gladen, Edith Andrews and Anna Misch of Grand Forks, N. D., who are spending a week with her. Tulips and ferns made the rooms attractive and a unique entertainment was arranged. Present were Messrs. and Mmes. Frank Stevens, H. DeBoer, C. Henderson, W. Jamieson, Mmes. Councilman, S. Spear, E. Sleeper, Misses Dunham, Ruth Spear, Andrews, Misch, Gladen, Bertha and Ina Newkirk, Messrs. Charles Warren, Fred Duester and Mrs. Kinmore. Kinmore, H. D. Newkirk, Hal and Leslie Councilman.

Visitors Aid in Program. The Ladies' Aid program had a treat this morning in the presence of two out-of-town musicians. Mrs. Ruby Cutter Savage and Mrs. Carrie Jacobs Bond. Mrs. Savage's presence was announced but Mrs. Bond and her group of songs was a pleasant surprise. Mrs. Bond is well known as a composer of children's songs, and her songs have been used to give a series of recitals in St. Paul. Her numbers were given at the close and rounded out a delightful program.

Mrs. Savina, 2734 Blaisdell avenue, will sing with the Symphony orchestra. She gave the waltz aria from Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet" and then three songs, Mozart's "Das Veilchen" and "Spring," "Pour poi Resfer Suleite," and Mrs. Beach's "The Years at the Spring." Miss Chenevert played her accompaniments. The regular program was given with a Beethoven piano number by Miss Helga Alex and Miss Mary Espy Thomson and Olson N. Lidell gave a violin and piano duet from Grieg. Miss Fessie Lam and Mrs. E. W. Runyan also contributed piano solos and Mrs. Runyan played the accompaniment for Mrs. W. N. Forteous, who sang "The Rose Tree." Mrs. Ricker announced that a business meeting for the active members would be held next Thursday morning in the studio.

Miss Willard Remembered. The Eighth Ward W. C. T. U. will observe Frances Willard's birthday anniversary to-morrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. P. Jones, 2724 Blaisdell avenue. Miss Francis will conduct the devotions and papers will be read by members of the union. Miss Nelle McAllister will sing, and at 4 o'clock Rev. S. B. Roberts will talk on "Frances Willard Yet Speaks." There will be a social hour, and refreshments will be served. The silver offering for the national fund for temperance work in unorganized territory.

Mission Life Members. Miss Edith Griffith spoke of "Settlement Work in the Slum" at a meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary society of Plymouth church at the home of Mrs. J. H. Dornor on Dupont avenue S yesterday. The field notes were given by Mrs. James Crays and Mmes. H. Keller and Howard were made life members of the A. M. A., while Mrs. George S. Bascom of Skyeton, N. D., was made a life member of the Home Missionary society. Light refreshments were served at the close of the program.

Rockford Women to Meet. The Rockford College association will hold its annual reunion to-morrow at 2 p. m. at the residence of the president, Mrs. J. C. Lewis, 715 E. Seventeenth street. All students of the college will be guests.

CLUB NOTES. The Woman's Union of Olivet Baptist church will have a winter party to-morrow afternoon in the church parlors. The mothers' meeting of the Ruskin Hall Tuesday evening will be given by Mrs. James Crays and Mmes. H. Keller and Howard were made life members of the A. M. A., while Mrs. George S. Bascom of Skyeton, N. D., was made a life member of the Home Missionary society. Light refreshments were served at the close of the program.

For Convenience of Shoppers. In the up-town district, The Journal has a branch office in the Donaldson's Glass Block in the office in front of the new elevator on the main floor. Want ads, social items and subscriptions will be received.

BEFORE THE PUBLIC EYE. A program of drills and marches will be given this evening in the First Congregational church by the boys and girls' classes of the physical culture department. A. H. Youngs of the university has directed the work for the boys, and Miss Laneboro of the university, an excellent teacher of the girls. The program will be followed by a social hour, Miss Augusta Schacht and Mrs. Alice Widener Colwell will sing, and refreshments will be served by the Unity club. The entertainment has been planned as a benefit for the physical culture department.

St. Mark's vested choir, under the direction of George H. Normington, gave Gounod's "Messe Solennelle" in the Pro-Cathedral last evening. Eugene Pauly, Thomas McCracken and Ernest Hodman were the soloists, and the mass was sung in a most creditable manner. Mr. Normington has arranged a series of appropriate Lenten services, beginning with last evening.

A string orchestra assisted at the recital given by Mrs. Vienna Neel Riedelsberger last evening in Kimball hall, and lent a pleasing variety to the program. Miss Kendall Baile, contributed vocal solos, and Miss Viola Graves, a pupil of Mrs. Riedelsberger, gave several piano numbers, and also played with the orchestra. Miss Graves has good technique and shows sympathy and intelligence.

The Shepherd Collection. William A. Shepherd of Boston is in Minneapolis again and has with him his interesting collection of European curios. Mr. Shepherd goes abroad every year, having made now some sixteen tours, and affords an excellent opportunity for the gathering of a valuable collection of unique art objects, well worth the attention of collectors and dealers. This time Mr. Shepherd's exhibition is especially strong in antique jewelry. Some of the many rings exhibited are very curious and rare, and consist of testateps, spoons in English silver, with curious fangs, pieces of needlework, rosaries, etc., make up an unusually attractive exhibit. The exhibition closes Saturday afternoon and visitors are invited from 9 to 5 each day at Beard's Art Rooms.

CHOICE WASH FABRICS

The weather the past few weeks has not been such as would encourage the buying of wash goods, or, in fact, anything else but coal. But the warm days are not far distant and ladies will soon be busy in the preparation of summer outfits. We are on time with our spring and summer fabrics, and we invite the ladies to look at them. Our wash goods are a handsome lot, pretty dots, dainty stripes, attractive figures, and many new shades in plain goods and in new weaves. The assortment is varied and contains fabrics adapted to all tastes and all purposes, and we have aimed to secure an unusually large variety of the medium-priced goods.

THIS STILL HIS HOME. John D. Forbes returns after an absence of Five Years. John D. Forbes, for many years with R. S. Goodfellow & Co., but since 1899 a resident on the Pacific coast, has returned to Minneapolis and is the guest of Mrs. Forbes' mother, Mrs. Ida B. McGill, 910 W. Thirty-first street. He comes most recently from Seattle, where he resided long enough to become impressed with the mineral wealth of the Puget sound country. He is now principally interested in coal deposits which are within three miles of Seattle, and located so as to possess ideal transportation facilities. Tho he has been away from Minneapolis nearly five years Mr. Forbes still regards this city as his home. While here he was prominent in Scottish-American circles.
