IOWA STOCK RAISERS ARE COMBINING

ALMOST EVERY COUNTY IN IOWA ORGANIZED.

Momentum of the Movement Will Be Further Increased When the Annual Meeting Is Held in Des Moines the First of March—Big Packers of the Country to Be Challenged.

Special to The Journal. Mason City, Iowa, Feb. 20.—In a few weeks practically every county in the state will have an organization of meat producers and stock raisers affiliated with the state association of the Corn Belt Meat Producers' association. This movement promises to be one of the most important known in Iowa in many years, and may revolutionize the packing trade.

The annual meeting is to be held in Des Moines the first two days of March, and an effort is being made to organize every county in the state before that time. The object of the association is to look after legislation for the protection of the stock raisers from the excessive freight rates, delays in shipments, etc., as well as to prevent the practice of the use of the situation by the large meat packing concerns of Chicago, Omaha and Kansas City.

By their manipulation of railway rates, it is contended they have practically driven the smaller concerns out of business or placed them in a situation where they can be of no benefit to the small shippers and raisers, thereby lessening their profits.

When Pover died it was known that he had a business of dealing in honey, and they were forced to break down the door. Their arrival was just in time to prevent a tragedy, for the woman's grandchild, aged 18 months, had secured a shovel and was emptying coals from the stove into the fire.

MINNESOTA LOGGING UNDER MORRIS LAW

Some Big Cuts in January—Work Well Advanced.

CASS LAKE, MINN.—Results of the logging operations on the ceded Chippewa Indian lands for January have been prepared by Superintendent of Logging O'Neil, and the showing is a satisfactory one.

Work on the Red Lake and White Earth reservations has been in progress since the first of November and in some of the camps is completed, or nearly so. On the White Earth reservation but one section has been cut this winter under the Morris bill, and that had, up to the first of February, yielded about one and a half million feet of pine. Work will continue there as long as the season will permit.

The January scale exceeded that of the previous month by nearly half a million feet, being close to the million mark for the first time.

On the Red Lake logging has been done on fourteen sections and nearly four and a half million feet were scaled during January, which is close to a million more than had been scaled in the two previous months of the logging season.

To see logging done with a rush one must visit the southern part of the Lake Superior reservation. Here the Northland Pine company, the Pine Tree Lumber company, and the Brainerd Lumber company are operating in the timber purchased Dec. 5.

The Brainerd Lumber company has nearly completed the cutting and hauling of section 36, township 142, range 32, since work was commenced the middle of the month and have but two forties left to be cut. The company will finish them up on the reservation.

The Pine Tree company is logging to the north of the Brainerd camps. During January these two companies have cut more than half a million and did not start till after the middle of the month.

The largest cut for the month was made by the Northland Pine company, which cut over $1,000,000 worth of lumber for the month. The Standard Lumber company is cutting near Ball Club lake.

SOUTH DAKOTA GRADUATE SCHOOLS

University of South Dakota May Organize Them Soon.

VERMILLION, S. D.—It is probable that graduate schools in the arts and literature, science and law, will be organized at the university. Members of the faculty are much in favor of the plan. The advantages afforded for graduate work at present are limited, so that the plan of establishing better facilities is of vital interest to all who are interested in the welfare of the university.

Should the measure be favored by the board of regents, it is likely an appropriation will be made for awarding fellowships and scholarships to seniors who attain proficiency in any of the under-graduate departments. This would be done in order to retain the best students.

Nation's Political Pot Begins to Boil.

The nation's big political pot for 1905 is already simmering and presidential candidates are being "fore-casted" almost by the score. Gorman, Huey, Cleveland, Parker, Hearst are among the democratic possibilities. Roosevelt and Hanna are mentioned by republicans—mostly Roosevelt at this time.

It is safe to say that the next president of the United States will be a man of strength of mind and will. Possibly he will never have heard of Walther's Peptonized Port when he takes the presidential chair. But the chances are that the "job" of the most responsible and tiring in the world, will cause the president to inquire for some tonic that will keep his health intact. There's nothing better in the world, for president, king or laborer, in the way of a tonic, than Walther's Peptonized Port—note well that the name is Peptonized Port, in the blood and makes the tired, overworked, debilitated man feel like a youth of 20. It puts snap and vigor into the system and makes one feel like walking with his head lifted toward the heavens.

Walther's Peptonized Port will cure your sick-stomach of whatever ilk it may have. It contains and creates these juices so essential for digestion and relieves the stomach of its work.
