

TODAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

SOUTH DAKOTA

MARTIN HAS GIVEN OFFENSE

OPPOSITION CANDIDATE SOUGHT IN THE HILLS.

Driscoll Urged to Come Out Against the Congressmen and Ayres Has Some Following, Too—Turn in Sentiment in Certain Quarters Attributed to Various Appointments and Failure to Consult the Leaders.

Special to The Journal.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Feb. 24.—The political situation in the Black Hills presents an interesting picture, according to reports. Recently opposition has developed among some of the republicans of the Hills to the renomination of Congressman Martin.

It is generally conceded that Mr. Martin is perhaps the brainiest man in the Hills has ever had in congress, yet, as is perhaps natural, in endorsing candidates for appointive positions he has sometimes run counter to the wishes of those influential in republican affairs, and in some cases may have intentionally or otherwise failed to consult the leaders of his party in reference to appointments.

To this exclusively is said to be due the opposition which has developed in his renomination. Whether or not the opposition can get the right man to enter the lists against him is another question.

Driscoll and Ayres "Mentioned."

Thus far two men have been mentioned as acceptable candidates of the opposition. One of them is E. H. Driscoll, cashier of the First National bank, of Lead, and the other is George V. Ayres, of Deadwood, a member of the executive committee of the republican state central committee.

All the anti-Martin republicans, including Mr. Ayres, think Mr. Driscoll would be the stronger candidate. However, Congressman Martin, but this far he has steadily refused to become a candidate. To do so would entail something of a personal sacrifice, as he now receives a salary of about $5,000 a year and has a public office. If he decides to enter the field it would mean the loss of his salary and the great Homestead Mining company.

In the event that he does not it is likely that Mr. Ayres will consent to become a candidate and in this support all the anti-Martin sentiment of the Black Hills.

Lawrence to Lead Off.

In this connection it can be stated that the chairman of the various republican county committees in the Black Hills have agreed to let Lawrence county lead off in selecting delegates to the state convention, the intention being not to hold conventions in the other counties until after Lawrence has held its convention. Thus there is a strong possibility of the other counties endorsing Lawrence as their congressman.

Should Lawrence county endorse Congressman Martin for renomination, there is no doubt the other counties will take similar action and unite solidly for him. On the other hand, if Lawrence county repudiates Mr. Martin, it is probable that the republicans of Fall River county will refuse to join the opposition to Mr. Martin.

Should this prove to be the outcome of the present preliminary skirmishing, it is likely that Mr. Ayres will resign his position as cashier of the First National bank and will devote his full time to his fight for renomination to the floor of the state convention. He is popular among the people of the Black Hills and his fight will be a hard one.

CLEARED OF MURDER

Carr, Davis and Howe Tried at Deadwood for Death of Stokes.

DEADWOOD, S. D.—Ralph Carr, Edward Davis and Martin Howe, tried for the murder of Henry Stokes, have been acquitted and have returned to their homes in Lead. Carr, Stokes being a sister of Carr. She was the principal witness for the prosecution. She declared that Carr, Davis and Howe appeared at the Stokes home the forenoon of Nov. 26, 1903, and called Stokes out, using threatening language toward him. Her husband tried to persuade them to move on, but they became more threatening and drew knives. At this Stokes drew a revolver and fired, killing Carr, and Howe and Davis fled to the woods. Carr immediately ran toward him with his knife, threw one arm about his neck and plunged the knife repeatedly into his body. Stokes accused them vindictively and began firing at Carr, who was walking away. He turned at the third shot, and Howe and Davis fled to the woods. Carr immediately ran toward him with his knife, threw one arm about his neck and plunged the knife repeatedly into his body. Stokes accused them vindictively and began firing at Carr, who was walking away. He turned at the third shot, and Howe and Davis fled to the woods. Carr immediately ran toward him with his knife, threw one arm about his neck and plunged the knife repeatedly into his body. Stokes accused them vindictively and began firing at Carr, who was walking away. He turned at the third shot, and Howe and Davis fled to the woods.

MINNESOTA

GAME FIGHT FOR HIS LIFE

WIFE LOOKS FORWARD TO RECOVERY IN TWO YEARS.

Firm Conviction in His Own Mind as to Identity of the Murderers of His Wife and Boy—Both the Girls Are Married—Wise Himself Is in the Poorhouse and Little Joe Is on a Farm.

Special to The Journal.

ANOKA, Minn., Feb. 24.—Four years ago the coming May unknown assassins, covered by the darkness of night, shot four members of the Wise family in the town of Grove, Anoka county, and made good their escape. Mrs. William Wise, the mother, died after two days of suffering from the effects of three wounds. The baby boy was instantly killed. The other boy, "Little Joe," was shot thru the lungs, and the father was terribly injured about the head, a charge of buckshot in the neck causing complete paralysis from the shoulders down.

William Wise, the father, lay for weeks in the care of physicians. He was moved to Minneapolis and died in a hospital. Later he was taken into the northern part of the state, and about two years ago was brought to the Anoka poorhouse, a pretty place three miles east. For two years he was bedridden. William Wise, the mother, died after two days of suffering from the effects of three wounds. The baby boy was instantly killed. The other boy, "Little Joe," was shot thru the lungs, and the father was terribly injured about the head, a charge of buckshot in the neck causing complete paralysis from the shoulders down.

Mr. Wise has always been reticent about the shooting, and is a difficult witness. Many have believed he knew far more than he told. His face is covered with a beard and he looks much better than when he was shot. He is aging and his hair is turning gray.

Both Girls Married.

"Eliza is married to a Minneapolis blacksmith named Floreday," said Mr. Wise. "Martha married an engineer named Esseri, and they live at Omaha."

Joe Wise, the boy, is well and strong and is bound out to a farmer living near Pine Island. He will be 18 next January.

"I saw the pistol I was shot with. It was not shot with a shotgun, but with a pistol loaded with buckshot."

STATE DEFEATED BY DEATH

Frank Goodboy, an Indian, Acquitted of the Murder of James Whalen.

SISSON, S. D.—A jury in circuit court found Frank Goodboy not guilty. On Oct. 3 Goodboy and his son, Eliek, informed the authorities of the murder of James Whalen, a white man, named James Whalen, who was killed at the residence of Goodboy on the prairie.

Several persons accompanied by the son went to the scene of the murder and found the body of Whalen cold and stiff on the ground. The body was taken to the residence of Goodboy and the inquest was held. Before the trial the son Eliek, the only living witness of the crime, died. The plea of the defendant was that it was the result of an accident and the failure of the state to establish evidence to the contrary resulted in acquittal.

BRISTOL, S. D.—The South Dakota Sanitarium

Concert company closed their three nights' rest at Bristol agency that the editor Goodboy had shot and killed a white man, named James Whalen, who was killed at the residence of Goodboy on the prairie.

CANTON, S. D.—The Athenian Literary society, an organization of educators and professional business men, held their fourth annual meeting and banquet at the Rudolph hotel in Canton, S. D., on Tuesday evening. The banquet was given by the Athenian Literary society, an organization of educators and professional business men, held their fourth annual meeting and banquet at the Rudolph hotel in Canton, S. D., on Tuesday evening.

MONTANA

DIVERTING OUR WATERS

Complaint Made to the President Against Canadian Canal Builders. HELENA, MONT.—A convention of residents of Milk River valley at Chinook has addressed a resolution to President Roosevelt and the secretary of the interior calling their attention to the fact that the Canadians are building a great canal with a view to diverting the waters of the Milk river in northern Montana.

INJUNCTION REFUSED

Suit of Nerlen Against Broten Will Lose in Judge Searle's Court.

ST. CLOUD, MINN.—Judge L. Nerlen of Broten lost his suit against Broten in Judge Searle's court. The suit was for an injunction to prevent Broten from carrying on a retail drug business in the city of St. Cloud, Minn., which would be to the damage of himself in his private business.

DIED OF CANCER

John Berglund and Mrs. Randall of Albert Lea Among the Dead.

ALBERT LEA, MINN.—John Berglund, a leading citizen and farmer of Albert Lea township, died of cancer of the stomach, aged 70. He leaves a wife and seven children.

VICTIM HAD NO CHANCE

Jalo Murdered at Bull with a Shotgun at Close Range.

DULUTH, MINN.—Pat Fusko was wanted on a charge of discharging the contents of a double-barreled shotgun into the body of Carmelo Jalo last night at a saloon near the Klimey mine, at Bull, Mesaba range, while the victim was lying in a drunken stupor on the floor.

PAY OR MOVE OFF

Mrs. Lydick Gives Notice to Settlers on Section 16.

CASS LAKE, MINN.—Mrs. George Lydick has served notice on the occupants of her allotment, the famous section 16, that those who

TWO PROMISING FLICKERTAIL ORATORS

Totten and Abbey to Represent the University of North Dakota in State Contest.

Special to The Journal.

ANDOVER, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

Special to The Journal.

GRAND FORKS, N. D., Feb. 24.—The annual state oratorical contest will be held at Fargo in April. The University of North Dakota, the agricultural college, Fargo college and the Red River Valley university will each be represented by two orators.

WISCONSIN

AN EARLIER OPENING

All Diamond Jo Packet Line Boats to Be Running May 1.

LA CROSSE, WIS.—The Diamond Jo company has announced its arrangements and schedule on the upper Mississippi next season. The steamer Dubuque will make weekly trips between Rock Island and St. Louis. The season will open earlier this year, so that all boats will be running by May 1. The steamers St. Paul and Quincy will make the south every Thursday. The fair will run between St. Louis and Quincy, making three trips daily.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Like the Delano bill, it requires shipments of freight to be carried at the rate of twenty miles an hour, proper equipment of cars and good station facilities along the line of the shipment. The railroad lobby has announced its intention of fighting the Bruce bill as it has the Delano measure.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

Special to The Journal.

DECATUR, IOWA, Feb. 24.—The railroad men have had another blow aimed at them by the introduction in the senate of a bill by Senator Bruce, which is similar to the one introduced in the house by the Delano bill, which requires all railroads in Iowa to issue passes to live stock shippers to and from destination of shipment. The Bruce bill requires the railroads to exercise exceptional care in the shipment of all kinds of freight, but relieves them from extraordinary precautions when they issue passes to the consignees.

MONTANA

LOGGING CAMPS BREAKING UP

ONE OF THE BEST WINTERS FOR THE WORK KNOWN.

Prime Cold Weather and an Abundance of Snow Served to Expedite Operations Everywhere—Improvement in the Trade Expected When the Cold Lets Down—Sales of Poles and Other Timber Products.

Special to The Journal. Calumet, Mich., Feb. 24.—Several camps have broken up. Operations were finished much earlier this season than for years past. The logging camps of Adam Dobry on the Peshigo river have been abandoned, the season's cut having been put in.

The camp of the late J. B. Longie near Koss has broken up. This was the first to cease operations. Other camps are planning on a break up soon. The weather has been so favorable that the anticipated cut of timber has been put in before the time expected.

J. B. Bergerson has broke camp at Amberg. The camp and part of the outfit were sold to Davis & Sitt.

G. A. Bergland is conducting extensive logging operations in Matchwood township, Ontonagon county. His sawmill and shingle mill at Bergland are running steadily and about 25,000 feet of lumber and 60,000 shingles are being turned out daily. Over 300 men are employed in the mills and camps.

Mixed Logging.

Peter Carrigan of Carrage has already put in 1,500,000 feet of mixed logs, including pine, hemlock, maple and elm, besides 3,000 poles, 8,000 posts and 4,000 ties. He has two camps, one of which he operates in company with Nadeau Bros. of Dagget. Sambrook & Son,