MAIN ST. REFORM MAY BE BLOCKED

East Siders Fear Resorts Will Remain if Park Project Fails.

The East Side park project appears to be "up in the air" for the time being. It was on the program for final action at last night's meeting of the park board, but the friends of the measure were so alarmed by the half-cocked opposition which had developed that they were afraid to press for its passage.

Several of the commissioners insist that the East Side plan cannot muster such strong support as its favor as other recent movements, from the fact that the city is to pay the whole expense and the benefited property owners will be assessed nothing. In the meantime, those interested in the improvements on the East Side fear that if the park plan does not go thru Mayor J. C. Haynes will recall his promise to build the houses of ill fame along Main street.

Nye, the secretary of the committee, has been conferring with the representatives for two days. The matter is in the hands of the manufacturers committee.

NEW PLAN FOR STREET CAR LOOP

BUSINESS MEN SUGGEST A CHANGE IN THE DIRECTION.

Would Have Cars Turn Up Fourth Avenue S from Washington, Go Over Fifth Street to First Avenue N, Then Down First Avenue to Washington Again.

What is considered a more logical street car loop than the one the company has had in mind is suggested to street railway officials by downtown business men who have been considering the question since a change to relieve the present congested loop was proposed.

The loop covers practically the same streets as the one already announced, but involves a change in direction. It consists of going up Third street from Fourth avenue S to First avenue N, back to Second avenue on Fifth street, thence to Washington, the cars would turn from Washington on Fourth avenue S, go up Fourth avenue to Fifth street, thence to First avenue N, to Third street, to Second avenue S, to Washington.

It is about shown that 70 per cent of the street car passengers coming up Washington get off at First avenue S or Nicollet and walk to the heart of the city to save time. The new plan would bring them at once to the center of the office and store district.

Under the official scheme passengers who remain on the cars would be hauled directly to the wholesale section, in which perhaps only 5 per cent of the passengers are directed.

With the other plan adopted the first point reached would be the courthouse, next the New York Life building, the Andrus building and West hotel, passing at the same time within a block of most of the large stores. At the same time the proposed loop would include the territory from Second and Fourth avenues S, Third and Fifth streets, which is left out of the company's tentative plan.

The drift of the travel shows, according to the argument of the business men, the loop suggested by them is more logical than the one already given out as semiofficial.

MRS. GATES NOT INDICTED

WOMAN CHARGED WITH SWINDLING DR. JOHN MADDEN PASSED OVER BY GRAND JURY.

No indictment has been returned against Mary Hetty Gates, the woman alleged to have secured money under false pretenses from Dr. John Madden of Milwaukee. Word has been received from Mr. Madden that he is in St. Paul and has been ready to testify against Mrs. Gates, but for some reason he does not appear to have been summoned by the grand jury.

The grand jury convened this morning after a week's recess and jail cases were taken up. The final report is nearly completed and probably will be given to the court late to-day or to-morrow.

CRUSADERS REBUKED

Judge Dickinson Tells Health Officers to Use More Judgment.

The health officers who are conducting the crusade against spitters were told in police court this morning that they should be done with greater judgment and that as a matter of fairness a friendly warning should be given offenders before making an arrest. The officers came near being rebuked on several cases on that account.

H. D. Lackey and S. K. Jackson employed a lawyer to defend them on a charge of spitting on a car. The test which was developed the fact that the men had walked to the steps and spit over the ordinance. No warning was given by the health officers, but when the car stopped near the police station the offenders were arrested. They were able to show that their offense was merely technical and Judge Dickinson imposed a fine of $1 each and suspended sentence.

Four other men, Randolph Engler, J. A. Dunay, J. E. Harris and Rev. Sellers, pleaded guilty to the charge and were fined $3 each, with the exception of Sellers, who is a soldier and had to stay in the station all night. He was discharged.

TO BOOST IMMIGRATION

Land Firms of the Northwest Organized for First Purpose.

The American Immigration association of the Northwest is the name chosen by the representatives of the land firms in the twin cities for the new organization which will be formed at a meeting held at the Commercial club in St. Paul last night.

A constitution and bylaws were adopted and the association will have its first meeting on immigration now going southwest into the northwest. Railroads of Minnesota, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota and Montana will be asked to assist in the work by meeting the rates made to settlers by the roads leading into the southwest. Two thousand invitations to land agents and others interested in the development of the northwest will be sent out for the next meeting, which is scheduled for March 16.

MILLERS MAKE UNITED DEMAND

THEY SEEK TO ABOLISH LOCAL SWITCHING CHARGES.

Railroad Men Startled by a Movement Which Would Take $150,000 a Year From Their Receipts—Millers Contend That Charge is Discriminatory.

Traffic officials of twin city lines have been amazed to receive within the past two days a demand from the millers' association of Minneapolis that the practice of assessing switching charges against the various mills be discontinued at once, and that the railways serving the mills absorb the charges themselves. The demand has caused a sensation among the railways, inasmuch as to agree would involve the loss of more than $150,000 a year in revenues.

The railroads have not yet answered. A conference will be held, probably this week, to discuss the matter. The millers are said to present an unbroken front and threaten to carry the demand both to state and federal authorities if need be.

Just how far the demand can be pressed by legal expedients is not known. The railroads will presumably take refuge behind the fact that the switching charges are assessed not by the main line railroads, but by the terminal companies, which lie wholly within the city. The railroads would, therefore, set up the claim that the traffic is local and not interstate, and therefore not subject to the interstate commerce commission.

The millers, however, contend that the transfer or belt lines are themselves owned by the railroads, and that the rates are fixed by the same companies. There are three of these transfer companies serving the milling district: the Railway Transfer company, owned by the Minneapolis & St. Louis; the Minneapolis Western, owned by the Great Northern, and the Minneapolis Eastern, owned by the Omaha and the Milwaukee companies.

The millers declare that for many years the practice of assessing these charges against the shipper has constituted a flagrant discrimination against the Minneapolis millers, and of mills in other centers. There is no other milling center in the country, the petition is said to state, in which switching charges are assessed on the shippers. This puts the Minneapolis mills at a disadvantage.

Archbishop Speaks.

Archbishop Ireland spoke for nearly an hour, arguing that while it was not always within human understanding that a young man should be cut down in the full glory of his youth, it is a grave opportunity and a little service, such a dispensation of providence was to be accepted without question.

DISPUTE OVER TERMS OF SALE

MISSISSIPPI VALLEY LUMBERMEN DISCUSS DISCOUNT QUESTION.

Retailers Make a Fight to Go Back to Old Rule of 2 Per Cent for Cash in Ten Days—R. L. McCormick Resigns as President of Association.

Lumber manufacturers of the northwest discussed the mooted question of "terms of sale" at the meeting of the Mississippi Valley Lumbermen's association, which last year this association dropped the old rule of 2 per cent off for cash within ten days, and adopted the so-called national terms, giving 1 1/2 per cent off fifteen days. These terms were adopted by the yellow pine association and also by the Wisconsin Valley Lumbermen's association, the sister white pine organization, which has since adopted new terms hard, and in January the Wisconsin Valley association went back to the old terms, finding it impossible to compete with the yellow pine national terms, successfully with hemoak men and Chicago jobbers. The question to be decided this afternoon was whether the white pine manufacturers should keep up the fight for the national terms, or drop them and go back to the old 2 per cent.

R. L. McCormick, president of the association, was not at the meeting to-day. He has removed to the coast, and in his absence, last night, McCormick announced his withdrawal from the association. His successor seemed likely to be E. L. Carpenter of the Shevlin-Carpenter company, who has been vice president of the association.

Interesting statistics were found in the report of the census by Mr. Rhodes. He estimated the total production of the Mississippi and Wisconsin valley mills for 1903 at 2,500,000,000 feet of lumber, valued at $122,000,000. This compares with 2,101,391,355 feet in 1902. Stocks in the hands of the manufacturers on Jan. 1 were 1,504,456,895 feet, while the same date in 1903 they were 1,482,337,347 feet. The increase is attributed to the larger production of lumber in northern Minnesota.

The total production of white pine lumber for the past year is estimated by Mr. Rhodes at 4,800,000,000 feet, a decrease of 500,000,000 feet, compared with 1902.

E. W. Vorden of Oshkosh, Wis., secretary of the hemlock association, is in the city to-day. He has been extended to their association, which has rules of its own, but no force of inspectors.

The price of lumber to-day decided to recommend an advance of $1 a thousand feet on No. 4 boards and an increase of 50 cents a thousand on No. 3 boards, ten-inch.

TRY TO RAVEL TANGLE

Referee Busy with Affairs of Bankrupt William Webster.

O. C. Merriman, referee in bankruptcy, made another attempt this morning to unravel the tangled business affairs of William Webster of Gibbon, whose bankruptcy proceedings were transferred from Mankato to this city. Max Blaisdell was on the stand this morning and told of purchasing a hotel in Minneapolis by means of money loaned by Webster.

It is declared by attorneys interested in the case that the number of suits will grow out of the case. One complaint in equity has already been filed, and it is said that others will follow. The complaint filed by Albert L. Young, trustee in bankruptcy for Webster, and is against Simon J. Webster to recover possession of a stock of hardware alleged to have been transferred by Webster to his brother Simon in January, constituting the latter a preferred creditor. The transfer of lands valued at $15,000 by Webster to his wife will also be looked into.

FUNERAL OF FATHER DANEHY

PIEST'S REMAINS BORNE TO LAST RESTING PLACE.

Great Crowd Through Church This Morning to Pay a Last Tribute to the Beloved Pastor of St. Stephen's Parish—Archbishop Ireland's Tribute to the Deceased.

Because of the limited capacity of the auditorium more than 2,000 persons refused admittance to St. Stephen's church to-day for the funeral of Father Danehy. The remains of the deceased were borne to the last resting place.

The funeral services were to have begun at 9:30 a. m. Before 9 o'clock hundreds of men and women were standing in the wind-swept streets waiting for the doors of the dead priest's church to open. When the hour arrived for the admission of the faithful, the church was so crowded that Father Danehy's remains were not allowed inside the doors.

When it came for the procession of priests from the parish house to the church the dozen police officers had to force a passage through the crowd, and it was with the greatest difficulty that a way was made for the mourners. When the service began every seat in the church and every bit of standing-room was occupied, the basement was filled with hundreds of people waiting for the close of the ceremonies. The hundreds more returned to the cars and their homes.

Among these latter more than 100 members of St. Paul Council, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, were in chartered cars at an early hour, were permitted to march around the casket, and then returned to St. Paul, where they were to remain until the funeral.

While over 200 priests joined in the procession from the parish house, dozens continued to arrive at the church from all parts of the northwest, and many were unable to get inside. No such crowd has been seen at a funeral for years.

Sheriff Dreger has just received from Freiberg, Germany, a long letter giving the details of Silberberg's disappearance. The letter states that Silberberg asks for late information regarding the man's transactions in this country and winds up with a request for news regarding the man's illness in the country.

MINNEAPOLIS IS HEADQUARTERS

UNIVERSALISTS OF THREE STATES CHOOSE FLOUR CITY.

Tri-State Conference of the Church Now in Session at the Church of the Redeemer—Delegates Gather to Meet Dr. W. H. McGlaughlin, Superintendent of the Church for the Three States.

A conference of the Universalist churches of Iowa, Wisconsin and Minnesota opened this morning at the Church of the Redeemer. The meeting was called by Rev. I. M. Atwood, D. D., of Boston, general superintendent of the Universalist church. The purpose is to give representatives of the churches in the three states an opportunity to meet Rev. W. H. McGlaughlin, who has just been appointed superintendent of the church in this group of states, and to plan field work.

The visiting representatives were Dr. Charles Elwood Nash, president of Lombard college and field secretary of the general association; Rev. A. C. Grier, pastor of the First Universalist church, Wausau, Wis.; Mrs. Rodley, Milwaukee; Rev. J. S. Lowe, La Crosse; Rev. W. S. Ralph, Osage, Iowa; S. J. Oldfield, Mitchellville, Iowa; Rev. John W. Carter, Owatonna; Rev. H. E. Newton, Albert Lea.

Rev. B. B. Gibbs was chosen secretary and a list of topics was outlined, including the selection of headquarters, financial disposition of the superintendent's time, domain of churches and establishment of a periodical. The financial arrangements have already been made for the morning. There was much diversity of opinion as to headquarters, the geographical center, the neediest territory and the strongest center of the church in each of the states. All came to the conclusion, however, that the strongest center was the wisest selection, and Minneapolis was named as headquarters. This decision was influenced by the judgment of the superintendent, who felt that the strength of the church here would sustain him in his work.

Rev. I. M. Atwood called attention to the fact that the territory was really too large for one man, but each state expressed itself freely as wishing Dr. McGlaughlin to make his plans with reference to the good of the church instead of considering state interests and lines. The superintendent will, however, divide his time about equally between the states.

Conditions are such in Minneapolis that Dr. McGlaughlin will be able to make satisfactory plans for the available ministers here that will enable him to direct some valuable work in this portion of his district without special arrangements for St. Paul.

To-morrow there will be a public meeting at the Church of the Redeemer, addressed by Dr. Atwood, Dr. Nash and Dr. McGlaughlin.

FORESTAL COLLECTORS

Supposed Purpose of Powers' Resolution on Sewer Assessment Rebated.

Alderman F. M. Powers' resolution providing that the rebate on the sewer assessments for 1903 and 1904 may be applied on the current taxes will be considered by the council committee on taxes to-morrow afternoon. The resolution is supposed to be for the purpose of forestalling the rebate collecting bureau, C. A. Nimocks, who is engaged in this work, says, however, that he will urge the passage of Powers' resolution as a matter of justice.

It is probable that whether taxpayers get their taxes reduced or get a cash rebate will depend on the action of the council. If they have given the collectors power of attorney.

SCHOOL FUND APPORTIONED

Hennepin County Gets $22,360.15 Out of $514,609.75.

The March apportionment of the current school fund has been certified to the state auditor by State Superintendent Olsen. The distribution amounts to $514,609.75, and the number of pupils on which it is based is 33,847, the basis being $14.62 for each pupil. The apportionment is based on the number of pupils attending forty days or more of the last school year, so the number is the same as for the October apportionment. Hennepin county, with 43,007 pupils gets $22,360.15 this year, and Ramsey, with 26,745 pupils, draws $48,780.25.
