

A Silk Story!

John Thomas & Co.

Nicollet Av. and Fifth St.

Our silk department never shows the fruit of haphazard buying, but on the contrary the results of careful selection as to values and qualities. Every yard must stand not only the test of quality, but the criticism of the most judicious buyers as to patterns and colors. Dame Fashion is an exacting old lady, and what she says "goes." Well, we're ready and we believe our spring stock will stand the test. Come and see!

Shirt Waist Suits

Are to be the proper thing for this year, and we have a selected line of silks especially adapted for this purpose, such as:

- Louisines, in pin checks and stripes, checks with small dots, stripe and check Taffetas at $1.00.

In Social Circles

This has been the gayest day since Ash Wednesday and Mrs. Weed Munro and Mrs. Edwin W. Gould were the hostesses at the first large reception which has been given for several weeks at the home of Mrs. Gould on Humboldt avenue. S. and tulips were used exclusively in the decorations. The dining-room was in pink and the other rooms were decorated in green. Among the guests were Mrs. Munro and Gould received alone and assisting thru the rooms were Misses C. E. Nichols, John Landers, Kahala, Eugene Frank, Henry Newhall, Simmons and Taylor of St. Paul. The young women in the dining-room were the Misses DeCamp, Misses Elsie, Madeline and Olive. The guests came and went from 3 until 6 o'clock.

The first of the many pretty affairs which have been planned for Miss Helen Hughes, in the days preceding her wedding, was given this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gould on Humboldt avenue. The parlors were festooned with vines and palms furnished a pretty background. Red flowers were the principal decoration, where trappes was served by Miss Lucas and in the dining-room a basket of yellow roses gave the color note for the decorations. Miss Paul Smith and Frank Percival presided at the table and Miss Blanche Strong and Mrs. H. C. Brace assisted thru the rooms. The grace prizes were given and Miss Tubbs gave several musical numbers during the afternoon.

Miss Grace Jungen and Miss Katherine Norton were the hostesses at the chocolate which will be given for Miss Hughes Thursday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock at the home of Miss Norton.

Miss Grace Gray was the guest of honor at the thimble bee which Mrs. C. G. Weston gave this afternoon at her home on Cox street. The decorations were all in green with palms and ferns and vines arranged thru the rooms. About eighteen of the young women in the city were invited to bring their thimbles and they spent an hour hemming towels for the bride. When they were finished they were placed in a basket and given to Mrs. C. G. Weston. The grace prizes were handed to Miss Gray who found that the basket also held a dainty box tied with white ribbons and containing dainties. The grace prizes were given to those who sewed the best and the poorest and then luncheon was served by Misses Helen Little, Florence and Pearl Weston, Mrs. J. W. Warren Little also assisted Mrs. Weston.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Little will give an informal tea for Miss Gray and her sister, Miss Marshall of Chicago, will assist her.

On Tuesday Mrs. W. W. Redfield of Portland avenue gave the last of a series of thimble bees, at each of which she entertained about twenty guests. Each afternoon the hostess was assisted by her daughter and a group of young women in serving a delicious collation after the dainty needlework had been tucked away in pretty bags.

Mrs. William C. Tubbs has issued invitations for Thursday, March 24, when Mrs. Ruth B. Ridges will talk on "Ideals and Character" and there will be several musical numbers.

One of the girls has as a Lenten reminder, a big card printed in red and hung over her mirror. It reads: "For the next forty days I shall try: To stop worrying, To stop scolding, To stop grumbling, To stop gossiping, To fear nothing, To work earnestly, To speak kindly or keep silence, To think of my own faults before those of others."

"The chances are I won't be any the worse for it," she said with a pretty pretense of anxiety when the card was discovered.

Mrs. Charles Fleming entertained fifteen women most informally yesterday afternoon at a thimble bee and after an hour spent in sewing, luncheon was served from a table decked with red carnations and ferns.

IS IT CURABLE?

A Question Often Asked by Those Afflicted with Piles.

Is a strained joint curable? Is a local inflammation curable? Of course, if properly treated. So is piles.

People often become afflicted with piles and ask some old "chronic" who has always persisted in the wrong treatment, and naturally he discourages them by telling them that their case is hopeless.

If they turn discourage others, and thus a disease that can in every case be cured by careful and skillful handling is allowed to sap the energy of thousands who might free themselves of the third grade war to Miss Edna Egan of Fulda, who spoke on "The Grand Old Man." Other contestants were Misses...

It is a remedy that none need fear to apply even to the most aggravated, swollen and inflamed hemorrhoidal tumors.

If you are afflicted with this stubborn disease you can master it and master it quickly.

This remedy is no longer an experiment, but a medical certainty, and is sold by druggists everywhere for fifty cents a package.
