Social Circles

Mrs. George L. Scott decked her home on Tenth avenue S with spring flowers for her card party this afternoon, and the tulips and hyacinths were in the varying shades of pink. Six-hand euchre was played at ten tables. The assisting women were Mrs. William J. Tubbs, Mrs. N. L. Johnson, J. E. Gage, Misses Atterbury and Florence Hopwood.

Mrs. T. B. Bent of Chicago was the guest of honor at a progressive pit party, which was given this afternoon by her hostess, Mrs. Frank Billiter, and twelve women had been bidden to meet her. The rooms were made beautiful with red and white flowers, and the luncheon table was suggestive of Easter with its white and green decorations. The place favors were Easter trees and the ices were in the form of the popular bunny. Mrs. George Carson assisted Mrs. Billiter.

To-morrow afternoon Mrs. D. M. Weishoon will entertain for Mrs. Bent, and in the evening the Minneapolis Ladies' quartet has asked a group of guests to meet Mrs. Bent at the home of Mrs. Weishoon. Next week Mrs. J. B. Become will entertain for Mrs. Bent.

Mrs. Horace Splice of Detroit, Mich., was the honor guest at a dinner which was given last evening by Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Beck at their home, 1830 Hennepin avenue. Covers were laid for twelve, and tulips were used to carry out a color scheme of yellow and green.

American Beauty roses, Easter lilies and tulips furnished a charming decoration for the informal card party table. Mrs. J. E. Carlson gave yesterday afternoon at her home on Groveland avenue. Mrs. J. A. O'Brien and Eugene Trask were the assisting women, and euchre was played at six tables.

Mrs. O. P. Sutherland gave a daintily appointed luncheon yesterday afternoon in Donaldson's tearooms for Mrs. Elizabeth McKeever Stewart of Chicago, who is visiting Miss Madge DeCorsey on Park avenue. Red roses made a pretty table decoration.

Wednesday evening Mrs. Stewart was the honor guest at a theater party at the Metropolitan.

An afternoon coffee was the pleasant feature of an entertainment to which Mrs. L. McCholas invited a group of women yesterday in honor of the birthday anniversary of her sister, Miss Ryberg. Finch was played, and Miss Schultz gave several piano selections.

Military decorations and trappings will make the twenty-second annual ball of Company B, First Regiment, M. N. G., a very brilliant affair and it will be given Friday evening, April 8, in Elks' hall. The men connected with the national guards will all be in uniform which will aid in making the ball a different one from other women's first regiment ball which will furnish a promenade concert before the regular dance program.

Next Tuesday evening the people of the Central Baptist church will have a farewell reception for the pastor W. D. Dawley, and Mrs. Dawley. The hours will be from 8 until 10 o'clock and the women of the church are making the arrangements.

The Monday Card club will postpone its meeting next week and will not have a party until April 4, when Mrs. Joseph Parker will be hostess at her new home, 1775 Emerson avenue S.

It is a pity that more people do not stop to think at least twice before they speak, and if one of the brides had followed this old and safe rule she would not have had the disaster which befell her on the other day. She has been in a whirl of gaiety for all sorts of affairs have been given in her honor for the past few weeks. The first was a luncheon, teas, dinners and evening parties scattered in between.

The other day it was a luncheon, a charming affair with something novel in the way of decoration and the menu was full of surprises and showed the most careful thought on the part of the hostess. Mrs. C. E. Fisher, the bride of the string of functions at which she had been the guest of honor and the bride smiled happily.

It was the hostess, not the bride, who flushed with embarrassment and the other women stared aghast at the guest of honor who chattered on unintelligibly. The fact that she had plainly told her hostess what she thought of the party.

So many Minneapolis people are wandering thru the south just now that the traveler is constantly running across the most delightful groups of home people, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Fish who have been at Bloxi, Miss. for the winter, gave a dinner recently and entertained the other Minneapolis people who were at the pleasant resort. Just at present the new St. Charles hotel in New Orleans seems to be a rallying place for Mrs. William Donaldson, Mrs. John Washburn, Williamina Donaldson, Mrs. Will Hallowell, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Welles and Miss Margaret Wolke. Mr. and Mrs. John Washburn and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Fish are all there.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
Mrs. John L. Bartie, John North and Miss Rose, who were guests of Mrs. C. E. Fisher of Oliver avenue, have returned to their homes in Barnesville, Minn.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dranger have gone to West Baden, Ind.
Miss Tucker of 608 Nicollet ave. is home from Kentucky, where they spent the winter.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Dever are home from Kentucky, where they spent the winter.

BEFORE THE PUBLIC EYE
The first of the concerts which the Thursday Musical club planned to give in the different parts of the city took place last evening in Drummond hall, which was filled with a large and appreciative audience. The program was given by Miss Irene Wood, Eulalie Chenevert, Mabel Augustine, Margaret Gilmore, Alberta Fisher, Mabel Runge, Myhn Stoddard and Mrs. W. S. Martin. Next week the club will give a program in South Minneapolis.

The concert which Miss Bessie May MacKeen was to have given this evening in the Grand Avenue Church of Christ has been postponed until April 8.

The pupils of Miss May D. Williams gave a recital last evening at 2323 Stevens avenue. Those who took part were Misses Florence Angus, Helen Cree, Alma Mickelson, Grace Peterson, Inez Cree, Ednah Morrill, Cora Osborn, Mabel Cairns, Sallie Craver, Fanning, Williams and Mrs. W. J. Williams.

MOTHER OF SOLDIERS

MRS. MARGARET BRYSON OF JORDAN SENT HER SIX SONS INTO THE UNION ARMY, THREE OF WHOM GAVE THEIR LIVES FOR THEIR COUNTRY.

Mrs. Margaret Bryson of Jordan, who is 87 years old, is the mother of six sons, all of whom served in the union army during the war of the rebellion. These sons were David, who served in Company A of the Sixth Connecticut regiment; Alexander, in Company I, Fifteenth Massachusetts; John, in Company H, Thirty-fourth Massachusetts; Robert S., in Company E, Fourth Massachusetts cavalry; James, in Company H, Twenty-first Massachusetts; Charles T., in the Sixty-second regiment, and also three years in the regular army. The father of these six young soldiers tried to enlist, but he was rejected, and the mother would gladly have gone as a nurse, but was obliged to remain at home on account of her two little girls, Mary and Ida.

Two of the sons died in the army and a third as the result of hardships suffered in the service of his country. James died at Annapolis, Md., and was the first soldier brought home to Southbridge, Mass., where the family was living when the boys enlisted. David died at Hilton Head. John spent a year of horror at Andersonville and was an invalid until the time of his death in 1881. The family came to Jordan in 1869 and the father died there a few years later and was followed by three of his sons. Robert, the only son left, is living in Worcester, Mass. Three of the four daughters of the family are living—Mrs. Phetteplace and Miss Ida Bryson, who are in Jordan with their mother, and Mrs. Margaret Heathcote of Fall River, Mass.

Mrs. Phetteplace is president of the circle of the Ladies of the G. A. R., and Miss Bryson is secretary. Both are prominent in Eastern Star circles. Mrs. Bryson is loved and held in high esteem by all who know her and is regarded as a remarkable woman.
