

CITY NEWS.

Y. M. C. A. Sunday Meeting—The Sunday men's meeting at the Y. M. C. A. to-morrow, will be addressed by Rev. C. J. Thayer...

Paper by Dr. Bushnell—"Moses and Modern Legislation" is the subject of a paper to be read before Westminster club by Rev. E. Bushnell...

Police Sell Bikes—The annual sale of unclaimed stolen bicycles was held at the central police station this afternoon...

Lectures Postponed—Rev. Merle d'Aubigne of Paris has postponed his series of Minneapolis lectures in the interest of the Rev. C. J. Thayer...

Weather Wires Slow—Section Director D. J. Ostrom says that the weather forecast to-day, on account of the bad condition of the telegraph lines...

Phone for a Charity Sack—If householders want a "charity sack" they have to go to telephone exchange managers of the Women's Work exchange...

An Illustrated Sermon—G. L. Morrill will give an illustrated sermon, "Thru Samaria and Galilee with a Camera," at the People's church...

NECROLOGICAL

CHARLES WOODARD—The funeral of Charles Woodard, who died Sunday, April 4, after an illness of four months...

MRS. L. W. DAMAN—Funeral Sunday at 2:30 p. m. from the residence of her father, Jacob Martin, 2944 Twenty-eighth avenue S. Interment at Layman's.

D. W. BALCH, one of the pioneers of St. Anthony, more recently of Lakeville, Minn., died April 5 at Pasadena, Cal. The report that Mr. Balch had died at that time was in error.

F. M. LOFGREN—Funeral from J. E. Hakanson's residence, 1390 Fifth street, Sunday at 2 p. m. Interment at Layman's cemetery.

JAMES B. GIBMAN—Funeral to-morrow at 2:30 p. m. from the residence, 499 Eighth street SE. Interment at Hillside cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors who assisted and comforted us in our recent great bereavement; also, we wish to thank Columbia lodge, No. 490, M. E. A., Khuran lodge, A. F. & A. M., Carpenters and Joiners' union; Bridal veil lodge, D. of E. H. A. O. U. W.; Schwester lodge, O. D. H. S., and our many friends, for the beautiful flowers they sent in memory of our son and brother who has gone before us.

A TRADING STAMP TEST St. Paul Ordinance Is Signed and Will Get Into Court.

Mayor Smith of St. Paul has signed the ordinance regulating trading stamp enterprises. It will go into effect next Monday. This ordinance requires trading stamp companies to pay an annual license fee of $200 and to store using the stamps to pay $100.

NAMES DISTRICT ATTORNEY Washington, April 9.—The president has declined to appoint Charles H. Brown, United States district attorney for the western district of New York. Mr. Brown's headquarters are at Buffalo.

LONDON TRADE RETURNS London, April 9.—The board of trade returns for the month of March show an increase in the imports of $8,770,000 and a decrease in the exports of $1,840,500.

THE BLOOD PUMP Gives You Health or Disease According to its Condition.

If the heart, the blood pump of the human system, is out of order the nerves are starved for want of blood, and indigestion, sleeplessness, headache, lack of vigor and nervousness are the result. Dr. Agnew's Heart Cure relieves heart disease in 21 minutes, cures and strengthens organs so that rich blood courses through the veins and health reigns where disease was supreme.

Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills cure liver ills, 10c. Sold by E. H. Weinhold, West Fifth and 6th st. and Nicollet av. and A. B. Herrmann, 400 2d st. and 5.

BEFORE YOU BUILD Send $1.00 for Our Beautiful New Book, Plans of Small Houses, Cottages, Bachelors, Families.

SEGDWICK & SXTON, Architects, 1027 Lumber Ex., Minneapolis, Minn.

HOW TO PROTECT GIRLS AT FAIR

W. C. A. DISCUSSES PLAN OF ACTION.

Every Effort Will Be Taken to Warn Girls Who Go to St. Louis of Existence of Vice Syndicate—Travelers' Aid Matrons Will Co-operate.

At the monthly meeting of the Woman's Christian association yesterday the secretary read a letter from the C. A. of St. Louis, calling attention to the danger confronting young girls going to St. Louis, and suggesting a plan for protecting them.

The Minneapolis association voted to provide cards of introduction to Travelers' Aid matrons at St. Louis, to be used by girls who go to St. Louis through this city. These will be in the hands of the Travelers' Aid matrons at the stations. These matrons, here and elsewhere, are always known by their badges.

CLOSE TO AN AGREEMENT

LITHOGRAPHERS AND THEIR EMPLOYERS ARE ABOUT TO SETTLE TROUBLE WHICH CAUSED THE STRIKE.

From a telegram received in Minneapolis from New York it would seem that the Civic Federation of the latter city had about succeeded in ending the labor trouble existing between the employing lithographers and their men. A joint session of the representatives of the employers, the unions and the federation has been in session in Manhattan for over a week.

FORETOLD HIS DEATH

Fred Schiek Died as He Wished, on a Friday.

The death of Frederick Schiek, which occurred yesterday, was peculiar in that it came as he had wished on Friday, the Friday of the week.

FREDERICK SCHIEK. The pioneer restaurateur who died yesterday at his home in Minneapolis. (Photo by Opsahl.)

day on which he made it a point to begin any important enterprise and the day on which he has always desired to have his life come to a close. Just before his death he even expressed his satisfaction that the day was coming when he would wish, contrary to general superstition, had been for him always most fortunate.

Mr. Schiek was one of the best-known restaurant men in the country. He also had a dining room in the northeast corner of his residence in Lansing for twenty-five years. He lived in New York city from 1852, when he came to this country, until he left for St. Cloud last year. He left the river at St. Cloud last night and this is counted upon to help along the rise.

At St. Paul the weather bureau reports the river as rising this morning. The water there is augmented by that of the Minnesota river, and the same figures will hardly apply in Minneapolis. Yesterday morning the river was running with 8.8 feet above low water mark and this morning the gauge showed 9 feet and rising water. Flat dwellers are taking notice of the increasing amount of driftwood this morning and are making things shipshape in case the river does take a notion to have a spring cleaning.

ANOTHER JUDGE COLLINS Strange Coincidence in Two Families of Same Name.

A strange coincidence was brought out by the death of Lorin E. Collins yesterday in Wheaton, Ill. It was reported in the dispatch that he was the father of Judge Collins. This was true, but his son is not the Minnesota Judge Collins. He is Judge Lorin C. Collins, of the supreme court of Illinois, residing at Chicago.

The fathers of the two judges came to Minnesota in 1853, on the same boat, and the same day in Dakota county. Both had sons who became judges of high rank. One of them was named Lorin, and the other Loren.

WILL COMPANY ACCEPT? Construction of Lake Street Line Will Involve Unexpected Expense.

It may cost the street railway company $25,000 to comply with one of the conditions attached by the council last night to the cross-town trolley line ordinance. To widen the roadway six feet on each side, reset the curb and pay damages demanded for shade trees destroyed will mean considerable expense and it is believed the company will pause and figure before accepting the ordinance.

WINDSOR HOTEL, ST. PAUL, DIES After a Hard Struggle for Life.

Colonel C. J. Monfort, who has been hovering between life and death since the last ten days, died this morning at the Windsor hotel, St. Paul. For many years he had operated the hotel and he was widely known throughout the northwest, both politically and socially.

Charles J. Monfort was born at Colchester, Delaware county, N. Y. March 18, 1841. He came to St. Paul in the sixties, and in company with his brother, the late D. A. Monfort, went into the grocery business, the firm being known as Monfort Brothers.

In November, 1880, Mr. Monfort purchased an interest in the Windsor hotel. It was then run by Summers & Ball, who opened the well-known hostelry in 1878. Mr. Monfort bought Mr. Ball's interest, and the firm name was changed to Summers & Monfort. In February, 1891, Mr. Summers withdrew and the Windsor Hotel company was formed, with Mr. Monfort as president and manager.

Mr. Monfort was prominent in Elk and Junior Pioneer circles. He was a colonel on the governor's staff. He

FINE, NEW FLATS FOR LOWRY HILL

Two Buildings Will Be Erected This Season—To Cost $100,000.

Walter V. Fifield and Henry Ingham will finish two flat buildings ready for use Sept. 1, on one of the eight-hundred corners in the city, the southwest corner of Hennepin and Washington avenues. The investment will be $100,000. The two lots and 25 feet of a third have been bought from Nellie W. Ivey, who has retained only two buildings will be put up, each containing twelve four to seven-room apartments. The architecture will be in line with the high-toned neighborhood and each building will have a twenty-foot lawn in front. The flats will be four stories high and of light pressed brick. One building will have a sixty-foot front on Hennepin avenue by 102 feet on Douglas; the other will have a fifty-foot front on Douglas avenue.

Competition for Leases MINERAL RIGHTS ON THIRTY TRACTS WILL BE AWARDED TO THE HIGHEST BIDDER.

The state auditor's office is doing a rushing business in mineral leases. A large delegation was on hand today to secure leases on tracts held on lapsed contracts. There were thirty-two applicants for two of them, for which there was no competition, were granted for the legal fee of $25. The other thirty will be put up at competitive sale, April 23, at 9:30 a. m.

Payments on sixty-seven fifty-year contracts, due last August, had lapsed, and yesterday was the last day for redemption. Eleven were redeemed and fifty-seven become open for new leases. Twenty-four of them have not been applied for and are still open. The thirty-two applied for yesterday were taken on new leases, which after a year, may be converted into fifty-year contracts.

NO WIS. CENT. SALE NOW PRESIDENT WHITCOMB WON'T DISCUSS THE RUMOR—BUT HE MAKES THE ABOVE INTIMATION.

Special to the Journal. Milwaukee, Wis., April 9.—When seen to-day in regard to the reported sale of the Wisconsin Central to the Rockefellers, President Whitcomb declined to discuss the matter as he said rumors had been spread so frequently and without foundation that they were not worthy of denial. He intimated that there was no truth in the rumor now, but declined to say one way or another what the future might bring forth.

MUSIC HALL FUND GROWS GOOD WORK IN A SINGLE GLOOMY MORNING BRINGS IN $30,000 IN INSURANCE.

Thirty thousand dollars in life insurance on a chilly morning is considered a fair average for the volunteer auditorium committee solicitors. This is the result of this morning's work. Five thousand came by mail on the newspaper blank applications. One solicitor secured $5,000, another $8,000, and in this way the total was made up.

A new combination is being worked which is successful. The solicitors go in pairs. One of these is an expert in his way. He is acquainted with the business men who are to be approached. The other is the expert on insurance. One of the men makes the approach and the other closes the attack.

Several members of the committee find it very easy to secure attention from the men they approach, but haven't the knack of closing up the business. In such cases an expert insurance man calls and finds no difficulty in securing the applications. One of the most successful men is a comparative stranger in Minneapolis who wrote $50,000 the first week and is maintaining the record.

"We are going to have the auditorium," is the slogan. So firmly are the members of the committee impressed with this idea that they are working with great zeal.

A local contractor who is preparing to bid on the construction of the auditorium volunteers to contribute $10,000 to the fund. He promises that in case he was successful in putting in the low bid, he would guarantee $50,000 insurance in the Northwestern National Life.

Every string possible is being pulled. It is expected that all who get contracts on the building will feel inclined to guarantee insurance, thus making volunteer solicitors of all interested in putting up the building.

HOLIDAY PLEADS NOT GUILTY. C. C. Holliday, manager of the Crown Chemical company, Minneapolis, appeared in federal court before Judge Lochren this morning to answer to a charge of a misuse of the mails. He had been arraigned yesterday and the case adjourned to to-day. On motion of Holliday's attorney, the case was continued until next Wednesday. Holliday pleaded not guilty when arraigned.

THE END COMES TO COL. MONFORT Well Known Proprietor of the Windsor Hotel, St. Paul, Dies After a Hard Struggle for Life.

Colonel C. J. Monfort, who has been hovering between life and death since the last ten days, died this morning at the Windsor hotel, St. Paul. For many years he had operated the hotel and he was widely known throughout the northwest, both politically and socially.

Charles J. Monfort was born at Colchester, Delaware county, N. Y. March 18, 1841. He came to St. Paul in the sixties, and in company with his brother, the late D. A. Monfort, went into the grocery business, the firm being known as Monfort Brothers.

In November, 1880, Mr. Monfort purchased an interest in the Windsor hotel. It was then run by Summers & Ball, who opened the well-known hostelry in 1878. Mr. Monfort bought Mr. Ball's interest, and the firm name was changed to Summers & Monfort. In February, 1891, Mr. Summers withdrew and the Windsor Hotel company was formed, with Mr. Monfort as president and manager.

Mr. Monfort was prominent in Elk and Junior Pioneer circles. He was a colonel on the governor's staff. He was a widower and leaves a daughter, Mrs. J. G. W. Dunn, St. Paul, and two sisters, Mrs. John Summers, St. Paul, and Mrs. J. H. Keyes, Oronota, N. Y.

SHE SINGS UNDER HYPNOTIC CONTROL

DR. STRAUSS' STRANGE INFLUENCE UPON WIFE'S SINGING.

It is Exercised Like that of Svengali Upon Trilby—Opportunity to Hear the Two to Be Had by Minneapolis-ites Next Monday Evening.

Hypnotic control, greater than Svengali's power over Trilby, is being exercised by Dr. Strauss, the great hypnotist, on his wife, Mrs. Strauss, who is singing under his control. The doctor's power over his wife which utterly eclipses what was deemed a wild flight of Du Maurier's fancy.

Dr. Strauss and his wife sway at will the thousands that crowd halls and auditoriums to hear them, there are few in the secret, but that few watches with awe the great composer pouring his own soul into his wife's voice, and the great soprano but a passive instrument in the master's hands.

Dr. Strauss' marvelous power over his wife has been freely commented on. One who knows intimately the facts of the case says that Frau Strauss-De Anna's success is due to the psychological influence exercised by her husband.

The first public intimation of this strange power came one day recently in Philadelphia, during the closing concert of the Philadelphia Academy of Music. Frau Strauss had sung her husband's song, "Wiegelielied," and had been greeted with tumultuous applause.

Several persons in the audience saw him make passes in front of her face. Frau Strauss' eyes constantly sought her husband's, as she was receiving back his strength, and in obedience to his demerit. Eleven were redeemed and fifty-seven become open for new leases. Twenty-four of them have not been applied for and are still open.

This dramatic incident has disclosed an instance of psychological control most interesting. Dr. Strauss and his wife have recognized its existence for years, ever since, indeed, he took her as his pupil and married her ten years ago. He noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

Dr. Strauss was conducting the accompaniment and as soon as he noticed his wife's condition he hastened to her side. His right hand gripped her arm and for a moment he gazed steadily into her eyes.

COMES FAR TO SEE BIRDS

HONOLULU MAN COMES TO MINNEAPOLIS TO STUDY THE MENAGE PHILIPPINE COLLECTION.

W. A. Bryan, curator of the Bishop Museum at Honolulu, is in the city, making a careful study of the ornithological portion of the Menage Philippine collection in the custody of the Minnesota Academy of Natural Sciences.

Mr. Bryan, who came to Minneapolis for the express purpose of doing this work, pronounces the collection unequalled in the world. It is so complete as to save him the trouble, time and expense of fitting up an expedition to the Philippines to secure the data needed which, without the aid of the collection, he would have been obliged to do.

The material secured Mr. Bryan will use in a book on birds of the Philippines. He is the author of several valuable ornithological books. In addition to the mounted specimens that have been on exhibition at the library there are in the Philippine collection $900 worth of the finest things secured by the Menage expedition which collected all of the specimens.

LOCAL POLITICS

WOOD MAY RUN Eighth Ward Republicans Would Match Him Against Powers.

In casting about for a candidate upon whom the opposition to Alderman Fred M. Powers may settle, the republicans of the eighth ward have begun to give their attention to Daniel B. Wood, attorney, and delegations have been waiting on him for the past two weeks.

Altho he has never appeared in the role of an office-seeker, a good deal of pressure was brought to bear on him two years ago to enter the aldermanic race in which Alderman Clarke was successful. This time the same influence will probably cause him to yield.

UP TO MR. HUNN Combination that May Put Three Men Into Aldermanic Races.

A combination has been formed by Thomas Voegell of the third ward, Charles Huhn of the fourth and Stewart Gamble of the eighth, which promises some interesting developments. The republicans have attempted to get Mr. Voegell to run for alderman with Alderman Claus Mumm, but he has declined to be drawn into the race. Sheep's eyes have also been cast at Mr. Gamble by the people of his ward and by Mr. Huhn by the people of the fourth. Yesterday afternoon Mr. Gamble said that he would run if both Mr. Voegell and Mr. Huhn would also enter, and Mr. Voegell said that he would run if Mr. Huhn and Mr. Gamble did, so it appears to be up to Mr. Huhn.

AFTER NASH'S PLACE Three Who Would Like to Be on the County Board.

Opposition to the re-election of County Commissioner M. W. Nash has suddenly developed in several directions, and there are not less than three candidates who are getting ready to try for his office. Ed Falk, a prominent business man, has been declared in, as has Frank W. Cook, stone quarry operator, and Walter H. Gould, the real estate man, is very much mentioned. All three live in the third ward and their appearance promises some lively campaigning in the third district.

Out for the Legislature. Morris Coot, a republican who has lived twenty years in the ninth ward, is out after the nomination for the legislature from the thirty-ninth district. He has never sought political office before, but has been for the past three years a deputy city assessor.

Seventh Ward Meeting. The Seventh Ward Democratic club will meet at 1134 E. Lake street Monday evening.

A SUICIDE'S LETTERS Those of Man in North Dakota Addressed to Minneapolisians.

A telegram was received at police headquarters this morning saying that a Minneapolis man named Charles B. Anderson had committed suicide at St. Thomas, N. D. On his person were letters addressed to Miss Anna Erickson, 29 Ash street, Annie Byland, 2703 Lake of the Isles boulevard, and to D. B. Rollins, 606 University avenue. Anderson's address is not mentioned in the telegram.

POPE OBJECTS TO LOUBET French President Will Displace Vatican by Visiting Rome.

Rome, April 9.—The Osservatore Romano, the Vatican organ, publishes an official statement denying the existence of negotiations between France and the Vatican for an interview between Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state, and M. Delcasse, French foreign minister, during the visit of President Loubet to Rome or to the end that the president and his entourage and the Vatican shall ignore each other, as has been asserted in the French press. The statement concludes with these words: "The only thing certain is that the graves offense will be given to the pope by a visit to Rome of the head of a Catholic church state in the present condition of affairs."

HELD FOR MURDER Floss's Victim, a Trimountain Miner, Dies of Knife Wounds.

Calumet, Mich., April 9.—Vergillio Lambardi, an Italian miner, who was stabbed by a Trimountain miner, Floss, a peddler, died last night. Floss is held and will be tried for murder.

Commercial Club Convention Committee Considering Plan. The convention committee of the Commercial club met to-day to consider the prospects for securing the Minnesota Educational convention for the holidays. The executive committee will decide on the convention city soon. Last year the association voted for Minneapolis, but the committee chose St. Paul, which had been the meeting place for years. Duluth and St. Paul are in the field with Minneapolis for the next convention.

Progress was reported on convention State prohibitionists, June 15-16; Minnesota Bankers' association, June 21-22; grand lodge, I. O. O. F., Mat. Copish, a miner in the South Kearsarge branch of the Osceola consolidated mine, was caught between the skip and side of the shaft and crushed to death.

THE STANDARD Family medicine of to-day is the celebrated Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. For 50 years it has enjoyed the confidence of the public and is to-day more popular than ever. It is so safe and reliable that physicians everywhere endorse it.

Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is, therefore, deserving of a permanent place in every home. When the system is weak or run down and you suffer from La Grippe, Colds, Spring Fever, Sick Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Malaria, Fever and Ague, the Bitters will cure you. Try one bottle. At all Drugists.

AFTER M. E. A. CONVENTION Commercial Club Convention Committee Considering Plan.

The convention committee of the Commercial club met to-day to consider the prospects for securing the Minnesota Educational convention for the holidays. The executive committee will decide on the convention city soon. Last year the association voted for Minneapolis, but the committee chose St. Paul, which had been the meeting place for years. Duluth and St. Paul are in the field with Minneapolis for the next convention.

Progress was reported on convention State prohibitionists, June 15-16; Minnesota Bankers' association, June 21-22; grand lodge, I. O. O. F., Mat. Copish, a miner in the South Kearsarge branch of the Osceola consolidated mine, was caught between the skip and side of the shaft and crushed to death.

HELD FOR MURDER Floss's Victim, a Trimountain Miner, Dies of Knife Wounds.

Calumet, Mich., April 9.—Vergillio Lambardi, an Italian miner, who was stabbed by a Trimountain miner, Floss, a peddler, died last night. Floss is held and will be tried for murder.

Commercial Club Convention Committee Considering Plan. The convention committee of the Commercial club met to-day to consider the prospects for securing the Minnesota Educational convention for the holidays. The executive committee will decide on the convention city soon. Last year the association voted for Minneapolis, but the committee chose St. Paul, which had been the meeting place for years. Duluth and St. Paul are in the field with Minneapolis for the next convention.

Progress was reported on convention State prohibitionists, June 15-16; Minnesota Bankers' association, June 21-22; grand lodge, I. O. O. F., Mat. Copish, a miner in the South Kearsarge branch of the Osceola consolidated mine, was caught between the skip and side of the shaft and crushed to death.

HELD FOR MURDER Floss's Victim, a Trimountain Miner, Dies of Knife Wounds.

Calumet, Mich., April 9.—Vergillio Lambardi, an Italian miner, who was stabbed by a Trimountain miner, Floss, a peddler, died last night. Floss is held and will be tried for murder.

Commercial Club Convention Committee Considering Plan. The convention committee of the Commercial club met to-day to consider the prospects for securing the Minnesota Educational convention for the holidays. The executive committee will decide on the convention city soon. Last year the association voted for Minneapolis, but the committee chose St. Paul, which had been the meeting place for years. Duluth and St. Paul are in the field with Minneapolis for the next convention.

Progress was reported on convention State prohibitionists, June 15-16; Minnesota Bankers' association, June 21-22; grand lodge, I. O. O. F., Mat. Copish, a miner in the South Kearsarge branch of the Osceola consolidated mine, was caught between the skip and side of the shaft and crushed to death.

The Minnesota Loan & Trust Co.,

313 Nicollet Avenue, Minneapolis, Minn.

Capital (fully paid) $500,000.00 Surplus $650,000.00 Undivided Profits $650,000.00

WE INVITE YOUR DEPOSIT ACCOUNT. This Company Allows Interest on Deposits as Follows: Checking Accounts 2 per cent on Daily Balance. Certificates of Deposit 3 per cent on 6 months. Participation