MILK'S EMULSION CURES LIKE MAGIC

Cures Croup, Bronchitis, Asthma, Chronic Stomach Trouble, Constipation, Lung Troubles of any kind and General Debility.

READ THESE TESTIMONIALS Which come from the hearts of those benefited by this remedy.

The Milks' Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Gentlemen—Something like a year ago my daughter was taken with a bad cough. It seemed to grow worse, and after trying all the different cough medicines we consulted a physician, who pronounced it consumption. We consulted other physicians and they all claimed my daughter's lungs were badly affected and seemed to hold out no hope for her. Finally, hearing of Milks' Emulsion, we sent for some and it gave her immediate relief. We were delighted and as she continued its use we could see her grow strong and well again. It was a godsend to us and we cannot speak too highly of it. Yours respectfully, J. MAGEE, Conneaut, Ohio, February 10, 1903.

The Milks' Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Gentlemen—Last winter when in a very bad condition with a cold on my lungs some friend recommended Milks' Emulsion. I tried it and was surprised at the results. It cured my cough and cold almost immediately. It is very fine for throat trouble and I do not hesitate to highly recommend it to anyone suffering from colds, coughs or throat trouble. Yours truly, CARL STAHL, of Stahl, Urban & Co., Terre Haute, Ind., October 31, 1903.

The Milks' Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Gentlemen—Some time ago my daughter, aged 14, took a violent cold and we were very much alarmed about her. We tried several remedies, but no good resulted. One day your "ad" was thrown on our porch and, from the reading of it, I became interested and that same day I got a jar of your Milks' Emulsion. Well, the result was magical. After taking only two doses, she seemed better, breathing free and easy. We followed it up for two days only, and she was as well as ever. I have such great faith in your Emulsion, myself, that when my neighbor's baby had the croup, one night I told my wife to go over and give the baby some Emulsion. She did so and it immediately stopped the croup, and the baby was all right next morning. I shall always speak a good word for Milks' Emulsion. You can refer anyone to me. Yours truly, W. L. TRIBBETT, 2221 Ashland Ave., Indianapolis, Ind., February 2, 1903.

CAPITOL COMMISSION BACK Gets Ideas for Marble Floors and Electric Lights.

Members of the state capital commission have returned from their eastern trip, the last one it will be necessary for them to make as a commission. They inspected some of the finest public buildings to get the latest ideas on coloring for marble floors and electric light fixtures. The most modern designs were shown them by the manufacturers, and the commission is now prepared to make specifications for the last important contracts to be let. The commission also visited the studios where the mural decorations are being designed and found the work well under way.

King Oscar's Mistake. When King Oscar was in Vienna he attracted attention in more ways than one. Being honorary colonel of the Tenth Austrian infantry he naturally donned the uniform of his rank but the uniform was made in Sweden and had a fur collar which is not permissible. Moreover the three stars on his cap were not correctly placed. Everybody stared, the very politeness of course. The next day however, King Oscar was most correctly attired.

Premier May Resign. A report is current in Stockholm that Foreign Minister Lagerheim contemplates resigning very shortly in order to become minister to Copenhagen. The reports do not intimate who his successor will be in that event.

Must not be confounded with common cathartic or purgative pills. Carter's Little Liver Pills are entirely unlike them in every respect. One trial will prove their superiority.

Normannaheimen HAMLET HAS TWO BURIAL PLACES

ONE ON MAINLAND, ANOTHER AT ELSINORE.

The Mainland Grave Is Probably the True One—Elsinore Proprietors Let Tourists Carry Away Relics—Statue of Shakspeare to be Unveiled at Elsinore This Month.

Hamlet has two graves in Denmark, one on the mainland and the other at ancient Elsinore, now known as Helsingor. The one in Jutland is probably the true burial place of Amleth, the Danish prince, but because the Shaksperian drama refers to the castle of Elsinore and reproduces the environment of the town and the ramparts, Elsinore has continued as the accepted location of Hamlet's last resting place. It is generally conceded that "Hamlet's Grave" and "Ophelia's Kilde" are but the clever devices of obliging landlords who try to serve their patrons. They don't care how many rocks the tourists carry away from the cairn which is marked as "Hamlet's grave," for there are more on the beach. So firm a hold has Elsinore on popular fancy that not only has the town a fine statue of Hamlet, but this month a statue will be unveiled there a fine statue of Shakspeare in commemoration of the three hundredth anniversary of the appearance of the drama.

On the grounds of the Marlenlyst Castle hotel is the statue of Hamlet, representing him in the heroic style. It was erected in 1899, and is the work of Miss Pedersen. The proposal to celebrate the three hundredth anniversary of the completed edition of "Hamlet" by a statue at Elsinore to the great English dramatist has met with warm support. The statue, which is paid for by Danish and English admirers of the poet in other countries, is the work of the Danish sculptor, Louis Hasselriis, and has been executed in his studio in Rome. It is to be erected near Marlenlyst Castle, in the park below the knoll of Hamlet's grave, and will be a beautiful memorial of Shakspeare in Denmark.

PEAT IS WEALTH Successfully Used on Swedish Railways and for Electric Plants.

Count Tage Thott has, on his estate at Skabersjö, Sweden, established a plant for producing electricity with peat as fuel. This plant lights Svedala and also Skabersjö, and furnishes power for several industrial plants at the latter place. Sweden has vast areas of peat bogs, and this practical demonstration of the value of peat may be of great importance to the country. Experiments with peat on the Malmo-Nassjo railway have proved successful. Peat and coal, half of each, were used for fuel on two freight trains, and no diminution of power was noticeable. Another freight train was similarly supplied, and all special now use the same fuel.

BOOTHS ARE SUPPRESSED Norwegian Government Abolishes Two Bar Customs.

Further restrictions on the liquor traffic have been adopted by the Norwegian storting. The traveling liquor booths, which had come to be a nuisance in the country districts and villages, are now prohibited by law. Dealers are also prohibited from sending packages C. O. D. and thus another evil of considerable proportions has been abolished. The "samling" or Gøthenburg system, which was introduced some years ago, has been revised somewhat. Hereafter the investors will be entitled to only 5 per cent dividends on their capital. The net profits are to be distributed as follows: 65 per cent to the state, 15 per cent to the municipality, 10 per cent to the "samling" and 10 per cent elsewhere. The Gøthenburg system, as in Sweden, is recognized as a temporary expedient and the government hopes in time to abolish it entirely.

A ROYAL MATCH Crown Prince of Germany May Woo Princess Thyra.

Another of King Christian's offspring may sit on an imperial throne. Princess Thyra, daughter of the crown prince of Denmark, has been selected as a worthy mate for Crown Prince Frederick William, heir to the throne of United Germany, and the prince's visit to Copenhagen is expected to result in a betrothal. Princess Thyra is three years older than the German prince, but like all the members of the Danish royal family, is extremely youthful in appearance. All of her relatives, including King Edward, are said to approve the match. She is now

BUSY DR. HEDIN Can't Come to America on Account of His Book.

A flattering offer has been made to Dr. Sven Hedin to give 100 lectures in America on his explorations in Central Asia, but he has declined the offer as well as numerous invitations to give addresses at various universities, as he cannot spare the time. It was hoped that he would attend the international geographical congress at Washington, but he will not. As an indication of Japan's interest in scientific progress, it is noted that the first two subscribers for Dr. Sven Hedin's big work on Central Asia are from Japan, one being Count Okami, himself an explorer and the other the Tokio Geographical society. Dr. Hedin's new work will cost 270 kr., or about $75.

ALESUND FUND Complaints Are Made as to Method of Distribution.

Over one million kroner in money has been subscribed for the relief of the Aalesund fire sufferers. About half of the fund is about to be apportioned among the sufferers, the plan being to divide the sum pro rata among all the inhabitants. This method has provoked much criticism from those who had no insurance. They argue that those who were protected by insurance suffered very little material loss, while the others are wholly destitute.

Honor for a Hero. Captain Hans D. Dooder, of the Red Star liner Kronland, has been decorated with the order of St. Olaf in recognition of his deeds on the ocean, which he has sailed for twenty-six years. In that time he has been instrumental in saving sixty-eight lives. Captain Dooder carries a watch which was given to him by President McKinley for one of his heroic acts several years ago.

Musician Is Dead. Sigwart Bjerke, a well-known Norwegian musician, died at his villa at Nordstrand recently, aged 62 years. He was a fine organist and an excellent violinist and made several concert tours, chiefly in Germany. Bjerke was also a composer of considerable talent. His wife, Thekla Nathan Bjerke, was an accomplished pianist, and the two frequently appeared in concerts.
