To-morrow night John W. Arctander will give his illustrated lecture, "A Trip to Alaska," in the Swedish Mission church, Central and Eighteenth-and-a-half avenues NE, for the benefit of the building fund of the Norwegian Lutheran St. Peter's church. The lecture is illustrated by 170 colored stereopticon views from Alaska, also by several moving pictures. This is the last time Mr. Arctander will give this lecture in Minneapolis.

NORMINGTON ELECTED

He is Retained as Director of St. Paul Choral Club.

Two prominent Minneapolis musicians were the storm center of a warlike meeting of the St. Paul Choral association. One faction of the club supported George N. Normington, the present director of the club, for re-election, and another wanted to secure Emil Oberholfer for the position. After a ballot in which it was charged that 90 people had cast 110 votes, Frederick Hein was elected president and the club unanimously elected Mr. Normington director.

Another cause of excitement and indignation was the announcement by the secretary, Miss Nellie Hope, that last year two silver spoons, belonging to a unique set, had been stolen at the annual meeting of the club. In behalf of the ladies of Christ church she requested their return. The spoons have not yet been heard from.

LET HOSPITAL CONTRACT

The C. and C. Board Arranges for Work on Emergency Ward.

Out of twenty bids for the erection of the emergency ward at the city hospital the committee on charities and corrections last evening selected that of R. McMillan & Co., whose bid of $40,972 was the lowest. If metal expansion proofing is used for the floors, the cost will be somewhat reduced.

At the suggestion of the city attorney, the board voted to compromise the damage suit brought by the widow of John Warner, who was killed at the city hospital, supposedly by electric shock. While disclaiming any liability the city will offer $400 in order to prevent prolonged litigation.

MILLERS WANT RATE WAR ENDED

MAY APPEAL TO U. S. DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE.

"We Will Not Let Industry Be Knifed in an Eastern Commercial Vendetta," Says a Prominent Local Flour Grander—Millers Believe It's Time to Do Something.

Flour manufacturers of Minneapolis and the northwest are contemplating making an appeal to the department of commerce or to the interstate commission for relief from the grain rate discrimination. This is the statement made this morning by a prominent Minneapolis miller, who recited the history of the Buffalo-Atlantic and the Missouri river-Atlantic flour grinders—millers believe it's time to do something.

"The railroads between Buffalo and the coast points have been childishly fighting over the grain business and cutting rates until it is impossible to ship flour in competition with grain. The same condition obtained from Kansas City and Omaha. We have protested and have been put off with a request for patience and an assurance that the condition will be relieved and the railroads cease their warring for the grain business.

"We have exercised our patience until it has given us that spring tired feeling. We cannot believe that any other business of getting the haul on a raw product can be allowed to operate fatally against the manufacture of a finished product. The grain rate discrimination on the roads hauling grain from Buffalo to Boston or New York, and between Buffalo and Baltimore, Philadelphia and Newport News; and that other war between the lines from Omaha and Kansas City to the coast, is throwing out of work here some 10,000 people. The Kansas City millers are in no better condition.

"The initial lines are not to blame and we are not seeking trouble with the railroads. The St. Louis millers started a fight with the railroads a few years ago and it cost much. We have favored placing the roads if possible. But our representatives have served notice on the eastern railroad presidents that the situation must be relieved and not be returned to, or we will appeal to some higher court.

"We have the department of commerce in view. Behind and after that will come the interstate commerce commission, which meets in Washington, May 18."

Other large sums settled since April 2 are as follows:

Lot of 159,000 feet cut in the winter of 1901-02 from section 36, township 19 N., range 22 E., section 1, appraised at $5, settled at $10 a thousand.

Lot of 375,000 feet, cut in winter of 1901-02 from sections 1 and 2, township 19 N., range 22 E., section 1, appraised at $3, settled at $9 a thousand.

KNICKERBOCKERS O. K.

Good Burlesque Company Showing at the Dewey.

Of the many bookings which the Empire circuit has sent to the Dewey theater this season, none has attracted more attention than the Knickerbocker burlesquers playing there this week, and few have equaled it in the investment of thought, talent and careful stage management. Messrs. Robbie have made for this season.

A large and well selected chorus, costumed in expensive variety, well-voiced and well-trained; two good principal comedians, original and catchy music and a strong olio, combine to make the Knickerbockers an attraction very pleasing to the patrons of the house, with much heard in the ordinary "musical comedy."

Credit for the success of the burlesques belongs in a large part to Stage Manager Frank Finney, who has done his job in grand and light opera is used to good advantage, especially in putting on the "jewel ballet" in the last burlesque.

Another cause of success are the five jugglers, Normans, whose club swinging work is unequalled. The fancy dancing of the Amatos in their artistic sketch, "The Professor and the Debutante," and "just dancing" of Hawthorne & Burt, are commendable turns. The whole show has unusual "go."

FEARED DEATH PENALTY

Neglect of Duty Causes Fort Soldier to Kill Himself.

Hans Snyder, a private at Fort Snelling, fearing that his absence from duty would be punished with death, committed suicide yesterday morning.

Snyder is a new recruit and Friday he went to St. Paul to visit his family and companions. He did not show up Sunday morning and evidently had planned on suicide in order to avoid death in disgrace. He shot himself in front of the guardhouse and was soon surrounded by soldiers, who carried him to the hospital. He lingered until yesterday afternoon and died without regaining consciousness. He was buried at the post cemetery, where his body is claimed by relatives. He was 28 years old and a native of Austria.

MORE MILLS START

Nine of the Minneapolis Plants Resume Making of Flour.

Nine Minneapolis flour mills are now in operation, four more, the Northwestern of the Consolidated Milling company, the plant of the National Milling company, the Barbour, Phoenix and Christian mills having started last night.

The Washburn-Crosby company and Pillsbury-Washburn company have not started up any more mills, the former company operating only the A and D and the latter the Pillsbury mill. The Consolidated A mill was already in operation.

ASK PASTOR'S RETURN

Wesley Church Seeks to Prolong Dr. Montgomery's Pastorate.

Wesley church desires to keep Rev. Dr. J. S. Montgomery for another year. This feeling was put into the form of a resolution at the quarterly conference of the church as follows:

The quarterly conference of Wesley church, reviewing the work of Dr. James Montgomery during the last five years, which has produced the most splendid record in the history of the church, and feeling concerned because of the solicitation of high financial leaders to accept other charges, do hereby earnestly request that he be returned to us for the coming year, and pledge him our hearty support in all his efforts.

ACCUSED OF ROBBING MAILS

L. J. Wing, Well Known to Local Police, Arrested in Illinois.

L. J. Wing, well known to the Minneapolis police, is under arrest at Aurora, Ill., charged with robbing the mails. It is charged that at Jamestown, N. D., last fall he represented himself as an agent of the Hewitt Bridge company and secured the mail for the foreman of a construction camp and secured $1,300 in Jamestown city bonds and $300 in cash.

ILL IN CHICAGO

PAY $58,151.24 FOR STATE TIMBER

TRESPASSERS DAILY MULCTED FOR LARGE SUMS.

State Has Settled 103 Cases Since Feb. 1, 1903, and Others Aare Pending—Trespassers Pay Double and Treble the Appraised Value of Logs—$20,000 Paid in Since April 2.

State Auditor Iverson is taking in money almost daily from timber trespass settlements. Since April 2, when A. C. Bruce paid in $12,722.16 for timber illegally cut from state land, twelve other cases have been settled, and $7,671.80 has been turned into the treasury.

This makes a total of 103 settlements since Feb. 1, 1903. On these $58,151.24 has been paid. The settlements have all been for double or treble the appraised value of the timber, unless it has come into the hands of an innocent purchaser.

One case recently settled is a trespass of 114,350 feet illegally cut in the winter of 1902-03, by John C. Patterson, from section 36, township 52, range 22, E., at the rate of $7 a thousand by parties who bought the logs. Patterson went back on the same section last winter and cut about 100,000 feet, which were seized recently where they were banked on the lower Swan river. They were mixed in a lot scaling 201,000 feet, and were sold for the state, and will be sold at auction April 28 at the state capitol. Patterson has been arrested, and had a preliminary hearing yesterday at Aitkin. County Attorney Krelwitz wired Mr. Iverson that Patterson had been bound over to the grand jury.

Other large sums settled since April 2 are as follows:

Lot of 159,000 feet cut in the winter of 1901-02 from section 36, township 19 N., range 22 E., section 1, appraised at $5, settled at $10 a thousand.

Lot of 375,000 feet, cut in winter of 1901-02 from sections 1 and 2, township 19 N., range 22 E., section 1, appraised at $3, settled at $9 a thousand.

A COLLEGE AT STAKE

Removal of Gustavus Adolphus Will Soon Be Settled.

When the Minnesota conference of the Augustana Swedish Lutheran synod convenes next month, the old contest over the removal of Gustavus Adolphus college from St. Peter to Minneapolis will gain force. As the conference will be held in St. Peter, the opposition will not lack for substantial support. Citizens there predict that there will be no removal as Minneapolis has not raised a sufficient guaranty fund, the amount required being $250,000. They insist that the buildings in St. Peter are worth about $200,000. The amount to be raised from members maintain however, that they will have some surprises to spring at the conference. A site including forty acres of valuable property which will increase in value, and a large sum in cash will be offered to locate the college in Minneapolis.

FOR STUDENT SOLDIERS

Design for Campus Monument Approved by Art Commission.

Henry Hudson Kittson's design for a soldiers' monument for the university campus has been approved by the Minneapolis Art commission. The model shows an American soldier in the rough and ready uniform which prevailed during the Philippine campaign. The figure is shown as if standing in a skirmish line. The monument will cost $5,000.

THE UNIVERSITY

STUDENTS JOSH MAYBURY

VARSITY MEN FAIL TO RECOGNIZE FORMER JOINT HOLDER OF WORLD'S 100-YARD RECORD.

"Hi, freshman! get out and shove behind." "Get next to the knee action on me." "Watch his fingers, dop." "What did I do? Didn't that ten-miler?" These and similar expressions were shouted after a lone runner in a black jersey, who jogged around the cinder path in front of the crowd gathered to watch the baseball game between the university and St. Paul Central on Northrop field yesterday.

Later in the afternoon it was reported that Maybury of Wisconsin, once joint holder of the world's record in the 100-yard dash, was at the other end of the field showing the sprinters a few things about starting. The crowd found its "freshman" was the man who had run the hundred in 9-4-5. Maybury had gone to the university to help his old friend "Jimmie" Temple coach the track men.

President Northrop asked the students this morning to refrain from further class fights of any kind. He called their attention to the fact that the reports of these encounters became more sensational with every mile they traveled from the campus, and that they gave the university a bad reputation thru the state. He complimented the students on their usual good conduct.

The varsity baseball team will play Central High at 4 p. m. to-morrow.

COURT NEWS

TEN ACCEPTED ON JOHNSON JURY

TAKING OF EVIDENCE WILL BEGIN TO-MORROW MORNING.

No Difficulty Expected in Finding Two Additional Jurors—Defense of Former Superintendent of Poor Not Changed by Appearance of Charles H. Brown.

Before night the twelve "good men and true" who will pass upon the guilt or innocence of William H. Johnson, former superintendent of the poor, and secretary of the Board of Charities and Corrections, will have been selected. Up to noon to-day ten veniremen had been accepted as jurors, and the remaining two should not be hard to find. The ten who have already taken the oath are Frederick W. Guenther, George Brum, August Farmer, Charles H. King, Louis T. Jamme, Fred W. Woodward, Hjalmer Rossing, J. B. Larawa, Arthur R. McGilivray and Charles W. Stone.

Charles H. Brown, the state's principal witness, has not yet appeared in the courtroom, but will undoubtedly be on hand to-morrow morning. Attorneys for the defendant expressed real surprise when they read in the Journal a yesterday that Brown had returned. His presence here will probably not change Johnson's plan of defense, and it will be "up to" the jury to choose between the statements of Brown and those of Johnson.

COLE IS RECEIVER

Will Administer Affairs of Cole-Henderson Company.

Judge F. C. Brooks this morning appointed Tracy E. Cole receiver of the Cole-Henderson company, a grain and elevator concern. A bond of $20,000 was furnished by Cole.

Trading Stamp Hearing.

Judge Kelly of the Ramsey county district court yesterday fixed May 7 as the date for hearing the order issued Saturday requiring the city of St. Paul to show cause why it should not be restrained from enforcing the ordinance compelling trading stamp companies and stores using stamps to pay a license. Under the ruling a temporary restraining order is in force until May 7.
