

WHAT THE FIGHT REALLY MEANSLA FOLLETTE BATTING FOR QUARLES' SEAT IN SENATE.

Few so bitter the majority in the Legislature may be slender—Excitements in the Convention City at Fever Heat—Delegates Behind a Wire Trocha.

From a Staff Correspondent.

Madison, Wis., May 18.—Every delegate to the convention to-day realizes that R. M. La Follette's contest for a third term governorship nomination is really a battle for the senatorial seat now held by J. V. Quarles. "Fighting Bob" has had the wants of the governorship, but he must stay "in the saddle," so as to keep control of the machinery next winter. The fight is going on right now. Many legislative nominations have been made, and the issue between the "stalwarts" and "halfbreeds" is being drawn in nearly every case. Many are yet to be made, and the state convention outcome will have considerable influence on these legislative nominations.

Naturally, Senator Quarles does not want a bolt. It would put him in bad odor to be identified with a party split.
He is advising peace, and in this he is joined by Senator Spooner and by both the stalwart candidates for governor. Judge Baensch does not want to make a vain fight at the polls at the head of a bolting ticket, and S. A.
Cook has nothing to gain by a bolt.

One thing bearing with some effect against La Follette's nomination is the fact that he lives in Madison, which is also the home of Senator Spooner. The same thing would work against Quarles, if he were in now, if La Follette should defeat Quarles. This senatorial fight is so bitter that it may result in a slender republican majority in the legislature.

Where stalwart candidates have been nominated they will be cut by La Follette men, and the stalwarts will retaliate on the "half breed" candidates.

Delegates Behind a Grating.

The La Follette forces have managed the preliminaries to suit themselves, and the precautions they have taken foreshadow the way they will handle the convention. The delegates are to be inclosed within a grating.
The seats for the public, behind that grating, have been given almost entirely to La Follette partisans. Judge Baensch, one of the leading candidates for governor, has received one stage seat for himself, and none of the stalwarts fare any better. The door-keepers will all be trusted La Follette men, many of them state house employees, including the husky Lerum of football fame, and other gridiron heroes, well known to the legislature.

Excitement was at fever heat last night in the city, with the state central committee in secret session deciding the fate of the convention, and the stalwart forces in a mass meeting at the opera-house. Early in the evening cards were distributed all over the city, reading as follows:

200,000
Anti-Third-Term Republicans

Of Wisconsin Demand Fair Play from the State Central Committee.

Changes in Central Committee.

Two changes in the personnel of the state central committee were announced yesterday. O. J. Van Cleave of Marinette was appointed by Chairman Bryant to succeed Warren J. Davis of the same place, who resigned.

David Harlowe, one of the representatives of the fourth district, Milwaukee, also sent his resignation. His place was filled by the appointment of Theodore Kronseig of Milwaukee.

Both the outgoing and incoming members are La Follette men. The members of the committee, holding the memorable session yesterday are as follows:

Chairman—General George E. Bryant, Madison.
First District—C. C. Gitting, Racine; Perry C. Wilder, Evansville.
Second District—John M. Nelson, Madison; J. C. McKenzie, Portage.
Third District—James A. Stone, Reeds-burg; Dwight T. Parker, Fennimore.
Fourth District—George A. West, Theodore Kronseig, Milwaukee.
Fifth District—S. E. Gannon, Waukesha; August Buchholz, Milwaukee.
Sixth District—John R. Dennett, Port Washington; Frank M. Lawrence, Mayville.

Seventh District—Dr. W. T. Sarles, Sparta; W. A. Smith, Mondovi.
Eighth District—E. L. Simpson, Oshkosh; Walter D. Corrigan, Platteville.
Ninth District—O. J. Van Cleave, Marinette; John P. Dousman, De Pere.
Tenth District—M. E. Dillon, Ashland; M. B. Rosenberry, Waunakee.

A Sure Cure for ConstipationNot a Cathartic or Purgative that Shocks the System and Ruins Health, but a Permanent Cure.

You cannot possibly keep well if your bowels and digestive organs are clogged with waste matter that decays and poisons the system. Your first unpleasant feeling will be headache, dizziness and a feverishness that causes a flushed face and dull, bloodshot eyes. These symptoms show that the poison of putrid matter is working in your system, and will quickly produce serious results unless relief is soon obtained.

A strong physic or purgative gives only temporary relief at best, and the previous condition returns at once in more aggravated form than before.
These strong drugs shock and weaken the delicate membranes and tissues of the stomach and bowels and make them unable to perform their functions in the system and throw them off.
The only cure for constipation is an agent that will establish natural conditions in the organs and tone and strengthen them so that they will be able to do their work as Nature intended they should, and Iron-Ox Tablets do exactly this thing. They are mild but determined in their action.
They go direct to the seat of the trouble, the stomach, liver and kidneys, and there they remedy the evil at the proper place. They compel perfect digestion of the food and perfect assimilation of the nutrient in the food so that the regular course of Nature is re-established. There is no violent disturbance and no weakening of the digestive organs. You are cured naturally and cured to stay cured.

Fifty Iron-Ox Tablets in an attractive aluminum case, 25 cents at druggists, or from The Iron-Ox Remedy Co., Detroit, Mich.

The Great Expansion Sale

Has been accepted by the Minneapolis public as the hitherto unequalled genuine Bargain Opportunity as which it was heralded. In this confidence of the public lies the strength of the Daylight Store. While we appreciate this confidence, we also feel that we are rightfully entitled to it. Remember "If it's advertised by Dayton's it's so." And one of the things we strongly advertise is: "What's Wrong We'll Right." Come here, therefore, and shop with confidence. This week we lay before you practically our entire stock at very great reductions. We aimed at the acme of price-cutting at our Reorganization Sale of exactly one year ago. Experience has taught us that we can do still better for you this year. We must make room for the Beard-Dayton Art Galleries and Stationery Dept. and our Tea Rooms.
Stocks must move. At these prices they will—and move rapidly, too; so come early and see the full assortments. You must see the offerings to appreciate their economy.
