

LAKE MINNETONKA

Miss Grace Gillette and a group of college girls are having a delightful house-party at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gillette, near Wayzata.

Yesterday the young women had a mothers' day, to which they had invited their mothers. The dining menu at noon was served in the dining room, which had been decorated prettily in anticipation of the social function.

Next year there will be eighteen Minneapolis girls at Wells.

Saturday evening there will be a special hop at the Hotel Del Otero pavilion. A military band from Minneapolis will play, and the music will remain over at the hotel from tonight until after the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Myers will entertain a houseparty at their cottage at Linwood over the Fourth of July. Their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Lane, Mrs. Mary E. Lovett, Miss Katherine Sullivan, John Brimmer, Dr. Martha Covell, Miss Gladys Covell, Ned Covell and Louis Covell.

During the cool and chilly evenings of the week the Excelsior casino have been many. The sport is far from being on the wane, and the men and women have been making up numerous parties during the week, and the results were some splendid scores.

Another Fourth of July picnic party and houseparty in which a group of lake people will participate will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Cram at Zumbrota. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McKusick, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Gowen, all of Wildhurst, will leave Saturday night for Zumbrota, and Mrs. Flora E. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Washburn of Minneapolis will join them.

Two hundred more invitations have been added to the five hundred already sent out for the opening ball at Hotel

Tonka Bay. The affair promises to be one of the elegant parties of Saturday night and will be a full-dress affair. Miss Mary Louise Foster, who is in charge of the social functions at the hotel, will be hostess, and has made arrangements for an exceedingly smart affair.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pratt and Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McKusick gave a picnic Sunday at their summer homes at Wildhurst, and their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elsie of Halstead's Bay; their niece, Miss Elsie of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Kuderling and family, Mrs. McNiece, and their own families. Boating parties on the launches of the hosts formed a delightful entertainment for the guests.

The Elise gardens are famous for their exquisite varieties and perfect growth.

Mr. and Mrs. George Webb are at the Bruton cottage, Excelsior, for the summer.

Mrs. Williams and family, who have been spending the past three years at the Candee cottage at Wildhurst, moved out last week for the summer.

Van McKusick returns Saturday from a two years' absence at Everett, Wash. On his way home he is making a trip thru the Yellowstone park.

and Mrs. E. F. McKusick, at Wildhurst.

Miss Anna Edge of Milwaukee will arrive Saturday morning to spend a several weeks' vacation with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Chute, at Wildhurst.

Miss Gertrude McGee is visiting Miss Louise Jamieson at Wildhurst.

Miss Stella Henderson of St. Paul will spend several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Henderson, at their cottage at Linwood.

DEATH IN CANNON CRACKER.

Rockford, Ill., July 1.—A cannon cracker thrown by a small boy last night frightened a horse driven by Mr. and Mrs. William Knott, an aged couple, living near here, and in the ensuing runaway both were thrown out and seriously injured.

BRITAIN'S KING HOME AGAIN.

London, July 1.—King Edward reached London today from Kiel. He was warmly greeted by crowds of people assembled at the station. Among them was a big gathering of Salvation Army visitors from foreign countries, who had expressed a desire to see the king and for whom special provision had been made on the platform of the station.
