WHAT WOMEN WANT TO KNOW By Marion Alcott Prentice. TO DARKEN LONCE EYEBROWS--I am a blonde and my eyebrows are scarcely noticeable, they are so thin and light. How can I make them heavier?-- Helen. Your eyebrows can be greatly improved in a few months by careful training. Daily brushing from the inner corner toward the temple will excite the hair follicles to more healthy action and cause the growth to assume a pretty curve. An application of plain yellow vasoline will stimulate growth and darken the shade of the hair in a few weeks. As a matter of convenience, two small brushes should be used and kept expressly for this purpose. One brush should be kept perfectly dry to complete the day toilet and the other used for applying the oil. Either the very small nail brushes or small tooth brushes, such as are sold for the use of children, will answer the purpose nicely. After the night's face bath, dip a brush in vasoline and gently stroke the eyebrows, always outward, following their natural outline. Careless use of the brush or the finger tips will dislodge many hairs which might otherwise be preserved. Repeat the application until the skin will absorb no more oil, occupying ten or fifteen minutes in the work. With a soft cloth wipe away any surplus on either side of the brows. I suggest this as a matter of neatness as well as to prevent an irregular or superfluous growth of hair on the face. Be sure, however, you leave the hair of the eyebrows quite oily. Once or twice during the day you may also apply a very little vasoline to the brows; if carefully done it will not give the skin a greasy appearance and will materially hasten the darkening process.

QUESTION FOR TOMORROW. TO BLEACH THE SKIN--I would be most grateful if you would tell me the proportions and how often to apply peroxide of hydrogen to successfully bleach the face, without injuring the skin.-- E. E. B. A lovely complexion commands admiration. Improve yours using our local Satin-Skin Cream and Satin-Skin Complexion Powder. 25c. CLUBS AND CHARITIES Club Calendar. TUESDAY-- W. C. T. TO SOCIAL CIRCLES Much to the surprise of everybody, the Minnikahda club has been a jolly center today. As the Fourth fell on a Monday, the house committee expected that most of the members would go to the lake or country to spend a short vacation and made no plans for a club celebration. But all day members have been driving out to spend an hour or two at the club, and at noon the dining-room was thronged with informal luncheon groups. This evening about 100 members will be illuminated with Japanese lanterns. As no display of fireworks has been arranged for, the members will come laden with their own rockets and roman candles and will have a merry time firing them. Last evening Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hood gave a dinner at the Minnikahda club for Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Lamb and their guests on board the houseboat. Covers were laid for fourteen.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. The Kind You Have Always Bought. Bears the signature of J. C. Watson.

Saturday evening there were a large number of guests at the Minnikahda club, and after dinner dancing was a pleasant feature. Mr. and Mrs. Prudent Vien Cummings today celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding, which took place in Canada. In honor of the occasion, high mass was celebrated in Notre Dame de Lourdes church, to which the large family party was taken in trolley. Ushering the guests to their seats in the church were four of the grandchildren--Miss Adeline Grant and Florence Bissonnette and Messrs. Frank La Belle and Calice Cummings. Following the mass the party went to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cummings on 624 University avenue SE, where the festivities were continued. It is regarded as particularly fortunate that all the nine children are living and able to attend the celebration, tho they are scattered from Minneapolis to Seattle. Mrs. Ida La Belle, oldest of the children, is of Minneapolis; Charles V. Cummings is of Seattle; Mrs. Clara Grant, Mrs. Mamie Bissonnette and T. J. Cummings are of Minneapolis; and Calice V. Cummings is from Salt Lake, Utah. Twenty-six grandchildren were present in Canada, all oldest than himself, and that his father died at the age of 108.

Gray. While the ushers, Jesse Jay Haw and Eugene Ford, were seating the guests, Mrs. Walter Scott played selections from "Lannhauser," changing to the "Lohengrin" wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson on Fourteenth street S, when their daughter, Hilda, became the bride of August Peterson. Rev. C. J. Petroski officiated. The bride was dressed in Persian lawn and carried white roses. Miss Tena Gundersen was maid of honor and Emilie Peterson acted as best man. Charles Gundersen and Miss Josie Johnson of Northfield, Minn., completed the bridal party. The out-of-town guests were Dr. C. E. Lundgren of Harris, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Tingstrom and Victor Peterson of North Branch, Minn. Mr. and Mrs. Peterson will make their home at Harris, Minn.

Leavitt of 617 Delaware street, are home from the West Indies. Mrs. E. Alden Smith has gone east to join Miss Alice Smith at the seashore. Mr. Smith accompanied her to Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Miller and son of Milwaukee, Wis., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Miller of 8109 Lyndale avenue S. Victoria Grove, No. 4, Woodmen circle, W. O. W., will give a picnic Sunday at Como park. The committee has prepared a program of games and races, and prizes will be offered. The Enterprise Social club will have its annual outing Thursday at Medicine lake. The members will meet at 8 o'clock with Mrs. E. A. Johnson of 2914 Fourteenth avenue S and drive out to the lake. Minneapolis people at New York hotels are as follows: Manhattan, S. T.
