

In Labor's Field PLAN VISIT FROM JOHN MITCHELL

FIRST IN WINTER'S SERIES OF EDUCATIONAL MEETINGS.

Trades and Labor Assembly Arranging to Have President Come Here Upon Return from Attending Federation of Labor Convention at San Francisco.

It has been decided that the educational meetings series of the Trades and Labor Assembly are to be continued the coming winter. The series held by the assembly last winter proved beneficial in many ways, and an effort will be made to outline a program that will be attractive. At Wednesday night's meeting the committee having charge of this work was enlarged from three to eight members, and is made up as follows: E. G. Hall, chairman; L. Lund, T. E. Lees, J. Chubbuck, Mrs. E. J. Whitlock, P. M. Wilson, Miss Anna M. Rosch and A. E. Kellington.

A communication has been sent to John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, inviting him to speak under the auspices of the assembly some time after the convention of the American Federation of Labor, to be held in San Francisco next month, and the committee hopes to be able to announce a date for Mr. Mitchell shortly. There will be a meeting of the committee at the office of the cigarmakers' union, in Union Temple, Monday afternoon at 6 o'clock.

"42'S" BIRTHDAY

Thirty-second Anniversary to Be Celebrated by Social Reunion.

Joint committees from Minneapolis Typographical Union, No. 42, and the Ladies' auxiliary met Monday afternoon and completed arrangements for an open meeting to be held at A. O. U. W. hall, 15-17 Seventh street S., on Saturday evening, Oct. 29. The gathering will be of a social character and will be for the families of union printers.

Plans for the celebration of the thirty-second anniversary of the Typographical Union have so far progressed that the committee in charge has announced that the Union theater has been secured for the occasion and the date is Friday, Jan. 13. A vaudeville program, banquet and dance will be features of the event, but full particulars will be published later.

The meeting of the union Sunday afternoon will be an important one. A plan for the reduction of local dues will be considered, reports of committees having the anniversary celebration and joint open meeting in charge will report, and announcement of the result of the vote of the membership on the eight-hour-day proposition will be made.

LABORERS WITHDRAW

Surprising Action in View of Coming International Convention.

Delegates of the Building Laborers' Union have been withdrawn from the Trades Assembly. The reason is not definitely known, but it is said that the assembly were somewhat surprised at the action of the laborers, especially in view of the fact that the latter are making preparations to entertain the international convention in this city in January. A committee from the assembly will visit the laborers next Wednesday evening to ascertain their reasons for withdrawing, and incidentally to induce them to return.

Plans for entertaining the delegates to the Building Laborers' convention are progressing satisfactorily, and the various unions in the city will be invited to assist. The joint committee from Unions No. 11 and No. 14 have the arrangements in hand.

JAMES H. MORROW'S DEATH

Founded Retail Clerks' Protective Association, and Notable Labor Leader

James H. Morrow, who died recently in St. Paul, was the founder of the Retail Clerks' Protective association. His connection with the association goes back to its institution in 1888, when he, with three others, organized the first local in St. Paul, he being elected the first president. Shortly afterward the international body was instituted.

Millions of the world's best people use Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, for baby rashes, itching and chafings, for annoying irritations, or too free or offensive perspiration, for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sensitive, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, especially mothers, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath and nursery. and Mr. Morrow enjoyed the honor of being selected as the first international president. For many years he had been active in the cause of unionism, and held the office of president of the Minnesota State Federation of Labor and also the office of chief executive of the St. Paul Trades and Labor Assembly. At the time of his death he was a member of the St. Paul Retail Salesmen's association. Mr. Morrow was an ardent laborer and a devoted unionist. He was a member of the St. Paul Trades and Labor Assembly and the Retail Clerks' association, and the Minneapolis clerks' organization was represented by Karl Pomeroy, D. W. Allison and Fred Worley, who carried a beautiful floral design from their union. Thomas W. Score, past president of Retail Clerks' association No. 2, delivered a fitting eulogy over the remains. Suitable resolutions have been passed by the twin city clerks' organizations.

KELLINGTON'S MISSION

Visits Pacific Coast in Behalf of Flour Mill Employees.

A. E. Kellington, secretary-treasurer of the International Union of Flour and Cereal Mill Employees, will attend the convention of the American Federation of Labor as a delegate from his union. Mr. Kellington will be absent about a month. While on the coast he will pay fraternal visits to the unions at Los Angeles, Sacramento, Marysville, Stockton, Oakland and San Francisco, and will visit the local at Kansas City either going or coming.

International President Arthur Ogg, who went to the coast a couple of months ago, has found employment in a mill at Seattle, and may settle there. He will look after the interests of the organization in the northern coast territory.

THE FIGHT OVER GOMPERS

Opposition to His Re-election Backed by Some Shrewd Wirepullers.

James Duncan, president of the Granite Cutters' National union, has been placed in the field to oppose Samuel Gompers for re-election as president of the American Federation of Labor. It is said that the opposition to Gompers is led by John Mitchell of the Mine Workers and Daniel J. Keefe of the Longshoremen's unions, both of whom are members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor. Rumor credits John B. Lennon, treasurer, and W. J. Spencer of the executive council, with leaning toward Duncan. Frank Morrison is on both the Gompers and Duncan slates for re-election. James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical union, of which Morrison is a member, is said to be with the opposition to Gompers. Gompers' friends on the executive council are said to be James O'Connell of the machinists, Frank Morris-son of the printers, Max Morris of the retail clerks and Thomas I. Kidd of the woodworkers, with Daniel Hayes of the glass-bottle blowers on the doubtful list. It is said the shrewdest wirepullers in the American labor movement are behind the movement to defeat Gompers, and they claim that they have already enough votes to accomplish their aim. While all declare him a remarkable man, and his honesty and sincerity in the labor movement is unquestioned, they say that changing conditions demand that the policy of the American Federation of Labor should be changed.

Few men of prominence in local union circles believe that Mr. Gompers can be defeated, and it is said that the opposition comes principally from an element in the federation which has been for years endeavoring to commit the organization to socialism.

AGAINST WAR FOR GREED

Workingsmen of Boston Support International Peace Congress.

A workmen's public mass meeting was held in Faneuil hall, Boston, in connection with the international peace congress. Every labor union in the city was represented, and Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, presided and delivered an address. Prominent labor representatives of Great Britain, France, Belgium and Germany also spoke.

Resolutions were adopted declaring "that we do not and will not submit without urgent protest to the furnishing of men and money for wars of aggression and greed, whether such wars are of one nation against subject people or of a government (as in the state of Colorado) against a peaceful association of sovereign citizens."

Organizing a State Branch.

The application for the charter for the State Branch of the Painters and Decorators' union is being circulated among the various state unions for signatures of the officers. As soon as the necessary names are subscribed, the application will be forwarded to Lafayette, Ind., and the charter will be forwarded to the officers of the Minnesota organization.

Labor in Politics.

Politics is engaging the attention of many of the unions in western states this fall. In Montana and Colorado the unions are taking active part in the campaign, and in the latter state the State Federation of Labor has joined hands with the Western Federation of Miners in an effort to defeat Governor Peabody. It is said that the labor forces in Montana are hopelessly divided, and there is a suspicion expressed that F. Augustus Heinze is working to defeat the labor party organization and defeat their candidates at the approaching election.

Coming Social Events.

The Amalgamated Glass Workers' union will give their fourth annual ball at Holcomb's hall, Saturday evening, Nov. 5.

Hackmen's Union, No. 350, will give its seventh annual ball at Normanna hall, Wednesday evening, Oct. 26.

Flat Janitors' union, No. 109, will hold a dance at Dania hall on Saturday evening, Nov. 12.

Bill Posters' and Billers' union's third annual ball will be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 1.

A masquerade ball will be given by the Photo-Engravers' union, Saturday evening, Oct. 29.

LABOR NOTES.

The local Metal Trades Council has affiliated with the State Federation of Labor.

A large class of candidates was taken into the Bakers' union last Saturday night as a result of the recent organization work.

Seventeen new delegates were seated in the Trades Assembly Wednesday evening.

Blanks are being sent to the secretaries of the different unions throughout the state by the state labor bureau asking for statistical data relative to trade organizations.

A resolution was adopted last week by the St. Paul Journeymen Plasterers' union that for a period of two years no more apprentices would be admitted.

Minneapolis Dressmakers' union will attend a dance at Federation hall, St. Paul, Monday evening, to be given under the auspices of the St. Paul organization.

The executive board of the Minnesota Blue Label League will meet at Federation hall, St. Paul, next Tuesday evening.
