JOHN A. JOHNSON STIRS ST. CLOUD

1,200 PERSONS HEAR HIS CAMPAIGN ADDRESS.

Declares for an Anti-Pass Law and Reiterates His Position Upon Other Proposed Legislation—Dunn and Stevens Speak at the Old Home of Congressman Lind.

Special to The Journal. St. Cloud, Minn., Oct. 26.—John A. Johnson put in a busy day yesterday in the sixth district. Starting from Buffalo yesterday morning at an early hour, accompanied by F. G. Winston and Cleve W. Van Dyke, candidate for congress, he drove to Monticello, where the Great Northern river was taken to St. Cloud. Here a reception committee of prominent citizens, including J. D. Sullivan, chairman of the county committee; Mayor Robinson, Judge Bruner, C. F. McDonald, Frank Zins and other well-known democrats met the party and escorted the candidates to the Grand Central hotel, where lunch had been prepared.

Immediately after dinner Mr. Johnson was taken in an automobile to Foley, the democratic seat of Benton, which is close to Princeton. The trip to Foley was in the nature of a surprise on the flank in the Dunn country. Foley was not among the places to be visited by Johnson, but when the people there learned that he was coming to St. Cloud they insisted that he must visit Foley. The distance from Benton to St. Cloud is an hour, and although there had been but a day in which to advertise the meeting, the courtroom was crowded with farmers, who came from nearly every town in Benton county. Mr. Johnson received a most enthusiastic reception and made a telling speech.

He is a whirlwind, said one of the farmers at the meeting. "If the best man on the stump the democrats ever had in this state. He made lots of votes here."

Evening Meeting at St. Cloud.

In the evening there was a rousing meeting at the opera-house in St. Cloud. Prominent democrats from the county were present, but the republicans vied with the democrats in making Johnson's reception here not only a political success, but a social one. He was not a candidate for governor of his own county, but that a great party had honored him with the nomination and he appreciated it just as much as tho that nomination had come from a majority party.

Johnson Pleases Hearers.

Mr. Johnson spoke last, and his speech fairly captivated the crowd. He said that he was not a candidate for governor of his own county, but that a great party had honored him with the nomination and he appreciated it just as much as tho that nomination had come from a majority party. He was not foolish enough to think he would be elected simply because he was a democrat, but because the people of the state were going to make the democratic party in this campaign the vehicle to good government.

"I am proud," he said, "of the support of the great body of independent voters who are placing the best interests of this state and its good name above their partisanship."

Speaking of the change in the republican northern vote, he said that the overthrowing of Heatwole, who had nominated Dunn, he said:

"Rather than sacrifice my personal or political friends I would resign from the campaign tonight, even if I knew that I was certain of election."

He cited the attitude of the republican press as indicating a revolt in the republican party. He favored a gross earnings tax increase of from 3 to 4 per cent, and said the disgrace of the defeat of that measure was with the majority party. He said he did not think railroad passes were given as bribes, but believed the state was rich enough to pay its servants well, and he would favor a law for pass abolishment, the same as in Wisconsin.

He promised if elected to institute suits against all trespassers and endeavor to recover moneys that belonged to the state, and said that the laws would be rigidly enforced. The great issue in this campaign, he contended, was whether the state administration should be controlled by special interests or whether the state should be governed for all alike.

BEGGING THE QUESTION

Stevens Prefesses to See Danger to Nelson if Dunn Is Defeated. New Ulm, Minn., Oct. 26.—R. C. Dunn and Congressman Stevens were the speakers at the republican rally last night. The latter, in pursuance of the policy of the state organization to raise a bogie and "throw a scare," said:

"The election of Mr. Johnson would mean a determined effort to defeat Senator Knute Nelson. It would be used as an entering wedge to that end, the leading supporters of Mr. Johnson having openly started a war on the senior senator, and to elect Johnson would be to encourage every opponent of Knute Nelson."

PULLING FOR DUNN

Childs and Orr on the Defensive at Lakefield. Special to The Journal. Lakefield, Minn., Oct. 26.—H. W. Childs, George B. Edgerton and C. N. Orr addressed a large and enthusiastic audience in the townhall last night.

Mr. Childs spoke first and paid an eloquent tribute to R. C. Dunn, contending that he was fairly nominated and should have the vote of every republican. Mr. Orr followed with another tribute to Dunn, and Mr. Edgerton took up the question of timber matters in an effort to reply to the findings of the public examiner.

LUMBER RATE IS POLITICAL ISSUE

WEST COAST LUMBERMEN ADOPT HEROIC MEASURES.

They Are Pledging Their Employees and All Whom They Can Influence to Vote Only for Such Legislative Candidates As Will Work for Favorable Rates.

Tacoma, Wash., Oct. 26.—Fifteen hundred lumber manufacturers and dealers have quickly made a campaign issue out of the refusal of the Hill and Harriman railroads to grant a 40-cent rate on fir lumber to Missouri river points, particularly Omaha and St. Louis. The rate is now 40 cents a hundred pounds to the twin cities and 50 cents to Omaha, which is only one mile further distant from Portland, the chief junction point of the Hill-Harriman lines.

The lumbermen claim they are paying more than one-third of the gross earnings of the Northern Pacific and Great Northern, yet their earnest request for an extension of the 40-cent rate to points no further distant than Minneapolis has been turned down. The present difference of 10 cents makes a difference of $2 or $3 per 1,000 feet. A reduction would allow Washington lumbermen to compete with the rarer consuming annually 160,000 carloads.

HELP FOR ART STUDY

Appeal to Better Art Conditions for Minnesota Schools. The Minnesota State Art society has sent out circulars to the educational institutions of the state, calling attention to the need of art study in the schools and asking their assistance to better art conditions and to keep the state in a high position in this line of education, as it is in others.

The loan collection of photographs prepared for the use of clubs and students is now ready for circulation. This is one of the means adopted by the society for encouraging and fostering art study.

SEEMS PROBABLE

Reported Sale of Great Western to Union Pacific.

A report of the option on the Great Western to the Union Pacific fits in well with the recent report that in the settlement of the Hill-Harriman differences the Northern Pacific would go to Mr. Harriman. By the division the Burlington would remain a Hill property, giving the Great Northern a thru line from the coast to Chicago. With the Union Pacific, or Harriman, in control of the Great Western and the Northern Pacific, there would be another thru line from the Pacific coast to Chicago. This two new transcontinental routes would be established and the control of a third, the Union Pacific-Milwaukee line from San Francisco and Portland to Chicago, would be assured Mr. Harriman.

Wants Sugar Rates Cut.

The Missouri River Wholesale Grocers' association had a conference with railway executive officers yesterday at Chicago in an endeavor to adjust sugar rates from Atlantic seaboard points and New Orleans to Nebraska and interior Kansas jobbing points. Arguments went to show that if present rates continued, jobbing towns on the Missouri river, Kansas City to St. Paul, inclusive, would have to go out of business. The matter was taken under advisement.

Lake Shore Installs Phones.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—A special long distance telephone line, connecting Chicago with Buffalo, has been completed by the Lake Shore & Michigan Southern road, through its telegraph service, and has just been put into operation. The special line connects Chicago, Toledo, Cleveland, Ashtabula, Youngstown and Buffalo, and is an important improvement and facilitates the operation and business of the Lake Shore road.

RAILROAD NOTES.

The Lake Shore road has completed a telephone line from Chicago to Buffalo to assist the telegraph service in the operation of trains and the management of the company's business. It connects with these cities, Toledo, Cleveland, Ashtabula and Youngstown.

It is intended to build the Kettle River Valley railroad from Remoule, Wash., along the San Pull river, across the Big Bend wheat district to Omaha, Kansas City, and to carry ore from Republic to Grand Forks and cost about $1,000,000.

Northern Pacific freight representatives in the eastern and Mississippi valley states will be taken for a trip over the line this week. Commercial and soliciting agents in the east and middle west larger cities will be taken along. The trip is arranged to give the intimate knowledge of the territory reached by their road.
