Christmas at Bethany Home. The directors of Bethany Home would like the help of their friends in provid-ing the annual Christmas gifts of mathe annual confishing girts of material for a gingham dress and a white apron for each woman, a white frock for each little one and a tree and toys for the older children. There are at present 100 women and children in the home, and to carry out the usual Christ-mas celebration will require a larger expenditure than the directors feel equal to without outside aid. Contributions may be sent direct to the home, 3719 Bryant avenue S, or they will be called for. The Christmas dinner will be served on Christmas Day, and the tree will be a feature of Saturday or Monday.

Boston Tea Party Anniversary.

The 130th anniversary of the Boston tea party was celebrated this afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. C. Ball, 2009 West Twenty-first street, when Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Luther Ford and Mrs. J. A. Brant entertained the members of Minneapolis chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Flags and the blue and white of the chapter were com-bined with the Christmas holly and greens in a most effective manner. Mrs. E. J. M. Newcomb read a poem on the Boston tea party and there was music by Miss Edna Funke. Later light re-freshments were served.

A jolly Christmas frolic was enjoyed this afternoon at the Young Woman's Christian association by the members of the children's gymnasium class which meets Saturday mornings. About seventy-five children from 6 to 16 years of age gathered in the gymnasium where a big Christmas tree occupied a conspicuous place. Each had brought a package which was hung on the tree, and after games and marches each child drew a number and in turn marched

The largest affair of the day was the tea which Mrs. Henry Winfield Brazie gave at her home, 1604 Clinton avenue, for Miss Susanna E. Sirwell, whose marriage takes place next week. The hours were from 3 until 6 o'clock and about two hundred and fifty women called. The rooms were bright with a holiday decoration of green and red, and evergreens and holly formed an attractive background against which blazed the Christmas flower, the poinsettia. Poinsettia blossoms were also in the diningroom and red tapers and greens aided in making the table beautiful. Mrs. Brazie and Miss Sirwell received alone, and assisting thru the rooms were Mmes. Anna Barber, J. E. Painter and Warren Bartholff. Mrs. rooms were Mmes. Anna Barber, J. E. Painter and Warren Barthofff. Mrs. George M. Keith poured tea and was assisted by a group of young girls. At this season tomatoes of the hothouse variety are rather beyond the purses of most buyers, and their quality is none too good at the best. There is a very satisfactory substitute, however, in the solid pack salad tomatoes in cans. These are large tomatoes, carefully se-lected for their thick flesh and cooked only enough to keep. These tomatoes thoroly drained and chilled can be used with satisfaction in almost all recipes calling for fresh tomatoes. The color is the thing sought oftentimes in using tomatoes, but this can be obtained from another canned vegetable and greater novelty achieved in a salad at the same time. The sweet red peppers known as pimentoes come in cans and the flame-colored strips embellish a green salad wonderfully. The salad tomatoes sell for 18 cents and the pimentoes for 25 cents. Pimentoe-stuffed olives can now Breitner's orchestra will give a dance this be bought in bulk for 50 cents a quart.

"When I commenced taking your medicines, eighteen months ago, my health was completely broken down," writes Mrs. Cora L. Sunderland, of Chaneyville, Calvert Co., Md. "At times I could not even walk across the room without pains in my chest. The doctor who altended me said I had lung trouble, and that I would never be well again. At last I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's medicines. I bought a bottle of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' took it, and soon commenced to feel a little better, then you directed me to take both the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and the 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did. Altogether I have taken eighteen bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' twelve of the 'Favorite Prescription,' and five vials of 'Pellets.' I am now almost entirely well, and do all my work without any pain whatever, and can run with more ease than I could formerly walk."
