Another Favors Union

St. Paul Presbytery Votes on Unioning With Cumberland Church.

Minneapolis and St. Paul Presbyterians will hold a two-day conference, beginning at the House of Hope in St. Paul, Feb. 5, and concluding in some Minneapolis church. The meeting is called at the suggestion of Dr. W. H. W. Boyle, chairman of the evangelistic committee, and will consider questions of spiritual interest as well as an aggressive reaching for outlying mission parts.

At the meeting of St. Paul presbytery yesterday the admission of the eastern with the Cumberland Presbyterian church was voted on favorably; also the matter of formation of presbyteries within presbyteries. The adoption of this plan will remove one obstacle to the Cumberland union, allowing negro churches in the south to have separate presbyteries.

In response to petition, the Reformed Presbyterian church at Anoka will be transferred into a regular Presbyterian church. Rev. Murdoch McLeod was dismissed from the Merrimack Park church to Des Moines, Iowa.

NEWSIES AT UNIQUE

They Will Be Guests of Manager Gallagher Thursday Night.

Matt Gallagher, manager of the Unique theater, will play host on Thursday night to the Journal's newsboys. He has invited 200 of the youngsters to attend the Unique's 9 o'clock performance, and to attend the 9:30 o'clock performance, at which The Journal band will also be present.

The headliner at the Unique theater this week, in the shape of moving pictures from the opera "Parsifal," eclipses anything of its kind that has ever been shown here in vaudeville. This presentation alone is sufficient to make the performance a success from an entertainment point of view.

The magnificence of the great opera which took New York by storm with its lavishness of stage settings is reproduced with all the fidelity that photography can give. Scene after scene that awakened the admiration of the eastern orchestra before the audience. With the "Parsifal" music that is played by the orchestra a completeness is afforded that scarcely seems possible, until one has witnessed these pictures.

POULTRY SHOW ENDS

The Great Exhibition Closes With a Large Attendance.

Poultry, cats and dogs—all are gone. The International Poultry show came to a close last night.

The closing moments were honored by the presence of two distinguished bodies, namely, the state legislators and the Minneapolis newsboys. It would be difficult to say which body attracted the greater attention. It is certain the newsies made the most noise.

Nearly every bird, cat and dog remained on exhibition up to the very last moment. The show was a dash and a success. The Humane society, which conducted a luncheon during the show, did a successful business and made more money than anybody.

BANKERS GO TO WIS.

Twin City Men Will Help Form a District Organization.

Several Minneapolis and St. Paul bankers left this morning for Eau Claire, Wis., to take part in the formation of a district group, such as have been created in this state corresponding in part to congressional districts.

These bodies have proved very effective in Minnesota and the local bankers will relate experiences.

Joseph Chapman, Jr., secretary of the Minnesota Bankers' association, headed the party. Others were George B. Lane, E. M. Stevens, D. S. Culver and W. B. Geery of St. Paul. W. I. Nolan went along by request, but his speech at the banquet tonight will not directly concern finance.

GRACIE MOWER STRIPPED

Excursion Steamer Robbed of Everything That Was Portable.

Thieves who must have used a dory, invaded the steamer Gracie Mower at her winter berth, in St. Paul, and left little but the hull and boilers. Every bit of metal that could be detached and carried away was taken, the thieves hauling away the dynamo, the gasoline lighting apparatus, the brass work, the plumbing, the nickel work, piping, canvas covering and steering apparatus.

Captain J. C. Smith is owner of the boat which is an excursion craft, flying in summer between Minneapolis, Fort Snelling and St. Paul.

KNIPFEN IS PRESIDENT

Hodcarriers and Building Laborers Elect Officers.

Contrary to expectation the election of officers yesterday afternoon at the international convention of Hodcarriers and Building Laborers passed off quietly. Balloting closed at 7 o'clock, and as soon as the results were known most of the delegates took their departure on the night train.

President Herman Lillien was not a candidate for re-election. Michael Knipfen of Chicago was elected to succeed him, defeating Vice President Peter Larson of Philadelphia. H. A. Stemburgh, secretary, was re-elected.

Herman Lillien, Michael Knipfen and Timothy Dunn of Chicago were chosen to represent the international at the convention of Structural Building Trades council in Buffalo next August; Herman Lillien and W. Koerning of Chicago, at the convention of the A. F. of L. next November in Pittsburg.

The records of the day—deaths, births, marriages, hotel arrivals, railway time tables, real estate transfers, building permits and other information of interest will be found, together with want advertisements on page 14 of this issue.

WATKINS SIGNS HEAVY HITTERS

TWO "THREE-HUNDRED" MEN FOR THE MILLERS.

Scharnweber Comes from Detroit American League Club and Kunkle from the Southern League—Watkins Wants Fans to Pick Color of Trimmings for New Uniforms.

Magnate Watkins of the Minneapolis club of the American association is buying players for this year's club. He has purchased the release of Scharnweber of Detroit, an infielder who led the Three-I league in batting last year and was Detroit's star after the close of the season. He has also closed a contract with Harry Kunkle, a three-hundred hitting catcher of the Southern league. "Kunk" has batted over 300 for three years and the signing of these men, together with Gremlinger and other heavy hitters of last year's team, would indicate that "Watty" was intending to give Minneapolis an aggregation of leather larrupers without peers in the league.

This year the club will wear gray uniforms on the road and white at home. The color of the trimmings has not been decided upon and Watkins wishes to hear from the fans as to the colors to choose. Letters can be addressed to the Minneapolis office, "Dick" Dickson, 1111 Hennepin, to start out next week on a new score card which is declared to be the greatest thing since Wyatt Lee knocked the ball over the Nicollet avenue fence twice on the same day.

The Plymouth Exclusive Linen Laundry, Established 1893. The cleanest laundry. Underwear, hosiery, etc., excluded. Shirts hand-ironed. Collars and cuffs finished equal to new. Call and examine. And, until March 1, every Dollar's worth of paid laundry slips entitles you to one new collar, "Lion Brand," free.

LEGISLATORS COMPLAIN

They Have to Walk to Old Capitol to Read Up on Laws.

The supreme court and the lawyers in the legislature are at loggerheads over the state law library. The library remains at the old state capitol building, and the members of the legislature who want to consult it have a pleasant half-mile walk before reaching the books. They have asked the supreme court to move immediately, and the judges' quarters are ready, but the court declines to move until the shelves have arrived and are put in place for the files. This decision was arrived at after a long consultation with the court.

The vaultroom provided for the files of the clerk's office is not sufficient. Many valuable papers in the records of the court will have to be stored outside the vault.

Cass Gilbert, architect of the building, visited it yesterday afternoon. He said he was unable to discover any complaint from state officers as to the quarters assigned to the newsboys. The press gallery he said that his original plans had not arranged for newspaper men in the gallery, but they were changed at the request of members of the legislature.

FOUR LOVING HEARTS FILLED WITH GRIEF

Four lovers left the clerk of court's office this morning, their dream of wedded bliss destroyed forever. The first man and the maid approached Deputy Clerk Switzer's marriage license desk with joy shining from their countenances. The clerk asked the usual questions, "You are neither of you epileptic, imbecile, feeble-minded or afflicted with insanity?" asked the clerk.

"Why, James, you have those epileptic fits sometimes. Can't people who have them be married?" said the girl.

"But you knew I had them before," exclaimed the disconcerted young man.

"You love me, don't you, and want to be my wife?"

Slowly the young woman shook her head. "Yes, she said, 'I love you and I want to be your wife.' But you must be more serious than I thought. It's the law and I'm afraid, James, it can never be."

With her head she turned and slowly left the office. The dazed man hesitated and then followed her out.

Louis Brinkerhoff and Irene Purdy of East Grand Forks, Minn., also applied for a license this morning.

"Where do you reside?" asked the clerk.

"In East Grand Forks," was the reply.

"Well, I can't issue a license unless the lady lives in this county," was the reply.

The clerk was inexorable and the woman's pleadings had no effect. The two finally left the office much cast down.

LIVELY CHASE FOR THIEF

He Darts Off While Detectives Are Digging for His "Plant."

John Goldberg's desperate attempt to escape from two detectives and their feigned attempt to shoot him as he ran, was a hotly contested chase that ended in a dash and a dash.

The young fugitive was arrested with his "plant" early yesterday and charged with stealing a gold watch from a lodger at the Glenwood hotel, 13 Washington avenue N. After his arrest, Goldberg was taken to the police station where the watch had been "planted."

He led them to the rear of the hotel and pointed to a large pile of snow, telling them that if they would dig they would find the watch. While they were digging, Goldberg stood by talking to his father, who had accompanied them. Suddenly the boy made a dash and reached the avenue almost before the officers could get their feet.

Helin and Hansen then started in pursuit and the boy made a good start, fired several shots to frighten him. This had the desired effect and the fugitive stopped in front of the Dewey theater. A large crowd had gathered, expecting to see the finish of a double tragedy.

With the boy again in custody the officers returned to their search and uncovered the watch. Goldberg, with his father, John O'Brien and Richard Schwappach, are charged with grand larceny and are also believed to have been implicated in the robbery of Bert Skidmore near the Central station two weeks ago.

Goldberg and Schwappach pleaded guilty in municipal court this morning. Goldberg asked to be allowed to work on probation. He was sentenced to three months in the workhouse, and his record will be looked up before probation proceedings.

Schwappach's mother said she was unable to do anything with her son. He will go to the training school. John O'Brien at the time of the theft was on probation and will go with Schwappach to Red Wing.

ONLY TWO DRUNKS

Results of Closed Saloons Apparent in the Police Court.

But two lonely drunks faced Judge E. F. Waite in the police court this morning.

Yesterday the saloons all over the city were closed while the polls were open for the special election in the fifth ward. When they reopened early in the evening, Peter Nelson and Fred Neiman had to hurry in to drink to prevent a vacancy in the drunk column of the day's police record.

Both pleaded guilty and each went up for ten days.

BUYS IOWA LUMBER YARDS.

The W. W. Johnson Lumber company of Minneapolis has bought four retail yards in Iowa from the H. L. Jenkins Lumber company. They are at Truesdale and Rembrandt on the St. Louis road, and Roman and West Bend on the Rock Island road. This company recently bought retail yards from the Lamb Lumber company.

LOCAL MILLERS ENTER THE FIGHT

FILE FORMAL PROTEST AGAINST RATE DISCRIMINATION.

NEW YORKERS DO NOT REALIZE THEIR DANGER.

Minneapolis millers entered the rate controversy today, and at a local meeting of western roads representatives, filed formal protest against discriminating rates against the grain trade.

The Minneapolis grain trade has been working with the roads for more equitable grain rate readjustment with reference to eastbound Chicago, from Mississippi river crossings, Chicago, largely as a counter move, has raised a mighty protest against Minneapolis and the Gulf ports. A western rate situation already serious enough to demand the attention of every western road is now further complicated by the presentation of a milling trade grievance.

The specific charge is against East St. Louis export rates of 12 1/2c on flour to Baltimore. While lake and rail rates, striking Minneapolis at the close of the year, were 13c from East St. Louis to Baltimore or Virginia ports, and 17 1/2c Minneapolis to Baltimore. The all-rail rates, striking Minneapolis at the close of the year, were 13c from East St. Louis to Baltimore or Virginia ports, and 17 1/2c Minneapolis to Baltimore. The all-rail rates, striking Minneapolis at the close of the year, were 13c from East St. Louis to Baltimore or Virginia ports, and 17 1/2c Minneapolis to Baltimore.

The western freight men have issued a call to the central traffic lines for a conference on the matter in Chicago, later in the week. The western roads favor a reduction in the Minneapolis rates, but can do nothing alone.

The Great Western has made a rate of 10c on wheat flour to Minneapolis, and that an effort will be made to bring some of the 3 hard winter wheat from Chicago to the Minneapolis mills. Local grain men do not think this will have much effect for the reason that there is an existing rate on wheat from Kansas City to Minneapolis through Chicago, via the Atchison and Wisconsin Central, of about 12c.

COURT CLERKS MEET

Minnesota Doctores Choose Simmons of Austin as President.

The clerks of courts of Minnesota met yesterday in annual convention at St. Paul. There was a general discussion of the effect of the proposed code revision law on the clerks' offices, and it was decided that the most effective way of handling this new legislation was for each of the members from his district to call on the clerks' offices, and to discuss the matter with the clerk in charge. The following officers were elected for 1905: President, O. J. Simmons, Austin; vice president, H. Mueller, St. Cloud; secretary, H. J. Ramset, William; treasurer, John Reetz, Hastings.

CLUB MAY DO IT

Chamber of Commerce Will No Longer Complete Shipping Figures.

Who is going to collect Minneapolis' general shipping statistics after the Chamber of Commerce ceases that work in February? This question was discussed yesterday by the public affairs committee of the Commercial club. With the end of the year the Chamber of Commerce will stop gathering statistics, except those related to the grain business. It is of absolute importance that facts in regard to other commodities be collected and preserved, and this work seems likely to fall on the Commercial club.

LADIES' MATINEE AT THE DEWEY.

For the ladies' matinee Friday the management of the Dewey theater has made arrangements for presenting souveners to the patrons. The Scribner and Drew company are presenting the musical extravaganza, "The Devil's Daughter," with over forty people, many being members of the original cast. The chorus is a large one and displays a wardrobe the like of which has never been seen at the Dewey.

SLEEPING OVER A LIVE VOLCANO

MINNEAPOLIS MAN LOSES VALUABLE FURNISHED COAT AT AUTOMOBILE SHOW AND WANTS IT BACK—WILLIAM P. SHATTUCK, DEAD SHOT, WAITS FOR POLICE TO RECOVER STOLEN PROPERTY.

New York is sleeping over a volcano and with the usual provincialism and self-satisfaction of that benighted village, does not realize the danger. There is a mad Minneapolis man nursing his wrath and growing madder every minute. New Yorkers had best take to the Hoboken heights or crawl into their new subway. William P. Shattuck of Minneapolis, the avenger, is on the warpath. Shattuck went to New York to exploit a new invention at the automobile show. He wore an overcoat the like of which has never been known before. It was a beautiful garment, lined with muskrat skins. The muskrats furnishing the lining were all victims of the rifle of Mrs. Shattuck. Every rat was killed while Mrs. Shattuck accompanied her husband on an automobile trip thru Minnesota and South Dakota last year.

Last night when Shattuck started to leave the show, he found that some frenzied financier of Gotham had stolen the coat. The loss was reported to the police and they promised to search the street early this morning. If the coat is not recovered, there is likely to be trouble in Manhattan. Shattuck is a crack rifle and a pistol shot and can hit gophers in the eye with a rifle while sitting in an automobile going forty miles an hour.

Shattuck's friends stated that coat above all other worldly possessions. He declares New York advises say, that he must have it back. If he does not get it, there is danger of more excitement on Broadway than there has been since Harry Lehr waded thru the fountain. Shattuck's coat had best be found.
