15 YEARS OF TORTURE

Itching and Painful Sores Covered Head and Body.

CURED IN WEEK BY CUTICURA

"For fifteen years my scalp and forehead was one mass of scabs, and my body was covered with sores. Words cannot express how I suffered from the itching and pain. I had given up hope when a friend told me to get Cuticura. After bathing with Cuticura Soap and applying Cuticura Ointment for three days, my head was as clear as ever, and to my surprise and joy, one cake of soap and one box of ointment made a complete cure in one week." My Offer to Kidney Sufferers

I will give you a full dollar's worth of my remedy free to try without cost or deposit or promise to pay.

I could not make this offer—a full dollar's worth free—unless were an ordinary kidney remedy. It is not. It treats not the kidneys themselves, but the nerves that control them. The cause of kidney trouble lies always in these nerves. The only way to cure kidney trouble is by strengthening and vitalizing and restoring these kidney nerves. That is exactly what my remedy, Dr. Shoop's Restorative—does. Therefore I can make this offer with the certain knowledge that every kidney sufferer who makes this trial will be helped.

When I say "nerves" I do not mean the ordinary nerves of feeling, thought, action. I mean the automatic nerves which, day and night, regulate, control and actuate and operate every vital process of life. These are the master nerves. The kidneys are their slaves. Your mind cannot control them. Your will cannot sway them. Yet when they are strong, you are well; when they are not, you are weak and die.

I have written a book on the kidneys which will be sent you when you write. This book explains fully and clearly how these tiny "master nerves" control the kidneys, but such of the other vital organs.

I have made my offer that strangers to my remedy may know it is not intended for open to those who have used my remedy. They need no further evidence. But to those who have not heard, or hearing, may have delayed or doubted, I say "fully write and ask." I will send you an order for which your druggist will hand you a full dollar bottle—and he will send the bill to me. There are no conditions or requirements—simply write me today.

For a free order for Book 1 on Dyspepsia, a full dollar bottle Book 2 on the Heart, you must address Dr. Book 3 on the Kidneys, Shoop, Box 3820, Ra. Book 4 for Women, Mine, Wis. State which Book 5 for Men, book you want. Book 6 on Rheumatism.

Mild cases are often cured with one or two bottles. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.

Accused of remaining in Minneapolis several days without leave and refusing to return to Fort Snelling when ordered to do so, Captain John J. O'Connell, Twenty-eighth infantry, will be tried by court-martial at the post.

The records of the day—deaths, births, marriages, hotel arrivals, railway timetables, real estate transfers, building permits and other information of interest—will be found, together with want advertisements on page 12 of this journal.

Plans drawn for the new Boutell building by Sedgwick & Saxton show little exterior change from the old structure. The second floor windows are arranged to give more light. The estimated cost is about $125,000. Pike & Cook as the contractors.

J. V. Kelly, an employee of the Minneapolis General Electric company, was arraigned in police court this morning charged with embezzling electric light globes from his employers. He waived examination and was held to the grand jury in $500 bail.

Improvements under way at the Windsor hotel will cost $8,000. The main dining room on the second floor and the west half of the ground floor are being made over for W. A. Shannon, the proprietor. The new cafe will be ready in about two weeks.

Miss Isabel Kelley, 1519 Second street N.E., who was reported to the police as missing from her home last Saturday, denies the report and says she is unable to account for her absence. She says that she has been at home continually. The matter was reported to the police by telephone and they do not know who the informant was.

There was no business of importance at the ministers' meetings this morning. The Methodistists listened to a paper by Rev. J. H. Miller of Simpson church on "The Relation of the Epworth League to the Church." The essayist at the Congregational ministers' meeting was Dr. R. P. Herrick, whose subject was "Paul, the Big-hearted Friend." The paper before the Baptist ministers was by a layman, Augustus S. Soares, on "The Deity of Jesus Christ."

WORK FOR EVERYBODY

No healthy man—young or old—need be without work, if he is only persistent and "looks under every stone." By using Young's Lung and Throat Remedy, positions to be filled, and of telling your own wants, your efforts are sure to be rewarded. Here are a few good positions offered in Saturday's Journal:

Young men wanted for jobbing house. An optician to take charge of photographic supply department. A druggist to take full charge of drug store.

Hardware man for wholesale house. Lumber bookkeeper; salary $1,200. Young man for delivery wagon. Harnessmaker for good country shop. Drug clerk for Butte, Mont.; wages $100.

Printer to take charge of weekly paper. It is an axiom as true as a proverb that "a man who works for the business when all other means fail. Call 'Main Nine, either line,' for information or assistance on want ads. It's a pleasure to serve you.

RETURN PASSAGE FREE

Government to Deport Scandinavian After His Good Visit.

Because his brother changed his mind, Johan Jacobson, a Scandinavian, is going to have a free passage back to his home country under the care of the immigration department. Jacobson came to Minneapolis from Finland by the steamer Halifax, N. B., with $25. The immigration inspectors thought he was a bit queer and detained him, but he was clever enough to escape across the border and his brother at De la Mere, N. D., who had paid his passage, promised to take care of him.

However, the brother soon decided that Jacobson's visit to this country was not intended for the purpose of communicating with the immigration authorities and has consented to have his brother deported. Jacobson is pronounced dull and demented. He has false ideas that he is to be absolutely original in the history of dementia, but it is not likely that he will be detained by any professors.

STATE TO PAY RAILROAD FARES

ANOTHER BILL PROJECTED TO GO WITH ANTIPASS MEASURE.

One Member Has a Plan for Providing Transportation for Legislators and State Employees—He Would Have Mileage Books Bought and Handled from State Auditor's Office.

Members of the legislature are getting stirred up on the railroad pass problem. The antipass bill already introduced is suggesting other measures, such as the 2-cent fare bill.

One member is preparing a bill to provide state officers and employees, also members of the legislature, with transportation books at the state. This bill is a companion piece to the others.

The members now have a mileage allowance of 30 cents for each mile they travel in district judges' capes. This state a mile this allows for five round trips, but in practice the members do their riding on passes and pocket the mileage.

If fares were reduced to 2 cents, the present mileage allowance would give each member seven and a half round trips. Under the proposed bill, the state auditor would buy a supply of transferring-mileage books at 2 cents a mile, being furnished with a special appropriation to make the purchase. These mileage books would be sent out as needed, with a strict accounting for every mile used.

The auditor would be made the judge as to whether the state should furnish it whenever members had to go home, or to make special trips on state business.

These mileage books would also be supplied to state officers and employees whenever they had journeys to make on public business, and they would be given to district judges who have several counties to cover.

The argument in favor of this bill is that the 2-cent fare can only be required of everybody who pays fare, and the state should pay the same as private citizens. Of course some provision must be made for paying traveling expenses on the bill, the state auditor would buy a supply of transferring-mileage books at 2 cents a mile, being furnished with a special appropriation to make the purchase.

The state auditor would be required to keep an open account of all transportation used, of the person using it, and the purpose.

Two years ago Representative Emmet Mark of Princeton introduced a bill requiring the railroad companies to furnish annuals to members of the legislature at state employees. This plan is in effect in New Jersey, where it is claimed the requirement does away with all sense of obligation to the railroads. The Mark bill was passed by the state house committee in 1903. It may be revived at this session.

NORTH-WESTERN ROAD

MAY BUY THE OMAHA

Purchase of all outstanding stock of the Omaha road by the North-Western, about to be announced, will result in two big advantages to the stockholder. The price is understood to be share for share at $250 cash. The North-Western has for several years owned 98,200 shares of common and 53,800 of preferred Omaha stock, at a cost of $15,000,000, for which it paid on a basis of $104.04 for preferred and $48.40 for common.

"TIGER LILY" FAVORITES

They Reappear at the Dewey With Some New Stunts.

James and Lucia Cooper and several other popular favorites are with the "Tiger Lilies" at the Dewey this week.

Mr. Cooper is better known to the patrons as the man with the large nose and his part in the entertainment keeps the audience in an uproar. He is assisted in his vaudeville turn by Lucia Cooper.

The show opens with a farce entitled "The Chow" in which there are several new and catchy songs and some excellent scenic features. Olga Orloff and Mlle. Bartolotti gave several good incidental specialties. The scenery and the stage setting appropriate.

In the old Morrissey and Fay have a pleasing skit and Orloff sang "The Omaha Standard" and more good songs to new hits. Brown and Robinson are good in rapid-fire repartee.

La Veen and Cross, exponents of physical culture, are the best specialists. Mr. La Veen is an expert in jujitsu and some of his feats along this line are marvelous.

The show closes with a musical farce, "A One Night Show," and more good singing and dancing features are presented.

THOMAS NOT IN STYLE

"Rock of Chickamauga" Accumulates Dust in Old House Chamber.

The house of representatives in 1901 purchased a portrait of the best specialist, H. Thomas, which was hung in the house chamber. The amount paid for the picture was $500.

THEY LOOK LIKE THE REAL THING

ROOSEVELTERS LEARN TO WEAR PETTICOATS WITH GRACE.

A "Professional" Among the Four Hundred Inevitably Guests at the Dress Rehearsal Yesterday Declares that in "Cinderella and the Prince" They Rank with Best Road Companies.

"Cinderella and the Prince," the new Barnet opera which will be presented at the Metropolitan theater for three weeks, is being rehearsed here this evening, is all that the local clubmen have claimed for it. It is bright and witty, very beautifully costumed, and above all, most elaborately staged. The stamp of approval has already been placed upon it by nearly four hundred Minneapolisians, who were the invited guests at the "professional matinee" given at the theater yesterday morning.

The Roosevelt club has been claiming for the months that this year's opera would be the most elaborate production ever put on by the club members. To many outsiders this seemed a very large claim, but the club members' opinion of "Baron Humburg" of last year was considered. But the club has made good its claim, as nothing so elaborate and spectacular has been seen here for several seasons.

In order that the opening performance tonight might be given without a hitch, the club members have had an orchestra and complete stage settings given at the Metropolitan yesterday morning. To this were invited all the theatrical people now in the city, newspapermen and a few friends of the club members. In all nearly four hundred guests were present and judging from the frequent and prolonged applause they enjoyed the performance thoroughly.

"It is simply wonderful," said one of the members of the Ferris Stock company, "but it is a pity that the Roosevelt club should have spoken of very favorably, but this is the first chance we have had to see them. It isn't a chance, it is a duty. It is a duty that the opera this morning, presented as it is, ranks with the very best professional road companies. The show girls are certainly stars. They certainly should be proud of their success."

Of course the dress rehearsal was not absolutely perfect. It wasn't expected to be, but was given for the purpose of finding the defects and remedying them before tonight. The trapdoor didn't always work at the proper moment, and the last act contained a minute late; Saturday and C. Rockwood's goat were not on the best of terms, but they became better friends as the play advanced, and a member of the troupe was seen to be slipping and had to appear in No. 9 street shoes. These minor defects will all be perfected by tonight and a rapid, perfect performance is to be expected.

The play opens on a pretty street scene in Fairville, showing on the one side the store of Titania, exclusive dealer in fairy wings, and on the other side the shop of Sawdust Clean, dealer in everything. Only a few minutes of dialogue takes place before there is a rapid change to the island of Juan Fernandez, the home of Robinson Crusoe, where a rising sea has washed away the island.

The second act portrays the interior of the castle of Heart's Desire, and this is also complete in every detail. The third and last act contains two scenes. The first shows the dingy kitchen, with its huge fireplace, in the corner of which is seated Cinderella, clad in her rags. The good fairies enter, as they wave their magic wands the scene is changed. Before the audience realizes it, the dark and dingy kitchen scene is gone. In its place is a most beautiful stage setting.

The entire company participating in the very spectacular ballet, entitled "The Night Before Christmas." This scene, with its pretty setting and its rapidly moving chorus, most elegantly costumed, is presented by the Roosevelt club.

Tonight's audience will be a representative one, the boxes and most of the parquet will be filled by the Minneapolis society people.

ON THE MAYOR'S DUTY

Rev. A. B. Marshall Says He Should Enforce All the Laws.

To enforce all the laws, and not to act as a mere lawbreaker, is what should be enforced, is the duty which lies close at hand to Mayor Jones and all city administrations, thinks Rev. A. B. Marshall of the First Presbyterian church, who spoke yesterday on "Christianity's Cure for Crime."

Speaking of Mayor Jones' administration, Mr. Marshall expressed the fervent hope that as soon as the machinery of the law had been put into working order, criminals would have to be good or leave Minneapolis. Gamblers, he said, should be prosecuted over and over again, until they were driven out.

Mr. Marshall acknowledged the inevitable character of the red light district, but said it should be segregated, and not allowed either in the business streets or in the residence districts.

POPULAR THOMAS FLYER

Barclay Automobile Company Are Agents for This Well-Known Machine.

Owing to the strong demand for the Thomas Flyer, Premier and Reo cars, the Barclay Auto company has disposed of the Premier and Reo lines to George G. Getts, who will handle them during the coming season under the name of the Reo-Premier Agency at No. 907 Nicollet avenue, where the Barclay Auto company has done business for the past year. The Barclay Auto company will give its undivided time and attention to the Thomas Flyer, which has a long record of successful operation in Minneapolis since its arrival a month ago. The Barclay Auto company will move into a roomy, up-to-date, fireproof garage about April 1, where they will be prepared to take the best care of their customers and friends. They will announce their new location next week.

Mr. Getts will give his sole time to the Reo and Premier cars. The Reo car is the latest product of R. E. Olds, formerly president of the Olds Motor Works, and now president of the Reo Motor Car Company. This new car has a long list of prospective buyers awaiting the arrival of the sample car, which will be on hand for demonstrating about Feb. 1.

PREVENTION TO TAKE PLACE OF PUNISHMENT

Strict reform instead of punishment and publicity is to be tried by the police department in dealing with wayward young girls.

Older persons, on the other hand, who seek to lead the young away from home influences, will receive severe sentences. In speaking of the movement, Matron Sarah Schaeffer of Central station said today:

"We are going to try reform coupled with a private punishment which will not doubt be more beneficial to the young girls who happen to be picked up by the police. In most cases the girls brought in by the police have not violated the laws in particular, and the worst punishment that can be given them is to notify their parents and have them taken home in charge of an officer. In this way the punishment is secret, but none the less effective. It often happens that a girl's first appearance in open court tends to harden her and create a spirit of indifference. Almost any girl would rather face a judge than her own parents after she has transgressed."

Police Superintendent Doyle has notified the officers to keep a sharp lookout for such cases and last Saturday two young girls were rescued by the officers.

The first case was discovered by Patrolman Charles Lawton, who saw a young woman enter a cheap hotel with Fred Haberbusch, a piano player in a low resort. The girl was taken home to her parents and Haberbusch was convicted of disorderly conduct in police court this morning. Judge Waite sentenced him to fifty days in the workhouse.

Patrolman Tony Conroy yesterday saw a young girl entering a Washington avenue lodging-house in company with a woman many years her senior. The girl was taken home.

TO BEAUTIFY PARKS

Artist May Be Employed—Smith Elected President of Board.

FRED L. SMITH, Elected President of the Minneapolis Park Board.

Fred L. Smith was elected president of the park board at the annual meeting Saturday afternoon and Joseph E. Northrup was chosen as vice president. The old staff of officials was re-elected. J. A. Ridgway secretary, William M. Berry superintendent of parks and C. G. Rockwood attorney. The name of A. S. Adams was not proposed when nominations for superintendent were called for.

Proposals will be working. W. B. Decker and J. E. Northrup were authorized to investigate the general subject of an assistant superintendent. The matter was brought up by Commissioner Loring, who said that the park system of Minneapolis should be cared for in a more artistic and scientific manner. The most practical way seemed to be to secure an assistant superintendent thoroughly versed in park art and science, who could succeed Superintendent Berry in due time. He had corresponded with A. Parker of New Haven, who was recognized as an national authority on park matters, and he had suggested several competent men for the position.

MAKING IT "THE FINEST"

Superintendent Doyle Promulgates New Rules for Police Conduct.

Many new orders intended to improve the discipline of the police department have been given out by Superintendent Doyle.

Hereafter men who wear uniforms can not drink intoxicating liquors while on duty, nor smoke any of the cigars handed them by the donors on their beats. Neither must two officers engage in conversation except concerning police business. After this winter coonskin coats will be abolished and only blue flannel garments will be worn. Other new rules have been made for the detective force.
