The rooms were hung with the German flags and the consul and his official guests were in full uniforms. The visiting girls, half a hundred of them, were detained in New Haven by the blizzard, but they stopped the trains, had the impromptu tea and dance, which they arranged as a return courtesy for the men, was one of the jolliest as well as unexpected features of their stay in the college town.

Minneapolis friends will be interested to learn that Mrs. Frank Mackay, who was hurt while riding on the Rapidly recovering, although it will be some weeks before the doctors will be able to pronounce her perfectly well. In commenting on the accident an eastern paper states that the former Minneapolis woman has succeeded in gaining the personal friendship of Queen Alexandra in the shortest time on record. The Duchess of Bedford, who has been visiting with Mrs. Mackay for several years, and who is a personal friend of the queen, brought the two together and after her accident a special messenger from the king and queen went to Kirby Hall to inquire into Mrs. Mackay's condition.

GRAND JURY ON CREOSOTE TRAIL

LAST PAVING CONTRACTS ARE TO BE INVESTIGATED.

Representative of One Company Is Said to Have Complained to an Alderman That a Rival Company Could "Get In" for $1,500—Investigation Is Kept Quiet.

If improper methods were used in the last negotiations for creosote paving, the grand jury purposes to know it. Subsequent to the meeting of the Alderman John Ryan and several citizens credited with knowing something of the alleged manipulations. Great precautions have been taken to keep the investigation secret, and the grand jury appears to be acting upon its own motion.

One member of the city council that awarded the creosote paving contracts is believed to be willing to testify. He is said to have been approached by the agent of one of the competing companies, who complained that the "wise guys in the city council" wanted to have given the names of the "wise guys in the council," and to have told just what price each demanded.

The creosoting companies involved are the Republic and the Southern. The former has secured the city contracts so far, the last ones being let early last season. At that time there was some talk of improper methods, but the contractors gave apparently full explanations, and the figures were too close to allow aldermanic "velvet." In the present instance the unsuccessful company is believed to be unwilling to supply some information.

None of the important witnesses was about the county attorney's office this morning. They were probably not before the jury, but when they are brought in it will be as quietly as possible.

WANTS HER DIAMONDS
Donahue Would Set Aside Divorce from Woman Now Dead.

John Donahue, formerly of St. Paul and now resident of Milwaukee, has commenced an action in the Ramsey county court to set aside his divorce from the late Tillie Donahue, who left diamonds worth $3,000. He asks for the diamonds on the ground that he is still the husband of the deceased, as the divorce decree was never placed on file. Judge Brill has the case under advisement.

SPECIALISTS EXAMINE BOSTROM
Attorneys Confident that They Will Declare Him Insane.

Two well-known specialists in nervous diseases came from St. Paul this morning to examine Axel Bostrom, the alleged forger. If the specialists form the opinion expected by Bostrom's attorneys, their evidence will be in addition to the queer exhibit of earthenware, crockeries and other "curiosities" found in Bostrom's possession. The whole will be submitted to the jury to prove insanity.

MOORE IN DANGER
Man Twice Acquitted of Purse Snatching Is Identified.

It is the official opinion that it will be three times and in when William Moore, the colored man twice acquitted on charges of purse snatching, faces an indictment Monday morning in the Ramsey county court. This morning Natalie Held and her sister were witnesses before the grand jury. They are known to have positively identified Moore as the man who carried a purse from them in broad daylight not long ago. The young women live at Golden Valley and one of them is a student at the state university. Their identification cannot fail to have weight with a jury.

ADVANTAGES OF CITIES
Mrs. Deach Defends the City-Bred Child's Morals and Physique.

The city-bred child has found a defender in Mrs. Deach of Chicago. "Child Life in City and Country" was discussed by Hull House Woman's club lately and the discussion took the usual trend of advocating country life for the idea environment of children. When Mrs. Deach took the floor she stated that she had spent her early life in the country and had taught country children, and she declared: "The city child is a better morally, physically and mentally, in proportion to the population, than the children in the country. The city child has too many attractions to allure him to take him to become vicious. There is just as much immorality, infidelity and depravity in country communities—just as many physically undeveloped and 'flabby' people reared in the country—as you will find, in proportion to the population, in the most congested slum district in the city."

As for city people becoming mental wrecks before their allotted time, said Mrs. Deach, "why must look at the city-bred woman of 50; she's as young in her ways as her country-bred sister of 16, while the woman of 50 in the human waste-heap sits in the corner all day patching quilts, knitting, or mayhap smoking an old pipe, while she awaits her 'summons.' The country makes its people prematurely old."

Physicians Recommend Castoria
CASTORIA has met with pronounced favor on the part of physicians, pharmaceutical societies and medical authorities. It is used by physicians with results most gratifying. The extended use of Castoria is unquestionably the result of three facts: First—The indisputable evidence that it is harmless; Second—That it not only allays stomach pains and quiets the nerves, but assimilates the food; Third—It is an agreeable and perfect substitute for Castor Oil. It is absolutely safe. It does not contain any Opium, Morphine, or other narcotic and does not stupefy. It is unlike Soothing Syrups, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, etc. This is a good deal for a Medical Journal to say. Our duty, however, is to expose danger and record the means of advancing health. The day for poisoning innocent children through greed or ignorance ought to end. To our knowledge, Castoria is a remedy which produces composure and health, by regulating the system—not by stupefying it—and our readers are entitled to the information.—Hall's Journal of Health.

BIG DEMAND FOR AUTOS
Harry Pence Says 1905 Is Going to Be a Great Automobile Year.

Harry E. Pence, of the Pence Automobile company, has just returned from New York, where he paid close attention to the big automobile show. Pence is enthusiastic over the exhibit and declares that it was the largest and best ever given in the country. He is of the opinion that this is the greatest year in the history of the automobile business.

"A great many factories are completely sold out now," said Mr. Pence this morning. "The demand for machines, and good machines, is unprecedented and the big factories are working full capacity to supply the demand. You would have been surprised to have seen the great crowds that thronged the New York show from morning till night. More than a hundred thousand people made a study of the machines there and the salesmen were up a stump unless he knew his machine like a book. Paint and varnish were apparently not so attractive as the mechanical portions of the automobile."

"The American manufacturers exhibited their machines in the Madison Square Garden while the importers sit at Macy & Co.'s building. The home manufacturers drew the crowd, and it was very apparent from a careful study of the machines that foreign cars will be in very little demand in the smaller towns throughout the country. Orders are coming in very rapidly and Minneapolis people are buying good machines. There are going to be more machines than ever sold in the smaller towns throughout the northwest, too. Every day there are prospective purchasers here who are determined to have machines this year. One great thing is going to be in supplying the demand."
