BOSTROM SHOWN AS DRUG FIEND

ALLEGED FORGER'S ATTORNEY OUTLINES A NOVEL DEFENSE.

He Says the Defendant Is a Slave to Morphine and Chloral and Intimates That the Appetite Is Due to Pro-Natal Influences—Motion to Dismiss Is Denied.

"We will show you that the defendant is a confirmed morphine fiend; that he has been addicted to the use of chloral; that his mother before him was a morphine fiend and was addicted to the use of drugs at the time of the defendant's birth."

The state rested and Mr. Cary moved to dismiss on the ground of a variance between the proof and the indictment. The defense denied the charge. The judge believes that, in the event of conviction, it is certain of a new trial on this ground. His contention is that forgery is charged, but not shown, in that the checks were not signed by Bostrom.

VOTERS' LEAGUE OPPOSES NEW BILL AND CODE PROVIDE FOR COUNTY COMMISSION OF SEVEN.

The Voters' league has set its disapproval on the bill by Representative L. H. Johnson, increasing the number of county commissioners in Hennepin county to seven. The bill was drawn so as to divide the county into seven districts, because it will give them two members, one for the north and one for the south district.

The league has made a new discovery in the revised statutes. The code, on page 38, provides that each county shall have 75,000 population, which shall have seven. This is exactly what the Johnson bill does, except that it also includes Ramsey county.

The section in the new code refers to the old law, and also to chapter 17 of the laws of 1901. It assumes to be a condensation of the old law, and says nothing about new matter, but in condensing the 1901 law it has left out some very essential provisions. The 1901 measure was passed for the benefit of the State of Minnesota, and it is not to apply to Hennepin or Ramsey. It not only requires that the county should have 75,000 population, but also an area of 5,000 square miles.

LUMBERMEN KNOW HOW TO ENJOY IT

MAYOR JONES DELIGHTS THEM WITH A STORY.

They Came Here from All Parts of the Northwest for Their Annual Convention and Indicate Ability to Look After Their Own Entertainment—Business Gets Under Way.

About the most self-reliant, self-entertaining conventions enjoying the hospitality of Minneapolis are those of the Northwestern Lumbermen's association. The fifteenth annual meeting which opened in the courthouse this morning will prove no exception.

The lumbermen present are of various types. They range from the pioneer dealer who cut his own logs and sawed them, to the dealer who has never seen more than the milling. There is an air of good fellowship everywhere.

The first session was called to order at 11 o'clock. Mayor Jones in an address of welcome, proffered the freedom of the city and dilated upon the delights of Minneapolis as a winter resort. He put all in good humor by telling the story of the Minneapolisian who was wont to wear earmuffs all of the time.

After this story, coat collars were turned down and ear muffs were shoved deep into pockets, all over the hall. President John W. Barry replied in a happy and timely speech.

There are representatives present from various subsidiary organizations, among them being C. L. Cross of Chicago, the cypress manufacturers; A. L. Osborne, the Northwestern Hemlock Manufacturers' association, and R. H. Downing of the Northwestern Cedar Manufacturers' association. There are also representatives of the California sugar and white pine, redwood, western white pine and the sash and door associations.

Each division of the lumber industry has a display of its products, and the whole is one of the most elaborate exhibits ever shown at a convention of this kind. The varieties of wood and modes of treatment will be discussed at length by the delegates.

A Winona mill is buying in the Becker-Jones-Jewell company are operating under the drawback plan. The last mill of Duluth-Superior is in the field, La Crosse, and other river points are considering the matter and Chicago now comes into line.

WHOM HOSPITAL SHALL TAKE IN

MOOTED QUESTION NOW BEFORE BOARD OF C. & C.

Associated Charities and Humane Society Present Case of Man Who Was Denied Admittance Until Mayor Jones Ordered It—Others Will Be Presented—Issue Is Sharply Defined.

Before a special meeting of the board of charities and corrections this afternoon, the historic dispute between the city hospital and the various humane and charitable agencies was discussed. As the city hospital authorities view it, the institution is maintained for the needy citizens whom it can benefit, and is not a permanent infirmary for patients beyond hope of cure. Acting on this theory the physicians have found it frequently necessary to turn away needy cases for which admission was sought, in order to reserve the over-taxed facilities of the hospital for those, in their judgment, better entitled to consideration.

It has not been a question of denying treatment to suffering patients, so much as sending them to the other agencies maintained by city and county for their special benefit.

With the charitable agencies, it is sufficient to know that any sick person has been turned away. This was the situation which called for today's conference.

I have a strong feeling against stirring up any sort of a fight, said E. D. Solenberger, manager of the Associated Charities, this morning, but I think things have come to such a pass that it is necessary. Dozens attended the charities of neglecting the Laba family. As a matter of fact we had nurses visit them twice a day and employed a woman to take charge. There was no place where a nurse could sleep at night and the man was suffering from malaria which the attendant doctor had said might be fatal at any moment. We reported the case to the city hospital, but the authorities refused to take him, saying that it was an incurable case and that they had no room for such cases. I then made a statement to the mayor out of self-defense.

Why should the city hospital be so full that it cannot take a case when our doctors have pronounced it serious? Surely the visiting nurses and the forty-five physicians who co-operate with the charities save the city hospital innumerable cases which it would otherwise have to take. We never ask it to take an incurable; we realize that it is not the province of the hospital. But when it re-
