BILLIARDS

Unless Edward C. Rein, the Chicago board of trade expert, resumes play in the national amateur tournament in progress at the Chicago Athletic association, Charles F. Conklin, the other Chicago player, Edward W. Gardner of Passaic, N. J., and Wilson S. Sigourney of San Francisco, stand tied for the leadership for the championship, each with four games won and none lost.

Rein's indisposition, which can be attributed to no one but himself, has placed the tournament and the committee who govern it in a state of uncertainty from which neither will be relieved until the committee decides today in a special meeting whether Rein shall be expelled from further participation or whether he may make his appearance he shall be allowed to resume play and finish his schedule.

Notwithstanding the absence of Saturday afternoon, when Rein after a few innings in his game with Conklin withdrew at the request of the referee, the board of trade, upon entirely made no attempt to redeem himself to-night at the Wisconsin club, and after an interesting contest which was dotted with pretty billiards here and there, the New England champion won handsily by score of 300 to 200.

In the afternoon Edward Gardner trimmed Charles S. Norris in artistic fashion by a score of 300 to 145. The latter's considerable interest attached to it because of the fact that the players both represented New York cities.

Scores: Schmitt, 237; average, 6 17-44; high run, 25. Threshie, 200; average, 6 29-44; high run, 45.

The "noon game" which was an easy victory for Sigourney, Mr. Rein, whose illness has militated against his work all thru the tournament, was physically unfit to play. Nevertheless he decided to go on rather than break his schedule. Following are the scores by innings: Sigourney, 200; average, 7 24-44; high run, 30. Stark, 177; average, 4 23-38; high run, 25. Gardner, 300; average, 8 20-25; high run, 60. Norris, 145; average, 4 9-34; high run, 24.

BASEBALL

"Tip" O'Neill, president of the Western league, reached Chicago yesterday, and in the future will make his headquarters in that city. O'Neill, who is from a long western trip, and was too tired to talk much baseball. Upon his arrival he called on Joe Conklin, president of the Chicago Athletic association, and discussed in a general way his plans for the next two months.

"I have been to the coast," said Mr. O'Neill, "and broke up the long trip back to Chicago by stopping at Denver, Colorado Springs and Omaha, all Western league towns. I had no special business transactions in these cities, but merely wished to talk over the plans of the coming season with the magnates of those cities."

"Next week I expect to make arrangements here for the annual banquet given by the American association, for a joint suite of offices in the Fisher building. After getting settled, I shall go to New York to attend a meeting of the board of minor leagues, Feb. 15. In December the same number will be around the circuit, to see that all is in readiness for the coming season."

Dispatches from Kansas City yesterday told news not pleasing to the Chicago fans. According to the citizens Joe Tinker has so far refused to sign a contract with the club for next year, and the reason given for his failure to do so is a cut in salary.

The President Harv was unwell and did not visit the citizens building yesterday. His views on the quarrel with Tinker could not be ascertained. President John Powers of the newly organized Wisconsin State league signed the first umpire yesterday. Fin East of Chicago, Fred Eubs and William Evans of last year's skillers have signed contracts to pitch for teams in the Wisconsin league this season.

ATHLETICS

Officials of the new Illinois Athletic club have selected Thursday evening, March 16, as the date for the closing of entries for the Coliseum indoor athletic carnival at Chicago. The program is in the hands of the committee and will soon be issued.

The trophy for which the clubs played is a cup donated by the officers of the Milwaukee Curling club, and becomes the property of the club winning two of three matches in a season. Then the members of the winning club play down individually until the cup becomes the property of the curler coming out of the final with flying colors.

The Chicago curlers remained in Milwaukee to participate in the annual bonspiel given by the Milwaukee curlers, and they hope to retrieve in the bigger event for their defeat in the special match. The Home Telephone rink, skip, 17; J. P. Raffan, skip, 8; W. N. Anderson, skip, 25; S. Nelson, skip, 9; H. Wood, skip, 10; W. Currie, skip, 18; R. Fritchard, skip, 7; C. B. Roberts, skip, 20.

CURLING

Five rinks of curlers from the Chicago Curling club were overwhelmingly beaten yesterday afternoon at Milwaukee in the first match of a series between the two clubs playing for the Milwaukee cup. The final score was 104 to 83. Not one of the visiting skips could land his rinks, and it was apparent long before the final shot had been made that the Chicago men were completely outclassed.

The trophies of the local club points with great pride to the one-sided score, and takes much credit of the victory to himself. In that the rinks had been almost helpless upon the unusually keen ice which had been prepared for the occasion.

The defeat of the Chicago men may be due to the fact that the ice upon which the match was played is faster than they have been accustomed to, and that they were therefore unable to put up a stiffer opposition.

The trophy for which the clubs played is a cup donated by the officers of the Milwaukee Curling club, and becomes the property of the club winning two of three matches in a season.
