TOWN TALK

EVENTS OF TONIGHT

Metropolitan Theater—"A Country Mouse." Orpheum Theater—Modern vaudeville. Bijou Theater—"Lighthouse by the Sea." Unique Theater—Continuous vaudeville. Dewey Theater—The World Beat.

Dr. A. K. Skaro has moved to 237 First avenue S. over Dillin's drug store.

Frank G. O'Brien's "Pioneer Sketches" on sale at book stores. Nicely bound, finely illustrated, $1.50, by mail, $1.67.

Automobiles—We insure automobiles at lowest rate and best form. Telephone us before insuring. Minneapolis Insurance Agency, New York Life building.

The records of the day—deaths, births, marriages, hotel arrivals, railway time tables, real estate transfers, building permits and other information of interest will be found, together with want advertisements on page 12 of this issue.

Iver Owen waived examination in police court this morning on a charge of grand larceny. He is accused of entering the room of a friend at 1007 Washington avenue S. and stealing a watch valued at $25. He was arrested by Detectives Morrissy and Stavlo.

Free for the Asking—Journal vest-pocket "Nugget Books," containing nearly 300 bits of philosophy, humor and good sense worth reading. Call for one when you are at the Journal counter or write to the advertising manager and a copy will be mailed.

John Cosgrove, who was at the city hospital for several weeks, suffering from frozen feet, was discharged yesterday without friends or money. He was taken to the Salvation Army, where he was given a room, and the police are feeding him. He is a native of Montana.

S. R. Burgess and W. P. Dickinson, the curstome preachers, who left Mrs. M. J. Switzer, Burgess' mother-in-law, in the humane society office several weeks ago and refused to support her, have reported of their act and in a statement issued to the public have made an "open confession." They will care for the woman in the future.

Lieutenant Colonel William Gerlach, U. S. A., retired, will begin his annual inspection of the Minnesota National Guard muster and property on March 13. One company will be inspected each night, with the exception of Saturday and Sunday, until all of the state companies have been looked over and reported on to the war department at Washington.

ONE MINUTE TALKS

If you are interested in home-building, lot-buying or reading the real estate news in Minneapolis and we hope you are—look out for two solid pages of real estate news and bargains in Saturday's Journal. The plans will be shown for a $2,200 cottage that will appeal to home-builders and, altogether, for two solid pages of real estate news and bargains in Saturday's Journal.

Every successful Minneapolis real estate dealer advertises in The Journal, because he knows that the people who do not read The Journal are not the kind of people who are in a position to buy real estate or to make profitable leases. Advertisers are held in the field thoroughly when they advertise in this leading paper of Minneapolis, and readers get the fullest, most accurate news when they read this paper.

You will "know things" about real estate in Minneapolis if you read the ads in Saturday's Journal carefully—and you won't if you don't.

ARTISTS' NIGHT AT AUDITORIUM TONIGHT

Maconda, Soprano; DePachmann, Pianist; Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra.

JAPS TO ADVERTISE

Buy American Paper to Stick Up in the Dowager's Domain. The Hennepin Paper company at Little Falls shipped nearly 1,000 tons news print to Japan in February. It is understood that other orders have been placed with mills throughout the United States.

While Japan manufactures immense quantities of paper, the paper is not sufficient to permit the printing on both sides.

FRIDAY, LADIES' SOUVENIR NIGHT, DEWEY THEATER

NEW MEN WINNERS

Opening Contest of Butter Makers Bring Out Good Scores. New men came to the front in the first educational butter test conducted by the new state dairy and food commission.

Big Sale of Carriages. The big stock of carriages and harness recently damaged by fire in J. D. Vivian's repository at Hennepin and Eighth street, will be sold regardless of cost Saturday, at 804 Nicollet.

Savin Beat Oldfield. Dallas, Tex., March 2.—Ollie Savin, in E. H. Green's Pope-Toledo car, beat Barney Oldfield in his Green Dragon in the Texas handicap at Dallas, by three miles in the five-mile race, the former having a handicap of thirty-five seconds.

What I Can Do. I CAN remove warts or moles, pimples or blackheads and all facial blemishes by my home treatment, wrinkle, or skin disease removed. Write for free sample.

Read over your Journal want ad before you publish it. Think how it will sound to persons who know nothing of your business.

Does it tell them what they need to know? Does it state your proposition fully enough to interest them? If not, think it over again, and tell the whole story. Then you will get the answers you want.

WANT PAY FOR "SPECIAL" WORK

FREE SERVICE OF POLICE AND FIREMEN NOT FAVORED.

Feeling Among the Aldermen that Theaters Should Not Be Singled Out and Compelled to Pay While Other Requests for Watchmen and Firemen Are Granted Without Cost.

A resolution will probably be introduced at the next meeting of the council compelling all who ask for special details of firemen or policemen, to pay a reasonable amount for such service.

At the last meeting the fire committee recommended that all theaters be compelled to furnish their own fire watchmen. This resolution does not seem fair to many of the aldermen, because department stores and other concerns draw liberally upon the department in the holiday season and are not included in the present act.

When the question comes before the council again it will probably be so amended as to require everyone who wants this special detail to pay for a substitute to stay at the fire house while the regular official is on the special duty.

The amendment will also include the police department, whose courtesies have been abused. The department will pay for officers to stay in the stores in the holiday season, and athletic organizations will come under the same rule.

At the big games of football twenty special officers are detailed and the fire department has always been on hand with several pieces of apparatus. On these times the crowds at the theaters are larger and it often happens that the drain on the two departments works a serious detriment.

In regard to theaters and public meeting halls Alderman Satterlee thinks that the public feels safer when a fireman of experience is on duty. If the matter is left to the theaters the special watchman would probably have other duties which would hinder a careful inspection of the building and the performance. He is in favor of reducing the drain on the department, but does not think that partiality should be shown by singling out the theaters.

Members of the department are willing to do the theater work if a substitute is hired to take their places at the stations, and indications are that such a change will meet with general approval.

DOWIE DRUMMER DRUNK

Edward Bull, Who Looks Like Edward VII, Pays for a Spree.

With a marked English accent and a face that bears a striking resemblance to that of his king, Edward VII, Edward Bull, drummer of the Zion City association, appeared in police court this morning on a charge of drunkenness. He pleaded guilty and Judge Smith fined him $3 or three days in the workhouse. He paid the fine.

Bull came to America about eighteen months ago and joined the Zion City association. In the old country he had been a commercial traveler, and his lot with the association was to sell its manufactured articles.

Bull had been warned by Mr. Dowie and the elders not to indulge his appetite for liquor. And he obeyed the warning until he arrived in Minneapolis. His business was not going in the city and aitho he worked hard for a whole week he opened but one account. Discouraged by the failure, he sought relief in the dowie and found himself in police court, disgraced.

"I know I ought not to have taken the liquor," Bull explained to Judge Smith, "but I did not know it was so drunk. I used to be a drinking man but for eighteen months I have been a total abstainer. I am sorry that I got drunk, and I will not repeat the offense."

Artists' Night at Auditorium Tonight. DePachmann, Maconda; Symphony Orchestra. A wonderful combination! Good seats left.

NEW PAPER BOX FACTORY. G. A. Fisher Gets Permit to Erect a $200,000 Building.

G. A. Fisher of the Fisher Paper Box company took out a permit today for the erection of a new factory at 21 and 23 First street N. The special building will be brick and steel construction and the building will cost $200,000.

That lordly feeling one has when the porter carries your baggage upstairs is as nothing to the sensation of smoking a La Marley cigar. Any dealer in Minneapolis will cheerfully sell them to you, knowing how happy you'll be.

THREE GET A SHARE. Reward for Arrest of Murderer is Parceled Out.

Governor Johnson divided the reward of $300 for the arrest of Ole Hamberg, the murderer of Alfred Bloom, among three of the four claimants. Jesse Harry of Grand Rapids, who furnished the information leading to the arrest, got $150. Peter King of Hibbing got $100, and Sheriff Emil Nelson of Lake county, who directed the search for Hamberg, got $75 each.

WORKED IN FACE OF OBSTACLES

THE TRUE STORY OF THE AUDITORIUM CHAIRS.

"Minneapolis Hustle" Triumphed When It Seemed, for a Time, that the Audience Would be Forced to Stand Throughout the Musical Festival—Cost Was Monumental.

The story of the orchestra and parquetry chairs, used for the first time last night at the opening of the Auditorium, is interesting. Fate, elements and everything else seemed to militate against the arrival of the seats.

The delay has been mentioned, but the real story is just out. Three carloads of chairs, pressed and it cost a pretty sum to bring them from the factory, a thousand miles away. Assumption of authority by an agent was the first cause of the trouble. The nonarrival of the chairs for the seats was another factor in causing a tremendous amount of worry to W. L. Harris of the New England, and to the managers of the festival and of the Auditorium.

The seats were ordered in November by the New England Furniture & Carpet company, which installed them. They were intended for shipment Feb. 15 in expectation of the opening of the hall for the Christmas production of "The Messiah," by the Philharmonic club. Owing to delay in the completion of the building the time for delivery was postponed.

The agent of the manufacturer, however, on personal inspection in January, concluded that the building would not be ready March 1. Without knowledge of Mr. Harris and on his own account he postponed the shipment of the chairs. "Imagine the situation," said Mr. Harris this morning. "The chairs not only had the special push not reached the factory, but the frames themselves were not completed. Finally the factory promised to make shipment without fail Feb. 10, but no shipment materialized. Mr. Kellogg, member of the board of directors, was at one sent to the seat of war. To the consternation of those interested he reported that the push had not arrived. To make matters worse, snow blocked the freight. Finally the supreme exertion of the push reached the factory, which, by the way, is in an interior Michigan town.

One car of chairs was sent by freight in time to reach Minneapolis Feb. 23, five days before the opening. To get the other three cars thru by freight was an impossibility. Frank B. Daniels, superintendent of the American Express company, was called upon to and secured by wire from New York a car a trifle less than one-half the regular rate of $3.50 per hundred pounds.

To make a long story short three carloads of chairs were shipped by express with instructions to give them right of way, and the New England company yesterday gave the express company a check for $607.48 express charges on the three carloads of chairs.

ON THE WING

Roosevelt Club Had an Uneventful Trip to Chicago.

Chicago, March 2.—The Roosevelt club special arrived here at 4 a. m. from Minneapolis. Contrary to plans, a long stop was not made at St. Paul, and no demonstration was given. The first stop was made at Albert Lea, where a ten-minute layover for switching gave the boys an opportunity to clean the station restaurant out of home sandwiches and pie.

The special left for the First regiment band from Duluth, caught the special at Rock Island, and there three coaches and a diner were coupled to the rear of the Minneapolis train and pulled into Chicago, where they were cut off and will proceed the rest of the way alone. The weather is chilly and somewhat cloudy, but there is hope for a fair day at Washington. The special leaves the Grand Central station at 3 p. m. for Baltimore and Ohio for Washington. The boys are all in fine spirits. Train accommodations are excellent and there is ample room for all.

ARE GAMBLING DEVICES

MAYOR EXPLAINS HIS INTENTIONS REGARDING REMOVAL OF THE SLOT MACHINES.

Altho owners of slot machines have not been notified that they must remove the gambling devices from their places of business, they know that Mayor Jones means business, and some of them have already put the machines under cover.

Thru a misunderstanding of the mayor's intentions many of the cigar dealers thought the order applied to all machines, including the vending machines which give value received. Two representatives of the Retail Cigar Dealers' association called on the mayor today to get a clear statement. It was explained that any machine that was sure to give something for the money deposited will be allowed to stay. The order will only apply to those devices that are merely games of chance. Peanut and gum machines are not under the ban.

The representatives were satisfied, and the dealers will make no protest against the order.

When the order is formally given out the owners of machines will be given a few days to get rid of them, but after that all machines found will be destroyed.

Good Seats Left at Auditorium Tonight. Artists' night, DePachmann; Maconda; Symphony Orchestra. Don't fail to be there.

HAUG ACCUSED AGAIN

Swindler Up Now for Passing a Forged Check.

C. J. Haug, who has a local police record for swindling, waived examination in police court this morning on a charge of forgery. The complaint alleges that Haug forged and passed a check for $5.27 on the bank of Hill & Sons, writing the name of Charles Stenson to the document. Haug was arrested by Detectives Morrissy and Stavlo.

Friday, Ladies' Souvenir Night, Dewey Theater.
